

HOTEL MEN SKIP

Boarders at the Malcony, Atlantic City, were in a bad plight. Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 23.—With-out hint of their intention to their employes and tradesmen, Rittenhouse and Wright, two Philadelphians, who have been running the Malcony, a small hotel on Maryland avenue, be-tween Pacific avenue and the Board-walk, left town suddenly, leaving a score of angry creditors. According to Mrs. C. Johnson, owner of the property, the men owe her $275 rent for July. She pressed for pay-ment, and they, being unable to raise the coin, she says, promptly vanished. After a hurried investigation, Mrs. Johnson added that a large part of the tables, silver and other fittings of the hotel had been removed, though every-thing in the house, she said, was her property. The guests of the Malcony were placed in the most embarrassing pre-dicament by the departure of the pro-rietors, as only one of them managed to get any breakfast. For once assured that the "bones" had vanished, and that they were "out" two weeks' wages the "help" promptly struck. Though permitted by law to levy on the baggage of all the guests in the hotel for her rent money, Mrs. Johnson gave the terror-stricken guests time to remove their belongings.

BOILER BLOWS UP

Seriously Injures Four Persons and Started Fierce Fire. Scranton, Pa., Aug. 27.—The explo-sion of a boiler in Robins & Spencer's flour and feed mills here, resulted in the serious injury of four persons, and was responsible for a fire which de-stroyed the plant and that of Armour & Co., adjoining. The fire entailed an estimated loss of $80,000, partly cov-ered by insurance. Charles W. Robbins, one of the mill proprietors, was perhaps fatally in-jured in the explosion. He was in a rear room when the explosion occur-red, and was buried under a mass of debris. To firemen were compelled to chop their way to him with axes, and he was rescued with the fire rag-ing about him. Several of his ribs were fractured and he was cut about the face and head and is reported in a dangerous condition. Fred Stevens, a bookkeeper, was cut about the face and body, and Hilda Zeigler, aged 7 years, and Samuel Seimalla, a boy, were burned, bruised and cut.

EXPLOSION KILLS THREE

Bursting Boiler at Lumber Camp Spreads Death and Ruin. Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 27.—Three men are dead and a fourth is dying as the result of a boiler explosion at a lumber camp in a tract of timber on the Hayette farm, about eight miles north of Hagerstown. The dead: George W. Beard, Middleburg, Pa., literally blown to pieces. Samuel Shirley, Lancaster, Pa., bruised and scalded, died at the hos-pital in Hagerstown. Elmer Stevens, of Smithsburg, Md., left arm torn off, both legs broken and badly scalded, died at the hospital in Hagerstown. The injured: Edward Ridenour, of Cavetown, skull fractured and por-tions of body scalded; brought to the hospital in this city, where it was stated he could not live. It is thought the explosion was the result of low water in the boiler. Beard, who was the foreman in charge of the saw mill, was near the engine at the time and his body was hurled 400 feet. One of his legs was found 200 feet further away.

WILL KEEP ICE ALL SUMMER

Painted With Preparation From Paper Mill Waste, It Never Melts. Rhineclander, Wis., Aug. 22.—In a waste product of the mills, J. M. Dar-row, connected with the paper mills here, claims to have discovered a pre-paration which will preserve ice indef-initely. The compound, it is said, can be manufactured at a cost of 47 cents for 1000 gallons. Housekeepers with this preparation in hand can buy a cake of ice, coat it, and have no need to trouble the ice man again all summer.

Mother Watched Her Son Burn

Lacrosse, Wis., Aug. 24.—One life was lost and five persons had narrow escapes in the destruction by fire of the home of Mrs. Mary Kersters here. With great difficulty, Mrs. Kersters and four of her children were taken out of the burning structure, but her oldest boy, Fred, aged 11, could not be reached by the firemen, and, re-fusing to jump, was burned to death before the eyes of his mother and a large crowd of spectators.

