Democratic Matchman

Bellefonte, Pa., December 13, 1907.

Coursespon pents .- No communications pubshed unless accompanied by the real name of he writer

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

---- It will be legal to hunt hear until March first, 1908.

ducted in the United Brethren church in shis place.

-The statesman with a currency panacea is as numerous these days as the dog with fleas

-Miss Betty Heinle is meeting with success in her instructions in dancing at Snow Shoe

-The Knisely brothers at State Col lege, opened a new skating rink last week, and it is being liberally patronized.

Sabbath day, so far as the weather was concerned, that we have had for some weeks.

-The members of the Centre county bar association will hold their annual ban quet at the Country club tomorrow evening

-Ed. Gillen, the grocer, is going around with quite a sore foot these days, she result of having stepped on a nail one day last week.

-----Steam heat has been put in the Lutheran church, and now that congregation is able to worship with considerably more warmth than usual.

-----Only one more week and the public schools will close for the boliday vacation, and already the children are looking forward quite eargerly for the time to come.

-Edgar, the nine months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garman, of Water street, died quite suddeuly on Monday might aud was buried Wednesday after. noon.

----Prof. John Price Jackson has been place of Prof. Louis E. Reber, recently resigned.

----Rev. H. M. Robinson, of Milroy. preached in the Presbyterian church in this services

---- The monthly meeting of the Centre county medical society was held in the in any town than you will find at the store arbitration room in the court house ou of Yeager & Davis, in the Bush Arcade. Tuesday; with a good attendance of out-of- | They are always up to date with the very town doctors.

----- The Sophomores at State College won the annual class football game from the Freshmen last Saturday by the score of 6 to 0. It was as bard a fought contest as giving a gift turn at once to any on Beaver field this year.

charitable and kindly disposed to all. But it is not a sermon on the day or its significance that we intend to preach. Everybody knows that it is the day when the giving of gifts reigns supreme. And this very fact in itself is the cause of great worriment to hundreds of people, simply beto just what they do want to give. The the hestowal of Christmas gifts, and it fully competent to fill her new position. really is the greatest task of all, is the amount of money you can afford to spend

CHRISTMAS IS COMING ! - Of course

templating this most cherished of all holidays-Christmas. The one day in all the year when mankind should feel most in this way. Don't impoverish yourself or don't go in debt, for any gift no matter how small, if given from the heart, carries with it the same spirit as one of priceless can afford to spend and the number of gifts to buy then comes the selection of same, ---- Last Sunday was the first real nice and in this the WATCHMAN may be able to > help you. Read the holiday advertisements in this in one or more of them you will be able to of the Alleghenies. find all you will want without going any further. If your intended gifts include anything in CLOTHING OR GENTS FURNISHING

you can get it at either M. Fauble & Son or Montgomery & Co. Both stores carry a full line of up to date clothing for boys of all ages and sizes, as well as men, while in baberdashery and all kinds of gents furnishing goods they cannot be surpassed. They also carry a full line of umbrellas for ladies and gentlemen, an article that at all times makes a most acceptable gift. But perhaps it is something in the line of you are looking for. If such is the case make a visit to Lyon & Co's complete store and look over the fine display on their counters and shelves and in their well stocked show cases. You can find anyelected dean of the school of engineering at thing in the above line there that you can The Pennsylvania State College to take the find anywhere in town and at prices that will just suit the Christmas purse.

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS

It maybe that you have been waiting until Christmas to buy your little boy or girl a pair of shoes ; or pechaps father or place on Sonday, Rev. J. Allison Platts mother, or brother or sister a pair of slip being in Milroy conducting evangelistic pers. If such is the case you cannot find a more complete

LINE OF FOOT WEAR

latest and their shelves have been filled with goods especially for the holiday trade. Remarkable as it may seem more than one-half the people when they contemplate

SILVERWARE AND JEWELRY.

---- The Juniata railroad Y. M. C. A. And no wonder, because there is nothing

-If you are looking for a useful gift this is nothing new, as every reader of the for man or boy the Fauble Stores will make WATCHMAN has doubtless long been con- your selection easy.

