Bellefonte, Pa., October 4, 1907. CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub shed unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

he writer.

--- The shirt factory will resume operation next Monday

-It is now lawful to shoot squirrel and pheasants and hunters are out in force.

- Mr. and Mrs. John Cherry are rejoicing over the arrival of a nice little daughter, their first-born.

-Mrs. Mary Ann Miller, a sister of A. V. Miller, died at her home at Pleasant Gap yesterday morning.

-You should see the Fair grounds. Naturally the most beautiful of any in the State they look prettier than ever this

-Don't fail to look for Brown M. Me-Farlane's hand-made hammocks, which will be on exhibition at the fair. Price

-Charles R. Kurtz has finally gotten his big Stanley steamer in good repair and -- The first frost of the season in B:llefonte was on Tuesday morning, but it was too light to do any damage to crops and garden stuff. -The Evangelical church which served such excellent dinners at the fair last year, will again have charge of the eating house this year. -A pair of steel-rimmed eye glasse were picked up in front of the WATCHMAN office last week and are now here awaiting a call of the owner. -- At the rink last Saturday evening

Dr. Tryon got a rain coat that was too small for him, some other individual carrying off the doctor's by mistake.

-Special services will be held in the Preshyterian church every evening next week. Rev. J. Allison Platts will be assisted by Rev. M. L. Mudge, of Lewistown.

-This evening at half past seven, Rev. A. M. Schmidt will tell of his travels through Holland and Belgium; baving wisited Amsterdam, The. Hague, Antwerp and Brussels

-After being off duty for six months on account of ill health, U. H. Reamer terday morning.

--There will be a new moon next that is a sign of clear weather. Let us all hope so, at any rate, on account of next week being fair week.

-The friends of Miss Mary Kelley, who will become the bride of Christ Beezer in the near future, have planned to give her a nice little party this evening, to be followed with a kitchen shower.

-The Howard Creamery store on east Migh street was dismantled on Tuesday and now is a thing of the past. J. Harris Hoy, who owned the store, sold as much of the contents as he could to various grocers the stock as well as furnishings were bauled up to Rockview.

- If you are coming to the fair next and you will foot and feel a good deal better that if y'on are standing around shivering in a white dress or summer suit.

--- The Bellefonte Lodge, Benevolent 15th. A team from the Lock Haven lodge will be here to assist the old members put the new ones through the various stages of initiation; and it is quite likely that the bumps will be impartially distributed among the fifty new members.

--- Last Thursday county commission over the Beech Creek at Hubbards. Several bridge when they were inspected by the regularly appointed viewers, have been remedied and the commissioners decided to tractors and pay for same.

The stock exhibit at the fair next not contest for the premiums.

FIFTY YEARS MARRIED .- Hon. S. R. will join in congratulating him on his pres- Bellefonte and Mill Hall. ent good health and youthful appearance, even if he and his estimable wife did celebrate the fiftleth anniversary of their wedding on Sunday. And of course they made somewhat of an event of it. All their children, three sons and three daughters. with their families, gathered at the parental home on Saturday and participated in a sumptuous six o'clock dinner. Sunday morning Hon. and Mrs. S. R. Peale, their sons and daughters and grandchildren all attended services at the Episcopal church. Sunday afternoon at four o'clock an informal reception was held when a large number of their neighbors and friends called to tender their congratulations. Senator Peale was born in Northumberland county but at an early age located in Lock Haven where he studied law and was admitted to the Clinton conn ty bar. He soon became one of the leading attorneys not only at that bar but in nent as he was at that time and is now ical pot and in 1877 he was urged by his versity of Illinois, at Chicago. took his first drive in it on Wednesday friends to accept the nomination for State Senator in this district, which he did, and was elected by a good majority, serving

In addition to devoting himself to the practice of law Senator Peale has gone into varied business interests, chief among which is a coal operator, so that he has smassed quite a fortune and his home in Lock Haven is always one of the most hospitable for all his friends. Senator and Mrs. Peale's children with their families who were at home for the golden wedding celebration are Mr. and Mrs. Rembrandt Peale and four sons, Mr. and Mrs. John Peale, son and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peale and son, all of New York ; Rhoads, who are relatives of the deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Towne and son Richard, of Mt. Holyoke, Mass., and Misses Martha and Elizabeth Peale, of Lock Haven.

