

New York Financiers Confident Crisis Has Passed.

SIX SMALL BANKS QUIT

New York, Oct. 29.—The principal events in the financial district indicated that the worst of the crisis was over, and that conditions were settling down to normal. There were no further bank suspensions, and reports were favorable for the resumption of most of the banks which closed temporarily last week. The engagement of $18,750,000 in gold from Europe for importation to New York was followed by the sensational announcement of sales of American copper abroad, which will further increase the tide of foreign money to this country to an aggregate of over $25,000,000. This, with the rapid rise of good securities on the stock exchange, in some cases followed by a slight reaction at the close, and the policy of the trust companies not to pay out currency for hoarding purposes, all contributed to strengthen the feeling in banking quarters and among the public at large.

Runs upon banks practically ceased, partly because recognition that they were unnecessary and unjustifiable, and partly because of the policy adopted to pay large checks only in certified checks on depository banks. This system of payment worked no apparent hardship and was the cause of very little protest. Small checks were paid promptly in currency, and larger amounts where it was demonstrated that currency was required for purposes other than hoarding. It is still possible for a frightened depositor to transfer his account from one institution to another by depositing a check in the depository for which he now has a preference, but he cannot withdraw large amounts in gold certificates to be locked in a safe deposit vault, as was the case last week.

The clearing house began issuing loan certificates. The indications are that banking institutions will not pay out large amounts in currency, except to meet legitimate requirements of their clients for current business. It has long been the practice of trust companies and some of the smaller banks, in meeting checks for considerable amounts to draw checks upon the national banks with which their reserves are kept. If they pursue this policy until the end of the present crisis it will not be a departure from their usual practice. Such checks under ordinary circumstances are preferred to currency, and if currency is demanded in unusual amounts it will be refused unless evidence is given that it is required in good faith and for other purposes than hoarding, to prevent which is the main purpose of this step.

The institutions which closed their doors Friday with the sums due depositors, were:
The United States Exchange bank, Harlem, $600,000.
International Trust company, about $100,000.
The Borough bank, of Brooklyn, $4,000,000.
The Brooklyn bank, $3,500,000.
Williamsburg Trust company, Brooklyn, $7,500,000.
First National bank, of Brooklyn, $3,500,000.

On the other hand, a number of favorable features marked the day. The Trust Company of America and the Lincoln Trust company, the two organizations which have suffered most from runs, have been slowly paying out to their depositors and meeting all demands. In the case of the Trust Company of America the run has well nigh spent its force, after about $20,000,000 had been paid out. Upon application of State Attorney General Jackson, temporary receivers were appointed for the Knickerbocker Trust company, which closed its doors on Tuesday, after a run of by its depositors.

The aggregate amount of money which had been contributed in order to weather the storm and restore confidence assumes truly colossal proportions. Roughly estimated, it includes $25,000,000 which Secretary Cortelyou deposited in the New York banks, $25,000,000 which the Morgan pool brought to the floor, $10,000,000 which John D. Rockefeller deposited with the Union Trust company as a means of stemming the tide at the Trust Company of America, and finally another $50,000,000 which it is understood Mr. Rockefeller stood ready to advance to meet any further stress of conditions—in all considerably in excess of $100,000,000.

Confidence in Pittsburgh.
Pittsburgh, Oct. 29.—The close of the first day of the new week saw local financial conditions in better shape than at any time last week. The feeling of confidence, which has been so admirably shown, has not diminished a particle, and not a financial institution in the city has been obliged to take advantage of a number of precautionary measures which have been arranged.

Providence Bank Closed.
Providence, R. I., Oct. 28.—The Union Trust company, on which there was a run, did not open for business. Cornelius A. Sweetland was appointed temporary receiver of the company.

Loan Certificates in Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—The consensus of opinion among the leading bankers of this city is that the flurry in New York financial circles has spent its force, and that the financial condition in this city is practically normal. Members of the local clearing house decided to issue loan certificates, an action which the bankers desire to have it understood was taken as a precautionary measure.

Failure of Knickerbocker Trust Hinders Work on Susquehanna Dam.
Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 29.—The failure of the Knickerbocker Trust company, of New York, has caused the McFalls Ferry company to lay off 800 hands who were at work on the McFalls ferry dam over the Susquehanna river, and will greatly hinder the company in the completion of its power plant. The Knickerbocker Trust company was the financial agent for the McFalls company, and as trustee held the $10,000,000 mortgage placed on the power plant and dam under which the mortgage bonds were sold. At the time it closed its doors the trust company is said to have had about $800,000 on deposit in the institution. The McFalls company is under contract to supply the city of Baltimore with complete electric light and power service in 1908. Under present conditions only enough men are being kept at work on the dam to keep it in shape to withstand the freshets and high water during the winter and spring.