> -Will E. Harley, the Philipsburg liveryman, is being urged by his friends, it is slaimed, to make a run for the nomination for sheriff on the Republican ticket next spring.

--Miss Jennie Cross, of Philipsburg, defendant's mill at a certain price per a sister of Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor, of this thousand, mill measure, and claimed that the defendant did not allow all that was place, has accepted a positiou as assistant superintendent of the Galen Hall sanitor- due them. On the other hand the defend--Revival services are now being con- cause they cannot made up their minds as ium at Atlantic City, N. J., and left last ant asserted that the plaintiffs had been Wednesday evening to enter upon her work. paid all that was due them and that if there was any claim at all it was due him, first great problem to solve in the matter of Miss Cross is an experienced nurse and is the plaintiffs having been overpaid. The jury took the latter view of the matter

-Its the Fauble Stores that offer you your pick from their entire stock of winter feedant in the sum of 99 cents. overcoats at } off the regular price.

----Ed. Haupt went out for a fox chase last Friday morning and succeeded not only Tomlison vs. the Bellefonte Furnace comworth. Having decided how much you in having a good chase but in shooting his pany. The case grew out of a dispute as to the amount of puddled furnace cinder quarry-a big red reynard. As the bounty on the animal is two dollars and the pelt is the plaintiffs were to ship to the defendant worth from four to five dollars Ed. had a company during the year 1906 and the profitable day as well as an exciting chase. amount due them for same. The case was It is said that foxes are quite plentiful on on trial until noon on Tuesday when it was paper closely and we can assure you that Mnney mountain as well as in the foothills amicably settled.

Bardine Batler, vs. S. Kline Woodring, -Eleven through freight trains passed administrator ad litem of William Heaton. over the Bald Eagle Valley railroad from deceased, late of Boggs township, was call Tyrone to Look Haven, on Sunday, on ed for trial, the attorneys for the defense their way east. This was the largest moved to strike off the proceeding because movement of freight over that road in any of irregular pleadings, and after some arguone day in years and is accounted for only ment on both sides the court sustained by the immense freight traffic now being haudled from the west to the east. And yet the cry is continually being heard that hard times are coming.

-If you are looking for a useful gift suggested that he and the counsel for the for man or boy the Fauble Stores will make defense get together and agree on the pleadyour selection easy. ings on which subsequent action could be brought but Burdine said "He'd be-----if

--- Last Friday sheriff Henry Kline he'd agree with them attorneys in anytook S. G. Tomlinson, of Miles township, thing." to the Huntingdon reformatory. Tomlin-The last case tried was that of A. W. son was convicted of larceny in court last Gardner vs. Burdine Butler, an action in week. Tuesday morning the sheriff left tresspass to recover the value of a piece of with Jake From for Pittsburg, where the land, designated by the Pletcher survey. latter entered on his one year and four Verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of months term in the western penitentiary $74.42 for stealing corn from the field of John your selection easy. -We are sorry to announce the serions illness of Roy McCalmont, at his home in Rochester, N. Y. He had a bad attack of Locke may now be regarded as an authority erysipelas and after succeeding in breaking on the fact that a man cannot allow his it up it left him with a bad attack of theumind to wander in other directions and matism. His condition was such that on successfully run an automobile. Op Fri-Saturday last Mrs. J. C. Weaver, of Philaday afternoon he was going east on Howdelphia, but who was in Howard on ac ard street in his Buick runabout and at count of the death of her sister, received a the same time was deeply pondering some telegram from Mrs. McCalmont, her daughter, to go to Rochester, if possible, at once.

Stahl, of Potter township. A. V. Miller accompanied the sheriff as deputy.

---- Its the Fauble Stores that offer you your pick from their entire stock of winter overcoats at } off the regular price.

