

Bellefonte, Pa., September 13, 1907.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub shed unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

county.

farmers.

fair.

coed.

BIGGER AWARDS FOR EXHIBITS.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Mrs. Charles Neely, of Pittsburg, underwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday morning.

-- The three-year-old child of Mrs. Myrtle Irvin, of Willowbank street, aimost strangled on a piece of meat on Tuesday evening.

iota from the greatness of the others. ----- An experienced cook with references can get a good position at the ladies goottage, State College. See advertisement in this issue.

---- Tuesday night and Wednesday's rains were hard enough to soak the ground pretty thoroughly as well as raise Spring creek about six inches

-Harry Otto has leased the assembly hall from the Logan fire company and expects in the near future to start a dancing class for men only.

----- Workmen this week built a small porch on the front of the Benner residence on High street; and the appearance is one of decided improvement.

-The venerable William Gillen suffered a stroke of paralysis on Sunday and now lies in a serious condition at his home on south Allegheny street.

-----Last Friday morning F. Walls Larimer severed his connection with the Nittany Iron company as superintendent for the ore mines at Gatesburg.

----- Twenty couple of young people enjoyed a dance in the hall in the public Friday afternoons. Though it is yet too building on Toesday evening, for which Smith's orchestra furnished the music.

-Miss Eva Crissman will open her dancing class in the hall in the Bush Ar- time and the purses both are inducements cade this evening. Smith's orchestra will to draw horse owners to the Centre county furnish the music for the opening night.

----- Quite a number of members of the Epworth League journeyed to the home of William Carson, east of town, last evening. and enjoyed a good, old-fashioned corn roast.

-----Some individual who has a tooth for chicken paid a visit to J. H. Decker's home on Bishop street, Saturday night, and stole four nice, fat spring chickens from the refrigerator.

---- The engagement of Miss Adeline F. Harris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Harris, to J. Mac Curtin, son of Hon. and Mrs. H. R. Curtin, of Curtins Works, has been announced

-On Sunday night Mrs. Lillian Wallace, who with her husband lately returned from doing missionary work in Mexico, lectured to an audience of five hundred people in Blanchard.

-A party of gentlemen

THE BIG CENTRE COUNTY FAIR .- In -Owing to the fact that both Osceola just three weeks from next Tuesday the big Centre county fair will open on the and Clearfield counties base ball league Centre County Agricultural Exhibiting after last Saturday's games, Philipsburg State College is to be vastly broadened this claims the pennant with a percentage of company's grounds north of town and if indications count for anything we can .638 as against .605 for Osceola promise you that this year's fair will be -The Bald Eagle Valley train east on the bonanza of any yet held in Centre Sunday morning struck William Schade, of Flemington, who was sitting on the rail-For some time past workmen have been road bridge at that place, and injured him engaged putting the buildings and grounds so badly that he died almost instantly. He in proper shape and when the time comes was eighty-four years old and a farmer by everything will be ready for the biggest occupation. gathering, the largest line of exhibits, the best horse races and the most varied pro--Mrs. W. H. Black, of Tyrone, who gram of amosements that will be seen at any county fair in Central Pennsylvania this season; and this without detracting one her speedy recovery to good health. Already many requests have been received from farmers and others throughout -Allison Rishell, of Mill Hall, atthe county for space in the exhibition tended the fifth annual reunion of the building and at the rate the applications Allison family at Monarch park, Oil City, are coming in that department will be on August 31st, and had the pleasure of crowded. The awards of prizes this year meeting his brother and sister, I. H. Allifor best exhibits will be from one-balf to son and Mrs. N. G. Cole, of Nebraska, and double as much as they have been in the Mrs. Ella Green, another sister, of West past. This increase runs through the en- Hickory. tire list of exhibits, from the best stock

-During the past week the Street have charge of investigations in plant disexhibit down to fruit and fancy work, so that it will be worth the farmer's while to ommittee have covered east Linn street eases bring in his products and his handiwork. with crushed limestone and they now have There also promises to be a big display R. B. Taylor's big steam roller at work in of poultry, fowls raised in Centre county, an endeavor to roll the street into a state elected an instructor in agronomy. He is road condition. When finished it will a graduate of Cornell University and dur which will be worth the price of admission to see. Quite a number of implement make that street in the best condition it ing the past summer has been making a manufacturers and dealers will have their has been for years.

