Democratic Watchman. Bellefonte, Pa., January 24, 1908.

P. GRAY MEEK. . . . EDITOR

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION .- Until further notic his naper will be furnished to subscribers at the ollowing rates :

Paid strictly in advance ...... ... $1.00 Paid before expiration of year..... 1.50 Paid after expiration of year..... ..... 2.00

Democratic Cancus.

The Democratic voters of the county are hereby notified that Democratic Caucuses will be held at the usual places for holding caucus, in each the election districts within the county, on Saturday, January 25th, for the purpose of aominating candidates for the various offices to be voted for at the February election. Members of the county committee will fix the hour of meeting in their respective districts. W. D. ZERBY,

Democratic Ward Caucuses

The borough caucuses for the nomination of Democratic caudidates for borough and ward offices will be held tomorrow (Saturday) evening, at 8 o'clock and should be largely attended. The meeting places for the various wards will be as follows :

North Ward-At Gettig, Bower & Zerby's office in the Praner block.

South Ward-In the Arbitration room in the court house.

West Ward-In the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN office.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

-Mrs. Robert Armstrong has been very ill for the past two weeks with pneumonia.

-----The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bellefonte Trust company was held on Tuesday morning at which all the old officers were re-elected. Following the meeting the stockholders all went to the Brockerhoff house for dinner.

-At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank, of State College, Dr. William Frear was elected a director in place of Prof. Lonis E. a man known farland wide and universally Reber, resigned. All the other old mem- liked by all. bers of the board as well as the officers were re-elected.

the Penns Cave property to Dr. Clay Campand his brother, Robert Campbell, of Cincinnati. Ohio, has purchased the James Cross Roads cemetery. Karstetter property at Pleasant Gap and will move there in the spring.

-Centre county friends of Hon. J. N. pova, formerly of Philipsburg, will be

HAZEL -Quite a sudden and unexpect- LONG. -Another of Bellefonte's venered death was that of Jared Hazel, which able citizens has answered the last soll sister of the late Thomas Kennedy, of Thursday of last week William Ellenber- ing of citizens irrespective of party, held in securred on Saturday afternoon at the call in the person of John Long, who died Filmore, but better known as "Aunt Fan- ger celebrated his eightieth birthday an- the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Monday, January home of his son Charles, in Williamsport. at the home of his son William, on Rey- nie," died at noon Wednesday. She had niversary at his home in the western end of 20th, at 10.30 a. m., to take into considera-Mr. Hazel went to the Lumber city the day nolds avenue, on Monday morning. He been well as usual up to last Friday when Ferguson township. No attempt was made tion what action should be taken upon the before Christmas but was there only a few caught a bad cold on New Year's day she was seized with a slight pain about the at a large gathering, the day being passed local option question with reference to the days until he became quite ill. He recov- which later developed into the grip and beart which gradually grew worse until in a quiet and unostentatious way, but approaching election for the Legislature, ered to a certain extent but last week he- then pneumonia and at his advauced age death came to her relief. came worse and sank rapidly until the end of more than four score years he was not came on Saturday, diabetes, with which able to withstand the ravages of the latter ty, Ireland and had she lived until June life. Mr. Ellenberger is a native of Fergu- court house. The committee organized by

be has suffered for two years, being as- disease. signed as the cause.