MURDERED AND ROBBED

Retired Farmer Killed and Thrown into Thoroughfare at Atlantic City.
Atlantic City, Oct. 28.—Absalom Magee, aged 60, a retired farmer, of Weymouth, this county, was murdered and is supposed to have been robbed of about $2000 in cash which he acquired from a recent sale. The body was found floating in the thoroughfare, back of the city. That the man had been dealt the fatal blow on the boardwalk, alongside the boat wharf was shown by the blood stains on the walk. His skull had been battered in with some blunt instrument. Magee came to Atlantic City Saturday. After eating supper he went out for a stroll and it is thought strangers found out he had a roll of money on his person. There was every evidence of a severe death struggle.

The police arrested Jacob Freas, a nephew of the dead man, and are holding him as a witness in the case. Freas is said to have been in company with the farmer on Saturday, and the authorities say spent money freely on Sunday. They say that whoever committed the crime knew that Magee had a large sum of money with him and was averse to placing his money in banks.

Freas was put through several degrees and the chief of police admits that Freas has made a number of contradictory statements. Freas is now under indictment by the present grand jury for assault and battery on his wife.

ROBBED OF $14,000

Thief Steals Financier's Grip on a Railroad Train.
Washington, Oct. 29.—The police of this city received information that William J. Payne, of Richmond, Va., who is said to be the president of the Newport News Gas company, the Newport News & Old Point Railway & Electric company, and connected with other large enterprises, while on his way from Washington to New York city, was robbed of a leather grip containing $14,000 in bonds and stock certificates. The robbery was committed, it is said, while Mr. Payne was taking a nap in a Pullman in which he was riding. He believes that the person who stole the grip left the train at Wilmington, Del.

GIRL KILLS LOVER

Jealous Shamokin, Pa., Girl Ther Shot Herself.
Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 25.—William Klingler, of Locust Gap, near here, was shot dead by his sweetheart, Miss Lucy Doughton, of this place, in front of her father's residence, after which she shot herself, death resulting instantly. Klingler had paid Miss Doughton attentions for some time, when she heard he was of late visiting another girl too frequently. Miss Doughton grew jealous, and when Klingler called on her she opened fire on him. Miss Doughton was 18 years of age and Klingler five years her senior.

PRESIDENT IS 49

Received Hungarian Club's Congratulations at White House.
Washington, Oct. 28.—President Roosevelt was 49 years old Sunday. Beside a quiet family rejoicing at the White House, the president received the congratulations of the members of the Hungarian club of New York. The reception took place in the east room, thus continuing a custom instituted by the members of the club several years ago in presenting themselves to the president of the United States on the anniversary of his birth, wherever he may be.

MURDERED HIS BABY

Pittsburgh, Oct. 28.—Joseph Ceninc is in jail here accused of causing the death of his 16-months-old baby, Mary. It is alleged the father on reaching the family home in Port Perry, a mining town, near here, several nights ago, flew into a passion, and with a miners' pick crushed in the baby's skull.

Another Steel Plant Closed.
Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—The Columbus plant of the United States Steel corporation, employing 800 men, has been closed indefinitely. The orders received gave no reason for the suspension.

Woman Holds Up Fifty Auto Parties.
Waterbury, Conn., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Mary H. Eylan, of this place, armed with a broom and cobblestones, appeared in the roadway near her home and held up 50 autos. She is said to imagine her son was killed two years ago by an automobile. She held up the car of C. F. Von Traller, of New York, and struck the chauffeur in the face with her broom.

Lemont.

William Hoy is slowly improving. Harry F. Houtz was on the sick list Saturday. Mrs. Mary Shaffer is visiting with her parents this week. Mrs. Mordcael Benner fell last Tuesday and broke her left arm. James E. Lenker and daughter, Sara, spent a few days in Aaronsburg last week.

The potato crop is only a fair one this year and the tubers are not keeping well. Harry Grove had the misfortune to kill his young horse one night last week. M. A. Williams had the good fortune to bag a fine wild turkey one day last week.

