TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.-Until further notice his paper will be furnished to subscribers at the ollowing rates:

Paid strictly in advance Paid before expiration of year....... 1.50 Paid after expiration of year .....

Democratic State Ticket.

For Judge of the Superior Court, WEBSTER GRIMM, of Bucks County. Democratic County Ticket.

For Congress: W. HARRISON WALKER, of Bellefonte. For Assembly: J. CALVIN MEYER, of Bellefonte.

For Sheriff: FRED F. SMITH, of Rush township. For Register:

G. F. WEAVER, of Penn township. For Recorder: F. PIERCE MUSSER, of Millheim.

For Treasurer J. D. MILLER, of Walker township. For County Commissioners:

C. A. WEAVER, of Penn township. J. L. DUNLAP, of Spring township. For Auditors:

J. W. BECK, of Marion township. JOHN L. COLE, of Walker township.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

-T. S. Strawn, of Dawson, on Wednesday bought the office fixtures of G. S. Roesch, the broker, in Crider's Exchange, and next week will move here and open up an office as representative of Baxter & Co., of Pittsburg Mr. Strawn is no Christian Temperance Union of Pennsyl- New Hampshire he was united in marriage stranger in Bellefonte as he was here in 1907 representing Spubler & Co., of Pitts- of the Methodist Episcopal church and an with one child. Three months ago when burg, and therefore is well known among active worker in all religious movements. dealers in the stock market.

---John Ellmore, the Altoona cobbler who a year or more ago received a great amount of notoriety because he claimed the discovery of an ash-burning compound, has not sunk into oblivion but is again coming to the front with his secret. His compound has been put on the market and is sold in one and five pound packages. He was in Lock Haven on Monday giving a demonstration and the people of that place really believe there is some virtue in his discovery.

ries of postoffice clerks and letter carriers made possible by recent legislation was announced on Monday, and under it one of William H. Bilger will be increased lived in College township. She creased from $900 to $1,000.

-Ground was broken on Monday for the foundation for the new Union chapel at Coleville, Mrs. Harry Rossman throwing out the first shovel full of dirt. Miss Louise Miller carried a stone from the mountain side which will be the first one used in the foundation. Jacob Cole and George Robb have the contract for the erection of the building and it is the intention to push the work on it as fast as possible. Tomorrow evening the ladies of Coleville will hold a festival for the benefit of the new chapel.

-Two weeks ago the WATCHMAN published an item stating that Col. W Fred Reynolds had ordered a Franklin model D automobile. Since that time, however he has changed his mind and instead has changed the order to a Franklin six-cylinder model H. This is one of the very bighest class cars made. It weighs but 2,600 pounds and is built to carry seven passengers. The cost price is $4,000. Col. Reynolds will bave the finest car in Bellefonts.

-Emory M. Dietrich, son of D. A. Dietrich, of Hublersburg, bas just returned home from Lancaster, where he completed his junior year at Franklin and Marshall college. While in college young Dietrich took an active part in all college activities and especially in athletics where he has distinguished himself by his brilliant play. day. ing at left end on the football team and as catcher on this year's nine. At the recent football elections he was unanimously elected captain of the 'Varsity football team for the coming season of 1908.

After fishing patiently for several hours tery at that place. without even seeing the sign of a fish he went out near the Phoenix mill dam and there saw a twenty inch trout in the creek. Not knowing it was one of the educated

GRAY .-- Mrs. Emma Tate Gray, widow burg, Pa., died at her home No. 6 Moen Place, Newark, N. J., on Wednesday, June 10th, 1908.

Mrs. Gray was a daughter of the late Joshua and Hannah Wilson Tate and was born in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pa., September, 11th, 1837. William Tate, her grandfather, was one of 1804 Roland Curtin, Robert Boggs and liam Tate was the first justice of the peace ant. for Clearfield county, having been commissioned as such on January 1st, 1806.