Deceased was born in Miles township so that had he lived a few days less than a 1880 and during her residence in this sec- is a veteran of the Civil war, having served following call was issued: sixty five years ago. His early life was month longer he would have been eighty tion had become well known. She was a for four years as a private in company E, spent in Brush valley but for sixteen years four years of age. Practically all his life sister of the late Mrs. Robert McKnight Forty-fifth Pennsylvania volunteers, and he had made Bellefonte his home. He was a was spent in Bellefonte and vicinity and and a fact in connection with her saw much active service. For a man of member of the Lutheran church, a man of he was one of the best known men of this death is that it is the sixth in the family his years be is still remarkably healthy anassuming and retiring disposition but section. Though but an artican all connection within two years. Her only and vigorous. His sight, memory and was highly respected by all who knew his life he was upright and industrious survivors are Robert and Martha and Mar- bearing are all good and he is also quite him. He was united in marriage to Miss and at all times had the respect and esteem garet McKnight. She was a member of active. Jane Brown, who survives him with the of his fellowmen. Early in life he was the Presbyterian church and a conscienfollowing children : Thomas and George, united in marriage to Miss Ellen Logan, tious christian woman. The funeral will stated that Ferguson township must be a of Bellefonte; Charles and Mrs. Ida Hart, who died eight years ago. One son, Wil- be held today, interment to be made of Williamsport; also the following broth- liam, with whom he made his home, is the in Meyers' cemetery. ers and sisters : J. Adam Hazel, of Axe only surviving child.

Mann: Wilson, of Madisonburg; Cornelius, Mr. Long was a consistent member of the of Pleasant Gap; Samuel, of Lemout; B. Franklin, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Samuel White, from that edifice at ten o'clock on Wednes- Thursday of last week at her home in of Bash Addition, and Mrs. Adam Courter, of Illinois. His is the first death to occur cemetery. in a family of eight children.

1

The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Sunday and taken to the home of Thomas Hazel, on Logan street, where brief funeral services were held at 8:30 o'clock that evening and on Mouday morning they were taken to Madisonburg for interment.

Zinck, in Look Haven, and making her 1 NEARHOFF.-Quite a sudden death was home with her cousin. Miss Leah Wilson. that of Henry Nearhoff, of Warriorsmark About two weeks ago she suffered a bad attownship, Huntingdon county, at 5:30 tack of the grip and other complications o'clock Monday evening. Nearhoff was a arising she was taken to the hospital in farmer and after feeding and attending to that place early last week. Up notil Sunhis stock as usual went into the house, sat day she seemed to be improving but on down in a chair and died without a strug- that day she suffered a collapse and her death followed speedily. gle or bardly a movement, heart disease Deceased was twenty seven years of age being assigned as the cause. Deceased was one of the best known men in eastern Huntingdon county and had Breon, of near Coburn, this county. She many friends and acquaintances in the at one time worked at the dressmaking Mrs. Weimer. western end of Centre county. He was trade in Bellefonte and was a young womborn on the old Nearhoff homestead in an very much liked by all who knew her. Warriorsmark valley in 1830, hence was in In addition to her parents she is survived the seventy-eighth year of his age. His by three brothers and five sisters. The reparents dying he acquired the old home- mains were taken through Bellefonte on stead and his entire life was spent in the Monday afternoon to her parent's home home of his birth, following the honorable from where the funeral was held on Tuesoccupation of a tiller of the soil. He was day afternoon.

He never married and his only survivor oldest residents of Altoona, died on Friday is one sister. Mrs. George Gensimore, of afternoon at the home of her daughter, Centre Line. The funeral was held Mrs. Martha A. Dysart, with whom she -John Herman, who recently sold at ten o'clock yesterday morning. had made her home the past ten years. Services were held at the house by Rev. J. Deceased was eighty-six years old and was bell, of the University of Pennsylvania, W. Witt, pastor of the German Baptist born and raised in Millheim, this county. church, and interment was made in the She was united in marriage to William H.