wares on the ground, a department in itself which will be of unusual interest to the

Bald Eagle Valley railroad, was at Miles-HORSE RACING AND OTHER AMUSEMENTS. As is usually the case the racing will be train missed his footing and was thrown so the big feature Wednesday, Thursday and was broken. He was picked up and taken early to predict the number of horses that to his home at Mill Hall where a physician will be entered, there is every assurance gave his injuries the proper attention and that the string will be a good one. The he is now getting along all right.

-----Mrs. J. E. McGuinis, who prior to her marriage was Miss Adaline Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of As to other amusements, there will be this place, is still in the Ridgway hospital plenty of them, and of the kind that any with typhoid fever. She was on a fair way minister or church member in the county to recovery when she had a slight relapse need have no hesitation in taking his fambut is now getting better and her friends ily to see. No gambling devices of any hope that in about a week she will be able kind will be allowed on the grounds or to be removed from the hospital when she within the jurisdiction of the management; will be brought to her parents home here not even the innocent paddle wheel, so to recuperate. that no one need feel afraid of being bon-

----- Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Straw, of Al-

In conclusion we want to say that if you want to be with the majority you must get friends in Julian over Sunday. Monday in line now and have everything ready for afternoon they left to go to Philipsburg the big week. Your neighbors are all goand at the Tyrone station a lady sitting ing to be there and you don't want to stay next to Mrs. Straw noticed that the child at home alone. Remember the dates, Oc- appeared very pale and called the mother's ristown on Monday morning when Miss bly the last as well as one of the biggert she looked at the child and found that it the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Herr and Frank Sheen left for their homes in year was the seventh annual gathering of her knowing

NEW APPOINTMENTS AT STATE COLand Clearfield dropped out of the Centre LEGE .- There is now no doubt that the agricultural work at The Pennsylvania year. The staff of the school of agriculture has been entirely re-organized and since the beginning of the year there has been appointed five new heads of departments at the Experiment Station and ten assistants. The latest appointments made are as fol-

Hugh P. Baker, of the Iowa State College, has been elected professor of forestry. Prof. Baker is a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural College and the Yale Forestry several months ago came to the home of school. He comes to State College with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Pratt, at the advantage of baving had a wide prac-Unionville, on account of a very serious ill- tical experience throughout the United ness, has of late shown such marked im- States through his connection with the provement that her friends now hope for government forestry service, and should undoubtedly prove an able man in the new

> H. R. Fulton, plant pathologist of the give instruction in the college but will

Charles F. Shaw, field expert of the soil survey of Centre county.

-Last Saturday Harry Weaver, an Cauada, has been elected instructor in pouloperator in the Mill Hall station of the try husbandry and will be in immediate burg, and in attempting to jump a freight will begin December 3rd. Dr. Clark is a violently to the ground that his collar bone lectured extensively on poultry subjects. he has given special attention to the rearing of meat-producing animals and to the > W. R. White, a graduate of State in '07, courses. During the past summer Mr.

Prof. Thomas I. Mairs has been pro work.

H. P. Fishburn, a graduate of the University of Virginia, has been elected assistant chemist. He will be employed on toona, with their infant child were visiting the fertilizer control work under the direction of Dr. William Frear.

DUNKLE-HILTNER.-An unpretentious Academy though pretty wedding took place in Norattention to it. She stated that her baby Sara Edna Hiltner, of that city, became yesterday when they left for a two weeks sojourn had been sick but was better that morning, the bride of George Francis Dunkle, of at Atlantic City. family reunions beld in Centre county this was dead, having died in her arms without Mrs. E. L. Hiltner, and was performed by Lancaster on Saturday. Herbert Burk. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Dunkle left on an extended wedding trip through Nova Scotia day evening, called here by the serious illness and the Provinces. On their return they will take up their residence in Philipsburg, where the bridegroom holds the position of chief engineer on Hon. P. S. Womelsdorf's

News Purely Personal

-Mr. and Mrs. Upton H. Reamer are visiting triends in Williamsport. -Mrs. W. F. Reeder was a pleasant caller at the WATCHMAN office on Tuesday. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gehret, of Atlantic City, are visiting friends in Bellefonte

-Arthur Robb, of Pittsburg, visited his mother and family in this place the past week. -Miss Mary Thomas spent the past week as guest of the Misses Prince, at Crafton, Pa.

