THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—See advertisement in another column of an experienced cook wanted.

—A new storage vault was built in the cellar of the Brokerhoff house during the past week.

—Mrs. John Hewitt entertained Wednesday night in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Neel, of Ohio.

—Don't wait until July or August to buy your fly-nets. Buy them now and save the price on your horse.

—Robert F. Hunter has purchased from the other heirs of the estate the Benj. Hunter homestead farm at Hunters Park.

—Frank Goodhart, of Centre Hall, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital last Saturday for an operation for appendicitis.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Labe are rejoicing over the arrival of a nice little girl baby, which made its advent on Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haines left Bellefonte on Tuesday last week for New York State where they are now running a moving picture show.

—Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker entertained the class of about forty children who took their first communion in the Catholic church on Sunday, at breakfast that morning.

—The McCoy—Linn furnace was put in blast about two weeks ago and is now turning out a good quality of charcoal iron at the rate of from seven to eight tons a day.

—Walter Fulton has leased the Zimmerman house on east Lamb street formerly occupied by Dr. Jones and family and with his wife will go to housekeeping there July first.

—Owing to the fact that his health will not permit him taking care of them Mr. Thomas Lanrie has decided to sell all his bees, thirteen hives. See advertisement in another column.

—Dr. Robison, of State College, has purchased a Ford runabout from Wm. W. Keichline & Co. J. A. Atlee, the Tyrone shoe dealer, has purchased the same type of car from the Keichline firm.

—The Scotia band has secured a full equipment of new uniforms and will make their first appearance in the same on July 4th, when they will go to State College to participate in the celebration of the big day.

—Wheat fields are now showing a golden tint and the probabilities are that it will be ready for the reaper before the farmers are half through making hay. Oats and corn are both coming along splendidly.

—Only one more week until the Fourth of July and that big Undine picnic at Hecla park. According to the program as now arranged it will be bigger and better this year than ever before and you don't want to miss it.

—On Thursday evening of last week twenty-five of her young friends gave Miss Nellie Solt, one of the operators in the Commercial telephone exchange, a delightful surprise party at the home of her parents on south Allegheny street.

—About ten o'clock on Tuesday night Miss Alice Gallagher, of Pine street, fell down a flight of stairs leading from the kitchen to the second floor. It was at first feared her injuries were very serious but, fortunately, this did not prove to be the case.

—On Thursday, July 30, at Lakemont Park, Altoona, Pa., the Annual Methodist Day will be held. The greatest list of famous speakers ever offered on such an occasion includes Bishop Hughes, a wonderful preacher, and Bishop Moore, a noted pulpit orator.

—Miss Margaret Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cooke, of this place, was awarded the degree of Ph. D., by the University of Pennsylvania at the annual commencement last week. She expects to come home about July first for a well earned rest and vacation.

—In the class of ninety-nine graduates at the Lock Haven Normal school this week were the following from Centre county: Eloise Bock, Fleming; Annette Royer and Samuel Bierly, Rebersburg; George Long and Edward Taylor, Howard and John Walker, Hubersburg.

—There will be two good games of base ball at Hecla park on July fourth when the Milton and Watson town teams of the Susquehanna league will play both in the morning and afternoon. These games in themselves should be enough to draw thousands to the picnic.

—One of the nicest catches of trout made in Spring creek this season was by Tom Morgan on Saturday evening. In just one hour he landed five of the speckled beauties which measured ten, eleven, thirteen, seventeen and eighteen inches, or a total of sixty-nine inches of trout.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds received his new six-cylinder 1908 model H Franklin car on Tuesday and it is undoubtedly a fine machine. Instead of being painted red as the 1907 model G car it is finished in blue. The colonel has also ordered a top for the machine and when it comes and is put in place he will have one of the best outfits in this part of the State.

CRIDER—FREEMAN—One of the prettiest home weddings that has engrossed society in Tyrone for a long time was that at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman, in that place, yesterday, when their only daughter, Miss Myra Cameron Freeman became the bride of Hugh North Crider, of this place.

For several days previous artists and decorators were very busy around the Freeman home and when the time for the wedding arrived it was a scene of almost perfect beauty in decorations. Rhododendrons, smilax and roses were the predominating plants and flowers, with just enough spruce and ferns to give a pleasing background effect.

