-Miss Betty Heinle will shortly tablish herself in a room in the Reynolds town. building for the purpose of teaching enunciation and physical culture, expression the above we bespeak for her in advance great success in her work.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Price Jackson, of State College, have issued cards for a farewell to Prof. and Mrs. Louis E. Reber to be held at their home tomorrow afternoon from four to six o'clock. Prof. and Mrs. Reber expect to leave in a few days for their new home in Missouri.

-Edward K Rhoads, the coal and grain man, last week purchased a team of mated black horses which for size and beauty excell many western horses brought to Bellefonte. And quite naturally be is not only proud of his possession but driver Harvey Lutz is as tickled as a bey with a new football or bag of marbles.

-A friend of the WATCHMAN writes us the information that "Miss Nora Klinger, the unforturate girl who met death at the bands of some unknown party, in Altoons on October 13th, was buried from the home of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Meyers, of Jersey Shore, on Wednesday, October 18th. The young woman was 25 years of 8ge. H

-This has been rather a strenuous week of it. Beginning with the "King Bee" Monday night, then that big Democratic meeting on Wednesday night, with Hadley's moving pictures and Rev. Stein's illustrated description of a trip across the continent last night, we'll end it all tonight by going to see "Uncle Tom's

-Miss Olive Hinman, of New York oity, has been in Bellefonte this week instructing both the teachers and pupils in the public schools in drawing. This is a subject that has never been taught to any S. Rumbarger, of Warriorsmark, assistant great extent but it is really one of so much importance that it will very likely be made a regular study in the Bellefonte schools in the future.

-Roll Call and Harvest Home services will be held in the Baptist church at Milesburg on Sanday, the former in the morning and the latter in the evening. Rev. A. C. Lathrop, a former pastor but now of Clearfield, will be back and preach the two sermons. The congregation is not only urged to attend in full but the public at large is invited.

---Charles Donachy, of this place, has been appointed manager of the Pennsylvania telephone company's exchange in Look Haven and will go there and assume charge next Monday. He has been conneoted with the Bellefonte exchange in varions capacities for four or five years and has a thorough knowledge of the telephone business, and will no doubt make a success in his new position.

BOROUGH COUNCIL PASSES PRUNER! members were present at Mouday night's completed and that work has been resumed committee turned in $2.40 market fees. The Fire and Police committee reported that recently a man made his escape from the new steel cell in the lockup, but the authorities got even with him for daring to do such a thing by re-arresting him and having him heavily fined by the burgess.

Complaint was made about the condition of the pavement in front of S. D. Ray's property on south Water street and the clerk was instructed to notify him to have same repaired. Residents of Petriken ball complained about members of the Bellefonte club burning rubbish in the rear of their house on Spring street, on the grounds that it was daugerous. The Nuisauce committee was instructed to investion to such an extent as to be deemed a nuisance to notify the club to abate it.

Probably the most interesting work of council was its action on the Pruner orphanage question. It will be recalled that the last ordinance passed by council in favor of accepting the bequest of the late Col. E. J. Pruner for the establishing of an orphanage, was vetoed by burgess John I. Curtin. The question was called up on Monday evening by Dr. Kirk making a motion that the ordinance be passed over the burgess' veto. The motion was seconded by Mr. Shuey and in putting it before council chairman Harry Keller stated that be did not believe the action legal. The will this year be held the week beginning ordinance was passed, however, by avote of November 18th. The place of meeting will

And now we trust that the action of conneil in passing the Pruner orphanage property in Centre Hall, located next the over the Mayor's veto will prove a source of much gratification to the gentlemen who were so deeply interested in bringing about that result. There can be no doubt of it, since some of them went so far as to write most scurrilous letters to prominent people of the town who held opposite views on the question and then were too marks that have since revealed their idenments convict them of being for it because keeping the fifty dollars in cash. of purely personal reasons. It is rumored that two others were very assidnous in securing the orphanage because they have caudidates for matron whom they hope to land in that position. If this is true there Coburn ; Thursday evening, October 31st, the mechanical engineering department, is this extenuating circumstance to excuse men who would lend themselves to a camgave a reception last night in honor of he paign of anonymous letters under the guise ers will be present at all these meetings of pre-eminent purity and in the face of a

