C. Conner, will preach in the evening. The Sunday school at 9:30 and the Epworth League Rally Day service at 6:30 p. m.

HOUSER—MOERSCHBACHER.—A pretty but quiet wedding was celebrated at the parsonage of St. John's Catholic church, at 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening, when William A. Houser and Miss Lucy Moerschbacher were united in marriage. Rev. Father McArdle performed the ceremony and the attendants were Ralph Moerschbacher, a brother of the bride, and Miss Sarah Kelley.

The young couple endeavored to keep the fact of their intended marriage a secret and succeeded in doing so until within a few days previous, but the news leaked out and their many friends joined in giving them a royal send-off by festooning and tying cowbells to the cab in which they were driven to the parsonage and when they left on their trip to Milesburg to take the train for a brief honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls they created quite a furore. However, as soon as they got beyond the reach of their pleasure-loving friends they had the driver remove all tell-tale objects and they drove into Milesburg as sedate-looking as any man and wife could be.

The bride, who was handsomely gowned in a brown serge traveling suit, came to Bellefonte with her parents less than three years ago but in that time has made many friends and is entitled to a long life of happiness. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Amanda Houser. He is a moulder for J. H. Lingle and is a sober, industrious young man. It is their intention to go to housekeeping in the near future. THE WATCHMAN joins with their host of friends in tendering congratulations and best wishes.

BULLOCK—MUSSEY.—A very unpretentious but pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mussey, on east Lamb street, at 6:30 o'clock last evening, when their only daughter, Miss Ella Catharine Mussey became the bride of John M. Bullock. Owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's uncle the wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. Notwithstanding this fact, however, the interior of the Mussey residence was very prettily decorated with ferns and golden rods.

Rev. James B. Stein, of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony and the only attendant was Ella Mussey, the little niece of the bride, as flower girl, while Miss Mary Woods, of Pine Grove Mills, played the wedding march. Following the ceremony the bridal party and few guests present were served with a very tempting wedding dinner and at 8:16 Mr. and Mrs. Bullock left on the train for a wedding journey which will include a visit to several of the eastern cities as well as a trip to Canada. Upon their return to Bellefonte they will go to housekeeping in one of Dr. Hayes' new houses on Curtin street.

Both the bride and bridegroom are too well known in Bellefonte to need any eulogies from us. The former is an accomplished young woman and has for some time past been associated with her father in business; while the latter is the junior member of the firm of Montgomery & Co., clothiers.

LYON—SWEELY.—A wedding in which Bellefonters are interested was that last Thursday of Robert Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of this place, and Miss Edith Sweely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sweely, of Bellevue, near Pittsburg. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents at 10.30 o'clock in the morning and was witnessed by a large number of guests, among whom was Mrs. W. A. Lyon. After partaking of a delicious wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Lyon left on a wedding trip that was to have taken in a trip through the northwestern States, but they had gotten only as far as Detroit when Mr. Lyon got a telegram from his employers in Milwaukee instructing him to attend the laundrymen's convention at Niagara Falls and consequently they deferred their western trip. To the bride and bridegroom the WATCHMAN begs to tender its sincerest congratulations.

ACHENBACH—MORETT.—Roy Achenbach, of Mill Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Achenbach, of Look Haven, and Miss Sarah Morett, of the same place, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Morett, on Friday morning of last week. Rev. J. J. Kesh, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. The bride, who was attired in a wedding gown of cream colored silk, was attended by Miss Irene Achenbach as maid of honor and Hilda Achenbach as flower girl. Thomas Allen, of Mill Hall, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Achenbach are now away on a honeymoon trip which will last until September 5th and upon their return the parents will give a linen shower in honor of the young couple.

REIBER—VINCENT.—On Tuesday of last week Rev. Benjamin F. Reiber, pastor of the Centre Hall Lutheran church, and Miss Elizabeth Vincent, of Watsonstown, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lucinda Vincent. The ceremony took place at 11:30 o'clock and was performed by Rev. Henry C. Sperbeck. Rev. and Mrs. Reiber have returned from their wedding trip and have gone to housekeeping in Centre Hall.

