Former U. S. Senator From Arkansas Dies Suddenly.

ILL ONLY A FEW HOURS

Was One of the Strongest Supporters of W. J. Bryan and Was Chairman Democratic National Committee During Campaigns of 1896 and 1900.

Washington, June 2.—Former United States Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, died at his residence here after an illness of a few hours, aged sixty-nine years. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. He was one of the leading Democrats in the senate from 1885 to 1903, and was one of the strongest supporters of William Jennings Bryan, having as chairman of the Democratic national committee, conducted the campaigns of 1896 and 1900. Since leaving the senate in 1903 he has conducted a law practice in this city and has not actively engaged in politics.

A native of Mississippi, where he was born in 1839, James Kimbrough Jones received a classical education, and fought as a private soldier in the Confederate ranks throughout the Civil War. Becoming a resident of Dallas county, Ark., he lived on his plantation there until 1873, when he took up the practice of law. He was elected to the state senate the same year, and became president of that body in 1877. Afterward he was elected to the Forty-seventh and the two succeeding congresses, and in 1885 succeeded to the seat of James D. Walker in the United States senate, where he served three terms, retiring in 1903. Senator Jones was a delegate to the national Democratic convention of 1896, which gave Mr. Bryan his first nomination, and as chairman of the committee on resolutions he reported the 16 to 1 platform. He was made chairman of the Democratic national committee after the convention, and as such conducted both of the Bryan campaigns for the presidency.

In the senate Mr. Jones came forward rapidly as one of the leaders of his party, and was for several years chairman of the Democratic caucus. He was a member of the sub-committee on finance which reported the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill, and was an earnest advocate of tariff revision. Senator Jones is survived by his widow and three children, Mrs. Carrigan, of Arkansas; Miss Sue Jones and James K. Jones, of this city.

Eden Garb in Socialist Colony.

New York, June 2.—A "simple life paradise colony," where men, women and children will go about naked, and where the men are never to cut their hair or beards, will be started this fall near Vera Cruz, Mex. by Gustaf H. Ander, well known in Socialist circles. More than fifty persons have become his followers and have promised to sail when he does. "When we get down to Mexico we will get rid of all the clothes that we can," Ander said. "Of course some of us will hold on to a few bits, naturally. But before long, when we have all become pure in heart, we will have no need for even fig leaves."

Textile Mills On Full Time.

Boston, June 2.—The close of the first five months of 1908 marks what is believed to be the beginning of the end of the depression in New England which has hung over the cotton and other textile manufacturing centers since the weeks following the financial disturbances last fall. Many mills which have been on short time for months started their machinery on full time schedules. Some have increased their output, and thus far manufacturers employing about 35,000 persons have given notice of the abolition of short time schedules.

53 Cows and 6 Horses Burned.

Philadelphia, June 2.—Fifty-three cows and six horses were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the barns and outbuildings on the dairy farm of John T. Swartley, at Llanwellyn, near Glenolden. Three other horses were saved. Several tons of fodder and some dairy utensils were burned. The loss is expected to reach $10,000.

SUNDAY BATS OUT A FEW

Base Ball Evangelist Jars Dignity of Presbyterian Preachers.

Pittsburg, June 2.—Rev. Billy Sunday, the evangelist, delivered an address to the Presbyterian ministers of Pittsburg. His words caused consternation among the preachers, some of whom left the First Presbyterian church, their dignity stung, but most of them remained to the end.

Rev. Sunday, who is a former professional base ball player, has been conducting a revival at Sharon, near here, and came to Pittsburg to speak on "Why Some Ministers Fail."

The evangelist said many of the ministers of the present day were "fudge eating mollycoddlers, who were continually springing bum-bull-con to their congregations." He asserted that few ministers of today are anything but stiff, salary quacks, willing to accept social distinction, and that many of them are qualified candidates for the "funny" house.

Continuing, he said: "Some of you ministers are controlled by riches and not by the Bible. Many of you are grafters, pure and simple. You know this, too. There are some of you preaching today that should be carrying the hod."