-Miss Ella McCafferty, of Lewistown, is in Bellefonte for an extended visit among friends. -Mrs. George Fisher and son, Harold, of Boals-burg, is visiting at her parental home in this -Mr. and Mrs. John Whippo, of Wilkinsburg, wook.

Howard street.

. N. Meserve.

town exposition

Friday.

Tioga and at Beaver Dam.

prother, James K. Barnhart.

make their home in the future.

-Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, of I ancaster, ome of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter.

school of forestry just established here. in Bellefonte.

Louisiana Experiment Station, has been elected assistant professor of botany. He is a graduate of the University of Mississippi and subsequently pursued post graduate work in botany at the University of Missouri and Harvard. He will not only

United States Bureau of Soils, has been

J. W. Clark, of Cainsville, Ontario, ten days sojourn at Atlantic City. charge of the twelve weeks course which have been guests the past week at the home poultryman of large experience, and has of Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds. W. H. Tomhave has been elected assistant in animal industry. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, where Saturday morning for his home in Lancaster.

handling of meat and meat products.

has been elected assistant in correspondence White has had charge of a George Junior Republic, at Redington, Pa.

moted to the head of the correspondence toona, spent Sunday at Waddle on a visit to his parents.

-Howard K. Curtin left Tuesday afternoon on business trip to Philadelphia -Ad Fauble spent Sunday in Harrisburg visiting his sister, Mrs. W. E. Seel. -Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Garman left on Tuesday

for a little trip to Columbus, Ohio, -Mrs. C. M. Bower left on Tuesday for an exended visit with friends in New York. -Miss Isabel Hill, of Norwich, Conn., was an arrival in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening.

-Dr. G. S. Frank, of Millheim, was in Bellefonte on Monday and a caller at the WATCHNAN office

-Miss Carrie Rankin, of Graysville, is a guest at the home of her brother, W. B. Rankin and family, on Curtin steet.

-Mrs. William Grauer, of Altoona, was in Bellefonte several days this week as the guest has been visiting friends in Bellefonte the past of her sisters, the Misses Newman.

-Mrs. William Gray and son Samuel returned -Mrs. Mary Conroy and her daughter, Miss on Tuesday from a sojourn at Atlantic City and Marie, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in a trip to the Jamestown exposition.

-After a pleasant visit at the home of her -Mr. and Mrs. Miles Osmer left last Friday for mother in this place Mrs. George B. Johnston Pittsburg after spending the summer with friends | left on Tuesday for her home in Beaver Falls.

-Miss Sarah McGinley, daughter of Mr. and -Wilbur F. Harris, of Mechanicsburg, was an Mrs. A. Linn McGinley, went to Baltimore la Friday for the dcuble purpose of having her over Sunday visitor at his mother's home on eyes treated and visiting friends at the sa -Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kling, of Batavia, N. Y.

were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. -After spending several days at the John S. Walker home in this place Miss Marie Reese, daughter of conductor Martin Reese, of Snow -Mrs. R. S. Brouse and daughter, Elizabeth, oe, left on Tuesday for Lock, Haven to enter left Monday afternoon for a trip to the Jamesthe Normal school

-Miss Irene Reese returned last Saturday -Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lonsberry returned on from a two weeks visit with friends in Punxsuaturday from a nelightful visit with friends in tawney and we have no doubt more than one young gallent of that town is mourning the -Harry Barnhart came over from Punxsuyoung lady's departure. awney on Saturday and spent Sunday with his

-Mrs. G. W. Atherton and daughter, Miss Helen, passed through Bellefonte on Tuesday -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckenroth left Bellefonte on their way from Cleveland, Ohio, to State Coln Monday for Sunbury, where they expect to lege, where Mrs. Atherton expects to spend the next two or three months. -Mrs. E. J. Wilkinson with her daughter, Miss

-Mrs. Louis E. Freidman, who spent the Minnie, and Miss Powell left on Monday for a past two months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holz, left on Tuesday for her home in New York city, She was accompanied by her uncle, Sigmund Joseph.

-Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Harris left yesterday for - John Sommerville came over from Wina ten day's trip to Old Point Comfort, While urue, last Saturday and spent Sunday at the away they expect to spend a day or so in Washington but the doctor says he wouldn't swim - Daniel Keller, who was a visitor at the Harry ross the bay-no, we meant walk across the Keller home tor a week or ten days, left last street, to see the Jamestown exposition.

-Mrs. Seymour and two daughters, Misses -Miss Lida Miller, daughter of Robert Miller, Ruth and Louise, Mrs. Francis Gargan and left on Monday for Philadelphia where she will daughters, Misses Mary and Marguerite, who re-enter the Friends select school for the coming have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Noonan at the Brant house, left on Wednesday for their homes in New York city. They were a -Misses Lillian Walker and Marlan Rumber ger left last Friday for Philadelphia where they panied by Miss Bessie McDermott, have both secured good positions as expert mil-

--Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Walker, of Spring Mills, were Bellefonte visitors yesterday and were somewhat -Mrs. Sarah Etters and Miss Mary Dale, of surprised to learn that we had more rain up here than they had down Pennsvalley ; but then they emont, attended the Christian Endeavor conhave so much of every other good thing down vention at Howard last week, returning home on there that they don't envy us the rain. Of course while here they paid their respects to the -D. Gray Hartsock, who holds a good position WATCHMAN office. with the Pennsylvania railroad company in Al-

--As a member of the notification committee Col. J. L. Spangler went to Bloomsburg on Wednesday to participate in the formal notification of -Miss Helen Overton arrived in Bellefonte Judge Harman of his nomination for the office of on Tuesday, ready to take up her duties as teach-State Treasurer. The event was made the occaer of the primary department at the Bellefonte sion of a junket of a party of prominent Democrats of the county under the care of Hon. John -Mr. and Mrs. James Harris left last Friday Noll. They were Abe Weber, of Howard; Wm. for Birmingham where they visited friends until Pealer, of Spring Mills; Wm. H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap; Cyrus Brungart, of Centre Hall; and Hon. John Noll, of this place. They left Wednesday morning and returned yesterday. Ciarence Herr, in this place, the venerable Amos

-Mr. and Mrs. J. Hudson Crissman, of Du-Bois, were in Bellefonte several days the past week as guests of Mr. Crissman's brother, themselves with a duck dinner at the Country club Wednesday evening in honor of Samuel Reynolds, of Lancaster, who is visiting his brother in town.

---- Mr. and Mrs. John Houser are the happy parents of another little girl baby, though Jack might have been a little bit prouder had it been a boy. However, he is not complaining but still dreaming of better luck in the future.

-While shifting cars at the Nittany furnace on Saturday afternoon several of them were shunted onto the main track and the brakes not being set they came town-wards at a speed that brought them as far as High street before they stopped.

and Mrs. P. H. Gerrity, has been elected organist in St. John's Catholic church and noon hour had arrived and everybody fell led the choir for the first time last Sunday. to with an earnestness which testified that Although only in her teens Miss Gerrity is not a man, woman or child in the crowd a proficient musician and performs with a bad left their appetites at home. marked degree of expression which is very pleasing to her hearers.

-The Bellefonte furnace, which was blown in last week after being relined and repaired throughout, is doing excellent rop ; Rev. S. S. Bergen, of Petersburg, and work. In a twenty-four hour run beginning at noon last Saturday one hundred and ten tons of pig metal were turned out. This is ate selection. Two games of base ball considered a good run, as the furnace bas not vet reached its best output.

-On Thursday of last week Mr. Stackpole and a party of friends came in from Clearfield in the former's twenty horse power Stanley steamer and on the trip encountered such miserable roads that they left the machine in John Porter Lyon's garage; and now any person wanting a big Stanley at a bargain might get one there.