Showalter and Osborne Tate, Amos Tate and Hon. Aaron C. Tate, late of Clearfield the grave and leaves to survive her one brother, Wilson Packer Tate, of Curwensville, and four daughters, Miss Mary Gray, member of the faculty of the Centegary Collegiate Institute, Hackettstown, N. J.; Myrtle, wife of George Watson Herriott, Edgewood Park, Pitteburg; Edith, wife of Bartley Shuster Wainer, Newark, N. J., N. J.; with two grand-children, Bartley Gray Warner and Edith Dorothea Warner, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Shuster

Mrs. Gray resided with her family at Philipsburg until 1893 when she became at Stroudeburgh, Pa. She was afterwards Kingstown, this State. Mrs. Gray has been active in educational, philanthropic ed as an attendant in a hospital. and religious work. She was state superintendent of literature of the Woman's vania for several years, a life-long member Since 1901 Mrs. Gray has resided in Newark, N. J. The funeral was from her late residence at Newark, N. J., Bishop Spellmeyer and the Rev. Jesse Lyman Hulburt, D. D., of Bloomfield, N. J., officiating. Interment was made in the Gray cemetery, Halfmoon township, this county, on Saturday.

SHOLL .- Mrs. George Sholl died quite suddenly at her home at Honserville on Wednesday night. She had been up and around as usual on Tuesday feeling as well as ever when she retired for the night. -The promotions and increase of sala- During the night, however, she was suddenly taken sick and died in a few minutes, heart trouble being the cause of her death.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Wagclerk in the Bellefonte postoffice will have per, was born at Milesburg and was sixtyhis salary increased from $900 to $1,000; seven years of age. Most of the time since the clerk being Morton Smith. The salary ber marriage to Mr. Sholl the family bave from $600 to $800, while the salaries of ber of the Reformed church and a woman letter carriers Edward Woods, Robert of wide acquaintanceship, and whose death Woodring and E. E. Ardery will be in- is deeply deplored by all who knew her. Surviving her are her husband and the following children: Elmer Sholl and Mrs. George Gibbons, of Pleasant Gap ; Mrs. Clement Dale, of Houserville, and Mrs. James Miller, of Coleville. She also leaves two brothers and one sister, namely : Adam Wagner, of Bellefonte; David, of Houserville, and Mrs. J. L. Waddle, of Jersey

> The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. Rev. A. A. Black will officiate and will be assisted by Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, of Boalsburg. Interment will be made in the Shiloh cemetery.

ERB.-Mrs. Sarah Margaret Erb, wife of Burton H. Erb, died at her home in Fal- ment being made in the Cedar Hill cemelon, Nev., on Wednesday of last week, after an illness of six weeks. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, of Philipsburg, where she was born twentynine years ago. Some three years ago she was married to Burton H. Erb, also of Philipsburg, and about sixteen months ago There is no doubt that when he receives it the young couple decided to go west and locate in Nevada, where Mr. Erb has two brothers living.

> In addition to her busband and an infant son, she is survived by her parents, one sister, Mrs. James Stott, of Philipsburg, and three brothers: William, of Philipsburg; James, of Port Matilda, and George, of Fallon, Nev. The remains were temporarily buried at the latter place on Satur-

Benner, died at the home of her parents -Judge Clinton B. Savage, of North- had been a sufferer for several months. She As state property it will likely preclude umberland county, came to Bellefonte on is survived by her parents and the follow-Tuesday to hear argument in a certain case ing brothers and sisters: Mrs. Elsie Smith, future. tried before him and in which an applica- of Woodward; Mrs. Elizabeth Keister, o tion for a new trial was pending, and the Aaronsburg; Katharine, Lida, Valeria, attorneys not being prepared for argument Susan, Charles, Warren and Steward, at of Mr. and Mrs. John Haldeman, of near he decided to pass the time fishing for home. The funeral was held from the trout. Of course he did not venture far Evangelical church at Woodward on Wedaway but merely whipped the waters of needay morning, Rev. E. E. Haney offi-Spring creek within the borough limits. ciating. Interment was made in the ceme- lime quarries and got the powder from the GRAZIER. -Mrs. Eliza C. Grazier died hook it in the tail and finally succeeded in raised on what is know as the Archie doing so but the trout was so large it broke Hutchinson farm. Her only immediate away as soon as he got it to the top of the survivor is one son, George C. Grazier, of water, and that was the nearest the emi- Marengo, this county. The funeral was in the Warriorsmark cemetery.

