THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The Woman's Guild will have their exchange as usual tomorrow in Sheffer's store.

W. Homer Crisman was confined to the house the past week on account of illness.

Last Sunday was the first nice Sunday in two months, the weather being ideal all day.

W. L. Steele has begun the erection of a new dwelling house on the alley in the rear of Pine street.

Next Wednesday will be moving day and from all indications there will be a lot of fitting in Bellefonte.

Col. John A. Daley, of Curtin township, is again in the political arena, this time as a candidate for the nomination for county commissioner.

George W. Clark, a former well known hotel man of Williamsport, has bought the Mosser house at Millheim and will take possession tomorrow.

The storm doors at the Bush house have been removed, now if the organ grinder with his monkey will put in an appearance we will feel sure that spring is here.

Rev. J. F. Hower, the new minister of the United Evangelical church, arrived in Bellefonte last Friday evening and preached his first sermons to his congregation on Sunday.

J. C. Rumberger and his son Samuel have bought the chicken farm of A. W. Hoffman and W. Harrison Walker and now Sam will go into the chicken business for all there is in it.

Don't forget George A. Beezer's big sale of horses, carriages, etc., at his barn on Water street, Thursday of next week. It will be the biggest sale of the kind in the county this year.

One freight car jumped the track on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad a short distance south of Nittany furnace on Friday evening but it was replaced without interfering with traffic.

Rev. George Israel Browne has resigned his pastorate of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Harrisburg to accept a call from the congregation of St. John's church, Lancaster, on May first.

Edwin Harper resigned his position in Hazel Bros store to accept a similar one at Twin Rocks, Cambria county, but since he had as good an offer to remain in Bellefonte and may conclude to do so.

A nice little baby girl made its appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl, on Quaker Hill, the past week, while a baby boy was a new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ott, on Valentine street.

The grey fox which the Panther hunting club captured last fall during their outing on the Allegheny mountains, has been mounted and now occupies a conspicuous place in Kuisely brothers museum window.

The Ruger business in laundry and dry cleaning for the month of March has been about $75.00. This showing for a first month's business speaks well for the work done. Have you talked to Ruger about it yet?

Yesterday Mr. Edward Brown Sr., celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday anniversary. Mr. Brown is now the oldest resident of Bellefonte and while not in the robust health of young manhood is quite hale and hearty, considering his age.

Dentist J. J. Kilpatrick and Dr. John Sebring last week traded automobiles. That is Dr. Kilpatrick bought Dr. Sebring's machine and threw his old Cadillac in as a bonus on the deal. The latter gentleman is now in the market for another car.

The base ball fever has broken out in the lower end of Bald Eagle valley and representatives of clubs at Howard, Beech Creek, Mill Hill and Orvis met at Mill Hill last Friday and organized a league with W. W. Redding as president of the association.

Last week Sheriff Kline took possession of the cigar store of Charles Miller on judgments and executions exceeding seven hundred dollars. The store was sold on Monday morning at sheriff's sale. Harry Otto was the purchaser and the price paid was $77.50.

The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. basket ball team met the Renovo team in the gymnasium last Friday evening and after the game had progressed far enough that the score stood 29 to 9 in favor of Bellefonte the players got into a wrangle and refused to finish the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. S. Garman, who have lived in Tyrone the past ten years or longer, moved back to Bellefonte last Saturday and will not take charge of the Garman house on the first of April. Miss Louise Garman, daughter of C. M. Garman, of Atlantic City, will assist Mrs. Garman in her duties as landlady of the hotel.

While in Washington two weeks ago Edward T. Gregory had his watch stolen while in a hotel on Pennsylvania avenue. He discovered the loss in less than a half hour and at once reported the theft to the superintendent of police. He left the city shortly afterwards but later received a telegram that the watch had been recovered from a pawn shop the same afternoon.