-----The declamatory contest

COURT CULLINGS .- In court last week News Parely Personal the case of W. F. Knopf, A. H. Knopf and

-Mrs. M. B. Garman is visiting friends in Al-Adam L. Blazer, trading as Knopf Bros. aud Blazer, vs. Charles Bilger, was a notable -Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hazel spent Sunday oue so far as the verdict was concerned. with friends in Tyrone. The action grew out of a dispute over the -Mrs. John Garthoff has been visiting triends measurement of lumber going over the mill n Lock Haven this week. operated by the defendant, the plaintiffs

-James A. B. Miller Esq., spent Sunday with claiming that they had a contract to stock Mrs. Miller's parents at Pine Glenn -Mrs. Henry L. Hagen, of Tyrone, is visiting her father, Dr. A. W. Hafer in this place. -Thad M. Longwell, of Belington, W. Va was in Bellefonte a day or two the past week. -Mrs. David Dale was called to Gettysburg on Wednesday to attend the funeral of a relative. -Rev. George M. Glenn, of Chambersburg, was a Bellefonte visiter between trains on Monday -John VanPelt came over from Spangler, Saturday, and spent Sunday with friends in this place.

-Bruce Underwood was up from Sunbury to spend several days the past week with triends in was that of Frank Samuel and Silas M. this place.

-J. Mac. Curtin, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday with his parents at Roland as well as friends in Bellefonte

-Mrs. Amos Mullen, who has been in Belle onte since October, will leave this morning for ner home in Columbia. -Miss Nancy Burrows and Miss Myra Freeman, of Tyrone, spent a few days the past week with friends in this place. -Mrs. John S. Tome, who was the guest of Mrs. Louisa Bush last week. left for her home in Jersey Shore on Saturday. -Miss Emma Polk, who has been visiting friends in Bellefonte the past two months, left on Tuesday for her home in Baltimore. -Kirk Tate, of Barnesboro, spent a few days Bellefonte the past week visiting his mother Mrs. Theresa Tate, on Bishop street.

-Benner Wilson, a former Halfmoon townshi their motion. Mr. Butler was the plaintiff armer but now a resident of Beech Creek, transin three actions similar to above and they acted business in Bellefonte on Saturday. were all stricken off for the same cause and -After a week's visit at the home of Col and in order to give him a fair chance the court Mrs. J. L. Spangler, Mrs. William McCormick left for her home in Philadelphia on Saturday. -Mrs. D. H. Hastings and Mrs. Elizabeth Cal away went to Philadelphia in the the early part of the week for a few days Christmas shopping.

-Conductor Harry Winton, of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, laid aside his uniform on Sunday and went to Tyrone for a two days

-F. Walls Larimer, who now holds a good position with the American Lime & Stone com pany, in Tyrone, spent Sunday with his mother in this place.

-James A. McClain, of Spangler, spent Sun day in Bellefonte visiting his mother and sister, Miss Ella, who is confined to bed with a slight attack of typhoid fever.

-Ex-Sheriff Cyrus Brungard, of Centre Hall, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday on business connected with the settling up of his father's estate, the late Jacob Brungard.

-Torrence Shearer, of Lock Haven, who made quite a reputation for himself as sheriff of Clinton county, spent Monday night and Tuesday or business trip in Bellefonte.

-Joesph J. Rhoads, of Philadelphia, who holds the responsible position of assistant engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad, spent Sunday with his mother, sister and brother in this place.

-Mrs. John Sebring Jr., has been in Potts' ville for two weeks or more, watching at the bedside of her father, Mr. Charles H. Wostjen, who is lying at the point of death with no chance of recovery.

-J. Thomas Mitchell Esq., transacted business in Tyrone on Monday eveni

-William McClellan went to Altoona on Saturday to spend Sunday with his son, Thomas. -Mrs. W. N. Golden, of State College, left in he early part of the week for a visit with friends in Boston

-J. Malcolm Mitchell is home from his work at Syracuse for a vacation that will last over the holidays at least.

-Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, former county superintendent of public schools, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday

-S. Girard Williamson Esq., of Philadelphia, a Democrat after our own heart and a seiler bonds par excellence, was in town yesterday or busines

-Rev. William Laurie, D. D., attended an adourned meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery in Tyrone on Monday, called for the purpose of dissolving the pastoral relationship of Rev. A. R. Hunter with the Birmingham Presbyterian church

-Owing to the closing down of Red Bank for the winter William Burnside has given up his home at Scotia and is once again in Bellefonte intermingling with his many friends, the same genial gentleman he was when in charge of the tandard Scale & Supply company in its palmiest days. Of course Will will very likely spend the entire winter in town.

----- Its the Fauble Stores that offer you your pick from their entire stock of winter overcoats at } off the regular price.

ROWE- ARMSTRONG -- John C. Rowe, recorder of Centre county, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Armstrong, daughter of Mrs. Catharine Armstrong, of Altoona, but formerly of Philipsburg, were quietly married at the parsonage of the Catholic church in Altoona at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Rev. Father Morgan M. Sheedy performed the ceremony and only the requisite num. ber of witnesses were present. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rowe left on a brief eastern trip which will terminate with their arrival home in this place next Tuesday evening.

MOYER-SHEARER. - Peter Moyer, a retired merchant of Kylertown, Clearfield county, and a brother of Adam Moyer, of Philipsburg, and Mrs. Jacob Shearer, also of Kylertown, came to Bellefonte in the beginning of the week and were quietly married by Rev. William Lautic, D. D., at his home on Spring street. Mr. and Mrs. Moyer will continue to make their home at Kylertown.

BOAL-BOAL. - A rather belated wedding notice is that of William T. Boal and Miss Catharine Boal, both of Centre Hall, who were married at the United Brethren parsonage in this place by Rev. Barshinger, on November 23rd; and may their "bowl" of happiness be continually overflowing.

MAY PROSPECT FURTHER. -- Orvis Hoffman, of Punxsutawney, who the past year has been engaged in drilling for coal on the lands of Harris, Prentiss and others, has completed his present contract. This is the land owned by John P. Harris and others and on which several fine veins of coal as well as a good bed of fire clay have been found. Though the present contract with weighty subject with the result that he did not keep in the middle of the street. Opposite the side gate at the Humes property is a hitching post, standing perhaptwo feet outside the gutter. The doctor

-----If you are looking for a useful gift

AUTOMOBILE WRECKED. -Dr. M. J.

for man or boy the Fauble Stores will make also, and brought in a verdict for the de-

The first case called for trial this week

When the case of James Krebs, use of

-James Furst returned on Tuesday evening had forgotten the existence of this post and from a two week's sojourn at the home of his basket ball team will play the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. team in the gymnasium in this place, this evening. Go and see the game as it promises to be a good one.

----- Last Saturday Boyd Noll, of Zion. bought the double frame dwelling house on east Lamb street from Mrs. Josephine paper then go to their store and see how Cruse. The price paid was $2,300. Mr. Noll expects to move to Bellefonte in the epring

-Rev. John Hewitt, of Columbus, Ohio, who was Rector of St. Johns Episcopal church in this place from 1877 to 1885. will fill the pulpit in that church on Sunservice.

-----When searching for inexpensive remembrances for Christmas, go and see Miss | with a turkey dinner. Morgan's shell and imitation pips, combs and hair ornaments. On entering her shop many suggestions will be given you for the season's shopping.

-Jury commissioners Adam Hazel and Clement H. Gramley with the assistaboe of sheriff Kline are now at work filling the jary wheel with names of the men who will he drawn to serve as jurors during the year 1908.

-- Tomorrow license court for the year 1908 will be held in the court house when Judge Orvis will bear the various applications presented to him. So far as known there has been no opposition to any of the present license bolders.

the Brockerhoff house last Friday evening. Twenty-two covers were laid and in addition to the eeventeen members of the footwere present.

-The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. basket ball team went to Tyrone last Friday and that evening defeated the team in that place by the score of 26 to 22. It was a close contest throughout and the Bellefonte team won solely through its superior playing at the finish.

--- The "Saved from the Slams" company gave two entertainments in Bellefonte last Saturday, a matinee in the aftermoon and a regular performance at night, but on both occasions had poor houses. Sunday evening they left on the 4:44 train west and this week have probably been doing she "saving" stunt in various other places.