About one hundred and fifty guests were present from Tyrone and surrounding towns to witness the ceremony which took place at 12.30 o'clock. There was no large wedding party and the very simplicity of the service rendered it all the more impressive. As Miss Marie Walsh, of this place, played the wedding march from Lobengrin the bride went to the altar leaning on the arm of her father and attended only by Miss Eleanor Francisco, as maid of honor. She wore a fillet lace robe over chiffon and taffeta silk, with a veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. The maid of honor wore a gown of pale blue messaline with trimmings of the same material in a pastel shade. She carried a bouquet of pink orchids. At the altar they were met by the bridegroom elect and his best man, H. Laird Curtin, of Curtin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George T. Gunter, of the Presbyterian church, the ring service being used and the bride being given away by her father.

Following the ceremony the young couple were almost overwhelmed with congratulations after which quite an elaborate wedding breakfast was served, and later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Crider left on a two week's wedding trip through Canada and wherever their fancy leads them.

Both young people are so well known in Bellefonte that anything we can say would not add to their popularity. The bride is as accomplished as she is charming and has hosts of friends in Bellefonte and surrounding towns. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider, of this place, and since leaving college has been assisting his father in his large lumbering interests. They expect to go to housekeeping in the house recently purchased from W. Harrison Walker, on east Lamb street, on or about July 15th.

Among the Bellefonters who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider and their daughters, Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth, and Miss Mary Crider; Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming, Mrs. E. S. Dorworth, Miss Helen Crider, Miss Jennie Harper, Miss Ann Harris, Miss Kathryn Brishin, Miss Marie Walsh, and Messrs. M. A. Jackson, J. H. Robb, H. Laird Curtin, Wilson W. Gephart and Lewis Daggett.

DODSON—WILLIAMS—Quite a pretty wedding took place in Philipsburg last Thursday evening when Miss Edna Keller Williams, daughter of the late Harry C. Williams, founder of the Philipsburg Ledger, was united in marriage to Truman Monroe Dodson, of Monaca, Wis. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Anne V. Williams, and was attended by a large number of guests.

Rev. R. P. Miller, of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony and the bride went to the altar unattended except by her escort, W. M. Mellick, who gave her away, the ring service being used. Miss Edna Turnbach played the wedding march. The bride wore white net over silk, with a veil and orange blossoms, and carried a Dutch bouquet. Following the ceremony and congratulations refreshments were served after which Mr. and Mrs. Dodson left in an automobile for Tyrone where they took the train for a wedding trip east. Among the guests present was Miss Sara Hagerman, of Bellefonte.

BULLOCK—GATES—At twelve o'clock noon on Wednesday a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gates, at Gatesburg, when their daughter, Miss Lillian Belle Gates, was united in marriage to Robert G. Bullock, of Franklinville. The house was very tastefully decorated with plants and flowers and a large number of friends of the young people were present to witness the event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Armstrong, of the Methodist church. Miss Hattie Wrye acted as bridesmaid and Wm. Gates was best man. A very appetizing wedding dinner was served after the ceremony. Both young people are quite well known and popular and have the best wishes of their many friends.

DEER—UZZLE—The announcement the latter part of last week of the marriage of Miss Josephine Uzzle, daughter of John Uzzle, the well known proprietor of the Uzzle house, at Snow Shoe, and Melvin L. Deer, of Tyrone, was quite a surprise to their many friends who were unaware of their intentions. The young people were married in Philadelphia on Monday, June 15th, by Rev. George Burns, pastor of the Thirtieth street Methodist church. After a brief wedding trip the young couple have taken up their residence in Tyrone, the bridegroom being a fireman on the Tyrone division.

FINKELSTEIN—ARONBERG—Harry L. Finkelstein, of Harrisburg, and Miss Rose Aronberg, of Philadelphia, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday, Rabbi Isaac Landman, of the Broad street temple, officiating. The bridegroom is quite well known in Bellefonte through having opened the five and ten cent store in the Bush Arcade, and being a brother of the present proprietor, Jacob Finkelstein.