DUNKLE—EDMISTON.—Lot R. Dunkle, of Spring Mills, but formerly of Lewistown, and Miss Julia A. Edmiston, of Petersburg, were married at the Grace Evangelical parsonage in Lewistown, on Wednesday, August 21st, Rev. W. F. Swengle performing the ceremony.

GARRICK—LINS.—A large number of guests were present at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Lins, at Tyrell, Ohio, on Thursday last, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Della Marie, to Clarence Arthur Garrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Garrick, of this place. The ceremony took place at high noon and was performed by Rev. J. W. Darby, of Beaver Falls, Pa. The bride was attended by Miss Endora Hazel, of New Brighton, Pa., as bridesmaid, while the best man was Francis Kebr, of Philadelphia. Miss Harriet Schwartz, of Philadelphia, played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Garrick are now on a wedding trip which will end next week when they will take up their residence in Philadelphia where Mr. Garrick is an instructor in the Blight school at 422 South street.

The many Bellefonte friends of Miss Miriam Wallack, of New York, who last summer was one of the leading contestants in a beauty contest at the Midway in the army, will be glad to learn that she recently won first prize in a Fluffy Ruffles beauty contest at Avon by the Sea. She is also in the lead for queen of the Mardi Gras carnival to be held there next week.

The postmaster general has issued a ruling to the effect that the rural mail carrier has the right of way on all roads, and that carriages and conveyances of all descriptions must make way for him on the public highways. The postmaster general has also ruled that mail matter intended for rural delivery must have an address other than simply the number of the box on the rural route. In other words, it must contain the name of addressee.

The Bellefonte friends of Harry Hazel, a former Bellefonte boy but now of Niagara Falls, will regret to learn that he is seriously ill with typhoid fever. Less than a year ago he underwent an operation for appendicitis and just upon the eve of his marriage to Miss Mable Otto the latter was also stricken with appendicitis and had to undergo an operation and now, in less than four months after their marriage, Harry is down with typhoid fever.

During the past week a new entrance has been made to the gallery in Garman's opera house. The new entrance is separate from the main entrance and is located just above the offices of J. M. Keiobline Esq. All persons purchasing tickets for the gallery will have to use the new entrance, which will also be used as a means of exit. This will do away with at least a portion of the crowd that always congests the main entrance at the end of every performance.

C. Y. Wagner took his family to State College last Sunday in his Stanley steamer. Driving along between Lemont and the College he met a man driving a team of mules who signaled to Curt to stop. While in the act of driving past the machine the mules began to kick and the Wagners were obliged to abandon the steamer to escape injury. Though the machine was somewhat damaged by the kicking mules it was not put out of commission and the Wagners were able to proceed on their way to the College.

Sunday morning a man and a woman arrived in Bellefonte from Tyrone and their looks told plainly that they were in destitute circumstances. The man represented himself to be Rev. George Messenger from somewhere in Tennessee, and the woman with him as his mother. They were penniless and while the man sat in the railroad depot the woman went around the town and begged something to eat as well as money to pay their way to Look Haven. They gave their destination as Williamsport, where the reverend expects to get a job at preaching.

Last week the WATCHMAN very briefly called the attention of borough council to the filthy condition of Spring creek from the falls below the spring to the bridge at the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania depot. Of course it is possibly because the council has not yet had an opportunity to take any action in the matter that nothing has been done, but it is to be hoped that the proper committee will be instructed at the council meeting next Monday evening to clean the refuse out of the creek. It is very unsightly in the stream and as great a menace to health as it is unsightly.

