THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The Wilson residence on High street is being repainted.

Up to this time St. John's Episcopal congregation of this place has not seemed a pastor for their church.

A nice little girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown, in the Bellefonte hospital last Friday evening.

A big boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Darr, who live near the Bellefonte furnace, on Tuesday morning.

Frank Bauer is now Frank Sasser-man's assistant-torsonal artist in his parlors under the Centre county bank.

Hunters all over the country will confer a favor if they will send a report of the game they kill to the WATCHMAN.

Mrs. J. W. Geplat recently purchased the Hagerman property on east Linn street, the consideration being $3,250.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bassler are rejoicing over the arrival of Fred Jr., who timed his journey to appear here on Wednesday morning.

The boys of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity at State College will give their twentieth annual house dance Thursday evening, November 21st.

The wedding of Edward McKay Westmore and Miss Catharine Dale, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Y. Dale, of Lemont, will take place sometime during mid-winter.

All told there are probably one hundred and fifty Centre county hunters on the mountains and this number is augmented by half that many more from other places so that even with the law as stringent as it is it is altogether likely that quite a number of deer will be killed. But the hunters will have to be on the watch as the mountains are being thoroughly patrolled by game wardens and to kill a deer in any way is in accordance with the law will undoubtedly result in getting the party into trouble.

EDGAR NEARHOOF NOT POISONED.—Two weeks ago the WATCHMAN published an account of the exhuming of the body of Edgar Nearhoof, of Worth township, who died on August 30th, after two nights and a day's illness, and under what his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nearhoof, and many other people of that community considered most peculiar circumstances, all of which was published too recently to be repeated here. The stomach of the deceased was removed and brought to Bellefonte and the next day was taken by coroner P. S. Fisher and Col. E. R. Chambers to State College and turned over to Dr. G. G. Pond, for analysis.

Dr. Pond has a reputation of being one of the most expert chemists in the country and after making a most thorough and exhaustive analysis on Monday sent to Col. Chambers his report in which he stated that he found absolutely no trace whatever of any poison. This of course does away with the theory that the young man's death was due to something else than natural causes and bears out the statement of the attending physician at that time.

Just why an impression that the young man had been foully dealt with should have gotten abroad we know not, but there is now one thing plainly evident and that is that if any one individual has been under suspicion the parents of the dead young man as well as any others who shared their belief can now see how unjust their suspicion, owing to their being no foundation for it. And the parents, who have been well nigh distracted because of the thought that there was a possibility that all was not right can set their minds at rest so far as that part is concerned and take consolation in the fact that the inscrutable ways of an all-wise Providence were alone responsible for their boy's death.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY VS. KISKI AT STATE COLLEGE.—Bellefonters will have practically a double turn at seeing the strong Bellefonte Academy foot ball team show what it can do. They not only play the Altoona High school eleven here tomorrow afternoon but on Monday will play the Kiskiminetus eleven at State College. In Altoona the Academy played the Altoona boys a tie game and tomorrow they intend to do their best to make the game a victory.

But it is the game with Kiski that will be the hard fought struggle. When the Academy played them at Saltsburg several weeks ago they were defeated, and for this reason they have determined to put up the best game possible and give the visitors a harder tussle than they had on their home grounds. Therefore you not only want to go out and see the game to-morrow afternoon but go along with the team to State College on Monday and witness the contest up there, you will get your money's worth in both cases.

AT THE Y. M. C. A.—For the benefit of the piano fund the Young Men's Christian Association has booked the following three entertainments: On December 3rd, the Otterbein male quartette with H. U. Engle as impersonator. December 17th, "At the Ferry," a home talent entertainment under the direction of the Central Lyceum bureau, and on January 27th, the Rhony Boys concert company. All the above are good entertainments and friends of the association as well as the public at large should patronize them liberally.

OFF TO CAMP.—This week has been marked with an exodus of hunters from all over the county to their favorite hunting places in the mountains to be in readiness for the opening of the deer season this morning. The Panther hunting club, of this place, left early yesterday morning for their camp which this year will be pitched at the headwaters of Counsel run, near Eddy Lick. Those who went along were John L. Kuisely, A. L. and John A. McGinley, W. C. Cassidy, Harry Gerberich, J. H. Decker, R. S. Brouse, George Weaver, of this place and Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia. J. Miteh Cunningham expects to go out later and join them. Instead of going by railroad they had Thomas Beaver haul them out and by the time he got their tent, cooking utensils, bedding, and their larder supply on board he had quite a load of it. The crowd all went prepared to hunt small game but they also took their rifles with them so if a stray buck comes around begging to be made into venison they will be in shape to accommodate it.