VETERAN REUNION .- The thirtieth an-Volunteer Cavalry association will be held October 22ad and 23rd. Headquarters for of others too, so you should not miss see- and Mrs. F. W. Crider, was twenty-four the regiment will be established at the Garman house when the officers of the organization can be found a day preceding the opening of the reunion.

The program arranged provides for an excursion trip from Bellefonte to State went back to his old position as conduc- College on Tuesday, the first day of the tor on the Lewisburg passenger train yes- gathering, when a fare of fifty cents for the round trip will be conceded by the Belle--Harry Barnhart has resigned his fonte Central railroad company. The position as bookkeeper in R. B. Taylor's business day of the reunion will be on coal office and gone to Altoona where he Wednesday when a meeting will be held has secured employment in the Pennsyl- in the rooms of Gregg Post, No. 95. In the evening a camp fire will be held in the Baptist church is a Methodist Episcopal coming. It is hardly necessary to say Calmont & Co., will leave on Monday for a two court house where addresses will be made University with grounds and buildings that the evening proved a most enjoyable weeks vacation which she will spend on a trip by ex judge John G. Love, Gen. James A. Beaver and Hon. William C. Heinle, of Bellefonte. General Greeno, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who was a major in the regiment during the war, will also be here, as will richly endowed institution of learning un-R. H. McGhee, of Look Haven, president derthe auspices of the Methodist church. given on all railroads.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE. -Samuel P. Lang--From the flittings this week it look- don, formerly of Philipsburg, and who was ed very much like the first of April instead promoter of the Altoona and Philipsburg of the first of October. L. C. Gettig and railroad, is again in trouble. Last Thursfamily moved from the VanTries house on day he was arrested in New York on a Spring street to the Thomas house on charge of obtaining two diamond rings Thomas street. John Houser moved from valued at $1,500 by making false represen-Quaker hill to the Haag house on Penn tations. He secured the rings from J. Wiss & Son, jewelers, of Newark, N. J., leaving as security for the payment thereof two one thousand dollar first mortgage bonds of the New York and Pittsburg Air sylvania State College Experiment Station Line Railroad company. When arrested has been developing rapidly since its be-Langdon had on his person fifty-one bonds and others around town and the balance of road passes and pawn tickets.

FREE METHODISTS IN CONFERENCE. -The annual conference of the Oil City week you are coming to have a good time. district of the Free Methodist church was You can't have it if you are chilled to the held in the Presbyterian church at Unionmarrow. If it is cool put or, pleuty of good | ville last week, convening on Wednesday warm clothes. It wor,'t cost you anything afternoon and closing on Saturday evening. Bishop R. R. Jones presided while about forty ministers and as many lay delegates | Charles Eckenroth. After several days were present. Considerable routine busi- stay in Bellefonte he went away but re- killed. Laird had been accompanied to ness was transacted during the week. In the list of appointments Lillian Webster Protective Order of Elks, No. 1094, will be and June Horning were placed in Belle- diagnosed the case as one of diphtheria and fonte as supplies. F. W. Parks was sent | consequently the Eckenroth home was at tracks to train No. 34 when he was run to Philipsburg, and E. L. Kiffer to Flem-

PAID MORTGAGE AND INTEREST .- The congregation of the Bellefonte Methodist church bave good reason to congratulate not only themselves but each other because pleted and drivers of horses as well as autoers John L. Dunlap and John G. Bailey, of the burden of debt which for some time has mobiles have an opportunity to see the dif-Centre county, and Alexander Flanigan, of hung like a pall over their church has final- ference between such a highway and the Clinton county, inspected the new bridge ly been lifted. Some time ago the con- average country road. Though it took gregation paid off a note for $235, and on him a little longer, perhaps, than six weeks minor defects which were found on the Tuesday of this week a mortgage for $2,000 to do the work R. B. Taylor, the contake the bridge off the hands of the con- amply provided for, so that the church trouble for years to come. property can be considered free of debt.

