GIVES RIGHT TO STRIKE

United States Supreme Court Hands Down Decision Affecting Enforcement of Rate Laws In Two States. Justice Harlan Dissents.

Washington, March 24. — The bill prepared by the National Civic Federation after conferences with the president and representatives of capital and of labor to relieve the stringency of the Sherman anti-trust law, was introduced in the house by Representative Hepburn, of Iowa, chairman of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. It was referred by Speaker Cannon to that committee for consideration and report. It is understood that President Roosevelt, in a message to congress, will make a recommendation concerning it.

One of the most interesting sections of the federation bill is that which seeks to relieve organized labor from the suppressive effects of the recent supreme court decision declaring labor unions to be conspiracies in restraint of trade, and, therefore, unlawful. The bill, broadly speaking, aims to restore to unions their right of peaceable existence, including the right to strike, but leaving them still amenable to the Sherman act in the matter of boycotts, picketing and similar coercive practices. The section is as follows:

"Nothing in said act, appoved July 2, eighteen hundred and ninety, or in this act is intended, nor shall any provision thereof be enforced, so as to interfere with or to restrict any right of employes to strike for any cause or to combine or to contract with each other or with employers, for the purpose of peaceably obtaining from employers satisfactory terms for their labor or satisfactory conditions of employment, or so as to interfere with or restrict any right of employers for any cause to discharge all or any of their employes, or to combine or to contract with each other or with employes, for the purpose of peaceably obtaining labor or satisfactory terms."

The bill has been prepared under the auspices of the National Civic Federation in consultation, on the one hand, with the president and other executive officers on the government, and on the other hand with representatives of the business and railroad interests of the country and of organized labor. The effort has been to prepare a bill which in its general scheme would command the support of the president, and which would deal with all interests affected by the Sherman anti-trust law fairly, and, so far as conditions would permit.