The Roosevelt club from Gatesburg went out on Six Mile run on Tuesday and naturally have had ample time not only to get comfortably fixed but become acclimated as well. The Klondyke club from Tyrone, fifteen strong are located at what is known as the Shirk Improvement about four miles north of Marthas. The Rangers, of Tyrone, headed by superintendent J. K. Johnston, are in camp near Snow Shoe. The Mann's from Howard, are away back in the Sootoc region while parties from Pine Grove Mills down through Pennsylvally to as far as Coburn are scattered all over the Seven mountains. Of course the Snow Shoe hunters are out in full force and about the only party that has not gone out is the Clemson party.

John Dubbs, the implement dealer, is branching out; or rather, intends branching out, as he is now having quite a large war house built over the race in the rear of Keichling's green grocery which, when completed, will afford him ample space for keeping in stock a large line of the various farm implements handled by him.

Next Tuesday evening, November 19th, G. F. Staouton, of Athens, supreme secretary, and Mrs. C. F. Height, district organizer of the Keystone Guards, will be in Bellefonte and will hold a meeting in the Maccahee hall in the McClain block for the purpose of explaining fully the purposes and benefits of being a member of the Guard.

Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt left for Hanover, on Tuesday afternoon, to attend the funeral of an aged aunt. It will be necessary for him to cancel his lecture announced for Thursday evening at Zion. Services will be held in the Reformed church at Zion, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and communion services Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Rabbits must be quite plentiful down Pennsylvally judging from the number bagged by two parties of Altoona hunters who spent several days down there last week, going home on Saturday. One party of four men spent their time in the vicinity of Penn Cave and secured twenty-one cottontails while the other party of five men bagged twenty-eight in the neighborhood of Zerby.

A number of our contemporaries are kicking because they do not like the new ten dollar gold coin which has just been turned out at the Philadelphia mint. In fact, it might be said that the objection to it seems to be widespread but so far as we are concerned they look good to us and we will be willing to take the entire issue of one million dollars if nobody else wants them. Please ship I. O. B. on this office.

Our Wednesday's mail brought us a souvenir postal card from our old friend J. H. Lipton, of Downs, Kan., on which was a picture of his big three story Hotel Lipton and this brief message under date of November 10th: "This is my eightieth anniversary and I feel as good as a four-year-old. Send the WATCHMAN, it keeps me young." As Mr. Lipton is a native of Centre county he will be well remembered by the older residents, all of whom will join with us in sending him congratulations on having attained the venerable age of four score years without feeling old and hope that he may live another score or two to enjoy the fruits of a well spent life.

Rev. Richard H. Gilbert, presiding elder of the Danville district and one of the most prominent as well as popular ministers in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference, was married on Wednesday morning of last week to Mrs. Margaret Jackson—Crispin, a daughter of the late Mordcaif W. Jackson, of Berwick. The ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. W. W. Evans, D. D., presiding elder of the Juniata district in Huntington. Rev. Gilbert is quite well known in Bellefonte, as is the new Mrs. Gilbert, who is a sister of Mrs. Joseph Erwin Borches, of Knoxville, Tenn., and a step-sister of Mrs. Lillie G. Reeder, of this place.

THURMAN WEISER, of Port Matilda, recently purchased the huckstering business of Harry Callahan, of Philipsburg.

If your pavement is defective now is the time to repair it. Don't wait until snow falls and the pavement becomes slippery with ice, thus rendering it even more dangerous because of the defects.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Watson, of Mochannon, are mourning the death of their six weeks old infant son, who died on Tuesday of last week. The remains were taken to Philipsburg where they were buried on Thursday.

On Monday Irv. W. Tate, of Coleville, was thirty-six years old and in celebration of the event Mrs. Hazel gave him quite an elaborate birthday dinner. A number of friends had been invited just to make the occasion a more festive one and a right pleasant evening it proved to be.

Mrs. Nancy D. Orbison celebrated her birthday anniversary very quietly but pleasantly on Sunday. In honor of the event she had as her guests that day her daughter, Mrs. Sylvester W. Beach, of Princeton, N. J., and Mrs. James L. Somerville and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Winburne.

D. Eugene Wentzel, a graduate of The Pennsylvania State College and who subsequently worked for several months as chemist at the Bellefonte furnace, was married in Altoona on November 2nd to Miss Laura A. Hooper. Rev. A. E. Wagner, of the Christ Second Lutheran church, performed the ceremony.

John Dubbs, the implement dealer, is branching out; or rather, intends branching out, as he is now having quite a large war house built over the race in the rear of Keichling's green grocery which, when completed, will afford him ample space for keeping in stock a large line of the various farm implements handled by him.

Gay H. Thompson has purchased the general store of his father, the late B. F. Thompson, of Beech Creek, and associating with himself A. Nixon, of Mill Hill, will conduct the same in the future under the firm name of Thompson & Nixon. Both members are enterprising young men and will no doubt meet with the success they merit.