RISHEL.-Mrs. Sarah Rishel, wife of of John Summerfield Gray, late of Philips- John Rishel, died at her home near Axe held its regular meeting on Monday evening. She had been ill with cancer of the Susanna Hoy and was born at Jackson- The Fire and Police committee reported ville, this county, February 29th, 1833, the early settlers of Centre county, and thus being a few months past seventy-five The Village Improvement committee reamong the first residents of Clearfield. In years of age. After her marriage to Mr. ported the stable on the Pruner property Rishel they went to farming in Benner William Tate were appointed by the Gov- township and the farm near Axe Manu has either be repaired or torn down. ernor to be trustees for the purpose of re- been their home for the past fifty-five J. A. Finkbinder asked for a grade ceiving proposals for the grant of land for a years. She was a member of the Metho- for a pavement in front of his properseat of justice for Clearfield county. Wil- dist church and always a faithful attend-

In addition to her husband she is sur-Mrs. Gray was a sister of Mrs. Lydia Rishel, of Philadelphia; Alfred, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Ellen Stover, of Axe Mann; also the following brothers and sisters: county, all of whom have preceded her to Hezekiah Hoy, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Samuel Fravel, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Annie Cor. five mills; interest, five mills. Connoil man, of Zion; Mrs. Mary Miller, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. John Houser, of Centre

The funeral was held from the Rishel home at ten o'clock Tuesday morning. Rev. James B. Stein officiated and was assisted by Rev. John Hewitt, of the Episcoand Miss Esther McCloskey Gray, Newark, pal church. Interment was made in the Rishel vault in the Union cemetery, prepared a number of years ago.

NEARHOOD .- On Wednesday, June 3rd, Albert W. Nearhood died at the home of his father, George Nearbood, near Centre the preceptress of the State Normal School, Hall, of consumption, having contracted the disease while living in New Hampshire. connected with Wyoming Seminary at to which State he went several years ago, locating in Concord where he was employ-

> Deceased was born in Potter township and was twenty-seven years old. While in to Miss Minnie A. McLaurin who survives Mr. Nearhood's health became so bad he could not attend to his duties he came back to Centre county and went to the home of his father in the hope that the change of climate would be beneficial but the disease bad made too great progress to be checked. In addition to his wife and child be leaves his father, one brother, Charles, and a half-sister, Verna. The funeral was held on June 6th, interment being made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

SMITH .- A sad death at Centre Hill was that at 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning of Mrs. Robert Smith, who died after a brief illness with diphtheria. Though it is not definitely known how she caught the disease it is believed the contagion was lows : carried to that neighborhood from Clearfield county, and it is feared that additional cases may develop. Owing to the dangereld late Wednesday evenin being made at Sprucetown.

Deceased was about forty-four years old and is survived by her husband and seven children, as follows: Helen, Charles, Anna, Willard, Evan, Hugh and Daniel. She also leaves one brother, Robert Evans, in the west, and several sisters, among them being Mrs George L. Goodhart and Mrs. James B. Strohm, of Centre Hall.