ROBBERS ABROAD IN BELLEFONTE

On Saturday night robbers broke into Miller's hardware store on Allegheny street and stole about three dollars in money, three revolvers and a lot of cartridges. They gained an entrance through a window in the rear of the building and when in the store they opened the safe, which, by the way was not locked, and rifled it of all its contents. Books and papers were piled promiscuously on the floor but not a thing destroyed. They went through the cash drawer and got about three dollars in change. From the show windows they took three revolvers, one a big, muzzle-loading army revolver and the other two a more modern make. They also stole a lot of cartridges to fit the revolvers, and of course got away without anybody being any the wiser until the next morning.

The same night some person, probably the same parties, broke into the express car on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania by knocking a corner out of the glass in the door then reaching in and opening the lock, but there they got little for their trouble. There was nothing of value in the express section of the car but the robbers broke open a box in which was an adding machine. Fortunately, however, they did not damage the machine at all.

They also rifled the mail department of the car and from there secured twenty five cents that had been left there by the mail agent.

On Monday three young men were arrested on the charge of committing the burglary and as the revolvers were found on their persons the evidence against them is quite conclusive. The arrest of the three young men resulted in unearthing what appears to be a regularly organized band of reprobates—we refrain from calling them thieves.

Some time ago The Willows, the club house up Spring creek, was broken into and quite a lot of stuff stolen. From evidence now in possession of the authorities it is evident that the band made use of that place as their headquarters. Some ten or a dozen boys and young men are implicated and on Wednesday evening four more were placed under arrest, while the arrest of three or four more is likely to be made at any time. While there is no condoning the acts of these young law-breakers, we refrain from publishing their names out of a feeling of sympathy for their families and in the hope that some of the boys, at least, will be able to prove themselves innocent of any connection with the gang. The guilty, however, should be brought to justice and given to know that such high-handed acts will not be tolerated in this community.

CELEBRATED HER 87TH BIRTHDAY.—Mrs. Mary Ann Allison Rishel, of Clintonville, celebrated the eighty-seventh anniversary of her birth on Monday of this week. This aged lady is one of the real Daughters of the American Revolution, her father, Matthew Allison having been a soldier of the Revolutionary war. His remains are buried at Jacksonsville, Centre county. Mrs. Rishel was born and raised at Cedar Run, near Furst Bros., and still enjoys good health for a lady of her age, being able to attend church and visit among her neighbors. Her half brother was the father of United States Senator, W. B. Allison, of Iowa.

Mrs. Rishel is a member of the Bellefonte chapter, D. A. R., and was presented with a gold D. A. R. insignia in memory of her 87th birthday. Mrs. H. C. Valentine, of this place, was selected to give the badge to Mrs. Rishel but on account of illness was unable to go down and the presentation was made by Mrs. J. H. Houston, in behalf of the Bellefonte chapter. Last June Mrs. Rishel was granted a pension by the National D. A. R., and she also received a gold spoon, which is only given to the real daughters, while the chapter gave her a donation as a Christmas present. She is said to be one of six real Daughters of the Revolution in Pennsylvania.

GET IN LINE AT THE POST OFFICE.—Custom has almost made it a law for people—and especially children—to crowd up to the carriers' delivery window every Sunday morning and insist on getting their mail first, thus blocking the way out for those who have been served and impede the delivery in general. On behalf of those who have been in the habit of obeying the request to get in line, the postmaster appears to parents who send their children for the family mail on Sunday mornings to request of them to get in line, which will greatly expedite matters and enable the carriers to effect the delivery in time for all to attend church who desire to do so.

The St. Mary's Dramatic club, of Snow Shoe, scored quite a hit in its production of "A Noble Outcast," at Snow Shoe on the evening of St. Patrick's day. An unusually large audience witnessed the entertainment and every member of the club played their part exceedingly well. The costumes were splendid and the stage settings very realistic in the different scenes portrayed. Rev. Father Corovan directed the play.

