

Smulton.

Amos Fehl recently visited his daughter at Williamsport.

Mrs. Eva Mallory is making extensive improvements on his home here.

F. V. O. Housman and wife, of Millheim, were guests of H. K. Smull, Sunday.

Irvin H. Harry, of Mill Hill, was a guest of his father and mother here Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Beck and son, of Wilkesbarre, spent a few days pleasantly at the home of H. H. Stover.

G. P. Garrett, the busy architect of Rebersburg, has in his employment several men from our town.

Quite a few of our citizens attended the Odd Fellows celebration and festival at Rebersburg Saturday evening.

Mrs. Israel Haug, who had been ill for some days past, has improved so as again to attend to her various duties.

W. E. Smull and family, Marguerite Harry, Nancy Dorman and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stover spent Sunday in the Millheim Narrows.

It seems that the awakening of Smulton on the water question has inspired others along the same line and it is said that Wolf Store will shortly put in a water plant.

Newton Brungart bought a fine carriage from Samuel Condo, of Spring Mills, and with his family made his first trip in it to the Hazel-Schaeffer reunion on the 11th.

W. C. Robbins, of Williamsport, field secretary of temperance of the M. E. church, spoke on the temperance question in the M. E. church here Sunday morning. He is a very forceful speaker.

Rev. B. C. Conner, presiding elder of the Altoona district of the M. E. church, will preach in the church here June 28th, at 10:15 a. m., when the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed. All are invited to attend, as this is the first visit of the reverend gentleman here.

A series of balloon ascensions are booked for this town this summer, and will be in charge of Newton Brungart and our generous merchant, W. E. Smull. It is hoped that the events will be crowned with more success than those of a few weeks ago. Mr. Brungart expects to fit himself with sufficient rope to enable him to hold on to the balloon until it is properly inflated, for he says a garden rake is not the proper thing.

Steel Prices Cut.

Announcement was made in New York by Judge Elbert H. Gary, the chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, that a general reduction in the prices of finished steel products had been agreed upon by representatives of the large steel interests after an all-day conference. The reduction affects billets, steel bars, plates, structural iron, merchant pipe and wire nails. The statement was as follows:

"The representatives of the leading steel manufacturing companies have been in session during the day. It is understood that the price of iron ore has been or will soon be reduced to 50 cents per ton base.

"Each one of the steel manufacturers expressed the opinion that there should be a readjustment in the prices of their respective commodities, as follows: Billets, from $28 per ton to $26; sheet bars, from $29 per ton to $27; plates, from $1.70 per 100 pounds to $1.60 per 100 pounds; merchant pipe, a reduction of two points, or $4 per ton; wire nails, from $2.05 per 100 pounds to $1.95 per 100 pounds.

"Sheet and plates were reduced early in the year; therefore no changes were considered in the prices of these products."

Murdered and Robbed On the Street.

While a dozen terrorized men and women looked on from the windows of the surrounding houses in West Twenty-seventh street, New York city, two highwaymen beat to death and robbed a man believed to be a Mr. Nowell, of Toronto. He was still breathing when witnesses of the tragedy ran up to him after the robbers had fled, but he died in a hospital while the surgeons were preparing to trephine his shattered skull. According to the stories of eye-witnesses the victim of the assault was sauntering slowly down the street, when two men, who had been walking behind him, sprang upon him. One of the men seized him by the throat, and while he held him the other struck Nowell a crushing blow on the forehead with a blackjack. Then, as the man continued to struggle in an effort to free himself, the man with the blackjack struck a second blow. Nowell fell to the sidewalk unconscious. As he lay there the robbers rifled his pockets and fled before an alarm had been given.

Hung Suspended By Cheek.

Hooked through the right cheek and the upper eyelid of his right eye, William Brown, five years of age, an inmate of the West Jersey Orphanage, at Camden, N. J., was suspended for five minutes by three prongs of barbed wire from the top of a six-foot fence on the Mechanic street side of the home.

Under the advice of the matron the little boy manfully endured the terrible suffering while two of the employes held his body up and W. D. Durisoe, husband of the matron, with a pair of tinsmith's shears cut out a section of the barbed wire, thus freeing the little fellow.

Capitol Trimmers Acquitted.

After fifteen hours' deliberation and ten ballots, the jury in the capital graft trial at Harrisburg, Pa., returned a verdict of acquittal of Representative H. Burd Cassel and Architect Joseph M. Huston.

Likewise, following the instructions of the court, the jury formally acquitted the three ex-state officers—William P. Snyder, William L. Mathues and James M. Shumaker—indicted with Cassel and Huston for alleged criminal conspiracy to cheat and defraud the state.

5000 Tax Dodgers Discovered.

Over 5000 persons who are alleged to have been dodging their personal property taxes at Pittsburg, Pa., have been discovered and were assessed by the board of tax assessment and revision. As a result the valuation of personal property in Allegheny county subject to a tax of four mills on the dollar is $181,000,000. This exceeds the return for 1907 by about $1,000,000.

Lay Face Downward in Water to Die.

A. W. Byers, aged seventy years, of Patton, near Johnstown, Pa., left his bed and, walking in his night clothing to a pool of water near the house, tied his feet together and then lay face downward in the water until he drowned. Mr. Byers' mind is said to have been deranged.

"Blind Tom" is Dead.

"Blind Tom," famous negro musician, marvel of three generations of playgoers, died in Hoboken, N. J., where he had been living for years in retirement and subsisting on charity.

Hall Storm in Cumberland Valley.

A severe hail storm swept over the Cumberland valley, reaching Harrisburg, Pa. Much damage was done to fruit trees and growing grain.