ESENWINE -George W. Esenwine, one of the hest known citizens in east Nittany valley, died at his home at Salona on Monday morning of asthma, aged 55 years. For a quarter of a century he had been engreed in the farming implement business and was well known throughout Clinton and the eastern part of Centre counties. The funeral was held on Wednesday, inter-

BOREST. - After being an invalid all his life Howard Boreet died at one o'clock last Saturday morning. He was aged thirtysix years and is survived by his mother and three sisters and three brothers. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Rev. R. M. Campbell officiated and burial was made at the Ross church

TO BUY BELLEFONTE ARMORY .- Word comes from Harrisburg that the state armory board has decided to purchase the armory of company B in this place and make it the property of the State. The armory was built by Col. W. F. Reynolds in 1894 at a cost of $30,000 and has been in constant use by the company ever since. BENNER.-Miss Miriam, the thirteen The report states that the armory board year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas has a chance to secure the property at a cost of $20,000. It is also stated that when at Woodward on Sunday, June 7th. Her the armory passes into possession of the death was due to dropsy with which she State it will be overhauled and remodeled. the holding of dances, etc., there in the

-Charles and Alfred Haldeman, sons Filmore, were badly burned by a premature explosion of powder last Friday. The boys were watching cows on the hill near the magazine of the American Lime and Stone Company. In attempting to put it off it was exploded prematurely. Charles was on Sunday evening at the residence of so badly burned that he was brought to John F. Mattern, at Warriorsmark. She the Bellefonte hospital. His condition is kind he tried for an hour to entice a strike | was 82 years and 4 months old and was the | quite serious. Alfred, however, was more but the trout paid no attention. Not be- last surviving member of the Benjamin fortunate and escaped with burns of a less ing able to get a bite the judge tried to Hutchinson family, have been born and serious character, so that he is getting and children with a view of giving them along all right.

> -Earl C. Tuten, county register and owner of the Republican and Daily News,

BOROUGH COUNCIL.-Borough conneil Mann at seven o'clock on Saturday morn- ing with eight members present. The Street committee reported making repairs stomach since last August and during that on various streets and alleys. The Water make splendid wages if they prove the time had been a great though patient suf- committee reported thirteen dollars receiv- right people. Address this office, but ed for the sale of scrap iron, the money don't bother writing unless character and Deceased was a daughter of John and having been turned over to the treasurer. four dollars in fines collected during May. in an unsafe condition, and that it should ty on Water street, occupied by Kerns' laundry; and Clement Dale requested a grade in front of his residence on Allegheviv.d by three children: Dr. George P. ny street. The borough engineer was instructed to give both grades.

The Finance committee recommended that the tax rate for 1908 he as follows: For horough purposes, three mills; street, approved the recommendation.

On recommendation of the Street committee council approved the request for a new crossing on Howard street at the intersection of Penn street.

A request of the Logan fire company for repairs to their engine was referred to the Fire and Police committee for investigation and report. Borough notes aggregating three thousand dollars were ordered renewed at five per cent interest.

The following bills were approved and orders drawn.

	Police pay roll	27 75	66 50 00
	Henry Wetzel		00
1	out mostly a moneyer Then for	2114	16

EPWORTH LEAGUERS .- The annual con vention of the Epworth League of the Altoona district M. E. conference was held in Altoona on Thursday and Friday of last week and was well attended. Dr. J. D. Stein, of this place, was present and gave an able talk on "The Relation of Bible Study to Christian Experience." Another very pleasing paper was "The Why of Old Folks Day," by Miss Grace Blackford, of Bellefonte. The report of the corresponding secretary showed that in the district there are eighty-two chapters with a total membership of about four thousand. There are ten hible study classes and twentythree mission study classes. The junior membership is about fifteen hundred. The various contributions during the year amounted to $1,724.78. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as fol-

President, Rev. James McK. Reiley, Clearfield; first vice president, Rev. C. K. Gibson, Hyde City; second vice president, ous nature of the disease the funeral was Miss Frances Conner, Altoona; third vice vice president, Miss Edna Bair, Philipsburg; recording secretary, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Bellefonte; corresponding secretary, Rev. J. E. Dunning, Osceola; treasurer, W. E. Marks, Altoona; junior superintendent, Mrs. M. C. Buck, Unionville; executive committee, Rev. B. C. Conner, Altoona; Hon. Peter Gearhart, Clearfield; Rev. S. D. Wilson, Philipsburg; Rev. E. F. Ilgenfritz, Glen Hope.