E. R. Eyer, of Altoona, is now in Bellefonte and expects to open up a flower store in the rooms in the Bush Arcade, formerly occupied by John Porter Lyon's garage, on or about April 6th. The store will be known as The City Florist, and they will keep in stock constantly all kinds of plants and cut flowers. See advertisement on fifth page of the WATCHMAN.

D. H. Shively's sale on Wednesday amounted to about $4700. It was one of the big ones.

Have you arranged for the payment of your subscription to this paper so that your "tab" will show it paid up to within one year from this date? This is a requirement of the Postal Department that goes into effect the 1st day of April. Look at your "tab." If you have not already arranged this matter, do so at once, and continue reading the best country paper in Central Pennsylvania.

The Bellefonte alumni association of The Pennsylvania State College will hold its first banquet at the Nittany Country club Friday evening, April 3rd. There are about sixty persons eligible and quite an affair is anticipated, a special train and an orchestra being among the essentials.

Rev. W. K. Foster, of Jenkintown, but who by the way is an old Centre county native having been born and raised in Potter township, was honored by the Philadelphia North Presbyterian by being elected one of the four delegates to the General Assembly which will be held in Kansas City in May.

In speaking of Mr. William Showers in a recent issue we stated that he worked in the yard at the Bellefonte Lumber Co.'s plant, when we should have said that for years he has been the faithful and efficient engineer, so faithful that he has worked eight years without losing a day. Who can beat this.

Mrs. S. E. McKinney, of Port Matilda, was sixty-nine years old last Saturday and celebrated the event by entertaining a large gathering of friends at her home. The dinner was a feature enjoyed by all the guests, who were present from Bellefonte, Philipsburg, Tyrone, Altoona and Stormtown.

The double tenement house owned by William Trester, at Unionville, was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday forenoon. The house was occupied by the families of Joseph Gill and William Eckenroth, both of whom succeeded in saving most all their household furniture. There was a small insurance on the building.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Clyde E. Orwig, of Millburg, a Senior in the electrical engineering department at The Pennsylvania State College, to Miss Helen A. Rutherford, of Lancaster. The young people were married at Snodgrass on January 8th and kept the fact a secret until within the past few days.

Among the people who suffered severely by the flood on Thursday night last was Mr. George F. Switzer, of Spring creek. His finely kept and pretty little home above the old distillery property was washed so that one would scarcely recognize it now. Tuna and tons of stones covers his garden and the pretty flower beds that were such a pleasure to passers-by are under the wash so deep that it is doubtful if they can ever be resurrected.

Judge Ellis L. Orvis last week received an old door latch mounted on a block of wood as a present. While not very valuable it is none the less appreciated as a welcome souvenir as it was off of the door of the room in which he was born and also of the house in which his father and mother went to housekeeping. The residence is the old Herr house in Look Haven, which is being repaired by sheriff J. Harris Mussina, and it was he who sent the souvenir to Judge Orvis.

Joe Stiver, of Stormtown, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday and took his daughter, Miss Nancy, home from the Bellefonte hospital. Two months or more ago the girl hurt one of her fingers on her left hand and though it was given careful attention it would not heal and gan-re finally set in. She was brought to the Bellefonte hospital where it was found necessary to amputate the finger as well as remove some of the bones in the hand, but the injured member has now healed to that extent that a permanent recovery is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gummo, of Fairbrook, gave their daughter, Miss Anna, a surprise party last Friday in honor of her twentieth birthday anniversary. The event proved a most delightful one for all the young people present. The evening was spent in playing various games, music, etc., after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Agnes Campbell, Irene King, Alice Homan, Grace Kuhn, Susie Dearnit, Clara Myers, Letitia Johnstonbaugh, Minnie Gummo and I. O. Campbell, John Homan, Charles Myers, William J. Markle, John Myers, William F. Dearnit, Price Johnstonbaugh, Harry and William F. Markle.