HESSE—QUIGLEY—Quite a pretentious wedding last Thursday evening was that of George Furst Hesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Hesse, of Beech Creek, and Miss Mary Shaw Quigley, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Quigley, of Blanchard, which occurred in the Presbyterian church at Beech Creek at 6.30 o'clock.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with daisies and rhododendrons. A hedge of pine trees six feet high across the front of the church made a very attractive front scene. Rev. William M. Grant performed the ceremony, the ring service being used. The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of pineapple cloth over silk, with a veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. William D. Horne, of Youkers, N. Y., a sister of the bride, wore white lace over silk, trimmed in pale yellow satin, and carried a bouquet of marguerites. The bridesmaids, Miss Susan Gertrude Quigley, of Pittsburg, and Miss Ella Marie Hesse, of Beech Creek, wore white silk mullie over silk and carried bouquets of white and pink roses. The best man was Herbert U. Moore Esq., of Norristown, and the ushers Silas S. Pomeroy, of Harrisburg; Edward G. Leyden, of Jersey Shore; Harry H. Fearon and George S. Furst, of Beech Creek; Henry C. Quigley, of Bellefonte, and J. Edwin Quigley, of Pittsburg.

Following the wedding about one hundred persons attended a reception tendered the young couple at the Quigley home in Blanchard, where the wedding dinner was served. Late in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hesse were conveyed to Lock Haven in an automobile where they took the midnight train for a wedding trip. They will make their future home in Beech Creek in a house now being built by the bridegroom.

MULLEN—GRIEB—Miss Maude Grieb, of State College, but who is well known in Bellefonte from having been organist in the Methodist church here for a year or more, surprised her friends last week by slipping quietly away and getting married. The fortunate man is Duffington Mullen, of Hyndman. He is an old State student, though he did not finish his course, and last week returned to attend college commencement. On Thursday he and Miss Grieb left the College ostensibly to visit Penn cave but when they arrived at Spring Mills they boarded the Lewisburg and Tyrone train and went to Lewisburg where they were married, and it was not until Saturday that the news of their marriage became public.

MINARY—CRAWFORD—A Tyrone wedding last Thursday evening was that of William F. Minary, the popular young conductor on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad, and Miss May Crawford, a daughter of John A. Crawford. The young couple are now away on a wedding trip, at the expiration of which they will take up their residence in Tyrone.

COPENHAVER—PRICE—William Copenhaver, son of Mrs. Sarah Copenhaver, and Miss Annie Price, daughter of A. E. Price, both of Bald Eagle, were married at the M. E. parsonage at Port Matilda, on Wednesday last week, by Rev. E. S. Bierly.

While loading hay Monday Edmund Hayes was overcome with the heat, his condition for a time causing his friends considerable alarm.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America will attend the United Evangelical church on Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock when Rev. J. F. Hower will preach a sermon of general interest to them.

On Sunday, June 28th, Bald Eagle Grange, No. 151, will hold their regular annual memorial services in the United Brethren church at Runville at two o'clock in the afternoon, in memory of members of the Grange who have died during the past year. The public is cordially invited.

The many friends of Ward Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming, will be interested in knowing that he was admitted to the Allegheny county bar association in Pittsburg last Saturday after passing a very rigid examination. After graduating from the Bellefonte High school Fleming took a course at Haverford, then graduated with honors from the University of Pennsylvania after a two year's course in the law school and then spent the past year in the Pittsburg law school. Though he was admitted to the Allegheny county bar it is not his intention to locate permanently in the Smoky city. In fact he has not yet decided just where he will hang out his sign board.

Messrs. James Allport, Henry Mills, Robert Donmsore, Edward Hunter and Will Reese, of Patton, passed through Bellefonte last Wednesday on an automobile trip to Corning, N. Y. They returned to Williamsport Saturday and from there telephoned that they would be at the Country club to spend the night and for dinner Sunday. Owing to a breakdown in their machine they did not reach the club Saturday night but got their in time to eat their spring chicken dinner on Sunday. They came to Bellefonte the same afternoon and after supper left for their journey home but at Milesburg one of their tires blew out and as they could not get another one in town they were compelled to spend the night in Bellefonte. A new tire was received from Altoona Monday morning and after it was put in place the five gentlemen left for the trip to Patton.