The WATCHMAN never was opposed to the orphanage for any other reason than it and voice. As she is very proficient in all did not believe it needful to any condition in Bellefonte. On the other hand it does believe that the money which could have been secured would have done a greater good through the hospital. But since we are to have the orphanage we trust that a field will open up in which it may be able to prove itself a great agency for good. The following bills were approved and

WILL MEET IN BELLEFONTE NEXT YEAR .- At the twenty-sixth annual reunion of the Forty-ninth regiment Penna. Vols., held in Huntingdon last Saturday, it was decided to hold the 1908 reunion in Bellefonte the third Saturday in October, or thereabouts. Seventy-five survivors of the regiment were present and the piogram included a parade in which two hundred members of the P. O. S. of A. joined. Two meetings were held in the daytime at which a number of speeches were made. In the evening there was a bauquet which was followed by a camp fire. Capt. James A. Quigley, of Blanchard, one of the surviving captains of the regiment, was elected president of the association for the ensuing year ; Capt. J. Miles Green, of Miles burg, one of the vice presidents; R. S. Westbrook, of Altoona, secretary, and O. secretary.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN .- Stetson's "Unele Tom's Cabin " company, with two Topsies, two Marks and everything up-todate, without destroying the venerable ear-marks of this wonderfully attractive Gramatization of Harriet Beecher Stowe's great work, will be presented this evening at Garman's. Grandfathers who saw this play years ago will be among the auditors, in company with their grandchildren, perhaps, and there will be no difference in the beartiness of their applause than in years gone by. The same old procession, Topsies, Marks, Uncle Tom, Little Eva, will be there, but it is a procession that will march right into the heart despite its tramp of half a century. The Stetson company, its scenery, specialties and acpessories will be found to be the best and the largest numerically in America. -Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

-Lieut. Harry Rassler, who has been in ORPHANAGE OVER BURGESS VETO. - Eight | Bellefonte the past two or three months as one of the leaders of the local corps of the meeting of borough council. The Street Salvation Army, left on Monday for Bradcommittee reported the Bishop street sewer ford. Lieut. Rassler was a modest and reserved young man but thoroughly sinon the Howard street sewer. The Market oere in his work here and will be much missed by the home brauch.

There is probably not a better farmer in Rald Eagle valley than Jerome R Confer, on Marsh Creek. This year he has a field of corn which averages four teen feet eight inches in height, with the ears nine feet from the ground. Of course it all had to be out in order to bask it, as no ordinary man could reach the ears. Mr. Confer also has an unusually abundant crop of apples.

-Frank D. Houck, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Houek, who will be well remembered by Bellefonters, on Thursday of last week was elected president of the Independent Telephone Association of Pennsylvania at its convention gate the case and if the practice is carried in Harrisburg. Frank has been engaged in Lytle. the telephone business a number of years and has come to be a man of considerable standing in the association.

-Tomorrow State College will play the Lebanon Valley college eleven on Beaver field and von want to go up and see the game. Though the contest will likely be somewhat one-sided yet State is deserving of all the encouragement possible after their glorious victory of 8 to 6 over Cornell last Saturday. Then again this will be their last practice game before they meet their old time rivals, Dickinson, at Williamsport, next Saturday.

- The venerable William T. Fowler, who succeeded D. B. Kunes as postmaster 6 to 2, and thus the question is disposed at Blanchard, has been compelled to resign on account of his health not permitting him the continual close confinement. Milton Kunes, a son of William Kunes, has been appointed as Fowler's successor. He has just purchased the Berryhill building in the central part of the town, will fit it up and expects to move the postoffice there about November first.

-J. F. Gearbart, of Philipsburg, was in Lancaster last week attending the Odd cowardly to sign their own names, but Fellows encampment and either had his not clever enough to escape leaving ear pocket picked or else lost his pocketbook containing fifty dollars in cash, a check for tity. -About a year ago Droze Fink, the oung son of Mr. and Mrs. G G. Fink, of Martha, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment for necrosis of the bone, which had already affected one leg from the ankle to the knee. Though it was first believed an amputation would be necessary such did not prove to be the case, as through skillful surgical treatment a new growth of bone was brought about and Saturday the young man was able to go home, practically cured.

