YOUNG WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE. daughter of Mr. John Clark, deliberately drank carbolic acid on Thursday morning of last week from the effects of which she died in the Bellefonte hospital about eight

The young woman, who lived with he father and family in Bush's Addition, was in Bellefonte early that morning and atto her father in front of Crider's Exchange for several minutes then went home. Arriving there she remarked to her sister that she was going to Filmore to visit her half--The State College base ball team sister, Mrs. Fry, and went up stairs osten sibly to change her clothes. Some time later paper hangers in an adjoining room heard groans emanating from the room in which the girl had gone and also detected peculiar acid odor. Members of the family were at once notified, who, on enopened in Garman's opera house next and in spasms, while a bottle which contering the room found the girl unconscious tained the deadly poison told only too

Physicians were hastily summoned who did everything possible to counterast the -Garden making is now one of the effect of the poison, relieve the girls sufferings and save her life, but without avail. She continued to grow worse and at four o'clock was removed to the hospital where every measure possible was resorted to but the deadly poison had become too widely diffused through her system and she died a few minutes before eight o'clock the same

That the young woman's act was deliberately planned is proven by the fact constable in the West ward to succeed that after going to her room and before taking the poison she wrote a brief note of farewell to her father and other members of the family, selected the persons who she wanted to act as pall-bearers at her funeral, the pastor to conduct the services and the hymns she preferred, though she gave no reason for her deed. And because of this it is best to honor the unspoken wishes of the dead and draw the veil of charity over the causes that led up to the girl's selfdestruction. Just where she got the poison is yet a mystery, so far as known, though there are strange rumors regarding it.

Miss Clark was born in Marion township on June 16th, 1888, so that she was just 19 years, 9 months and 25 days old. For some time past her father and family have T. Boston will begin a series of evangelistic lived in Bellefonte. Her mother died a number of years ago but surviving her are her father, two sisters, Della and Elizabeth ; and the following half-brothers and day after to-morrow will be Easter. Have sisters: Mrs. Mary Gordon, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Maggie Fry, of Filmore : Mrs. Sadie Walters, of Houserville ; William Clark, of Clearfield ; Walter Clark, of DuBois, and Mrs. Charles Lose, of Bellefonte. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock and was very largely attended. Rev. Barry, of the Lutheran church, preached a very affecting funeral sermon, after which the remains were taken to Pleasant Gap for interment in the Lutheran cemetery there.

THIRTY MEN GOT WORK. - Considerable ouriosity was manifested last week when Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff announced his scheme to give every unemployed man work who wanted it and was willing to work if they would report at his farm east of Bellefonte at seven o'clock on Monday morning, and no little speculation was indulged as to the outcome of the offer. As the doctor did not state the nature of the employment he would furnish nobody knew what they were expected to do until

But when the hour for reporting arrived about fifty men and boys were on the down the ashes in the stove a few days ground and presented themselves to Henry Tibbens, the man in charge, ready to go to work. The crowd was mostly made up of people living in or around Bellefonte, and it is a fact that there really were more of them than the doctor expected. In fact he had only implements enough to give thirty men work and this number was picked from the entire crowd, married men being given the preference. The work to be done was cutting and grubbing, cleaning our fence rows and windbrakes. The men went to work with a will and did a good day's work and when six o'clock in ing were in nowise dissapointed. It was the evening came Dr. Brockerhoff was on - 'Squire H. --- Dr. L. M. Nissley, of Middletown, a graduate of the University of Penusylvania veterinary department, is considering locating in Bellefonte for the practice of his profession. Dr. Rice, of Osceola, has already located here with headquarters at Baum's livery.

--- Their basket ball team having proven such a winner during the winter the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. are now contemplating organizing a baseball team and applying for admission into the new Clinton-Centre county league recently organized by teams in Bald Eagle valley.

---The quarterly meeting of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance company was held in Petriken hall on Monday. Among the business transacted was the adjustment of the loss on D. L. Meek's barn, which was destroyed by fire recently. $2,450 was the amount allowed and ordered paid.

-Bellefonte is certainly most liberally supplied with flowers for Easter this year. With the abundance of plants at the City Florist, in the Bush Arcade; the superb flowers offered by Miss Jennie Irvin Miss Elizabeth Longwell and John Sourbeck no one need go without a "posey" on Sunday, if they have the price.

-Ruth, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Bartley, of Lock Haven, was just twelve years old on Sunday and in commemoration of the event her parents gave her a party which was attended by thirty or more of her young associates. It was a very enjoyable day for all, but for none more than Miss Ruth herself.

--- Having used up all the raw material on hand the Nittany Iron company banked heir furnace on Monday evening to await a time when the market will improve to starting up again. In the meantime their customers can all be supplied with the famous Nittany pig, as they have now on hand about 4,500 tons of iron.

-La Bellefonte, Edmund Joseph's bright little publication, came out this month as an eight-page magazine with covers, on the front page of which is a picture of "the spring that made Bellefonte famous." With each issue La Bellefonte grows more interesting and the young editor promises even greater advancement with the next issue, which will be the anniversary number.