When George L. Kneisely moved from Howard street to one of Twitmore's houses on Water street he had visions of being close to good fishing grounds when the trout season opens but he never for a minute contemplated how accommodating the suckers are in that locality. The very day he moved he had about fifteen inches of water in his cellar on account of the high water of last Wednesday night. After the water had receded and his cellar drained George went down to wash the mud out and imagine his surprise to discover flopping around under the stairway a fish fifteen inch sucker. The fish had evidently gone up the drain pipe when the water was high and failed to make its escape when the water went out. Now if the trout will only be as accommodating when the season opens George will be in paradise.

EVERHART-WIGTON.—Quite an elaborate wedding took place in the Presbyterian church at Graysville at two o'clock yesterday afternoon when Miss Louisa Russell Wigton, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wigton, became the bride of John E. Everhart, both of Graysville. It was a public wedding and the church was crowded with friends of the young people to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. R. M. Campbell, of Pine Grove Mills, the ring service being used. Samuel Everhart, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man while there were a half dozen bridesmaids and thirty ushers. One hundred and fifty guests were present at the wedding supper and reception at the home of the bride's parents at five o'clock in the evening. Both young people are widely known and highly esteemed in their home neighborhood and upon their return from a brief wedding trip they will go to farming on the James Oliver farm.

WADDLE-TWITMIRE.—Though unpretentious in character the wedding of Philip D. Waddle and Miss Eleanor Twitmir was as pretty and happy as any nuptial event could be. It occurred on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Pickle, at Millersville, Lancaster county, and was attended only by the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Rev. James B. Stein went there from the conference at York to perform the ceremony and the attendants were William Waddle as best man, and Wilbur Twitmir and Miss Marjorie McGinley. Mr. and Mrs. Waddle expect to be away on a wedding trip for about ten days.

CODER-KUNES.—Daniel K. Coder, of Calvin, Huntingdon county, and Miss Nancy Emma Kunes, of Howard, this county, were united in marriage at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Weirich, in Altoona, last Friday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Stivison, of the First United Brethren church. Mr. Coder is in business at Calvin where the young couple will make their future home.

BIBLE-BUBB.—Harry E. Bible, a former Centre county, and Miss Bertha M. Bubb were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bubb, near Centre Hill, on Wednesday last. Rev. Daniel Gress performed the ceremony. On their return from a wedding trip they expect to go to housekeeping in Altoona where Mr. Bible is now employed.

AUMAN-KERN.—Harry R. Auman, of Millheim, came to Bellefonte last Saturday evening and was married to Miss Jeanette Kern, of this place, at the Reformed parsonage, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt performing the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Millheim.

DUNLAP-IRWIN.—On Thursday evening of last week Jesse Dunlap, son of county commissioner and Mrs. John L. Dunlap, and Miss May Irwin, were married at the bride's home on Penn street, Rev. John Hewitt performing the ceremony.

POULTRY CLUB ORGANIZED.—About twenty chicken growers and fanciers met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Monday evening and organized a poultry club by electing Rev. J. Allison Platts, president; Philip Beezer, vice president, and A. J. Heverly, secretary-treasurer. Committees on by-laws and membership were also appointed. Chicken growers all over the county are invited to join this club and if enough interest is shown it will likely be made a county association.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Yeager Swing and Manufacturing company on Monday evening the following officers were elected: President, J. A. B. Miller; vice president, Maurice W. Yeager; secretary and treasurer, Thomas J. Sexton; directors, John J. Bower, W. D. Zerby, M. W. Yeager, H. C. Yeager, H. C. Quigley and the president and secretary of the company.

Dr. R. G. H. Hayes and family vacated their old home on Spring street on Monday and C. M. Parrish and family and Dr. Dale and wife moved in on Tuesday. Harry Gehret moved from Jail hill to Bishop street, Mrs. Ed. Foster to the Gehret house on Pine street. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hoffman have rented rooms in Petriken hall and will move there, but up to this time W. Harrison Walker has not decided what he will do.

Last Saturday was the last day on which candidates for county offices could file nomination papers and the list as finally made up is exactly as published in the WATCHMAN one week ago with the addition of F. P. Mosser, of Millheim, candidate for recorder on the Democratic ticket, and Harry Keller, candidate for county chairman on the Republican ticket.

