Worth Trying Now.

In the reigns of William III and Queen Anne a tax was laid upon bachelors. A bachelor duke over the age of 25 had to pay about $60 a year, while "ordinary" bachelors were taxed a shilling, and the lower classes in proportion. In 1875 bachelors were obliged to pay a heavier tax on their servants than married folk. It is difficult to imagine what effect a revival of a "bachelor tax" would have nowadays—it would be a curious experiment!

One of the Good Reasons.

One of the very best reasons why the Democrats should nominate Bryan is because all Republican and plutocratic papers are for Johnson or some other man to follow the advice of the enemy is to count defeat.

Have You Read the Following?

It is with great regret that we are obliged to call the attention of our subscribers generally to the recent ruling of the U. S. Postal Department, which, after the 1st day of April next, will prevent the mailing of any paper to any patron whose subscription may be one or more years in arrears as second class matter. Order No. 901, issued last month and published in the Postal Guide for December says:—
Unless subscriptions are expressly renewed after the term for which they are paid, within the following periods:
Dailies within three months,
Tri-Weeklies within six months,
Weeklies within one year,
Monthly within four months,
Quarterlies within six months,
they shall not be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed on account thereof, SHALL NOT BE ACCEPTED FOR MAILING at the second class postage rate of one cent per pound.
The necessity for such a ruling we do not know. The benefit the postal department expects to derive from it we can not imagine. But as the order has gone out for its enforcement, it simply means to publishers that subscribers who are in arrears must be dropped, and to patrons that a longer credit than one year cannot be extended any one.
The WATCHMAN has scores of good, honest and reliable, patrons who have befriended and stood by it for years and years, whose accounts have gotten back beyond the time limit fixed by the antecost of the post office department. You may be one of these. We know that you are not in arrears because of an unwillingness to pay, or with the intent or expectation of avoiding payment, but rather through forgetfulness or the inconvenience of doing so, coupled with the leniency shown on our part. We have refrained from annoying you with duns or humiliating you with the demands of collectors, believing that when it became convenient for you to make, or necessary for us to ask, settlement, it would come promptly and cheerfully.
That time is here—made necessary by the dictation of the nosing official of the Government Post office, and we are obliged to ask payment or settlement of your account at once in order that the WATCHMAN can be continued to you. Examine the tab on your paper. The figures will give you the exact date to which your subscription is paid—will tell if you are within the limit fixed by the Department. If you are not do not bother further. If not, send in the amount due, or come in and arrange, quickly as possible. It must be before April 1st.
We are anxious that you shall continue as a patron. We want you to read and enjoy the WATCHMAN—it will be a pleasure, and of value, to you, and will be good for those about you. But you must not fail to see the necessity of arranging for its continuance. When you come to do so you will be treated fairly and will not be asked to do impossible things. Remember the time is short and the sooner this matter is attended to the better.

Without Trying Now.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD BULLETIN.

THE MID-WINTER OUTING.

This is the time for the mid-winter outing. A dash of summer in the midst of winter is an agreeable variation. It makes for health and pleasure and stimulates vitality.
For the extended trip, Southern California, the fruit and flower land of the Pacific Coast offers unrivaled attractions.
For the fortnight's trip, Florida, the summer garden of the Northern winter, bids you come and enjoy its genial sunshine, its tropical scenes and its out-door life.
For the ten day's outing, Pinehurst, Camden, Aiken, Augusta, Southern Pines and other popular resorts in the pine belt of the Carolinas and Georgia offer many inducements.
For the short trip—the week-end outing—Atlantic City is always attractive. The same breezes that depress the thermometer in summer seem to keep it up in winter. It offers great hotels on the ocean's edge, out-of-door life on land and sea, and a climate full of snap but shorn of the winter severity.
Before deciding on your mid-winter outing consult a Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent and get a Pennsylvania Railroad Winter Excursion Book. Whether you select California, Florida, the Carolinas, or Atlantic City, the Pennsylvania Railroad offers a comprehensive train service, reasonable rates and ticketing arrangements, and the best facilities that modern transportation methods can provide. 52-3-2t.

Bellefonte Lumber Company.

Get to know the old firm in the new name.
August 14th, 1907, the Ardell Lumber Company Yards, Mills, and Good-will changed to Bellefonte Lumber Company.
The B. B. Co. was formed purposely to handle the old Ardell business, and was particularly well fitted to do it most successfully.
Some of the old Company men remained in the new, and in addition some new ones came in. The personnel of the Company is now interesting. Skill, honesty, and the highest efficiency is indicated to those who know the men. Mr. E. M. Huyett is president; Mr. Edward L. Hoy, secretary and treasurer; Mr. J. C. Smith, Fleming, is acting superintendent. The directors are these same men, and Mr. James Harris, and Mr. Daniel Buck, Fleming.
The intent of the careful preparation—to install three new departments, and to double the old lumber capacity. This has been done.
A complete roofing division—shingles, ruberoid, and other methods, is in operation. The plant for manufacturing double air chamber concrete building blocks is the only one of any consequence in this county. We supply sand, lime, glass, etc., and Portland cement on any specifications, and do it quick.
The office makes intelligent suggestions and estimates willingly and promptly, and your bill is filled without a hitch.
Sound business management is combined with the spirit that never allows itself to get behind. It goes after business in a way to win and hold it. Buying is done with open eyes. The best is secured in the widest variety. Prices stay where they should. For there are no big losses from mistakes, imperfect material, or otherwise.
This is the kind of business we are doing. But we want more of it. Let us get acquainted!
Much money is lost—much quality sacrificed, through careless buying of these things—Well?