BELLEFONTE CENTRAL R. R. Co .- On fonte boy who learned his trade in the week will be the best ever. One depart- and after October 1st, 1907, pending the de- WATCHMAN office, has been promoted to ment that has never been very well filled cision of the Supreme court on the 2 cent | the superintendency of the Clark Printing will be fine this time. The Pennsylvania rate law, the Bellefonte Central R. R. Co. company, Lock Haven, George A. Forbes, State College Experiment Station has de | will conform to the new law, but will re- the old superintendent, having resigned to cided to make a display of its blooded pigs duce the number of stations, discontinuing accept a position with the Pennsylvania comprising a half dozen or more breeds. the following stopping places: Morris, Bri- Fire Brick company. Mr. Bartley went to This will be particularly interesting be- arly, Krumrine, Bloomsdorf. The sale of Lock Haven a number of years ago as a cause really full blooded pigs are not often round trip tickets between Bellefonte and job printer for the Clark company and was seen in Centre county. In order that State College and between Pine Grove Mills steadily advanced to the position of foreothers may not be discouraged to bring in and Bellefonte, which is at a less rate than man, which he has held for some time, their pigs for exhibit the College pigs will 2 cents per mile, will be continued at the until now he has been placed at the head former rate.

-Until the courts fully decide the Peale, of Lock Haven, is almost as well two cent rate law to be constitutional the known by many people of Bellefonte as he Central Railroad of Pennsylvania will Pennsylvania State College, so far as sports is in his resident town and all his friends charge but a two cent flat rate between

> --- No gambling devices of any sort at the fair next week. Plenty of good little shows, fast racing, and splendid music though. You ought to have a good time. If you don't its your own fault covering from two fractured ribs received

-Saturday night brought us another hard rain and if Jupiter Pluvius keeps it up much longer he surely will have the clouds all squeezed dry by next week ; and then all that will be needed will be sunshine and warmth to make an ideal fair

---John L. Given's book, "Making of a Central Pennsylvania. In politics he is a written account of newspaper organization Democrat and naturally a man as promi- and methods, has been adopted as a text book for the course in journalism at Buckcould not keep his hands out of the polit- nell University, Lewisburg, and the Uni-

> -While doing experimental work one day last week Juan Diez, a Porto Rican student in the mechanical engineering class at The Pennsylvania State College, bad two fingers taken off in a planing machine. The maimed hand was dressed by Dr. Robinson and the plucky student is now at work again in his class.

--- Miss Anna T. Jeanes, of Philadelphia, died at the Friends bome in Germ antown on September 24th, leaving an estate valued at from three to five million dollars. Among her bequests were five thousand dollars each to Mary Rhoads, Rebecca Naomi Rhoads and Joseph James

-The full blooded poll-angus and guernsey cattle that will be exhibited by The Pennsylvania State College Experiment Station Farms at the fair next week nual reunion of the Seventh Pennsylvania will prove an attraction to lovers of fine cows because they are among the best proin Bellefonte on Tuesday and Wednesday, curable anywhere. There will be plenty

> -- The Hon. Richard Farrell, of Tyrone, bas issued invitations to an old-fash ioned apple butter bilin party he expects to have at the Country club at an early date. We are not surprised that the Hon. Richard takes to "bilin" parties as all those who have ever tried to sleep within a mile of him can attest that he is a past master at bilio mush.

-The Northwestern University which we last week unthinkingly credited to the young men, calmly awaiting his home $3.626.209, with an endownment of $5,066,247, with professors and teachers numbering 331, and with students num-

-When the Geneva College foot ball team arrived in Bellefoute from State College on Monday morning they took chances of missing their train west on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad in order to have a look at Bellefonte's big spring; and from the way they sprinted out Water street and back gave one an idea as to what they could do with the pigskin under their arm and a clear field to their opponent's goal line.

----The poultry department of the Pennginning three years ago and the display not be made for premiums so that the local growers who carried away so much, money last year will be right in for more this turned on Sunday morning quite sick. A physician was summoned who at once being notified they had the car in which Kerlin rode thoroughly disinfected.

-The new state road between Bellefonte and Milesburg is now about comwith $96.50 interest was paid and the only tractor, made a good job of it and Spring obligation now standing against the church and Boggs townships have one piece of is an account of $1,500, and it has been road, at least, that won't give them much

> -Herbert M. Bartley, an old Belleof the establishment.