-----We have thus far omitted to make mention of those magnificent whiskers A. A. Dale Esq., has grown since he has been in the lumbering business at Gum Stump, They are neither mutton-ohops nor imperialistic but point outski at each corner an true Rassian style. And we only trust shat in his lumbering operations Mr. Dale ne proving as successful in raising the dough as he has been in raising whiskers.

else that makes such an appropriate present. And, in addition, there is always such an endless variety of things to pick from. In order to be convinced of the truth of this you have only to read the advertisement of F. P. Blair & Co., in this nice everything is. And they can always suit you, both as to quality and price. Even in the midst of gift giving the prudent housewife must give at least a part of her time contemplating the FIXIN'S FOR THE CHRISTMAS DINNER but she will need to worry very little if day next at both morning and evening she goes to Sechler & Co. There she can get anything in the grocery line she will need as well as everything necessary to go There is another place you dou't want to overlook if you are hunting for and that is Green's Pharmacy. You will be astonished at the large and varied assortment of holiday goods on exhibition there. In fact the list is too long to even begin to enumerate the pretty things, so you will just have to go and see them for vourself.

FANCY NOVELTIES, ETC.,

In the midst of all your gift giving and receiving remember that "the poor ye bave with you always," and that it is possible there are families in Bellefonte who will not be able to indulge in any gift-giving and may even not have the means to pro-

---- The annual banquet to the Belle. vide a good Christmas dinner ; or may fonte Academy football team was given at perhaps have to shudder with the cold because they have not the means to keep warm. If you know of any such and have the means to do so, send them a sack of ball squad five of the Academy faculty flour from C. Y. Wagner's mill or a ton of coal from Edward K. Rhoads' yard. It will mean more to them than most any other gift you could bestow.

And now if you have read all the above carefully we feel sure that you will be able to make wise selections in the matter of your gifts and we know that every advertiser in the WATCHMAN will greatly appreciate your trade.

-----If you are looking for a useful gift for man or boy the Fauble Stores will make your selection easy.

MASONS ELECT OFFICERS .- Last Friday | could get hold of, paying as high as eighevening the Bellefonte Chapter, No. 241, ensuing year, as follows :

Most excellent high priest, William R. Jenkins : most excellent king, M. S. Mo-Dowell; most excellent scribe, W. Homer Crissman; treasurer, John P. Harris; sec- tling for turkeys is a form of gambling were found to be in a good condition, though retary, Charles T. Noll; trustees, Dr. J. L. prohibited by law and that is the reason it in one or more instances the inspectors sug-Seibert, William L. Steele and Hammon Sechler; representative to the grand chap- gess. And that is also the reason why more sanitary condition of their product. ter, John L. Knisely.

the shape of oysters, fruit, etc., were served. | be plentier and cheaper.

William S. Furst ten dollar prize will be held at the Bellefonte Academy this afternoon, and all friends of the institution are invited to be present. Let your presence there attest the interest you feel in the welfare of the Academy. This eventng Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes will give a reception to the new students of the academic grade at the fraternity house, corner of Allegheny and Cartin streets. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion.

- Its the Fauble Stores that offer you your pick from their entire stock of winter overcoats at 1 off the regular price.

-Mr. Andrew J. Cook has resigned his position as superintendent for the Berwind-White Coal company and with his wife and daughter expects to take a trip to California this winter. Mr. Cook has not been in the best of health for mouths, and some time ago was compelled to undergo an operation. Since then he has been troubled with rheumatism and he decided that a change of scene and climate was the best thing possible for him. He is now in Philadelphia where he will remain until after Christmas when he will return to Bellefonte and as soon as he can get things in shape, which will be about the middle of January, will leave for California, where they will spend two months or more visiting his brother, George Cook and family. They expect to return to Bellefonte in the spring and if his health is then all right Mr. Cook will very likely again associate himself with the Berwind -- White company, though not as superintendent.

for man or boy the Fauble Stores will make your selection easy.