---- In last week's WATCHMAN was a "lost" advertisement for a orescent diamond pin. The pin had been lost by Miss Myra Humes, one evening last week when she had been out on Linn street calling at As it was valued at sixteen hundred dollars the owner naturally was very much elated on Friday morning when she was notified that the pin had been found in the parlor at the Walker home, where she had evidently dropped it.

-One day last week Miss Mary Rapp, a broomstiek. a seamstress, went into a closet and was the rat's bite.

the Williams clan, in John Q. Miles' grove near Martha last Saturday. A conservative estimate of the number of people present was two thousand, and they representtober 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th.

ed every branch of the Williams family as well as hundreds of their friends. The Scotia band was present and gave numerous concerts during the day. At 10.30 o'clock in the morning a meeting was held which was presided over by A. S. Williams, of Port Matilda, the president of the association. Rev. Warren Dillen, of Indiana, invoked the divine blessing after which G. E. Ardery, of Martha, made the address of welcome which was responded to by Rev. A. C. Lathrop, of Clearfield. By the time the reverend con-were quite pertinent and interesting, the held and addresses made by Rev. George Downing, of Alexandria ; Rev. G. A. Williams, of Pine Grove Furnace ; Rev. Lath-Rev. Elmer Williams, of Chicago, while Miss Mamie Hoover gave a very appropriformed a part of the various amusements that helped to entertain the crowd.

In the afternoon another meeting wa

A BRUTAL FIGHT .- Three young men indulged in a fight on Saturday night which exceeded anything in the shape of brutality that has occurred in Bellefonte for some time. The exact cause of the disturbance has not been learned but, of would approve the application for onecourse, all three had been drinking, and it third the amount asked. is further alleged that two young women were implicated. It was just about 11:30 o'clock when Boyd Reed and Alvin Rhoads has completed arrangements for the annual met on the brick platform at the Pennsyl- | reunion of the survivors of the Forty-ninth which rapidly led to an exchange of will be held at Huntingdon, Friday and the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker. blows. A man by the name of Allen, a Saturday, October 18th and 19th. The bricklayer from Williamsport who is work- regiment was recruited throughout Centre, ing on the new hospital and who had been Blair, Huntingdon and Cambria counties with Reed, also took a hand in the fight and of a total of 1,596 men who served in with the result that Rhoads was not only the regiment during the war less than three knocked down but also beaten into insen- hundred now survive. The Forty-ninth sibility by Reed, who hammered him with was one of the most noted regiments of the Both Reed and Allen were arrested be- five hard fought battles, not counting somewhat startled to be confronted by a fore they could get away and looked up skirmishes, among them being such bloody big rat. She at once procured a broom while Rhoads was taken to the hospital. engagements as Antietam, Fredericksburg, and went after the rodent. Strikinglit just Au examination showed that his injuries Gettysburg, Cold Harber, Spottsylvania hard enough to rouse its fighting blood and were not as serious as at first supposed and and Petersburg. Of the captains that servyet not hard enough to cripple it the rat after remaining there a few days to allow ed in the regiment during the war only rau up the broomstick and before Miss his cuts and bruises time to heal he was three survive. They are Capt. J. D. Camp-Rapp realized what it was about it had discharged this week. He refused to make bell, formerly of this county but now of bitten her on the hand. Since that a sore any charge against his assailants and they Philadelphia; Capt. D. H. Sheeny, of West has broken out on her arm near the shoulder were discharged from the lockup Monday Chester, and Capt. James A. Quigley, of and one on her face and it is feared that a morning, Allen agreeing to pay Rhoads' Blanchard. An effort will be made to have had case of blood poison may result from doctor bill and hospital expenses as well as all three present at the forthcoming refor the time he lost from his work. nnion.

-While it will not be exactly a Sunday school pionic the management of the big Centre county fair have decided to make it a strictly moral gathering in every way this year, so that no gambling or gambling devices of any kind will be allowed surveying corps. on the grounds. The innocent paddle wheel which has heretofore held sway when every turn or two.

fonte and Milesburg is being completed as entirely completed. The work, however, s being interfered with to a considerable extent by the big amount of travel over the the top covering of ground limestone into a compact and rock-like mass. However, contractor Taylor is getting along very work completed on time.