CLASS RUSH AT STATE COLLEGE. -Saturday last was quite a busy day at The were concerned, as in addition to the State-Geneva foot ball game the annual class rush between the Sophomores and Freshmen took place, in which the latter were doubly victorious. The Freshmen, who number over four hundred, lined up in front of the main building and started their march down across the campus to the main -Harry B. Goheen, of Tyrone, is at street in the borough. Notwithstanding his old home at Pennsylvania Furnace, re- the fact that they were fiercely opposed by the Sophs the class of '11 marched unlast week by falling across the edge of a dauntedly on until they reached the street. chair while attempting to raise a window Then, just to show the upper classmen that they had the right kind of college pluck and spirit they marched around and up the main driveway past the engineering building to in front of the main building and with a yell of defiance again marched down the campos to the street. Hats were smashed, clothing torn and quite a number of students knocked out but none were seriously injured. Anent the introductory days of the Newspaper," an interesting and carefully Freshmen the man who writes the weird tales published every Sunday on the third page of the Philadelphia North American has the following to say in Monday's paper, though of course the WATCHMAN don't endorse it as correct .

STATE COLLEGE, PA., Sept. 29th. With the beginning of the school year at the agricultural college the raw members of the Freshman class are being put through a course of sprouts—in other words, they are being trimmed according to the latest rules of pruning.

Hazing at the college varies somewhat from the prevailing customs at the larger universities. Peanut rolling, abbreviated dress and other nonsensical stunts are frowned upon as savoring of mollycoddleism.

It was only the other day that a bunch of Freshmen was captured and taken to a large field, in which a few bucking and wild colts were grazing. The boys were tied to the backs of the avimals, and, to encourage the colts to do their best, firecrackers were ex Not since the strike of the students two years ago was there so much excitement, and the spectators all agreed that the sumts per-formed by the victims put to shame any formed by the victims pure formed by the victims pure.

Wild West performance ever given.

It is said that the next batch of Freshmen through a threshing machine, thrilling will be run through a threshing machine, and the affair will wind up with a thrilling chariot race, in which harrows and stor sleds will be used. In this way the wheat will be separated from the chaff, and the unfit students will be pulverized.

IN HONOR OF HIS TWENTY-FOURTH .-Last Friday Hugh N. Crider, son of Mr. years of age and in celebration of the event his parents gave a small dinner party for him that evening. It was in the nature of a surprise party and it fulfilled its mission as Hugh had no inkling of what was going on until he went home and found 'Squire H. Laird Curtin waiting on him who, in all seriousness, asked him to go up to his arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening and room as he had something to tell him. Of will spend the winter at the Bush house course Hugh willingly complied and when he opened the door was amazed and dumbfounded to see it filled with a party of elaborate dinner served. Hugh received a number of presents from his young friends. among which were two "automobiles" though of course, he has not yet tried them out.

REV. RICHARDSON RESIGNS. - Rev. Edwin G. Richardson, who so ably filled the pastorate of St. John's Episcopal church in this place for a year or more, on Monday handed in his resignation to the vestry, giving as his reason that his health will not permit him keeping in active work. His resignation will take effect November first and as soon after as possible Rev. Richardson will go abroad and as now planned will spend the next two years in traveling in Egypt and Africa.

While here Rev. Richardson made many friends not alone within his parish but throughout Bellefonte and his work for the church and his people has been of the most that Prof. Mairs will make at the fair next unselfish and untiring. And the one fact week will be something that poultry grow- to be regretted is that the reverend geners should see. The College exhibit will tleman's health is such as to render it imperative on him to take this action.

STRUCK BY TRAIN .- William Laird, of Port Matiida, was visiting friends in Altoons on Sunday and that evening when -- Several weeks ago Herbert Kerlin he attempted to board his train to come came to Bellefonte to visit his mother, Mrs. home he was struck by the engine hauling train No. 421, and narrowly escaped being the station by relatives and was talking with them at the fence. When good-byes had been said be attempted to cross the once quarantined. The railroad authorities down by No. 421. The engine struck him and knocked him to one side of the track. He was picked up and hurried to the hospital in the belief that he was fatally hurt but an examination in that institution showed that no bones were broken and the only injuries he sustained were contusions of the head and body. He was admitted for treatment.