Petersburg, where Mr. Roush died thirty-MAN mention was made of the serious ill- lowing children : Mrs. Emma C. Henry, office here the past month became so sick evening, January 27th, under the auspices drawn:

KENNEDY .- Mrs. Fannie S. Kennedy,

CHICKERING. -- Mrs. Frank Chickering. Catholio chuich and the funeral was held a former Philipsburg woman, died on day morning .Rev. Father McArdle officiat- Grand Rapids, Mich., after a year's illness. ed and interment was made in the Catholic She was fifty years of age the day of her death and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richards, of Philipsburg. BREON.-Miss Orpha Breon died in the She is survived by her husbaad, one son Look Haven hospital at 5 45 o'clock Sun- and a daughter, her mother, one brother day evening of the grip and bowel trouble. and three sisters. She is well remembered some time had been working for Miss Ida death is the cause of deep regret among

-It snowed again yesterday.

at her home near Stormstown.

cash register in their store on Wednesday.

afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Weimer, of Lebanon. Mrs. A. O. Furst entertained Wednesday night in bonor of

for a complete recovery.

-A baudsome big monument was erected on the Furst lot in the Union cemetery last week by T. Frank Mayes, of ROUSH.-Mrs. Helen Roush, one of the Howard. It is of light Barree granite and weighs over eleven tons.

> fonte announcing the marriage of Miss Anna Butler, daughter of Mrs. Anna Bat- ly no company like it or remotely approach- Regarding the proposition of James ary 8th in New York city.

ness of James Gallagher with typhoid fever, Mrs. W. B. Miller, Mrs. Martha A. Dysart, last Saturday he could not Wednesday of this week was taken to his

She was horn in Moglass, Donegal coun- gratulate him on his good health and long a call for a conference to be held in the 6th next, would have been seventy-five son township, and his entire life has been the election of J. C. Meyer Esq., as chair-Deceased was born February 15th, 1824, years old. She came to Centre county in spent in the neighborhood of Marengo. He man, and C. C. Shuey, Sec., after which the

And in this connection it might be very healthy locality according to the list of octogenarians living within its coufines. In addition to Mr. Ellenberger and his even four-score years there are Jacob Neidigh, who is eighty-eight years old; Mrs. Eliza Houser, eighty-seven; Mis. David Fye, eighty-four; Mrs. G. W. Campbell, eighty-one; Mrs. Joseph Kuhn, eightythree; Mrs. Mary Bair, eighty-six, and Mrs. Rosana Williams, eighty-seven. Of the above nine people who have passed their four-score mark and whose total ages are 760 years, seven are women, and the last The young lady was a dressmaker and for by many people in Philipsburg and her one named, Mrs. Williams, is unusually spry and active, not appearing to be more than sixty years old. At a recent butchering at the Williams home she prepared all the casings for the sausage and was as jolly

THE RONEY BOYS .- The high class of music which dominates the programs of "Roney's Boys" concerts is the wonder of musicians, and the delight of lovers of the best in music. Educators everywhere, who are interested in having the highest ideals presented for the instruction and cultiva-sions of the music halls. There is absolute- was refused.

of the Y. M. C. A. Prices 35 and 50 cents

FOUR SCORE AND STILL VIGOROUS. -On LOCAL OPTION MOVEMENT. -At a meetmany of his friends took occasion to cou- a committee of five was appointed to issne

> My Dear Sir .- The tidal wave of enthusiasm in the temperance reform is hitting Penusylvania hard. We had almost enough votes in the last Legislature to force the issue out of committee, and many leaders in the State who were against it then are now the State who were against it then are now outspokenly in favor of advanced legislation along this line. We are facing a crisis. The iron is hot. We must strike—strike now, and strike hard. The liquor men stand solidly organized. We must meet an organ-ized foce with an organized force. Centre county has the temperance sentiment, and if it can be crystalized we can send a man to Harrisburg to the next Legislature, who will truly represent that sentiment.

truly represent that sentiment. We do not wish to put an independent man in the field as a candidate if it can be avoid-ed, but if we shall have the old parties nominate men who stand square on this question we must make our power felt before the primaries. At a conference of men, held in Bellefonte, January 20th, 1908, a Committee was ap-pointed to call a meeting for conference, looking to an organization affiliating with the Anti Saloon League in this fight. The committee has fixed on Tuesday, Feb-ruary 6th, as the date. The court house as the place. The time 10 a. m. The conference will be held morning and afternoon, and a mass meeting in the evening. A representa-tive of the State League will be present. We rely upon you, as one interested in this more the held morning and afternoon and a tive of the State League will be present. We rely upon you, as one interested in this movement, to be present yourself, and to see that your community shall be largely repre-sented. The more men present the better. A big meeting, full of enthusiasm will be a long step in the commencement of this fight. Trusting that you will be present at this meeting. neeting, we are ours	most cordially.