-On Thursday evening of last week the Epworth League of the Methodist church held a donasion party; not for the benefit of the pastor of the church, but for the poor and needy in and around Bellefonte. This may sound strange to the most of Bellefonters, who seem to infer that we are living in a land of plenty, but there are a few deserving persons in the town who are actually in need of the necessities of life, and it is to such persons the proceeds of the donation party will go. -Following close on the heels of obbler John Ellmore's ash burning sensation a company has now been organized in Altoona for the purpose of manufacturing patent briquettes, which is stated as a new, cheap and smokeless fuel. In the company are J C. Ewing, J. M. Goheen, S. P. Eby and C. O Templeton, of Tyrone, but all well known in Centre county. And as these gentlemen rarely enter into any scheme that is not a safe proposition and a money-maker as well, it looks as if they must have a good thing. Pressed briquettes, by the way, are manufactured out of the screenings of soft coal, oulm from the authracite mines and lignite, the latter being secured from the vast beds of that mineral in Oregon. The company gave a recent test in Altoona which was said to be very satisfactory.

-Though the Bellefonte Academy foot ball team may not be winning games by very hig scores, they are making a record they can be proud of. Their schedule this year puts them up against a class of teams much stronger than they have been playing in past seasons and if they fail to win their game, it is lost by a very parrow margin. Last Saturday the strong Dickinson Seminary eleven came to Bellefonte and played the Academy on the glass works meadow grounds and although the visitors outweighed the Bellefonters the latter played them to a standstill, the score being 6 to 6. Today the Academy team will leave for Saltsburg where they will play Kiskiminetas tomorrow and on Monday will play the Indiana Normal school team at Indiana. May they come home with two scalps hauging at their

REUNION OF FIRST DEFENDERS .- The annual reunion of the Seventh Pennsylvania infantry, better known as the "First Defenders," was held at Boalsburg last Saturday and never was there a more succes-ful gathering of this small band of veterans than on that occasion. The day was an ideal one and the big-hearted, openhanded hospitality of the people of Boalsburg could not help but make the gathering anything than a most pleasant one. The entertainment committee were lavish in their preparations for the entertainment of the soldiers. All told there were some sixty comrades present but of this number only thirteen represented the 108 men composing company H, who left Boalsburg forty-six years ago. They were Col. C. L. Greenough, who came all the way from Cincinnati to be present; S. H. Williams, W. P. Harpster, B. B. Minnich, Andrew Cramer, W. H. Musser, G. Armstrong Jacobs, Charles Eckenroth, William Reed, Philip Wertz, John Hook and Griffith

The first thing in order after the arrival of the veterans was a parade, which formed at the old stone church and marched to the town hall. There they were received by a large gathering of citizens of Boalsburg who welcomed them by singing "Columbia." Comrade Hook, of Boalsburg, presided and introduced Col. Greenough, who invoked the divine blessing on all. Rev. A. A. Black made a very pleasant address of welcome, which was responded to by Clement Dale, E q. On motion of S. H. Willi ms Col. Greenough was elected president of the association, but on account of him being a stranger in a strange land W. H. Musser presided over the meeting at the former's request.

When the noon hour came the members Peter Ishler's tavern as the guests of Mr. Theodore Boal. Dinner was served to the rest of the old soldiers present at the school house. And just here we want to mention that they all got more than they could eat. Mrs. Amanda Fisher was chairman of the committee of ladies who served the dinner and so liberal were they in preparing good things that they could have fed double the growd present.

In the afternoon another meeting was held at which Miss Margaret Goheen sang Have You Got the Countersign," while speeches were made by Armstrong Jacobs. Col. Greenough and a dozen others. Seven little school girls sang "Beautiful Flag of the Brave," while the meeting closed with the entire assemblage singing "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder."

SEVENTH CAVALRY REUNION. - Almost one hundred members of the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry association were in Bellefonte this week to attend the puanal eunion of their organization which was beld on Tuesday and Wednesday. Capt. Robert H. MoGhee, of Lock Haven, the retiring president of the a-sociation, had old veterans were there thick as bees around a bive.