Smoker May Cause Girl's Death

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Miss Laura M. Sheehy, of Pittsburg, was fatally burned at the Thurecht hotel, on the riverway. Miss Sheehy was eating luncheon in the summer gar-den of the hotel when her dress caught fire from a lighted match thrown to the floor by a careless smoker. Her dress was of flimsy ma-terial, and in an instant she was en-veloped in flames.

Drank Carbolic Acid For Medicine

York, Pa., Aug. 26.—William H. Barnard, a prosperous farmer and veteri-nary surgeon, of Pototsi, this county, died at his home as the result of drinking carbolic acid by mistake for medicine. A wife and four children survive.

Two Men Tread By Wolves

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 27.—Reuben Wilson and John Robinson, of Du-luth Heights, were tread by wolves and held captive for three hours on a lonely road near the city limits.

WHITE MAN LYNCHED

Nebraska Mob Took Murderer From Sheriff and Hanged Him. Omaha, Neb., Aug. 27.—Lord Hig-gins, who murdered W. L. Coplee and wife, near Rosalie, Neb., May 12, was lynched at Bancroft. Sheriff Young, of Thurston county, came to Omaha to get his prisoner, who had been in the Douglas county jail here since his capture, and took him to Bancroft on a train. Twenty men took Higgins from the sheriff, hauled him off in a dray and hanged him to a tree. When the sheriff left for Omaha on Sunday he was accosted by citizens at Bancroft, who asked him what he would do if they should attempt to lynch Higgins. "Shoot the first man who tries it," he said. "Well, we just wanted to know. Chances are you will have some shoot-ing to do." Higgins' crime was a wanton one. He had worked on the Coplee farm and had had some trivial dispute with Mr. Coplee. Anger over this is the only suggestion of a reason for the murder. He killed both in the barnyard with a gun. He was a young man, and after his arrest became radically religious, participating in every service held at the jail.

NEGRO SHOT POLICEMAN

Speedy Action Prevented a Lynching At South Bethlehem, Pa. Allentown, Pa., Aug. 27.—George Schuman, a member of the South Beth-lehem police force, was shot and killed by William Jones, a southern negro, on the tracks of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad. Three shots were fired at Schuman at close range. Two shots entered the right breast and the third penetrated the right shoulder. Despite the terrible wounds, Schuman walked to police headquarters, and, with his dying gasps, reported that he had been shot by a negro. He then became unconscious and died 10 min-utes later. Schuman fired two shots at his assailant. Two hours later a wounded negro was found in a lumber yard who answered the description of the man. As soon as the killing of Officer Schuman became known intense excite-ment prevailed, and the South Bethlehem police realized that speedy action would have to be taken to pre-vent a lynching. An automobile was secured and the negro was rushed to the Easton jail, where he is now con-fined. Chief Kelley had to draw his revolver on the mob that attacked the automobile.

WEALTH IN OLD BOOKS

Buyer at Vendue Uncovers Long-Con-cealed Bank Notes. Hammonton, N. J., Aug. 26.—Harry Woodley bought an old bookcase, filled with old books, at a sale on the Wil-liam Treast estate, on Pine road, for less than $2. He found snugly tucked away between the leaves of some of the books bank notes that have paid him handsomely for his investment. Be-sides a collection of confederate notes and old state bank notes of many years ago.

ELECTRIFIED HIS HORSE

Mail Carrier Fined For Using Battery In Place of Whip. Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 24.—Because he used an electric battery on his horse to make him go fast, Jacob Rapp was fined $1 and costs on complaint of the Humane society. Rapp is a rural mail carrier, and is fond of going at a good clip. A year ago Superintendent Clayton, of the Hu-mane society, warned him never to use a whip on his horse. Rapp then got a battery, attached it to his horse, and whenever he thought the steed needed a little ginger he turned on the bat-tery. That was why Rapp could cover his route faster than any one else in the service.

Boy Commits Suicide

Fairmont, W. Va., Aug. 26.—Charles, the 11-year-old son of Constable M. M. Lawson, committed suicide at his home, at Winfield, by shooting him-self. The boy bade his mother good-bye and walked away, but nothing was thought of it. A little later the report of a gun was heard near the house, and upon rushing out Mrs. Lawson found her son with his head almost blown off. No cause for the suicide is known.