CENTRE COUNTIANS IN PHILADELPHIA HOLD PICNIC—The regular annual picnic of the Centre county association in Philadelphia was held at the old Belmont mansion, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, last Saturday, and from a well known Bellefonte lady we have received the following fertile account of same:

We are told "the prayers of the righteous availeth much," and through the prayers of the good and wise Centre countians June 20th dawned a perfect and ideal day the one specially set apart for the gathering of "kindfolk" and old friends, and what a jolly assembly. The woods of old Fairmount Park fairly rang with joy and mirth. Milesburgers vied with Snow Shoeites, whilst Centre Hall-ians and Spring Millsites drank from the same cup, and Axe Mann with its neighbor took a "Pleasant Gap," while the numerous Bellefonters looked upon the gay scene with amazing eyes, wondering from where and whence all the good people came. Farmers with their smiling wives and children, good stalwart fellows, who long since bade farewell to hay seeds, and did they shake—well, to such an extent that the services of two skilled M. D.'s were called into action in replacing dislocated joints. And was it not a grand old time when the dinner bell rang to call one hundred and seventy-five hungry souls to the heavily-laden tables, which by the way, were bedecked with roses from the garden of a good dame of Centre county. And didn't the tables tremble with good things, which only Centre countians know how to prepare: Chicken and deviled eggs, ham and tongue sandwiches disappeared with lightning speed, as well as buns and sweat cake galore, while a hundred or more good things traveled the same road.

Then followed the speeches, which though lacking in number made up in quality. The gray head of the president, Dr. Roland G. Curtin, danced with merriment when he beheld the old "cheestnut," or the three-toed tale of the historical and meritorious old county, and again in lamentable accent, asked to be released from the responsible and fatiguing office.

Many speakers were called but declined, one having mislaid his notes while the wife of the other had used his manuscript to light the kitchen fire. Ludicrous incidents were too numerous to repeat but my pen takes up the following. An old timer at my elbow, apparently being overwhelmed with glee in greeting his friends of yore, utterly failed to remember he was in the midst of a city element, with its restricting laws in regard to angling, brought with him his rod and line with the hopes of presenting his friends with a trout supper, with his usual Napoleonic air he took himself to the fountain and after adjusting his accoutrements amidst the cooling spray, was about to cast for a two pointer when, lo! the scene ended most dramatically. The park guard had taken possession of him.

We thought we heard our friend remark: "It would not be a Centre county picnic unless we had a fish fry."

Twilight came too quickly for this happy group, and with voices most musical the air was filled with the parting song, "Auld Lang Syne." Good bye's were given with the hope that another year would again bring all together.

The officers elected were: President, Dr. Roland G. Curtin; vice president, Ira D. D. Garman; secretary, Dr. J. C. C. Beale; treasurer, Dr. S. Gray Matters.

ONE WHO WAS THERE

HECLA PARK ON THE FOURTH—From all indications the Undine picnic at Hecla park on July 4th is going to be one of the biggest ever held there by that company, and they are famed for their big picnics. No trouble or expense is being spared to provide a program of entertainment such as they have never had before. Heretofore it was considered a big thing to see one good game of ball there on that day. This year there will be two games, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, between the Milton and Watson town teams, both of which are playing ball equal to the Tri-State. Then company B will be there in full uniform and give a parade as well as a sham battle. In addition there will be plenty of other diversions to keep the people all busy. While you can take your dinner along if you want to, it will not be necessary, as there will be plenty to eat on the ground and at reasonable prices.

MACCABEES INSTALL OFFICERS—At a regular meeting of Bellefonte tent, No. 100, Knights of the Maccabees, held in their hall in the McClain block last Wednesday evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing year. Past commander, H. Laird Curtin; commander, J. Thomas Mitchell; lieutenant commander, Harry Gehrett; chaplain, Charles Moran; sergeant, Samuel N. Ray; record keeper, Geo. T. Bush; master at arms, Curtin C. Taylor; first master of the guard, Samuel T. Cherry; second master of the guard, Arthur Brown; sentinel, Harry Grab; picket, R. S. Bronse.

PICNIC AT SNOW SHOE—The Snow Shoe base ball club will hold a big picnic at the new driving park near that place on July fourth. There will be two games of ball between the Snow Shoe and Howard teams of the Centre-Clinton league. There will be mule races and automobile races. In the evening there will be a very good vaudeville show. In addition to the above there will be dancing all day and evening in the big pavilion. Dinner, supper and other refreshments served on the grounds, or if you prefer to take your own basket you will be just as welcome. Everybody invited.