-----Quite a number of applications were recently filed with the county commissioners for the building of state roads in number of townships in the county, all of which have been approved and forwarded the exception of the application for nine This the commissioners believed too much to grant at one time, though they informed the township authorities that they Gleasonton fire brick company.

-----Col. Robert Westbrook, of Altoona vania railroad station and a quarrel ensued regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, which rebellion, having participated in twenty-

SWOPE-BREON.-A quiet marriage in everything else was abolished will have to Lock Haven on Sunday evening was that go this year, and the people of Centre coun- of Elmer F. Swope, of that city, and Miss ty can attend with the knowledge that Nettie F. Breon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. they will not run up against a sharper at Elias Breon, of Rebersburg, this county. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's parents, at 9:15 o'clock, by ---- The new state road between Belle- Rev. Samuel H. Stein. Only a few friends fast as possible. The grading has all been Mr. and Mrs. Swope are now away on a done and the road for a portion of the way wedding trip to Niagara Falls, after which they will make their home in Lock Haven.

MILLER-EMENHIZER. - The home of road, which renders it very difficult to roll Mr.and Mrs. George Emenhizer, of Romola, was the scene of a pretty wedding at noon on Wednesday when their daughter, Miss Sarah May, was united in marriage to satisfactorily and contemplates having the Ammon A. Miller, of Look Haven. Kev. H. J. Dudley performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Miller expect to make their future home at Garrett, Ind.

MOLTZ-ERTEL. - William Moltz, of Lock Haven, and Miss Jennie P. Ertel, of to the state highway commissioner with Howard, were married in Lockport on Sunday evening, Rev. W. H. Laye performing miles of road in Snow Shoe township. the ceremony. Mr. Moltz is foreman of the Good Will hose company in Lock Haven and has accepted a position with the

-Mr. and Mrs. Enos Schaner, of Pittsburg, are visiting Mrs. Schaner's parents, Mr., and Mrs. Frank Wallace, at Milesburg.

-James Chambers, of DuBois, has been in Bellefonte this week trying to get a line on the string of horses that will be at the Centre county fair

-Mrs. Morris Furey with her daughter, Mrs. John Larimer and child left on Tuesday morning for quite an extended stay in Philadelphia and at Atlantic City.

-Miss Grace Marvin, of New York city, returned to Bellefonte on Wednesday to resume her place at the head of the millin ry department in Joseph Bros. store.

-Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garbrick were arrivals way back from their wedding trip to their future home in Philadelphia,

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes left yesterday afternoon for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where the former has secured a good position and when they will make their future home.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and child who hav een in Bellefonte the past week or two visiting Mrs. Alexander's father, Rev. James P. Hughes, left yesterday morning for their home in New York city.

-Merchant I. G. Burkett, of Stormstown, transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday but went out and he had all the business even to the his time was not so much taken up that he did Associated Press reports at night to handle himnot have a handshake and word of greeting for self. Now, however, he has a full complement every friend he met.

of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte on Monof Mrs. William Dawson.

-Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gray left on Monday for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will join a touring party for a trip to Seattle, Wash., and other points on the Pacific coast.

-Will H. Garman left on Monday for Philadelphia where he has accepted a position as manager of the gents furnishing department in the store of J. N. Burson & Co.

-LeRoy Fox, of Lock Haven, who with his father has the contract for painting the new agricultural building at State College, spent Monday with friends in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, of east Lamb street, and Miss Fannie Hutchinson, of east Howard street, left on Wednesday for a ten days visit with friends in Niagara Falls.

-Mr and Mrs. Joe Harris with two friends came in from Pitttsburg last Friday in the formers thirty horse power Mitchell and spent the most of the week visiting friends in this

-Rev. J. Allison Platts, Gen. and Mrs. James A. Beaver and Mrs. M. H. Wilson spent several days this week in Birmingham attending an evangelistic conference of the Huntingdon Presbytery.

-Mrs. Edwin J. Quigley and child, of Pitts burg, who have been spending the summer in Lock Haven, spent several days the past week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Quigley and family in this place.

-Rufus Wood and son William, of Sparrow' Point, Md., spent Saturday and Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes at the Belle fonte Academy; the object of their visit being ; personal inspection of the school on the hill, which the son contemplates entering this fall.