	J. C. MEYER,
	F. W. CRIDER.
	JARED HARPER
	F. POTTS GREEN
	C. C. SHUEY.

BOROUGH COUNCIL'S DOINGS .- Eight members were present at the regular meettion of a correct musical taste in young ing of borough council on Monday evening people, welcome the presentation of such but aside from the approving of the bills standard music as an object lesson and an presented they might as well have stayed inspiration. The best is none too good for at home, as nothing of any importance was the American people, and the steady growth done. The Street committee got the burin musical taste so noticeable all over the den of the night's session by being ordered country is gratifying proof of the wisdom to repair the pavement in front of the of raising the standard of the programs Hibler property on Allegheny street by every year. "Roney's Boys" Concert com- raising it to conform with the grade in pany stands for the highest order of music front of the Montgomery property. They and the most finished and artistic interpre- were also ordered to have the are light on tation possible to attain with talented boys. St. Paul street cleaned and a reflector put It has nothing in common with the music over it. The request for an arc light on ---- Cards have been received in Belle- of the vandeville stage or the trash effu- east Linn street near the Bower residence ler Snyder, to Frank Monroe Bertrand, ing it, in either America or Europe. The Kelly to pay four hundred dollars for the the wedding having taken place on Janu- various costumes are rich, appropriate, and old Undine hose house council refused it historically interesting. The boys are from on the grounds that the price was too low, -Howard Woodring, who had been in different States and are not related to Mr. five hundred dollars being asked. The fol-GALLAGHER.-In last week's WATCH- six years ago. Surviving her are the fol- charge of the Western Union telegraph Roney. In Petriken hall next Monday lowing hills were approved and orders

-Mrs. Ellen Mattern is seriously ill as a girl of sixteen while doing it.

---- Mrs. Bogle entertained Tuesday and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aley

---- We are glad to state that Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is slightly improved and her friends now hope interested in knowing that he has lately moved his family from Cuba to New York where he expects to make his future home. He still retains his large business interests in Cuba and will make periodical visits to that country.

--- Roger A. Bayard, the Bellefonte man now editing the Tyrone Herald, gained additional notoriety last Friday afternoon when he captured an Italian who had stabbed a fellow man, and with the assistance of another man turned him over to the proper authorities. His action was witnessed by a crowd of almost five hundred people, who proclaimed him quite a hero.

-----W. H. Denlinger, of Patton, but who for years was a resident of Philipsburg, is in Chicago this week representing the Pennsylvania Independent Telephone association as a delegate to the International Independent Telephone association, which includes all the independent companies in the United States and Canada. He also read a paper entitled "The Independence of the Independents."

---- Members of the Masonic fraternity throughout Centre county are looking forward to the winter meeting of the Williamsport consistory which will be held next week, January 29th to 31st inclusive. The gathering will be an important one as a large class of candidates will receive degrees, from the fourth to the thirty-second. Quite a large number of members of the order from this county are arranging to attend.

-Dr. William Frear, of State College, chairman of the joint committee on Food Official Agricultural Chemists and the association of State and National Food and arranged for, those interested in the manu- of the services. facture and sale of these commodities, on application to the chairman.