News Purely Personal

—Mrs. Jack Decker with her two children spent last week in Lewisburg.

—Col. John A. Daley, of Romola, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

—Miss Louise Brachbill returned on Saturday evening from a three weeks visit with friends in Harrisburg.

—Mrs. J. A. B. Miller and children have been at Pine Glenn the past ten days visiting at the home of her father.

—William F. Shope, manager of the Lock Haven telephone exchange, spent Sunday with his parents in this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lonsbury left on Saturday evening for a ten days visit with friends at Elmira and Corning, N. Y.

—After four months absence in Philadelphia studying engraving and music E. Russell Blair returned home last Saturday.

—Maurice Woods and sister, Miss Marion, of New London, Ohio, are spending their vacation with their relatives in Pennsylvania.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy and children spent Sunday and the fore part of the week visiting Mr. Murphy's parents at Jersey Shore.

—Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Gill, of State College, passed through Bellefonte yesterday on their way to Lookout Mountain for the season.

—Dr. and Mrs. George Parsons and children of DuBois, have been in Bellefonte this week visiting Mr. Parsons' mother, Mrs. James Parsons.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rine with their daughter, Mrs. Jack Norris and little son Samuel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher at Boshburg.

—Mrs. Mary Nolan and her daughter, Mrs. Levy Johnson, of Chicago, came to Bellefonte Monday night, expecting to be in Centre county for some time.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tate, of Punxsutawney, arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday to visit friends while Mr. Tate is recovering from injuries received in recent railroad wreck.

—Miss Ruth Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Young, will leave today for Jersey Shore where she will join her grandmother, Mrs. George Young, for a trip to Newark, N. J., and New York City.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer, M. A. Landy and Miss Glass drove to Snow Shoe on Sunday and took dinner at the Mountain house. Miss Glass, by the way, left for her home in New York on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Upton E. Reamer returned on Saturday from a two weeks vacation at Atlantic City and on Monday Mr. Reamer resumed work as conductor on the Lewisburg and Tyrone passenger train.

—Mrs. G. Ross Parker and son Ferguson left last Saturday for the western part of the State, Mrs. Parker to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larmer at Indiana and Ferguson to visit his father's people at Somerset.

—Miss Helen White came to Bellefonte Wednesday at noon, after having graduated from Dr. Arnold's school of physical culture and gymnasium work at New Haven. Miss White will shortly accept a position in Pittsburg.

—Feeling that he was getting a little behind Oscar Wetzel dropped in on Friday evening, and removed all doubt on that score by getting considerably ahead. You know these days are too hot to have any more worry than is necessary.

—Mrs. Sara Kelly and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck returned from their visit to New York the latter part of last week. Mrs. Sourbeck brought with her her little grandchild, who will be with her while his parents spend the summer in England.

—Mr. W. L. Steele and daughter, Miss Olive, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Longue spent Sunday in Boshburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dinges. They found Mrs. Dinges, who several months ago was stricken with paralysis, in a much improved condition.

—J. Norris Bogie with his sister, Miss Sara Bogie, Miss Bailon and two gentleman friends went on an automobile trip to Huntingdon on Tuesday. They went by the way of Pennsylvania Furnace and Spruce Creek and were taken in Langie Bros. big Franklin car.

—C. C. Wilson, of Nittany, was in town Wednesday attending to some business matters and from the heat he had here he must have about concluded that he would sooner have been home making hay than tramping around Bellefonte streets in his starched clothes.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGuinness and little son Robert left on Tuesday for their home in Punxsutawney. Mrs. McGuinness and son have been at her parent's home, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, in this place the past month or five weeks while Mr. McGuinness came over last week to go home with them.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jam. A. Aull, their two children and a niece, of Philadelphia, will come to Mr. Aull's sister, Mrs. Edward Richard, next week for a short visit. Mr. Aull and his family will leave very soon for Muncie where they will live for the next five years while the older son is put in school there.