Killed By Pitched Ball

New York, Aug. 26.—Arthur Clemen-s, of Brooklyn, was killed while play-ing base ball at Glen Cove, L. I. Clemens was at bat when a swift ball pitched by Pitcher McKenna struck him on the head. Clemens fell to the ground, unconscious and died a few minutes later. McKenna was arrested, but was released by the coroner.

Father and Son Drowned

Elkton, Md., Aug. 26.—Frank Churchill, of Germantown, Pa., and his 11-year-old son, Norman, were drowned in Back creek, Chesapeake City, while crabbing. The boy fell overboard and his father jumped in after him. Neither could swim. Mrs. Churchill and another son witnessed the drowning.

Strangled Herself With Clothes Belt

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 26.—Mrs. Louisa J. Norris, a private patient at the New Jersey state hospital, committed sui-cide by strangling herself in her room with a clothes belt. Her home was at Fair Haven, N. J.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

What's in McClure's?—One of the most strik-ing features of September McClure's is George Kennan's brilliant article on conditions in San Francisco. His story of how Schmitz and Ruef acquired an autocratic control of the city, of how they introduced corruption and graft into every department of municipal government, and of how three honest men led a fight for reform which overthrew one of the most scandalous rings of the country, is told in an unusually able and convincing manner. Professor Hugo Munsterberg contributes an extremely interest-ing article on the psychological value of testi-mony, and the need of expert psychological examination of witnesses. The third instalment of the Orchard story tells of the attempts to as-sassinate Governor Peabody, the killing of Detec-tive Gregory, and the blowing up of the Inde-pendence depot. George K. Turner supple-ments this remarkable human document with an article on "The Actors and Victims in the Trag-edies." The Christian Science history takes up the beginning of Mrs. Eddy's career in Boston, and the death of Ass. Gilbert Eddy, who, his wife declares, was done to death by mesmetism from "occasional poisoning, mentally administered." Carl Schurz writes with his usual distinc-tion of the Battle of Mission Ridge. Dr. Woods Hutchinson contributes a revolutionary article on diet reform, entitled "Poison Foods," show-ing why the attempts to eliminate animal food from our diet must inevitably fail. There is not a poor story in this number. "The Weaver's Son," by Percival Gibbon, is a tale of hot-blooded youth, combating the narrow but scrupulous traditions of a straight-laced Evangelical community. "The Bray of the M. F. H." is a delightful hunter's yarn, told with much spirit and humor. Myra Kelly contributes one of her best East-Side stories, and Mrs. Cut-ting writes one of the tragico-comedies of do-mestic life with exceptional delicacy and feeling. "That's Watchers," by George Allan England, is a brief realistic study of some of the big facts of life, told with great power. The art in the number includes some unusu-ally good drawings by Hatherell, Chackens, Alice Barber Stephens, and Birch.

CLAIM OF $123.46 FOR SALE! DO YOU WANT IT? This office offers to the highest bidder an un-paid balance against the estate of the late Gov-ernor D. H. HASTINGS, amounting to ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS and thirty three cents, less $12.87, for which judgment has been obtained. The claim is an honest and undisputed account for advertising, job work and subscription to this paper. There are no allegations that any of the items are over-charged, nor is there any claim that the claim is not ordered done, or not done. So that every charge in the entire account will be guaranteed correct. It is due, however, to those who may be in-cluded to become bidders, that they should know that while the business and correctness of this claim is admitted and the estate alleged to be worth any amount from a quarter to a half-million of dollars, yet the administrators—who are also his heirs and beneficiaries, have refused payment, simply because they could plead the limitation and thus avoid the payment of an honest debt. The above amount may not be worth much as a cash asset. It may be of some value, perchance, as a reminder that there are others than the ordi-nary "dead beat" and "debt jumpers," who seek the technicalities of the law to save the pay-ment of just obligations. No bond will be asked from bidders. Any "old thing," will be considered good when compared with a wealthy estate that won't pay a just debt. Address: WATCHMAN, Bellefonte, Pa. 52-29-1f