The United telephone company is making arrangements to install one of the new automatic switch boards in their exchange in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norris and little Samuel, of Altoona, have stored their household goods and are at the Rine home in this place for an indefinite stay.

Miss Marie Reese, a student at the Look Haven Normal school, is at the John S. Walker home on east Linn street where she will be for three weeks or so on account of her health.

Among our many callers on Saturday none was more welcome than more gracious than Mrs. Richard Lutz, who dropped in for a word with the editor while on an errand down town.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson, who has been spending the greater part of the winter with Dr. and Mrs. Hillier in Chester, returned to Bellefonte last week and opened her house for the summer.

Mrs. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, and Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, are guests at the Frank McCoy home on West Linn street; the former expecting to be there for some time.

James Clark, who is just getting used to living in town, called on Saturday and we fear with all the attractions of that nice new home of his here he still has a hankering for the fields and forests.

D. W. Scharrs, of Oseola Mills, was in town last week just while we were cleaning up after the flood and called when we were too busy to enjoy the little visits he usually makes when over this way.

Frank Confer, of Howard, was in town yesterday between trains.

B. B. Kelly, of Port Matilda, was in Bellefonte yesterday and decided he would try the WATCHMAN and see the kind of a county paper it is.

S. H. Beck, of Nittany, was in town on Wednesday so busy that he had only a moment to spare in the WATCHMAN office when he dropped in to square up.

Joseph Wise left for Spring Forge yesterday to attend the funeral of William Allen, a former resident of Bellefonte, who died there on Wednesday of pneumonia.

Mr. Chas. Lytle, of State College, after attending Harry Shively's sale Wednesday drove on into town to see about buying some clover seed, and you know clover seed costs money these days.

Miss M. V. Thomas, whose occasional poetical contributions are such an interesting feature of the WATCHMAN, spent Sunday with friends at Milesburg and here. She is living in Williamsport now.

Joseph M. Huston, of Philadelphia, the half a million dollar architect of the state capitol, was in Bellefonte yesterday and in company with General Heaver took a good look at the soldiers monument.

Mrs. G. M. Gamble was taken to the Lock Haven hospital on Monday and on Wednesday underwent an operation. Dr. Edith Schrad, of this place, who is Mrs. Gamble's physician, was present at the operation.

Miss Mary Brown, who has been with her sister, Mrs. J. E. McFarlane, went to Lock Haven Saturday, where she expects shortly, with her other sister, to open their house, which has for some time been closed.

Mr. George Markle, whose blacksmith stand along the Buffalo run road near the Jerry Ross farm, has been famous for good work for many years back, was in town on Monday buying a few supplies and helped us to buy a few too.

John Mechtly, ex-cori officer, Democrat and all around good sport at Grand Army and Democratic levees, was down from College township yesterday and dropped in to tell us all about it. We all know John so you can imagine how pleasant his call was.

William Kerin, of Moshannon, was in town on Monday on Tuesday and not having been here for so long decided that he would stay over night and call on a few of his friends. He is a great Democrat out in that section and had quite a time with the bunch of candidates who seemed to meet here that night.

That good Democrat Wade Lytle, of Stormtown, was in town on Saturday and we want to tell you that Democrats are few up in Halfmoon township and Wade is appreciated accordingly. With him was his Republican friend Wade who is just about as active on the other side of the fence, but not so partisan that he won't help a good man occasionally as he did a few years ago and has had no reason to regret it.

What promises to be one of the best home talent entertainments ever held in Bellefonte is the Bellefonte Academy minstrel, which aggregation will give a performance in the opera house on or about May first. The young men are being trained by Prof. Hall and have already developed some remarkable traits in the minstrel line. It will be an entertainment you don't want to miss, so make your preparations accordingly.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman, of Tyrone, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Myra, to Hugh N. Crider, of this place.