—James Pickle dropped in for a brief call Saturday evening, but we suppose it was too hot in here to prove very inviting as he merely sent his tab up front and left. Since the American Farmers plant has been shut down Jim has been running the dinky for the Chemical Co., and, necessarily has lost very little time because of the depression in the lime business.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Ward, with their daughter Isabel, will leave today for a visit of ten days in Carlisle and Philadelphia. While in the latter city the doctor will attend the annual meeting of the State Dental society which will convene at Bellevue—Stratford. It might be well for those intending visiting his office to remember that Dr. Ward will be away from it for the next ten days.

—After his graduation from the University of Pennsylvania last Wednesday Wilbur Twimire came to Bellefonte on Thursday morning and spent one day with his parents, then, leaving on Friday morning for Goldsboro, S. C., where he has signed to play ball during the vacation season and at the same time do work in a dental office between games. He expects to return to college in September to take a post graduate course in dentistry.

—Joseph Whitehead, of Hollidaysburg, has been the guest of James Furst the past ten days and last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. William S. Furst, and daughter, of Philadelphia, were also arrivals at the Furst home. As everybody that comes to Centre county this time of the year wants to go trout fishing Jim Furst, John Curtin and Mr. Whitehead established a camp on Fishing creek the latter part of last week and were joined on Saturday by the entire Furst family, who spent Sunday there. Mr. and Mrs. Will Furst and daughter returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday.

—Mrs. W. A. Lyon returned to her home in this place the latter part of last week after a month's absence. After the funeral of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Lyon, she went to Rochester with the bereaved husband and remained there two weeks when she was summoned to Jersey City on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Williams, but an improvement in her condition permitted Mrs. Lyon returning home in time to say good-bye to her son Edward, who left on Saturday for Rochester, N. Y., where he has gone to work under his brother Robert.

—N. P. Ballou, of New York city, is at the Bush house.

—Miss Rose Gamble is visiting in Erie, the guest of Miss Rebecca Hesse.

—Mrs. Chamberlin, of Cumberland, Md., is the guest of Mrs. Tryon, on Howard street. Mrs. Chamberlin will be remembered as Miss Goodman.

—Mrs. Kate Shugert and Miss Anna McCoy will leave today for New York and tomorrow will sail from that city for a six weeks or two months tour of Europe.

—Miss Daisy Brishin, a teacher in the soldier's orphan school at West Chester, is in Bellefonte spending her vacation at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler.

—Johnny Mignot was in for a few moments call on Wednesday evening and said that they are still doing something down at the Empire, as half the plant is in operation anyway.

—David Tanyer, the veteran carpenter, Democrat and son of Howard, was in town on Friday calling on his friends and attending to a little business that needed looking after.

—John S. Henderson came up from Philadelphia on Tuesday to attend to a little business and now that he is here will stay and try his hand at haymaking and harvesting during the next two or three weeks.

—Mrs. P. Gray Meek and her daughter, Dr. Eloise Meek, of Johnston, left Monday night for Rochester, from where they will leave for a trip across Lake Ontario and down the St. Lawrence river.

—Mrs. John Q. Miles, of Martha, was in town on Wednesday doing some shopping having accompanied her daughter Mrs. Geo. O. Benner this far on her way home from a visit at the Miles place up Bald Eagle.

—James A. Depler, of Pittsburg, passed through Bellefonte yesterday on his way to Renovo on a business trip and took time to stop off between trains to see his wife's folks, the McCafferty's on east Lamb street.

—Herman North, of Bradford, a brother of Mrs. F. W. Crider, with his son Jay and his wife and George Jacobs, of Seattle, were guests at the Crider home this week prior to going to Tyrone to attend the Crider—Freeman wedding.

—Mrs. Bogie has had as house guests during the past week, Mrs. Swank and Island Swank, of Milton, Miss Bailon and Larry Montgomery, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Holmes, who is here from Central America. The party went to Huntingdon Tuesday on an automobile trip.

—On Wednesday evening Chester Daughenbaugh, of Howard, was down the valley spending the evening with friends and about eleven o'clock started for home walking the path along the railroad.

About two miles below Howard he met a freight train going east and while passing the train was struck with some mysterious object on the head and knocked unconscious. He was discovered some time later and taken to the Lock Haven hospital where it was found that his skull was fractured and his condition very serious.

Though it was not known what hit him it is supposed it was something projecting over the side of a car. The young man is a son of James W. Daughenbaugh and is about twenty-three years old. He was sent to the hospital by direction of the railroad company.
