

words or forms they have been expressed, are a call to every church member and adherent of the church in this struggle to come out boldly on the side of decency, sobriety, and purity. What a tremendous crime it would be in eternity for a soul to lay its destruction to the door of a church member, who in this hour gave comfort and assistance "to the Liquor Men," as they have chosen to style themselves.

Those who are members of any church, no matter what the denomination who fail to aid at the coming primaries in selecting men who can be honestly relied upon to both work and vote at the next session of the Legislature for a "LOCAL OPTION BILL" are no better than the inhabitants of Meroz and deserve the same fate, and as sure as the Lord lives it will follow. "Curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty."

Humblerburg.

Jake Bergstresser spent Saturday in Bellefonte and Lock Haven.

Harvey Guise and family are moving on the farm vacated by Samuel Hoy.

Mrs. J. A. Emerick invited a crowd of her friends to her home last Thursday to a quilting party. All present report Mrs. Emerick a very charming hostess.

Preaching services will be held in the Reformed church at this place next week, commencing Monday evening and continuing until Friday evening. Preparatory services on Saturday afternoon and communion on Sunday morning.

The moving of Samuel Hoy to the Harrison Kline farm, two miles east of Bellefonte, was one of the season's biggest fittings. Everybody that was invited took advantage of the opportunity and went along. The community will miss them very much but nevertheless wish them many happy and successful years in their new home and surroundings.

Jeweled Relic of Fire Horror.
While Henry Moyer and Dr. Thomas J. B. Rhoads, the owner of Boyertown's burned opera house, were passing the ruins they noticed sticking from a pile of debris a bone, which on examination proved to be an entire human hand, ornamented with a gold ring and a diamond-set bracelet. The jewelry was identified as belonging to Miss Gwendolyn Mayer, who, with her father, Dr. Charles E. Hayer, lost her life in the holocaust. Miss Mayer's brother recognized the ring as her class emblem.

No Local Option in Maryland.
An unfavorable committee report was made in the house of the legislature on the local option bill fathered by the Maryland Anti-Saloon league. The adoption of the report and the subsequent refusal of the house to substitute the measure for that there is little likelihood of any temperance legislation at the present session.

Auto Creates Sensation in Jerusalem.
Charles J. Glidden, of Boston, and Mrs. Glidden arrived in Jerusalem in a motor car from Haifa, Syria. It was the first motor car ever seen in Jerusalem, and created a sensation among the populace.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The volume of display advertising published in the Philadelphia Record last year was more than a million lines in excess of that published by its nearest Philadelphia competitor. It is a maxim among advertisers that "Where Advertising Pays It Stays," a fact that the proprietors of hotels and boarding houses in this vicinity should remember when placing their advertising orders for the coming season, as the Record has held this supremacy for the past ten years. This condition is due to the quality and quantity of the Record's circulation, which is unequalled by that of any other Philadelphia newspaper.

Laundry Agency.

Mr. H. R. Rager announces that he has taken the Bellefonte agency for the Lock Haven steam laundry and will make collections on Tuesday mornings with return on Thursdays. All work is guaranteed to be of the best. Also drying scouring and cleaning. 53-10-31