-Ira D. Garman, jeweler, of No. 101 south Eleventh street, Philadelphia, is sending out to his trade and friends a neat little booklet which will be much appreciated by the women as it is a "Shopping List." It is substantially bound in leather, with a 1908 calendar and enough pages to afford space for the ordinary woman to jot down most of the articles at a half dozen bargain day sales.

York company in the auditorium at the he stood on a beer keg while placing the moving picture line.

OPENING OF TROUT FISHING SEASON .-Although Wednesday was not a very auspicious day for the opening of the trout season, owing to a hard rain, it did not interfere in anyway with the fish biting and the catch was probably one of the biggest made on any opening day in years. It was a poor fisherman who did not succeed in bagging at least a few of the speckled beauties while there were some very good catches and an unlimited number who got from a half dozen to fifteen. Though it is impossible to state just how many fish were caught on Wednesday in Centre county it is hardly an exaggeration to sav that there must have been at least one thousand trout taken out of Logan's branch and Spring creek. While this was the condition that prevailed hereabouts those who had the courage to go to Fishing creek and the mountain streams were equally success--H. L. Ruger has established a sub- ful, if not more so ; though a full report of their catches has not been received at this made in Logan's branch and Spring creek were the following :

> J. M. Decker 19, Dr. Rider 8, S. Kline Woodring 8, George Miller 11, A. A. Dale 9, W. L. Malin 24, John Shugers 12, Geo. R. Meek 14, T. Clayton Brown 3, Frank Davis 5, John J. Bower 3, Ed Derstine 33, which weighed just ten pounds ; W. Harrison Walker 7, Harry Keller 8, James Furst 17, Harry Baum 26, Louis Daggett 16, Charles Heisler 27, Frank Dawson 12. William Walker 35, weighing nine pounds; Thomas Harter 13, Hard P. Harris 23, M. A. Jackson 5, Ed. Erb and his father-in-law 43. The biggest trout caught so far as can be learned measured 19% inches while quite a number measured from 14 to 17 inches. These were undoubtedly some of those washed out of the fish hatchery ponds during the high water a month or so ago. Those who saw them said they were thin and the flesh soft. Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick and J. Kennedy Johnston went to Fishing oreek and returned with 65 pice trout They reported that stream alive with fishermen and good catches being made by everybody they saw.

As an indication of how many people were out fishing a gentleman who came to Bellefonte on the Lewisburg train Wednesday morning told the writer that from the Pleasant Gap station to the Nittany furnace he counted just two hundred and fifty fisherman, and those composed only a part of the crowd out.

A BEAUTIFUL PLAY .- The influence of the Saviour of mankind permeates and illumines every scene of "The Holy City." Clarence Bennett's powerful religious play, which is to be the offering at Garman's Tuesday evening, April 21st. This is all the more remarkable when the fact is considered that He does not appear upon the stage. Mr. Bennett has so ingeniously and masterfully conjured up the atmosphere of when the Son of God met His death upon that extent that they will be justified in the hill of Calvary in expiation for the sins of man that the spectator unconsciously feels the nearness of the Teacher and Guide who is so constantly referred to. This is one of the reasons that has prompted so many clergymen to heartily endorse the play and to recommend it not only to professing Christians, but to all seekers after truth whatever their faith. The play is not an adaptation of the scriptural story. It is the scriptural story without alteration or change, the narrative recorded by the evangelists. There is an added story which deals with the love of Salome, the daughter of Herodias, for Marius, a young Roman, but that is entirely separate and distinct and does not detract from the other story of the persecution, death and glorious resurrection of the

The play is presented by a company of and players having especial facility in the delineation of strongly marked roles which were chosen for the principal characters. The settings are unusually ornate, massive and rich and the costuming is lavish in the ex-

EASTER DONATION FOR BELLEFONTE HOSPITAL. -Oue year ago the people of Bellefonte and Centre county were most generous in their Easter donation of eggs and fruit to the Bellefonte hospital and as the Ladies Auxiliary have again requested that the hospital be not forgotten it is hoped the response will be equally liberal this year. Remember that eggs are always in demand at the hospital and there will be no danger of overdoing the donation, no door work was impossible and we have not Sterger, George and Frank Wingard, of matter how generous your contribution. learned how many reported yesterday. -The WATCHMAN office was favored with a visit yesterday morning from an old-time friend, leorge Washington Campbell, an old Ferguson township native. While yet a young man he went west to make his fortune and succeeded to that extent that he is now on Easy street. He owns one of the finest farms in Kansas, and lives about six miles south of the thriving town of Richmond. It is twenty years since he has been east, but old Father Time has dealt so kindly with him that he was easily recognized by his ellow comrades of years ago

-On Wednesday afternoon the WATCHMAN office was invaded by three of the fair sex at one time including a very pretty little girl and for a minute or so we were puzzled as to whether the editor was to be kidnapped or what was the cause of the invasion until Mrs. Robert Corl, of Boalsurg, informed us that she merely wanted to pay her husbands paper for the current year. And the only fault we have to find with her companions is that they seemed to be more interested in watching the trout fishermen along Spring creek than they were in anything they saw

LICENSED TO PREACH .- By request of the official board of the Bellefonte Methodist church C. C. Shuey was granted a cense as a local preacher by presiding elder B. C.