-Rev. J. Allison Platts preached to the students at State College on Sunday morning and so interesting did they find him that one student said that although he talked until ten minutes after twelve o'clock "they all were as quiet as a mouse, not one went to sleep and even the ceiling refrained from falling down." His last reference was called forth by the fact that during the sermon in the auditorium the Sunday previous a six foot section of moulding around one of the ceiling lights came loose and fell with a crash in the gallery, injuring several people. The only cause from which the young man died in the Misses Mary and Gertrude, of Altoona ; Altoona and was brought to Bellefonte and land, and Mrs. Amos H. Rumberger, of taken to the hospital only a little over two Houtzdale. She also leaves one brother, weeks ago.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gallagher and was born in Bellefonte August 22nd, 1882, thus being past twenty-five years of age. When a young may be learned the core-making trade at Lingle's foundry and has always been an industrious young man. His mother died | father and the following brothers and sisters: Thomas and Mary Gallagher, Mrs. Elizabeth Derstine and Mrs. Gertrude Smead, all of Bellefonte.

The funeral was held at ten o'clock Tuesday morning from St. John's Catholic church, of which he was a member. Rev. Father McArdle officiated and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

LOVELAND .- W. F. Loveland died at his home at Lamar at 1:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon of asthma and a complication of diseases. He was sixty-six years of age and was born and lived all his life in the vicinity of his death. When but twenty years of age he enlisted as a private in company E. Seventh Penna. cavalry, and served throughout the war. After the war he engaged in the mercantile business which he followed until ill health compelled him to retire.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Harry D., of Corning, N. Y.; Reuben, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. John Confer, of Snow Shoe; also by the following brothers and sisters : Isaac, of Lamar: H. Standards, appointed by the association of D., Antes Fort; C. W., of Roaring Branch; Lyman M., of Williamsport; Mrs. Ira C. Eddy, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Philip Dairy Departments, has issued a call for a Krape, of Lamar. The funeral will be held meeting of the joint committee, to be held this morning at ten o'clock, interment to in Chicago beginning January 30th next, be made in St. Paul's cemetery at Lamar. to consider standards for malt liquors and Rev. Bubb, of the M. E. church, of which corned beef, etc. Public hearings will be deceased was a member, will have charge of the Mifflin county bar, died at his home in Lewistown last Thursday night after more than a year's illness, aged eighty-five years. Deceased was born in Lewistown and spent his entire life there with the exception of six years, during which time he lived in Bellefonte and clerked in the drug store of his uncle, the late Dr. John Harris. For forty-two years he was a director in the Mifflin county National bank and for thirteen years its president. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church for over fifty years. He is survived by five children among them being Judge Joseph M. Woods, of Mifflin-Huntingdon-Bedford that could be assigned for the accident was the radical change in the atmospheric could-the radical change in Bellefonte hospital on Saturday morning. Mrs. John Fausett and Mrs. Annie Caroth- home in Delaware. Mr. Whiteman, of He contracted the fever while working in ers, of Baltimore ; William H., of Cleve- Osceola Mills, is now in charge.

Woods .- D. W. Woods Esq., the nestor

> Edward Kreamer, of Juniata. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon.

1 1 1 BEDLYON.-After a protracted illness Presbyterian church at the Men's Missionwith the infirmities of old age Amos ary convention to be held in Philadelphia Bedlyon died at his home at Potters Mills on Monday afternoon of last week. He was seventy-one years old and was born in some years ago but surviving him are his Dauphin county, though most of his life country. was spent near the Seven mountains on which he for years worked as a lumberman. He is survived by his wife and the

Koush, and years ago the family moved to

Roush, of Burnham; George, John, Samuel and Rufus, of Colyer; Mrs. John Ginger- D. B. Kunes, Blanchard; William R. Johnich, of Lewisburg, and Miss Annie, of seyville.

DUNLEVY. - Mrs. Catherine Dunlevy died at her home in DuBois, on Tuesday of last week, of diseases incident to old age. She was a native of Centre county and was about seventy years old. During her early Following the reception Dr. Sparks lecturlife she was a resident of Bellefonte but left ed in the Auditorium on "Robert Morris, here some time after her marriage and for years has made DuBois her home. Her husband is dead but surviving her are a en this winter for general educational pur- Davis, who daily works in the Lee & Loeb family of eight children. She also leaves two brothers and one sister, Martin and John Kerns, and Mrs. Peter McMahon, of this place. The remains were brought to dent of the college until June. Bellefonte last Friday afternoon and buried in the Catholic cemetery.