"What we do want is to tear down the seminaries and stand the professors on their heads in mud puddles. A seminary and its teachings are no more use to preaching than a crane's legs are to a setting hen."

"I am not an osteopath. I am a surgeon and my line is to cut out the abscess in the side of the church."

GAG AND ABDUCT A WOMAN

Enter Isolated House and Take Mother From Her Little Daughter.

Scranton, Pa., June 2.—Two men carried away Mrs. James Ferino, who lives back of the Erie colliery at May field.

The Ferino home is distant from other houses. The men were seen to enter the house. Nobody except Mrs. Ferino and her little daughter were home. The child said that the men talked to her mother, and that they said they were going to take her away. When she refused to go, one man pulled out a revolver and the other put a knife to her face, and told her not to shout or they would kill her. The child said that they then gagged her mother and started with her through the woods in the direction of Edgerton.

A description of the men was sent to Carbondale, and Constable Toolan arrested two men, who, it is suspected abducted Mrs. Ferino and secreted her in the woods or in some house in Edgerton. A posse is searching for the woman.

DIVIDED IN JERSEY

Stokes May Be Favored As Vice Presidential Candidate.

Trenton, N. J., June 2.—It is not unlikely that when the New Jersey Republican delegates reach Chicago there will be a division among them over the vice presidential nomination. The state convention three weeks ago adopted a resolution offered by an Essex county delegate indorsing the candidacy of former Governor Franklin Murphy, but the vote by which the resolution was adopted was not unanimous, and there are some delegates who believe that they have the right to vote as they please.

Within the past week a quiet boom has been set in motion for former Governor F. C. Stokes, who is said to be a receptive candidate for the vice presidential nomination. The Stokes administration was one in which he thoroughly demonstrated his executive ability, and he is more in harmony with the leaders of the Republican party than either Fort or Murphy.

Dropped Dead During Theatre Fire.

Cleveland, O., June 2.—Eugene Jepson, aged fifty years, of New York leading man in a vaudeville sketch at Keith's theatre, dropped dead of heart disease in his dressing room when an alarm of fire sounded. No one was injured among the audience as it fled out of the building, while the orchestra kept on playing and the actresses then upon the stage proceeded with their work. Firemen dragging in their hose simultaneously with the departure of the people apparently added no exciting influence, the ladies calmly putting on their hats and wraps meanwhile. The flames are said to have originated in the apartment where the moving picture machine is worked.

Water Toppers Are Hit By Specialist

Chicago, June 2.—Water intoxication, induced by too copious use of water externally or internally, was pointed out by Dr. L. D. Mason, vice president of the American Society for the Study of Inebriety, Alcohol and Drug Neurosis, in session here, as being as dangerous as overindulgence in alcohol. "I have a friend who is a victim of aquamania," he said. "He spends hours in a bathtub, and drinks so much water that he has reuced the solids of his body and worked serious injury to himself. Many men and women drink too much water, and are victims of that form of intoxication."

100 Wedding Guests Arrive Day Late

Reading, June 2.—More desirous of announcing their wedding to their friends after the nuptials had been performed than before, Miss Carrie Jane Zerbe, daughter of Oliver Zerbe of this city, and Charles E. Rehboltz, a well-known young business man here, stole a march on their friends. They sent out invitations announcing their wedding to take place May 30, and after over one hundred guests had assembled the young pair informed them that they had been married the night before. A large reception followed.

Kansas Bank Robbed.

Cuba, Kas., June 2.—Four men robbed the State bank of Cuba, and escaped with between six and eight thousand dollars after a fight with citizens. No one was shot. Posses are in pursuit.

A great many women—thousands indeed, who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's treatment have been given up by local physicians after years of suffering on the part of the women and experiment on the part of the local doctor. In Dr. Pierce's treatment experience takes the place of experiment. There is no form of disease affecting the delicate womanly organs which can be new to him, and the use of his "Favorite Prescription" supplemented by his professional advice and fatherly counsel have been the means of cure of more than half a million women in a practice of over thirty years. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free of charge. All correspondence absolutely private and strictly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
