A Famous Regiment.

It is doubtful if any other regiment furnished an equal number of distinguished officers during the civil war as did the Second United States Cavalry. Among the officers were Albert Sidney Johnston, colonel; Robert E. Lee, lieutenant colonel; William J. Hardee, brevet lieutenant colonel; George H. Thomas, major; Robert E. Lee and A. S. Johnston became generals in the Confederate army, and Hardee became lieutenant general. Thomas became a distinguished general in the Federal army. Among the captains were Earl Van Dorn, E. Kirby Smith and N. G. Evans, all of whom became generals in the Confederate army. I. N. Palmer, George Stoneman and R. W. Johnson held the same position in the Union army. Among the subalterns John B. Hood, Charles W. Field, Chambliss and Pfifer became southern generals, and R. Garrard and others attained the same place in the northern army. Captain Evans left the United States service before Colonel Robert E. Lee did, and when they parted at Fort Mason, Tex., Colonel Lee said: "I'm sorry to give you up, Evans. Don't know what may happen before we meet again. Perhaps they'll make you a general."

Helping Him Out.

Mr. Lord looked so grave one evening that his wife, a very young one, noticed it and asked what was the matter. "I suppose business is troubling you," she surmised shrewdly. "If you've struck a snag, why don't you tell me, and perhaps I may be able to help you?" After more affectionate adjuration Lord admitted that his payroll bothered him. "I've made it up as far as the workmen go," he said, "but if I pay the stenographer there won't be a penny left for Davis and me. Davis says he can't stand that. He must have some money this month." Lord's wife was momentarily grave; then her face brightened. "Why don't you give the stenographer a month's vacation," she suggested eagerly, "then divide what there is with Davis? It seems to me," judicially, "that would be fair all round." Youth's Companion.

The Story of Starlight.

"Once there was a group of sportsmen who were all quite broke," said a Jockey club official. "They must, however, get in to the races, and one at a time they presented themselves at the paddock gate. "I am the owner of Starlight," the first said. He was well dressed and imposing. They believed and passed him in. "I am Starlight's trainer," said the second. His red face and bluff manner bore out his story, and they admitted him. "The third man, small and thin, next appeared. "Starlight's jockey," he said shortly and hurried through the gate. "The fourth and last man of the group was very shabby indeed. "Well, who are you?" they said impatiently when he presented himself. "I am Starlight," was the meek reply.—Los Angeles Times.

Navel Oranges.

Possibly not every one has heard the anecdote about the dear old mother whose son had been promoted to be first lieutenant in the navy. He sent her a box of fine navel oranges from Florida and this brief note: Dear Mother—Just a handful of navel oranges, something you will find especially choice. De-votely, JACK. Speaking of Jack to some guests at the house a few nights later as they were enjoying the oranges, she remarked: "Just the very best boy in all the world, dear Jack. What a splendid sailor, and every inch an officer! But he never could learn to spell. Just think of a lieutenant spelling naval with an 'e' and a small 'n.' Isn't it embarrassing to a mother? Still it sounds all the same when you speak it."—New York Press.

The Morning Tub.

A few years ago a sister of mine called in to see an old lady who lived in a little cottage in Lincolnshire and in course of conversation happened to mention that she had a cold sponge-down every morning. "Law, miss," said the old lady, "and does your mother know?" "Yes, certainly, and she quite approves." "Well," said the old lady, "Ah washes ml faace lvery daay, an' Ah washes ml neck once a week, but Ah've niver bln washed all ower since Ah was a baby." This good lady lived to the ripe old age of ninety-three.—Cor. London News.

The Lotus Eaters.

The race of people to whom the name "Lotus Eaters" was applied was a Libyan tribe, known to the Greeks as early as the time of Homer. Herodotus describes their country and says that a caravan route led from it to Egypt. The lotus still grows there in great abundance—a prickly shrub bearing a fruit of a sweet taste, compared by Herodotus to that of the date. It is still eaten by the natives, and a kind of wine is made from its juice.

Superfluous.

Copy Reader—How will it do to head this story "A Growing Scandal?" City Editor—Cut out the "growing." That's redundant. A scandal always grows.—Chicago Tribune.

Divorce in Ohio.

There were 7,500 divorces granted in the State of Ohio last year. Women who are unhealthy and unhappy often look to divorce as the one way of relief from a life of suffering. There is another way, and a better. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which are commonly behind the irritation, unrest and misery of so many women. Ulceration, inflammation, bearing down pains and other diseases of the delicate womanly organs, yield promptly to this wonderful medicine. It contains no alcohol, no opium, cocaine or other narcotic and cannot disagree with the weakest constitution.

Many laxative medicines do nothing more than remove the immediate obstruction or discomfort. The use of such medicines makes constipated people more constipated. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure the causes of constipation, and so cure biliousness, sick headache, and other ailments resulting from constipated habit.

Medical.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Bellefonte. Mrs. John Andress, living on S. Spring St., Bellefonte, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been a great blessing to me, both my husband and myself. I suffered severely with a constant, dull, nagging backache and pains across the loins, and could hardly straighten after stooping. I was very dizzy at times, and during the day felt languid and tired out with no ambition to do my work. I could hardly walk without falling and was in a very severe condition when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I procured a box at Green's Pharmacy. It was surprising how quickly they gave me relief from the aches and pains, and caused the trouble with the kidneys to disappear. I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."