On Tuesday morning the visitors were taken on an excursion to State College and spent the day in looking over that famous educational institution. Of course they were heartily received by vice president J. P. Welsh and the heads of the various departments, as well as that staid old veteran, Capt. W. C. Patterson, and the day proved all too short for everybody.

Tuesday evening an informal camp fire was held in the rooms of Gregg Post. Capt. Ott, of Flemington, presided and included in the list of those who threw logs of thrilling experiences on the fire were H. D. Loveland, S. H. Williams, S. B. Miller. Gen. John I. Curtin, W. H. Musser, John Noll and Capt. Ott. Of course the evening was spent very pleasantly, as there is nothing au old soldier so much enjoys as to interchange notes of that four long years of struggle, unless it is a good dinner. The business meeting of the association was held on Wednesday morning in the post rooms, and the following officials were elected for the ensuing year : President, Wm. Berbeck, Co. C, East Shore, Bradford county; vice presidents, U. N. Sonsberger, Co. E, Williamsport; J. H. Snyder, Co. L, Port Royal ; G. W. Democh, Co. B, Williamsport : Charles Bricker, Co. E , Elmira, N. Y.; Israel Sauders, Co. D. Williamsport ; Oliver Helfinger, Co. B. Mainsburg; secretary and treasurer, F. R. Hutchinson, Co. B, Pittsburg; assistant secretary, S G. Barnes, Co. K, Pittsburg. Another meeting was beld in the afternoon at which some minor business was transacted and questions concerning the good of the order discussed.

Wednesday evening the big camp fire was held in the court house and the room was well filled with those anxious to hear the addresses. Capt. McGhee presided and speeches were made by Hon. William C. Heinle, Col. D. F. Fortney, Col. C. L. Greenough, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and a number of others That the old soldiers appeared to enjoy themselves while here was evident, and it is equally as true that Bellefonte was only too glad of the opportunity and honor of entertaining them.

-Mrs. George F. Harris entertained a number of friends at the Country club on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Mc-Conaughy, who is in Bellefonte as the guest of the Misses McCardy. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. H. M. Hiller entertained a thimble party in honor of her guest, Miss Laura Hemphill, of Erie. Mrs. F. W. Coder has issued invitations for a flinch party tonight and Mrs. H. M. Taylor has sent out cords for a Hallowe'en party on next Wednesday evening, October 30th.

The "Beauty Doctor," which comes to Bellefonte uext week, was here last season and gave universal satisfaction. very strong language when he said that "it was the prettiest town he ever saw."

DEDICATION OF ST. JOHN'S REFORM-ED CHAPEL -Sunday will be a memorable day for the congregation of St. John's Reformed church as at that time they dedicated their hardsome new chapel on Spring street. The dedicatory sermon was preached in the church at 10:30 o'clock in the morning by Rev. Thomas L. Bickle, of Philadelphia, a former pastor.

Following the sermon the pastor, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, announced the fact that a new brass eagle lecturn had been presented to the church by Mrs. Chestie A. Harper, in memory of her bushaud, the late William Harper, which was duly consecrated. Jared Harper, the church treasurer, announced that the new chapel had been built and furnished at a cost of $6,500, which with a number of improvements to the church, made the total indebtedness $6 800. Of this amount the congregation had paid the sum of $4,650, leaving a balance of $2.150 to be provided the Adams Express office in this place, left last for. To help make up this sum subscriptions and pledges to the amount of $1,700 were pledged by the congregation, the balance being assumed by the consistory. The debt being fully provided for the congretwo children have been with Mrs. Gienn's mother gation proceeded to the chapel and the new house of worship was formally dedicated to the service of God.

Rev. Bickle again preached in the evetotaled $138. The new chapel is built of native sandstone with brown stone trimmings. It is 47x45 feet in size. The first floor is divided into a main auditorium, three class rooms and a working room for the Ladies Aid society. A spacious gallery surrounds two sides of the chapel and this will be divided into class rooms. The windows are of handsome stained glass, those on the first floor being memorial windows given by various members of the church. The interior is finished in South Carolina pine and oak.

Too much credit cannot be given the Ladies Aid society for the building of the chapel. They not only contributed two thousand dollars toward the building of the chapel but also furnished the carpet which covers the floor. In every way the Reformed chapel is one of the nicest in
