ing more. Stop these "corporations and land thieves" from stealing and make them give up what they have stolen.

I am very Respt., yours. JOHN T. FOWLER.

Farmer Frank Miller lost a valuable horse last week.

Charley Lytle and wife are making a week's visit with relatives in Altoona.

Had all kinds of weather Sunday, sunshine, rain and snow and a terrific gale.

Jacob S. Reed, who has been seriously ill with neuralgia of the heart, is on the mend.

You don't want to miss the entertainment in Leonard Grange hall, Rock Springs, tomorrow evening.

Harry Burns and family spent several days in the beginning of the week among relatives in Bellwood.

The stork was busy this week as Friday night it left a boy at Oliver Piolet Bloom's home, at Bloomsdorf.

Miss Anna and Maude Goeben are in the city of Brothly love this week mixing business with pleasure.

Miss Hannah Royer, who has been visiting friends down Nittany valley, returned home Friday delighted with her trip.

James L. Reed, of Boalsburg, faced the storm, Tuesday, and came up to see his brother Jacob, who is now some better.

John Charles, the sawyer, is arranging to plant a steam saw mill over on the Moore and Huyet tracts in Stone valley.

Mrs. Sarah Sauserman tripped and fell downstairs last Thursday morning breaking the index finger on her right hand.

Owing to a lay off in the Millburg carriage shops Mr. and Mrs. James Irwin are at the Adam Krumrine home in Boalsburg.

Howard Baelew and family came down from Baileyville to spend the Sabbath at the home of Harry Shugert on the Branch.

In our last letter we gave the Pine Grove High school entertainment for February 20th. It should have been the 21st, on Friday.

Wm. Mothersbaugh is up in the Mountain city mixing business with pleasure.

Pennsylvania lodge I. O. O. F., No. 276, have their mid winter festival billed for the last week in February, in their new hall on Main street.

Miss Maggie Lytle fell on a Boalsburg pavement fracturing her thigh bone. She is now holding down her easy chair and likely will for weeks to come.

J. B. Heberling and family enjoyed a drive over to Warriorsmark Sunday to spend the day with his uncle, Perry Gates, who is not as robust as he once was.

The stork left a boy at the J. L. Holmes home last week but no doubt in due course of years will be assisting his Pa. as tax collector, notary public and "sich."

Constable P. C. Frank, of Centre Hill, transacted business in Boalsburg, Tuesday. Philip would make a grand candidate for sheriff for he is a hustler for away back.

Miss Bell Goheen is in hard luck again. Some time ago she had a fall in the barn from which she had hardly recovered when she fell on the ice almost breaking her arm.

On account of a long lay off by a large bride concern at Toledo, O., Robert Campbell, a State man, is rustivating among his old chums at Fairbrook, and not a job in sight.

The O. I. A. boys of Tussey council, No. 515, have their annual banquet billed for February 14th, at the St. Elmo parlors. The committee in charge will spare no means to make it a success.

Col. John R. Lemon, Democrat, of Gatesburg, wants to get in the political arena quick. The colonel is willing to serve the dear people in any capacity and would make a hustling candidate.

Walter Weaver has a hustle on with his steam outfit sawing wood in and about the town the past week. If everybody was a hustler like Walter there would be no cry of money stringency and tough times.

Miss Gertrude Herman, a trained nurse, came up from Philadelphia to care for her uncle, G. W. Homan, who is ill with typhoid fever. Yesterday afternoon he took a very decided turn for the worse and his condition last evening was very precarious.

Wm. Keller, formerly one of our successful school teachers, went to Pittsburg in the early fall and took the civil service examination, ranking first in one hundred and fifty applicants. He was at once given a department in the post office there, therefore is not worried over the money panic, as the government pays in gold.

Farmer and constable John Fortney, after a two week visit in the Buckeye State, returned home last week giving a very flattering account of the Dannie boys and their fine horses and flourishing businesses. They are keeping up the pace and have no concern on the subject of prosperity. They are workers, to say the least. Mr. Fortney says old Centre is good enough for him to round up his days in.

—Bottled honey is getting to be more and more popular with the consumer class. The number of articles that have been published on methods of bottling have resulted in popularizing the sale of honey in glass to such an extent that tons and carloads of it are now put up in that form that formerly sold in bulk at very low prices—so low for the beekeeper to make a fair living.