-The two weeks or ten days prior to from the waters of the Susquehanna. Jesse Christmas will not be fraught with the Donlap was also at work on the bridge at excessive turkey hustling matches that the time but not on the traveler and he was characterized the fortnight prior to Thanks- not injured. The bridge is being built by giving, if burgess John I. Curtin adheres the York Bridge company, with which to his dictum when he stopped the hustling Boyd A. Musser is connected, and the just before Thanksgiving day. Hustling Dunlap boys have been with the gang since was then carried on to such an extent that July first. Newt came home on Wednesit was impossible for dealers or individuals day evening to remain until his injuries to get any turkeys at all. Certain people are healed.

in Bellefonte bought all the turkeys they teen cents a pound, then hustled them off -Two State meat inspectors were in Belle-Royal Arch Masons, elected officers for the for anywhere from twenty to twenty-two fonte on Tuesday and made an inspection money in their pockets, and they could in Bellefonte, in accordance with the pronot be blamed for their enterprise in under- vision of the new pure food law. In gentaking to make it, but unfortunately bus- eral both the shops and slaughter houses was stopped at the suggestion of the bur- gested some changes which will insure a there is not likely to be any of it before Especially were the butchers cautioned Following the election refreshments in Christmas and consequently turkeys may against the use of water from the creek for the storm curtains of his machine down he failed to see it and the first thing he knew the left front wheel struck the nost and the machine was thrown around onto the pavement. When the doctor took an account of stock he found the wheel practically smashed to pieces, the axle bent and the fender bent, while his acetylene lamp was knocked into many pieces. He telephoned to the garage and workmen went to the scene of the wreck and fixed the machine np sufficiently to be hauled into the shop for repairs. Dr. Locke claims that the hitching post is forther out in the street than he thought it was and that is the reasop he ran into it. Be that as it may, the collision was a pretty costly one as the damage to the machine was easily one hundred dollars.

- Its the Fauble Stores that offer you your pick from their entire stock of winter overcoats at 1 off the regular price.

HURT IN WRECK .--- Monday and Tuesdays rains raised the waters in the Susquehanna river to almost the flood limit and caused considerable damage by the washing away of bridges, etc. On Tuesday afternoon the big "traveler" on the second span of the new iron bridge being built across the Susquehanna from Bloomsburg to Mifflinville collapsed as the result of a log being washed against the iron understructure and seven men were killed and twelve injured. Among the latter was Newton Dunlap, son of county commissioper John L. Dunlap, of this place, who had both legs badly bruised but no bones head of a gaug to undertake the recovery of the bodies of their dead fellow-workmen

MEAT INSPECTORS IN BELLEFONTE. visit with friends at Lemont this week. cents a pound. Of course it was a little of the butcher shops and slaughter houses any purpose whatever.

William S. Furst, Esq., in Philadelphia and now is suffering considerably with a bad attack of rheumatism

-Misses Mary and Anus Brown, who have been in Frederick, Md., since the death of their father, arrived in Bellefonte this week and will spend the winter with their sister. Mrs. Kyle Mc. Farlane and tamily.

-Prof. H. E. Van Norman, of The Pennsylvaia State College, is in attendance at the annual eeting of the State Grange in session at West Chester this week and was one of the very interesting speakers before that body. -Rev. George M. Glenn, of Chambersburg, spent a part of the week in Centre county, having come from Mifflinburg where he had been on unday dedicating the new organ which has been recently placed in the Methodist church there.

-After spending a month or more at the home of her father, Mr. A. Baum, Mrs. Jacob Reesman with her little daughter left last Saturday for Columbus, Ohio, where she spent several days with her sister ere proceeding to her home in Princeton, Ind.

-Wilbur F. and John Toner Harris came up from Harrisburg on Saturday, the latter to spend Sunday with his mother and brothers, while the former, in addition to visiting his people spent some time here this week in the interest o Hensch & Co., with whom he is associated.