> P. O. S. OF A. ORGANIZED. - A Bellefonte camp Patriotic Order Sons of America was organized in Bellefonte last Friday evening with a good list of members and the following officers: Past president, Calder L. Ray; president, E. T. Roan; vice president, H. J. Hartrauft ; master of forms, J. Ellis Stine ; recording secretary, with him Howard and Miss Mary Struble, of Zi-Homer McKinley; financial secretary, J. C. Shutt; conductor, C. H. Horner; inspector, Nevan L. Corman ; outside guard, C. H. Bush; right sentinel, Jacob Levy; left sentinel, John S. Stover ; assistant recording secretary, Bruce Meese; chaplain, J. S. Ammerman; trustees, Joseph Pressler (18 months) ; Earl Tibbens (6 months): Cal H. Lambert (3 months).

-A sweet little baby girl arrived the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gherrity.

News Purely Personal

-James Haupt, of Beaver Falls, is home for a

-Mrs. George Lose went to Harrisburg o esday for a stay of two weeks.

-Mrs. Thomazine Lane returned on Monday vening from a trip to Philadelphia.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grove, of Benner town thip, are visiting friends in Pittsburg

-Mrs. Frank P. Blair returned home on Saturday evening from a trip to Philadelphi -M iss Grace Mitchell left last Thursday for St.

Davids, where she will teach this winter -Mrs. C. U. Hoffer, of Philipsburg, fis visiting per father, Mr. C. T. Gerberich, in this place -Wm. F. Hill, of Chambersburg, Master of the State Grange, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tues

-Mr. and Mrs. James Harris returned home Friday evening from a two weeks sojourn at Atlantic City

-After visiting friends in this place for a week Miss Helen Otto left on Sunday for her home in Niagara Falls. -Dr. George D. Green, of Lock Haven, spent a day or two this week visiting his parents in Buffalo Run valley. -J. W. Rightnonr, of Williamsburg, spent part of Saturday in Bellefonte on his way home from a trip to Karthans. -Miss Ursula Bayard returned last Thursday evening from a lengthy visit with friends in Canon and Lima, Ohio, -Dr. Samuel Woods, of Warren, passed through Bellefonte last Thursday on his way to visit his mother at Roalshara -Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Wagner returned on Monday evening from a trip to Lancaster and other eastern Pennsylvania towns. -Mrs. J. L. Montgomery is entertaining her sister, Miss Lillian Muffly, a nurse in the Presbyterian hospital. Philadelphia -Andrew Leib, of Bethlehem, was a Bellefonte isitor on Saturday, called here to look after his usiness interests in this place. -Mrs. George M. Boal and Mrs. D. M. Boozer, of Centre Hall, spent last Friday as guests at the S. A. McQuistion home in this place

-Harris B. Heylmun, cashier of the Farmers National bank, Indiana, Pa., has been spending the week at his parents home in this place. -Wilbur Twitmire left Bellefonte Wednesday for Philadelphia, where he will resume his studies at the University for his last year in dentist-

-Mrs. G. H. Etter, of Philadelphia, who will be membered as Mrs. Barry when she lived in Bellefonte, has been visiting friends in this place the past two weeks.

-Rev. Edwin G. Richardson, rector of John's Episcopal church, returned last Friday after a two months absence and on Sunday occupied his pulpit as usual. -Mrs. J. B. Mayes, of Lemont, left last Thurs.

day on a trip to Kansas City, Mo. She was accompanied as far as the Smoky city by her son. -Miss Lida Morris, of Columbus, S. C., is now

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King Morris -Mrs. Nora Sheldon, with her grandson, Gregg Sheldon, and Miss Julia Curtin, of Philadelphia,

-William Barnes, who now holds a good position with the Westinghouse people in Pittsburg, is in Bellefonte on a two weeks vacation, th

-Mrs. Georgiana Dale, of Lemont, spent Sunlay and the forepart of the week in Bellefonte, the suest of Mrs. W. T. Speer. Mrs. Dale came

-Homer Barnes, John Anderson, Noonan and J. Mitch Cunningham are the four delegates who are representing Beilefonte's fire ompanies at the state convention in Pittsburg down Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ellen

-Mrs. John Smith, of Philipsburg, and Miss Cora Pflegor, of Nippeno valley, sister and niece of Mrs. Peter Smith, left for their homes the beginning of the week after a ten days visit} in -Mrs. A. G. Clutter and child left last week weeks as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sabra Garman. Mrs. Clutter will be better remembered as Miss Berenice Campbell.