> HEAVY DAMAGE SUITS .- Papers were filed in Clearfield on Monday instituting a series of damage suits against several well known corporations operating in this section of the State. Three of these suits were filed by Gordon & Boulton against the 000 damages, alleging rebating and discriminations. The plaintiffs in the different actions are Chas. D. Loraine, of Philipsburg, L. Milton Wilson and John Benson, each claiming $10,000 damages.

R. D. Swoope, Esq., for the Osceol Silica Brick Co., in which several Philipsburgers are stockholders and officers, also instituted two suits against the New York Central Railroad Co., alleging discrimina-$26,200.

Murray & O'Laughlin, attorneys, have brought action against the Morrisdale Coal Co., alleging misinterpretation of leases and unpaid royalty. The amount sued for aggregates about $15,000.

MARRIAGE LICENSES .- The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by Register Earl C. Tuten.

John H. Knarr and Fannie J. Meeker, both of Centre Hall. Wm. McClenahan and Elsie Stover, both of Centre Hall.

James C. Rager and Edna G. Grubb, both of Milesburg. Cletus L. Goodling and Mary N. Parks

both of State College. Robert G. Bulick, of Franklinville, and Lillian B. Gates, of Gatesburg. John N. Thompson, of Fleming, and Myra Lannen, of Wingate. Thomas H. Mann, of Williamsport, and Emma J. Monroe, of Lock Haven.

Truman M. Dodson and Edna K. Williams, both of Philipsburg. James J. Glenn, of State College, an Lutitia L. Goodbart, of Centre Hall.

SALVATION ARMY PICNIC.-The Salva tion Army will hold their pionio at Heola park on Wednesday, June 24th. They are especially seeking out the poor mothers a day of sunshine and pleasure, and to this end Capt. and Mrs Heather will thankfully receive donations, however small, toward this outing. Either money or anything to nent jurist came to getting a mess of fish held on Wednesday morning from the has bought the Magee property on Penn help make up the pionio dinner will be acthough he kept manfully at it all after- Mattern residence, interment being made street and will remodel it for his own ceptable. Everybody is welcome to go along and enjoy the day.

-A good, sober bonest man with his wife and one other woman who are willing to work at managing a small boarding house where all supplies are provided can ability will bear the closest investigation.

Spring Mills.

Miss Anna M. Cummings left last week for month or six weeks visit at Lock Haven and Mill Hall.

Rev. Lantz and Wm. U. Grove left or Tuesday last on a trout fishing expedition. They will be absent several days.

O. T. Corman is now sole agent for a very superior grade of binder twine manufactured in Iowa. Its strength is said to be equal to nail wire.

Evidently there will be no general celebration here on the Fourth of July excepting by the boys with the everlasting shooting cracker racket. Why not get up a town picnic with plenty of eating and patriotic

A temporary foot bridge was thrown across Penns creek last week, a few feet below the site of the old one. It is a great convenience and the enterprising builders, Messrs, C. A Krape, L. W. Emerick and Rev. Lantz, have the unanimous thanks of the town

Mrs. Kate Shook opened her ice cream paror on Saturday evening last, and it was so well patronized that she sold out of cream at a very early bour, much to the regret of late comers. Mrs. Shook is famous for making a very superior quality of ice cream and water

Through the perseverance and untiring efforts of our genial postmaster, who never does anything by halves, particularly in the way of improvements or something to benefit the town, he has a fund commenced sufficient to warrant the statement that we will have a permanent foot bridge over Penns creek in a very short time, no doubt on the site of the old one. It is to have a concrete pier and abutments and is to be erected in the most substantial manner and be a credit to the

A month since W. S. Rossman, a student at the railroad station, was promoted to the office at Herndou, and James A. Finkle, one of our active young men, is occupying his place Mr. Finkle is well qualified for the position He has some knowledge of railroading, is very polite, gentlemanly and attentive to all ransacting business at the office, there is never any delay, always assists the aged and nfirm to and from the cars and nothing seems to be too much trouble, and Mr. Campbell, the regular agent, is certainly very fortungte in securing such an able and energetic assistant.