-Earl Ross, who now holds a very good position with the Westinghouse people in Pittsburg, passed through Bellefonte on Monday on his way to Linden Hall to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs. James Ross. He came as far as Tyrone or saturday spending Sunday with Mrs. Laura Bricker

-After being in Bellefonte the past month on account of the serious illness of Paxton Cow-drick with typhoid fever, but who has now pracically recovered, Mr. M. W. Cowdrick with his daughter, Mrs. Romizer, and Mrs. Harry Hazel left on Monday afternoon for their he Niagara Falls.

-The venerable S. B. Leathers, of Roland, was visitor in Bellefonte last Saturday and while in town dropped into the WATCHMAN office and had his name enrolled to the first of 1909. Mr. Leathers is one of the oldest subscribers to the WATCH. MAN and on Saturday he paid us the unusual compliment of saying that "in politics it was as true as the bible in religion." while as a county newspaper "it had no superior." Such words of ncouragement are very inspiring to the humble editor who is always striving to give his readers the best paper possible.

-After spending several days in Bellefonte s mests of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Weiland, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Long left on Monday for Lemont. Mr. Long is a rising young dentist of Berwick and the cause of their protracted visit is that they were just married on Thanksgiving day and as the doctor has many friends in this county he brought his bride here for their honeymoon and it goes without saying that they had a most delightful trip, which was brought to an end by several days

-After spending a month or more visiting latives and friends in Bellefonte and Centre unty C. K. Lutz and family left on the one o'clock train on Tuesday for their home in Kansas City, Kan. It is twenty-six years since Mr. Lutz left Centre county and went to Illinois to make his fortune. Later he sold his property in that State and moved to Kansas and no owns upwards of fifteen hundred acres of land there. But notwithstanding this fact, he has a hankerin' for the land of his birth and may at some near day sell his possessions and return to Centre county.

Mr. Hoffman has been filled it is likely he will be engaged to make still further developments, as the owners have a large tract of land, much of which has not yet been prospected.

-----If you are looking for a useful gift for man or boy the Fauble Stores will make your selection easy.

----Owing to the cold weather many farmers throughout the county have been compelled to haul their corn into the harn and are busking it inside.

-The Basket Shop will hold an exhibit and sale for one week beginning December 17th in the new writing room of the Brockerhoff bouse. 52-48-21

Sate Register.

Dec. 18th. At the residence of the Misses Wilson, near Stormstown, horses, cows, young cattle, sheep-among them one full blooded Chrop-shire buck, hogs, chickens, apples, potatoes, farm implements, hay, straw and in fact every-thing produced or used upon a farm. Sale opens a 1) a. m. sharp. *

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

Potatoes, new, per bushel. Eggs, per dozen.... Lard, per pound.... Country Shoulders.

10 15 Hams. Tallow, per Butter, per ound.

Rellejonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

The following are the quotations up to siz 'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

	- 24
Rye, per bushel	7
Corn, shelled, per bushel	70
Jorn care non hughel
Corn, ears, per bushel	70
Oats old and new, per bushel	54
	6
Fround Plaster, per ton 8 50 to 9	0
8 00 10 9	0
Buckwheat, per bushel	5
Cloverseed, per bushel	-
Nimothy good par hugh at	U
rimothy seed per bushel$2.00 to $2	1.9

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red		95%@96
-NO. 2		9540 95%
Corn -Yellow		72@72
-Mixed new		716075
Oata		55340050
riour-winter, Per I	5r'l	4.00
-Penna, Roller		4.20@4.30
-Favorite Bran	ds	5.85@.600
Kye Flour PerBr'l		4,80@,490
Baled hay-Choice	Timot No. 1	12.0HNg 20.00
	Mixed "1	15.50(2.18.00
Straw		9.00@13.5

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.60 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid defore the expiration of the year; and m paper will be discontinued until all arrearage 1 paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advant arage is

A liberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	17
One inch (12 lines this type Two inches Three inches Quarter Column (5 inches) Half Column (10 inches) One Column (20 inches)	7 10 12 20	$ 8 10 15 20 35 65	$ 10 18 25 35 50 10

-If you are looking for a useful gift broken. His injuries are not serious and Wednesday morning he went out at the