1 YEARICK .- Mrs. Phoebe Yearick, widow of the late Thomas Yearick, of Aaronsburg, died at the home of her son, Harry Yearick, in Philadelphia, on Saturday. Several weeks ago she went to the Quaker city on a visit and was taken sick while there, and being naturally in somewhat frail health succumbed to the disease. She was about seventy years of age and is survived by a number of children, one of whom is Mrs. W.

B. Mingle, of Centre Hall. The remains were taken to Aaronsburg where the funeral was held on Tuesday.

1 KAMMEREE-Mrs. Catharine Kammerer, wife of Charles Kammerer, of Look Haven, and mother of Fred Kammerer, of Bellefonte, died at her home in the former place last Friday morning as the direct result of injuries sustained in a fall two months ago. methods for detection of adulterants in She was a native of Germany and was seventy-eight years of age.

RAMALEY .- Mrs. Rachel E. Ramaley, in common use. If every house keeper mother of Mrs. Simon Sigford, of Philips- would put in use these simple tests and reburg, died at her home at McGhee's Mills, fuse to be duped by adulterated foods, it provements the architect's plans provide

-Dr. J. Allisop Platts, Gen. James A. Beaver, William P. Humes, James Harris and Charles E. Gilmour were secently elected delegates to represent the Bellefonte February 11th-13th. It is expected that this will be one of the largest gatherings in the interest of missions ever held in this

---- The following old soldiers of Centre county were recently granted an increase in pension : David. Wance, Aaronsburg; following children: Arthur and Mrs. Jacob Collar, Moshannon; John F. Morris, Philipsburg ; Jacob Harnish, Boalsburg; son, Milesburg; Levi A. Fallmer, Rebers Peru. The funeral was held last Thursday burg, and Isaac Thomas and W. Keeler, afternoon, interment being made at Tus- Bellefonte, the latter to twenty-four dollars a month.

> - Dr. and Mrs. Judsou P. Welsh, of State College, received yesterday afternoon from four to seven o'clock, in houor of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Erle Sparks, of Chicago. the Unknown Patriot." This was the second lecture in the free course being givposes ; a course offered largely through the influence of the English department. Dr. Sparks will not assume his duties as presi-

-George D. Grazier, son of Clark Grazier, of Huntingdon 'Furnace, had his entire left hand with the exception of the little finger cut off by a circular saw on Wednesday of last week. He had gone to one of their saw mills in the woods to see how everything was getting along and caught throwing him to the ground. In an effort to save himself he threw out his hands the left one coming in contact with the saw with the above results. The injury was so bad it was found necessary to quite popular. He has been married three amputate the hand at the wrist.

-Dr. William Frear, member of the Pure Food Commission, gave an interesting and instructive demonstration on food adulteration before the Woman's Club, State College, on Tuesday evening. The work of the club for the year is on Home Economics and Dr. Frear showed simple flavoring extracts, oider vinegar, cream of tartar, blackberry cordial, jellies, maple syrup and various other household articles had quite a sensation last week and as a selection for the Electric Co.... r. B. Crider & Son lumber result the listic terms of t result the little town was in a state of con" siderable excitement for several days. Alexander Meyers and John Spangler, two woodsmen, decided to take a little trip down the Susquebanna river. Consequently they built a raft of railroad ties lying longside of the stream. Owing to the recent rains the river was considerably swollen and the current quite swift at that point. When the two men had their frail the middle of the stream. The strong our- are as follows : be found, and though an inquiry and Philipsburg. searchiwas kept up for two or three days Democrats who have obtained blanks and either the missing men alive or their been located.