Next Tuesday evening, November 19th, G. F. Staouton, of Athens, supreme secretary, and Mrs. C. F. Height, district organizer of the Keystone Guards, will be in Bellefonte and will hold a meeting in the Maccahee hall in the McClain block for the purpose of explaining fully the purposes and benefits of being a member of the Guard.

PENNSYLVANIA DAY AT STATE COLLEGE.—Big preparations are being made for the celebration of "Pennsylvania Day" at The Pennsylvania State College on Friday, November 22nd. This day has grown to be one of the important events in the history of that institution and this year will be even more so because in connection with the usual exercises the College will dedicate the new agricultural building which has just been completed at a cost of about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, appropriated by the Legislature. Governor Edwin S. Stuart will be the most prominent guest. He will arrive at the College at 9:30 a. m. and will be escorted to the auditorium by the cadet battalion. The dedicatory exercises will begin at 10 o'clock and addresses will be made by the following:

Edwin S. Stuart, Governor of Pennsylvania; Gen. James A. Beaver, president of the Board of Trustees; Thomas F. Hunt, dean and director of the school of agriculture and experiment station; Nathan C. Schaeffer, superintendent of public instruction; William H. Jordan, director of the New York agricultural experiment station, will deliver an address on "The Education of the Farmer."

The cadet battalion will be reviewed by Governor Stuart at 2 o'clock p. m., and from 3 to 5 o'clock the new buildings will be open for inspection by the general public, during which time a reception will be tendered by the trustees, faculty and students to the Governor and other invited guests. At 8 o'clock in the evening the agricultural society of The Pennsylvania State College will hold a meeting in the assembly room to which the public is invited.

In order to enable the people of Bellefonte to attend these exercises a special train will leave here on the morning of the 22nd at 8:30 o'clock, arriving at the College at 9:30. Returning it will leave the College at 3:30 and arrive at Bellefonte at 4:30, in time to connect with the train west on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad.

KENNETH SNOODGRASS SUSTAINS BROKEN LEG.—Readers of the WATCHMAN will recall the fact that two months or more ago the horse driven by Harry Reick, mail carrier on rural route, No. 1, from Bellefonte, ran away with the result that he was thrown out and sustained a broken leg. While he was laid up to allow the broken member time to heal his route was covered by Kenneth Snodgrass. Last week Harry again took up the work and just two days afterward Snodgrass took one of their two horses, hitched it in the buggy and took a drive up Buffalo Run. Along about the William Witmer farm the horse began kicking and Snodgrass was either thrown out or attempted to jump—he himself does not know which—became entangled in the lines and was thrown to the ground with such force as to break his right leg below the knee.

He stuck to the lines, however, and stopped the horse and, being unable to move lay in the road in the rear of the buggy for more than two hours before discovered. He was only a short distance from the Bellefonte Central railroad and though the freight was shifting cars along there and he called for help repeatedly they failed to hear him and it was not until a boy came along and discovered his plight that he was given help. The lad summoned some men from nearby who took him to the nearest house where he was rendered as comfortable as possible after which he was brought to the Reick home in this place and the broken bone set.

COL CHAMBERS TO STAY IN BELLEFONTE.—Just because he is advertising his home on east Linn street for sale the report has been circulated that Col. E. R. Chambers and family intended leaving Bellefonte. To the writer the Colonel denied the report most emphatically. He stated that here is where he has lived the most of his life and here where he would live the balance of it. His reason for wishing to sell his home is that it is too expensive an establishment for him to keep up and, in addition, is much larger than his family now needs, inasmuch as his two boys are away from home and there are only he and Mrs. Chambers and their daughter, Helen. They wish to either sell or rent their home and move into a smaller house or a nice flat somewhere down town where he will be nearer his office.

EMANUEL ROAN FARM SOLD.—On Tuesday Mr. Moore, mining engineer for the Cambria Iron company, was in Bellefonte and closed a deal whereby that company became the purchaser of the Emanuel Roan farm, about a mile north of Falmore. According to the terms of the sale Mr. Roan is to have peaceable possession of the property until April 1st, 1909, as the Cambria people do not intend to at once open quarries there. In fact, it may be years before they do so, if ever, the purchase being made with a view of having a good deposit of limestone to draw from in the event of their present resources giving out. Robert F. Hunter negotiated the sale for Mr. Rhone and the price the Cambria people paid was eight thousand dollars.

FIRE BRICK COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS.—The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Fire Brick company, in which quite a number of Bellefonters are financially interested, was held at Beech Creek on Tuesday morning and the following directors elected for the ensuing year: J. P. Wynn, Jerome Moltz, T. M. Stevenson, J. C. Clark and W. R. Wynn. The directors then re-elected the old officers.