T. B. Jemison has erected quite an imposng barn on the site of the one recently destroyed by fire. The building is much larger, has steel roofing and fitted up with all the modern improvements and conveniences. It is divided into several departments, stable barn floor, granary, corn crib and a large department for farming implements. The building is well lighted and ventilated with two large ventilating towers, has numerous losets for harness and odds and ends about a neighboring spring. The building is a great improvement to the neighborhood. Mr. Jemisonshas been hard pressed of late, supervising his building and farming operations, together with his large insurance business, calling him so frequently from home that he has been kept busy almost night and day.

The committee of the Penn Hall and Spring Mills academies for the D. M. Wolf reunion met on Saturday last and decided to have the reunion on Thursday, August 6th. The following are the officers and committees of the organization: Wm. W. Grove, president. T. W. Gramley, Sec.; Hon. Wm. W. Allison, Treas.; Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D. principal emeritus; committee of arrangements, T. M. Gramley, C. E. Zeigler, Dr. H. Pennsylvania Railroad Co., involving $30.- S. Braucht, Robt. Smith, C. E. Long: committee of reception and entertainment, C. P. Long, B. F. Kennelley, C. J. Finkle, Miss Mabel Allison, Miss Orpha Gramley, J. Wolf Evans Jr. A J Shook, Luther Musser, J. F. Bitner, Tibben Zubler; committee of history, Prof. J. F. Meyers, Prof. S. Ward Gramley, J. D. Meyer, Mrs. Maggie Kreamer, C. W. Fisher; committee on finance, A. E. Ripka, C. E. Royer, C. A. Krape, C. E. Finkle, Hon. Wm. W. Allison; committee on music, J. S. Meyer, C. C. Bartges, Mrs. Frank Fisher, tions and asking for damages in the sum of Mrs. H. F. Rossman, Miss Orpha Gramley; committee on program, Wm. U. Grove, J. S. Meyer, T. M. Gramley.

The corn and oats look fine at this writ-

Mrs. Lydia Hile is reported worse this week. Mrs. Ellen Weaver's granddaughter is here for a week. Rev. C. W. Wasson spent a few days in William H. Mokle is still on the sick list with rheumatism. The sociable at D. L. Weaver's Saturday evening was fairly well attended.

The farmers are beginning to make hay and the crop promises to be a fine one. The Lemont band furnished the music for the festival at Rock Forge Saturday even-Rev. A. S. Wolf, of Westerville, Ohio. circulated among friends Friday and Saturday. Clifford Close and family came down from Altoona Saturday to visit a few weeks among

P. A. Noll and family departed Saturday for Philadelphia, where he has secured a position for the summer. Mrs. Mary Williams and Mrs. Maggie Longwell came in from Philipsburg for a few days sojourn in town. Rev. David Hepler enjoyed a few days renewing old acquaintances in town and every one was glad to meet him again. Prof. Thos. C. Houtz, of Susquehanna University, was seen in town Sunday, being here to attend the commencement at State College this week.

Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

Pine Grove Mention

Some haymaking is being done. Frank B. Krebs, of Spruce Creek, was here ver Sunday. A new iron and concrete bridge is being built at Baileyville. Clarence Weaver came up from Selinsgrove to greet his old cronies here. Little Ethel Burnell is nursing a broken arm, caused by a fall from a fence. Leland Sausserman, of Altoona, is spending some time with friends in town.

Geo. Hirkaman visited friends in Stone valley in the beginning of the week.

J. W. Sunday and wife spent Sunday at George Bell's home at Spruce Creek.

Jacob S. Reed, who has been ill with heart trouble, is not much improved.