Robert Brennan fell from an apple tree last Friday and broke one of his shoulders. Supt. David O. Eters was circulating among the schools of College township Monday.

The wild geese are taking their Southward journey so we can expect colder weather now, for winter is coming again. John Bathgate and William Bohm fell from apple trees recently while gathering apples but were not seriously hurt.

The farmers are all busy gathering and hauling apples to Lemont where dealers are loading several cars of cider and winter apples. Griffith Lytle returned home last Monday, and took a car load of apples along, he stating that there are no apples in that region this year.

The Next Big Football Game.

Saturday, Nov. 2, Williamsport will witness her second game of the season. Pennsylvania State and Dickinson College will be the contesting teams and to lovers of the sport who have seen them play on the athletic field during the past four years it will not be necessary to say that the game will be hotly contested and a splendid exponent of the sport. State has been improving each week since she met the Carlisle Indians, and her victory over Cornell shows that the Blue and White has a topnotcher again this year.

Dickinson is working hard under her new coach and is aiming to reach her highest point for this game. Lovers of the sport in this vicinity will look forward to a great contest, and the reduced railroad rates will no doubt take many of our people to Williamsport next Saturday.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

St. Nicholas in 1908.—Carolyn Wells has a series of quaint and humorous verses, which she calls "The Happydays," which will run through several numbers of St. Nicholas. They will have plenty of pictures, made by Harrison Cady, the artist who has been illustrating Mrs. Burnett's "Queen Silver-bell" stories.

Ralph Henry Barbour has written a new serial for the 1908 volume of St. Nicholas. It is to be called "Harry's Island"; and will carry on the adventures, adventures, and misadventures of the jolly young folk of "The Crimson Sweater" and "Tom, Dick, and Harriet."

In all of the great cities of the United States today there are children who have missed their natural birthright. We told you about them last month in the special article, "The Child without a Home." Another phase of the question is presented for your thoughtful consideration in this month's special article, "The Home without a Child." Scattered over the land, sometimes in the country, sometimes in the city, are also homes that for one reason or another lack their natural right of a little child. Each needs the other to lead it to the highest happiness.

The Delinquent herewith undertakes the mission of bringing them together. For this purpose we begin with this number our Child Rescue Campaign. We intend from time to time to present to you specific cases of children who need homes. They will be children for whom institutions in various parts of the country are trying to find the surroundings of family life. Sometimes they may be orphans. Sometimes they may have fathers and mothers who have neglected them. Always they will have human souls possessed of all the potentiality for making good men and women, provided some one will lend a helping hand along the rough way of life, and through a new, right environment they may be a wonderful development for them in the future.

In telling the histories of these children it is deemed best not to use the child's real name. For some of them are heart-breaking histories which it is better should not follow the child's identity when he or she goes into the new home. So always when we are talking to you about a child it will be under his or her Delinquent name. But the photograph we show you will be the real child as he or she looks.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Miss Ethel Roosevelt, the president's youngest daughter, has been removed to the White House from the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat hospital, where an operation was performed on her nose. She is somewhat improved, but is attended by a trained nurse, and Mrs. Roosevelt is giving her personal attention to the patient. Miss Roosevelt was unable to walk to the carriage and was carried on a stretcher. It is expected that she will be able to be about in a few days.

CLAIM OF $123.46 FOR SALE!
DO YOU WANT IT?
This office offers to the highest bidder an unpaid balance against the estate of the late Governor D. H. HASTINGS, amounting to ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS and thirty cents, less $12.87, for which judgment has been obtained. The claim is an honest and undisputed account for advertising, job work and subscription to this paper. There are no allegations that any of the items are over-charged, nor is there any plea that the work was not ordered done, or not done. So that every charge in the entire account will be guaranteed correct.

It is due, however, to those who may be inclined to become bidders, that they should know that while the justness and correctness of this claim is admitted and the estate alleged to be worth any amount from quarter to half-million of dollars; yet the administrators—who are also its heirs and beneficiaries,—have refused payment, simply because they could plead the limitation and thus avoid the payment of an honest debt.

The above amount may not be worth much as a cash asset. It may be of some value, perchance, as a reminder that there are others than the ordinary "dead beat" and "debt jumpers," who seek the technicalities of the law to save the payment of just obligations.

No bond will be asked from bidders. Any "old thing" will be considered good when compared with a wealthy estate that won't pay a just debt. Address, WATCHMAN, Bellefonte, Pa. 52-29-14