Chart now open at Sheffer's grocery store.

AN OLD COAL DIGGER .- Probably the oldest coal miner, in both age as well as actual years work at coal digging, is John mine, at One Mile run, near Philipsburg. "Jackey" Davis, as he is more familiarly called, was born in Glamorganshire, near Cardiff, in the southern part of Wales, February 12th, 1823, so that now he is within a few days of being eighty-five years of age. When but seven where he is known by everybody and is ship. times, is the father of eighteen children and still hale and hearty.

been at work for some time past on designs for the improvement of the campus at State College, has prepared a neat booka topographical map, colored perspective, several college buildings and sectional views of the campus with the proposed developments. The board of trustees has adopted the plans and some work has already been done. Among the other im-

Bellefonte Fuel & Supply ( American Lime & Stone C Potter Hoy Hardware Co... 86 16 68 61 50 Water Works pay roll ... 70 80 00 11 44 Adams Express Co..... H. E. Fenion Insurance... Intock Speeding Co. Garlock Packing Co. Potter Hoy Co. W. F. Reynold nolds. $930,22

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA.-Local politics are beginning to look up and candiraft completed they got aboard, out loose dates in both parties are springing up all from their moorings and with shouts of over the county. In the Democratic party farewell to their comrades pushed out into those who have already filed there petitions rent caught them and they were carried For sheriff, J. C. Snook, of Millheim : down the river at a rapid rate. Several treasurer, James Schofield, Bellefonte; renours later the raft was found broken to corder, Thomas Howley, Bellefonte; counpieces and completely wrecked lying on ty commissioners, John L. Danlop. Bellethe bank more than a mile below where fonte, and C. A. Weaver, Coburn ; delethe men started but no trace of them could gate to state convention, Frank W. Grebe.

are soliciting signatures are as follows : bodies if dead, could be found ; so far and Treasurer, Hammoud Sechler, Bellefonte, as known at this writing they have not and W. J. Carlin, Rebersburg ; register, George F. Weaver, Gregg township.

The following Republicans have already announced or are circulating petitions : For sheriff. William E. Hurley, of Philipsburg; register, E. C. Tuten, Bellefonte: recorder, W. W. Clees, Philipsburg; county commissioner, H. E. Zimmerman, Benner township; Assembly, Charles Fisher, of Boalsburg ; R. B. Taylor and William Evey, of Bellefonte.

MUSSER - TRESSLER-A quiet little wedding took place at the home of Mr. and years of age he entered the mines in Wales Mrs. George W. Tressler, near Penns Cave, and worked for twelve cents a day, and on Tuesday of last week, when their daughhas worked in the mines continuously ever ter. Viola C., was united in marriage to since. He came to this country sixty-one Clarence T. Musser, son of Jacob F. Muswhile walking through the mill his foot years ago and first worked in the mines in ser, of the same locality. The ceremony Indiana county but many years ago came | was performed by Rev. B. F. Beiber of the to Centre county and has been employed in Lutheran church. Mr. Musser is one of mines near Philipsburg ever since, and the force of school teachers in Gregg town-

> SHUGERT-FELTY.-On Thursday, January 9th, George Shugert, of Oak Hall, and Miss Mary Felty, of Boalsburg, were quiet-STATE COLLEGE CAMPUS IMPROVEMENT. Iy married at the Lutheran parsonage in -C. N. Lowrie, of New York, who has the latter place by Rev. J. I. Stoneoypher. Both young people are well and favorably known in Harris township and have many friends who wish for them only the smoothlet which contains an outline of the plans, est kind of sailing over the billowy sea of matrimony.

> > ----- A bout seventy-five Sophomores from State College attended the banquet at the Bush house last Friday evening. On their trip home when the special train reached the "Y," about a mile from the college it stuck, because some fun-loving Freshmen had greased the tracks, and the Sophs were compelled to foot it the remainder of the way to the College.