After an absence of fifty years James Swartz is visiting the home of his birth. Luther Strouse is building an addition to his barn. Howard Evey and crew have the Mrs. Emms Hess, of Bellefonte, has been visiting her many friends hereabouts this Miss Amelia Hurst, of McAlevy's Fort, visited friends in town the beginning of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Isenburg spent the first day of the week with friends at Warriors.

mark. Dick and Ross Gregory, of Neffs Mills, were here last week for their share of the Earl Musser and the Sunday brothers graduates of the Susquehanna University. Frank Strouse, of Baltimore, a graduate of the 1887 class, is here to witness the exercises

Marcellas Sankey, one of Potter township's up-to date farmers, was greeting old chums here Tuesday. Rev. and Mrs. Philips spent several days last week among his old parishioners in and about Enosville George Meyers, the grain dealer from Lemont, was here Tuesday buying 85 cent wheat and $10 hay. Joe and Ed Goss, both of whom are holding good positions with the Carnegie people, are here for a weeks' visit.

Misses Nannie and Mary Thomas, of Latrobe, and Laura Gates were here for college commencement.

Mrs. Frank Miller, with her sister, Mrs. Austin Brungart, visited relatives in and about Watsontown last week.

Jerry Mong, of Warriorsmark, came over to see how his brother John was making out farming, and found him o. k. Rev. C. T. Aiken, of Selinsgrove, was circulating among his legion of friends here in the beginning of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stover and Robt. and Mrs. Thompson were Sunday visitors at the

W. E. Stover home at Pine Hall. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sausserman left last Friday for Downs, Kansas, to visit his sister, Mrs. McCormick, who is quite sick. Missi Ella Garner is critically ill at the home of her grandmother Stover, with that much dreaded disease, tuberculosis.

Milton Keller, wife and family are here from Pittsburg for a two weeks outing among their friends in Pennsvalley. Last Saturday an old fashioned raising of a big addition to Fred Meyers barn took place. The supper was a great feast.

Mrs. Mary Mathers, of Union county, is a visitor at the Luther Stover home and attending commencement exercises at State.

Prof. Johnstonbaugh with his fifty scholars on the last day of school enjoyed a straw ride to the Shingletown gap for an outing. Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings, of Belleville. were visiting friends all along the line through Penns and Spruce Creek valleys last

The venerable Silas Gibboney, of Saulsburg, tarried awhile in town Monday to greet his friends on his way to Boals-

Davy Barr, of Shingletown, an old veteran of the war, was circulating among his comrades here in the beginning of the On Monday morning Charles Weaver went to the Jefferson hospital to be treated for appendicitis with which he has been a sufferer several weeks. On account of the arrival of a little daughter at each of their homes Christ Meyers and Walter Shutt were obliged to forego commencement exercises at State. Miss Mary Kepler is quite an expert angler. On Monday with her grandpa she went fishing and much to the old gentleman's surprise bauled out two suckers, one 15 and the other 16 inches in length. Dr. L. C. Thomas, wife and daughter Lucy, of Latrobe, are at their old home and to see their son Walter graduate at State. The doctor and Miss Lucy returned home Thursday while Walter and his mother visited friends at Mooresville.

Children's day was celebrated with special exercises in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening when the edifice was filled to overflowing to listen to the little folks sing and recite. The very excellent program was in charge of Dr. G. H. Woods. The church was handsomely decorated with fragrant spring flowers and the pulpit was hidden behind a bank of sweet smelling blossoms. Mary Woods presided at the Last Friday as jolly a party of ladies as ever went down the pike passed through town, halting for ice cream and refreshments at the Ward parlors. They were bound for Penns Cave via State College and were served with a chicken and waffle dinner at the Cave hotel. In the party were Mrs. Ed Kochler, Mrs. Harry Gates, Mrs. Levi Bathurst, Mrs. Samuel Frank, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. Jay Woomer, Mrs. Harry Archey, Mrs. George Irvin and Mrs. Ed Isenburg.

-A medium loamy soil is preferred for beets, but the vegetables can be grown under a great variety of conditions, light soil being good for the early crop, while a soil that is positively wet will give as good results as could be expected of any root