-Mrs. Kate Furey Hunter, whol came from Pittsburg with the body of her mother, Saturday of last week, will remain in Bellefonte or some time, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. T. Speer, her daughter Katherine, who was with her, returned home, Monday afternoon,

-Rev. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, was brief caller at the WATCHMAN office on Monday. He preached in the Presbyterian church at Bed ford on Sunday and was then on his way to attend the fall meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery which was held at Spruce Creek on Tuesday and Wednesday. -Mrs. Ross A. Hickok and three children, wh have been at the Hastings home during the sum mer, left on Tuesday for their home in Harrisburg. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hastings, who saw them safely located in Harrisburg then went on to Atlantic City to join Col. and Mrs. J L. Spangler for an indefinite stay. -Mrs. Matschke, of Brooklyn, has been i

Centre county the past few weeks visiting friends Prior to her marriage she was a Centre county girl, her maiden name being Griffith, while he mother who prior to her marriage was a McCart. ney and a prominent belle in her day and well known by the older families of the town.

Meyer, of Centre Hall, with Samuel Durst, of Potter township, were jurors at court this week and consequently callers at the WATCHMAN office. Both are very congenial gentlemen and are quite chummy with each other, if one is a staunch Democrat and the other a stalwart Republican. -W. L. Gerrett and Mrs. Gerrett, of Atlantic City, spent a part of the week with their friends in Bellefonte, leaving here they went to Beaverdale where they expect to be for some time with Mrs. Gerretts sister. Frank Gerrett, Mr. Gerrett's father who has been in Bellefonte for four weeks, will leave for his home in Atlantic City to-day. -Jacob Struble, of Swissvale, who spent several weeks in Centre county visiting his parents and friends at Zion, left for his home in his Pierce Great Arrow car on Saturday morning. He took on; Miss Halfpenny, of Lewisburg, and Mrs. A. M. Schmidt, of Beliefonte. They left here early in the morning and expected to make the entire trip that day.

-J. Kyle McFarlane went to Lemont on Tuesday for a visit to his sister, Mrs. Jack Mitchell. He was accompanied there by his son. Brown, who returned on Wednesday. Although Mr. Mc-Farlane's general health is good he has lost practically all use of his limbs, so that he cannot even stand up, and his only way of getting around is by means of a rolling chair. With the exception of several weeks ago when Mr. Budinger took him to Lemont in his automobile Tuesday was the first time he had been down town in a year.

-Dr. E. S. Dorworth was a very agreeable

-Ed Williams of Tyrone, spent several days of the week in Bellefonte attending court. -Mrs. William Irvin, of Lewisburg, is in Belle-nte the guest of Miss Mary Hunter Linn. -Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway went to Lock Haven, Wednesday for a short visit with Miss Simpson -Gregg Curtin has been in Bellefonte during

-Miss Bottorf, a nurse in the Beliefonte hos pital, left last Saturday to spend a two weeks vation at her home at Scotie

the week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Curtin.

-Mrs. LeRoy Fox and baby, of Lock Haven were in Bellefonte for a few days visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haupt, -Brady Kirk and his son of Burr Oak, Kansas, who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk for a short time, left for Kylertown Tues-

-After a delightful visit at her home in this place Miss Celia Haupt will leave for Philadelphia to day, where she has a good position as a sear

-J. Mac Heinle, of Rochester, was an arrival in Bellefonte on Tuesday and it is stated conte plates remaining in Bellefonte and making his home with his father.

-- Mrs. Sam Eldredge of Cape May with her youngest child cam to Bellefonte Tuesday evening expecting to spend two weeks with her father, Dr. William Laurie.