-Miss Frances Elmore left last Friday for Edgewood Park, near Pittsburg, where on Monday she began her duties as a teacher in the public schools at that place. Miss Elmore taught a number of terms in the Bellefonte schools and as an instructor ranks among the best in her class

-Rev. Elmer Williams, of Chicago, was in Bell-fonte shaking hanks with friends on Mon day. He came east to attend the Williams reun ion on Saturday and though he now fills the pul pit of a very prominent church in the Windy city he has not forgotten the triends he made while pastor of the M. E. church at Pleasant Gap.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth and Charles E. Jr., of Philadelphia, are spending th former's vacation with friends in this place and on Monday they with Mrs. F. W. Crider we down to Eagleville to the farm and incidental tried their hands at fishing for bass. Of cours they have not yet reported what luck they had and we have not heard of any unusual amount being shipped to Philadelphia, but it is quit in Bellefonte on Monday evening, being on their likely that Charlie had a few experiences that he will be able to use when he goes back to the Quaker city as similes in weaving some of his political tales for the Philadelphia Press.

> -John Wilson, who left Bellefonte six months ago to accept the position of manager of the Western Union telegraph office in Altoona, spent Monday night in Bellefonte, looking better than he has since he recovered from the typhoid fever two years ago. Of course as manager of the office John did not join the operators when they went on a strike a month or so ago but he had his hands full at that time, as all his operators of operators and is taking things a little easier.

Homer Crissman and family. They last week decided they were entitled to a ten days vacation so determined that there was no better place to spend it than in Centre county, hence their trip here. And while they were here Mr. Crissman decided that he would like to keep better informed as to what was going on in his home county so bright and early Monday morning he came in and added his name to the list of subscribers to the WATCHMAN.

-H. Walton Mitchell, of Pittsburg; H. V. White, of Bloomsburg; W. F. Hill, of Chamber burg, and Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard, were in Bellefonte last Saturday and with Judge Ellis L. Orvis and Gen. James A. Beaver comprised a quorum of the board of trustees of The ennsylvania State College who, with vice president Judson P. Welsh held a meeting in Gen. Beaver's office which lasted from eight o'clock the morning until two in the afternoon. While there was considerable routine business to transact there was nothing in the way of news matter of interest to the general public.

---- The brickwork of the new hospital has been completed and the building will be pushed as fast as possible toward an early completion.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechier & Co. Potatoes, new, per bushel. Eggs, per dozen Sides.. Hams. fallow.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER. The following are the quotations up to siz 'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

Rye, per bushel shelled, per bushe Corn, ears, per bushel..... Oats old and new, per bushel. Barley, per bushel.... Ground Plaster, per bushel..... Uoverseed, per bushel...... 8 50 to 9

$7 00 to $8 rimothy eed per bushe $2.00 to $2.25

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

| H No 0 |    | | 98669856 |
|----------------|--------------------------------|------------|-------------|
| NO. 2 . | | | 94/4.94% |
| Corn -Yellow | | | 7534@76 |
| " Mixed | new | | |
| flata | 10 W |  | 73%@74 |
| Oatennet | | | 56@56% |
| Flour- whiter | . Per Br'l | | 3.30@3.50 |
| -Penna. | Roller | | 3,70(43,90 |
| " -Favorite | Brands | | 5.60@5.85 |
| Rye Flour Peri | Br'l | **** ***** | |
| Ralad have Ob | DI Immenter |  | 4.50@4.65 |
| Baled hay-Che | | | 10.00@19.00 |
| | | "1 | 14.00@16.50 |
| Straw | | | 8.50@12.00 |
| | | | |

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the yoar; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

SPACE OCCUPIED 3m 6m 1v

| | | 1013133000 | |
|------------------------------|------|------------|-------|
| One inch (12 lines this type | $ 5 | 8.8 | $ 10 |
| Two inches | 1 | 10 | 16 |
| Three inches | 10 | 15 | 25 |
| Quarter Column (5 inches) | 12 | 20 | 85 |
| Half Column (10 inches) | 20 | 35 | 50 |
| One Column (20 inches) | 35 | 55 | 10 |