BURIED IN THE CATHOLIC CEMETERY.—The remains of the late James A. McClain Jr., arrived in Bellefonte last Friday evening and were taken to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Nora McClain, on north Allegheny street, where they lay until the funeral at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. From the McClain residence the funeral cortege went to the Catholic church where brief funeral services were held after which interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Fuller particulars of young McClain's sad death reveal the fact that it was a most unfortunate affair, as his end was one of self-destruction. He had been a soldier in the regular army for almost three years and as a corporal was stationed at Rutledge, Va., as a recruiting officer. When word of his death was received it was with great surprise as well as profound regret as no one heard of him being sick. Later news, however, told that his death was one of self-destruction and the agent used was carbolic acid. The only information in connection with the young man's rash act was contained in a note he left addressed to a young lieutenant, his closest friend in that city, in which he stated that he intended making away with himself.

Ever since the death of his mother the young man has been subject to spells of great despondency and it was more than likely that it was while laboring in one of these that he took his life. His army friends gave as the reason for him doing what he did as discouragement, which no doubt was caused more by brooding over the death of his mother than by anything else.

NO PARK AT THE SPRING.—A month ago a movement was started by a number of people in Bellefonte whereby it was hoped that ground enough could be secured in the vicinity of the big spring for the building of a small park. Though it would not have been very large, it would have been a pleasant place of recreation in the hot summer days and evenings, but the movement proved only a fleeting vision, for with the sale of the plant of the Ardell Lumber company and the organization of the Bellefonte Lumber company all hope of securing even an extra foot of ground in that locality has passed away, and the park project is at an end.

Of course to those who had expectations that a park would be built there this announcement may come as a cause of some disappointment, but it is a matter that cannot be helped. The Bellefonte Lumber company expects to do a much larger business than the old plant was turning out and to do this they will need all the ground they have there for lumber yard purposes. And now if Bellefonte wants a park other than the one between the court house and jail it will have to look in another direction than the big spring.

SHOT HIMSELF.—George Spangler, a well known resident of Blanchard, committed suicide on Sunday afternoon by blowing the top of his head off with a shot gun. Mr. Spangler was alone in the house at the time the deed was done so that the exact facts of the man's suicide will never be known, but from the position of the body and gun when found he evidently had placed the muzzle of the shot gun against the left side of his head then pulled the trigger. The entire top of his head was blown off, bones, flesh and blood being scattered all over the room. An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict of suicide without being able to ascertain any reason for the man's rash act.

Spangler was about forty-six years old and leaves a wife and six children. He was well known in the lower Bald Eagle valley and had obtained quite a reputation as a fisherman, hunter and trapper. The funeral was held on Tuesday.

NEXT WEEK'S STAND AT GARMAN'S.—After an absence of one year the well known and popular Herald Square Stock Co., will give Bellefonte another visit and it goes without saying that our amusement goers will have in store for them a week of rare performances. The company this season numbers twenty people and carries special scenic equipment for every play produced. The repertoire of plays consists of such high class productions as "The Little Princess," "Dora Thorne," "The Klansman," "On the Frontier," "Man to Man," "Wanted, a Husband," etc. The vaudeville introduced between the acts include such well known characters as Austen and Powell and Harry Rennels, with illustrated songs and moving pictures. The opening bill on Monday night will be the powerful melo drama, "The Little Princess." Prices 10, 20, and 30 cents.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Mr. and Mrs. Rose Levy, of Beaver street, gave a delightful little party on Tuesday evening in honor of their little son Leopold's fifth birthday. Their home was beautifully decorated and brightly illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Sixteen little lads and misses were present and one of the most enjoyable features was the refreshments, which were quite lavish. As a symbol of the occasion Mrs. Levy had prepared one big cake which was decorated with five candles emblematical of Master Levy's birthday. It is hardly necessary to say that the children all enjoyed themselves to the very limit.

Don't forget that the 1907-'08 theatrical season will open in Bellefonte next week when the Herald Square Stock company will be at Garman's for a full week's stand. As this company filled a very successful week's engagement here last season it is not unknown in Bellefonte and the management avers that it is stronger than ever this year. The usual popular prices will prevail.