-Mrs. S. A. Bell, will leave Bellefonte the middle of the coming week for Babylon, L. I., where she will be the guest of her nephew J. M. Ward for an indefinite length of time. -Mrs. George Valentine and her daughter Miss

Sarah of Baltimore, left Bellefonte Thursday morning after a visit with Mrs. Valentine's sister, Mrs. M. B. J. Valentine. -Alfred Beezer, of Spring township came in on Monday and realizing that printers must eat as well as everybody else, dropped enough in our till to provide a Sunday dinner, at least. -Mrs. John P. Harris left on Wednesday morning for Beaver Falls to see Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston, after which she will visit friends at Beaver and Butler before returning home. -Mrs. H. S. Ray and two children, Sara and Phil, accompanied Mr. F. D. Ray Sr., to New York city last Saturday morning where they will spend several weeks with the Rays at the hotel New Albert -Miss Mary Brown left Thursday for New York city, where she will spend the winter studying music under Milenberg. Mrs. John Powers, who will also be in New York with Mrs.

M. J. Brown for the winter, went with Miss -While in town last Saturday Capt. W. C. Patterson, the man who has gained a state reputation for raising big crops in his position as superintendent of the Experiment farm at State College, took time to drop into the WATCHMAN office and place us under obligations to him for another year. -Edward T. Gregory, agent for the National Biscuit company has entirely recovered from an attack of appendicitis for which he underwent an operation, in the Lock Haven hospital, about in Tyrone with her father, Mr. A. G. Morris, and three months ago and made his first appearance expects shortly to go to Pittsburg on a visit to in Bellefonte yesterday, looking better than he has looked for a year.

-After several days visit with friends in Centre county Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerstetter lett for their home in Altoona on Monday. For three years Mr. Kerstetter has been firing on the Pennsylvania railroad but he has decided to give it up and in the spring will go to farming on his father's farm near Rockview.

-After a two weeks visit with his sister Mrs. H. C. Valentine and his brother W. T. Burnside, Edgar Burnside left Friday for his home in Der ver. A family party to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Valentine's twenty-third wedding anniversary, and in honor of Edgar was given by Mrs. Valentine Monday evening of this week.

-Boyd Magee and his friend, Harold Englekraut, of Philadelphia, have been spending the past two weeks in Lewistown, Centre Hall, and Bellefonte, and the mountains lying between, as the greater part of their time was spent in driving over the country. They left Bellefonte for Lewis. town Tuesday, expecting to go on to Philadelphia Monday of next week. -Among Watchman callers during the past week were Miss Oilie Mitchell and Mrs. Elmer E. Davis, and as the fair sex never come around for nothing it naturally follows that we were the better off in more ways than one because of their visit. Miss Mitchell, of course, made herself secure with the WATCHMAN for another year while for their home in Pittsburg after spending three Mrs. Davis ordered the paper sent to her sister, Miss Ida Orris, as a birthday reminder.

--- The semi-annual district convention of the Y. M. C. A. will convene at Berwick today and continue until Sunday evening. The district includes associations in Centre, Clinton, Lycoming, Union and Northumberland counties.

Bellefonte Produce Market

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.
Potatoes, new, per bushel
Onions, new, per oushel	90
Onions
Eggs, Der dozen	18
	11
Country Shoulders	10
Sides	10
Hams	15
Tallow, per pound
Butter, per pound	3
Dateer, per pound	18
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,
The following are the quotations up to	218
o clock, Indisday evening, when our paper of	000
	002
Wheat	-00
Rye, per bushel	90
Corn, shelled, per bushel	70
Corn corn per dushel	70
Corn, ears, per bushel	70
Unts old and new, per bushel.	50
	-
Ground Plaster, per ton e so to a	80
Buckwheat, per bushel 5 50 to 9	50
291	DU

Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of evening.	markets	on V	Vednesd

Wheat—Red	Br'l	0. 1	98@90 72½@ 68½@ 55@ 3.40@3. 3.90@4
Straw		_	9.50@12
	the of the later with	-

The Democratic Watchman

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa', at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

3m 6m 1y $ 5 | $ 8 | $ 10 7 | 10 | 16 10 | 15 | 25 12 | 20 | 35 20 | 35 | 50 35 | 55 | 10 inch (12 lines this type