Mrs. Louis Hill was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital last week, being now almost as well and strong as ever.

Walter B. Fletcher, of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte a day or two this week. Several years ago Walter was operator for the Pennsylvania railroad in this place and was quite popular among the young people of the town.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller arrived in Bellefonte from Philadelphia last Saturday. They expect shortly to locate in West Chester but before doing so the doctor wanted a few days hunting in Centre county woods and came up to get it.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Smith, of Sunbury, and Mrs. Smith's brother J. Walter Zeigler, of Williamsport, spent Sunday with Miss McQuiston. Mrs. Weber, of Butler, who has been with the McQuiston family for the past month left for her home Monday.

Mrs. James Sommerville with her daughter, Miss Bessie, of Winburne, and Mrs. Sylvester Beach, of Princeton, came to Bellefonte Saturday to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Nancy Orbison. Mr. James Sommerville came the beginning of the week and after a short stay returned with Mrs. Sommerville to Winburne, Wednesday.

Maurice Smith, who for a number of years has been one of S. A. McQuiston's best men in his carriage manufacturing here, left on Sunday for Saltsburg where he has accepted a position as manager of a large carriage manufacturing plant. Mr. Smith is one of the best painters in the country and well deserves the position he has been given.

John S. Henderson, of Philadelphia, was an arrival in Bellefonte last Friday evening and is a guest at the Gardner home. During the summer John has been completing his medical studies with the expectation of taking an examination before the state medical examining board at its meeting in December after which, if successful, and we hope he will be, he will be entitled to write "Dr." before his name or "M. D." behind it.

Merritt Richter, son of Major J. A. Richter, the veteran civil engineer, of Selinsgrove, and who himself is an engineer now doing a job of surveying in Pittsburg, accompanied by a friend, Charles Brown, spent last week at the Richter home in Selinsgrove on a hunting expedition. They came as far as Bellefonte on Saturday loaded down with squirrel, rabbits and a few pheasants, spent Sunday with friends here and left on Monday for Pittsburg.

Clarence McClellan was an arrival in Bellefonte on Saturday and spent until Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan, on east High street. About five years ago, while quite a young man, Clarence joined the Stratton Army and from the local branch here went to other fields. He was earnest and sincere in his work and rose from the ranks until now he is a captain and for some time past has been stationed at Springfield, Ohio. He was on his way from that place to visit General Booth, the head of the Army in New York city, and took advantage of the trip to stop off in Bellefonte. From the strip-ling youth he was when he left here he has grown to be a stalwart, blue-looking young man.

Robert F. Hunter is transacting business in Philadelphia.

Samuel Rumberger spent most of last week on a business trip to Ambridge.

Hard P. Harris was one of the Bellefonters who went to Philadelphia last Saturday to see State play Pennsylvania, but that was only the beginning of his trip. From there he went to Radford to visit his sister, Mrs. Galway, and from there he will go to the Jamestown exposition then on down to Knoxville, Tenn.

"THE TOYMAKERS."—When a man fidgets in his seat and rushes out before the curtain is half down, that tells the story of dull old chestnuts that make a man weary and want his money back. At last we have a new comic opera that makes a whole big audience sit up and laugh themselves hoarse. An eccentric old toymaker brings his electric doll to life and her ensuing droll actions around the toymshop and the village, furnish the funniest situations ever invented by mortal man. "The Jollities" are a clever company of good dancers, actors and the singers who do full justice to this rattling good opera of "The Toymakers." The music of this new musical absurdity was written by Charles D. Blake and John A. Bennett, who have put such sparkling tunes and rhythm into the whole merry play that it will set the town singing and whistling its catchy music. Messrs. Charles F. Atkinson and James Thatcher, the managers of "The Jollities," always give a high class, up-to-date entertainment that is clean and wholesome. This play will be at the opera house this evening, go and see it.

LICENSE COURT DECEMBER 14th.—Under the new rules of court adopted about a year ago license court for 1908 will be held Saturday, December 14th, 1907, instead of the first Tuesday in March as heretofore. This is for the purpose of giving the court ample time to consider all the applications judiciously and dispose of them long before April 1st, 1908, the beginning of the license year. The advantage in this lies in the fact that if for any reason a present holder of a license should be refused, or a new applicant granted, it would give the one ample time to dispose of his place and stock and the other to make all the arrangements necessary for starting in business. And as license court will be held on December 14th, all applications must be filed on or before Friday, November 22nd. Hotel keepers throughout the county want to hear this fact in mind, or they will be minus a license next year.

Last Thursday Budd Parks, quite a young boy, was caught stealing a box of cigars at Green's drug store. Though only about eight years of age this is the third time he has been caught stealing, and unless his parents soon take him in hand he will end in the reformatory.
