Dimeling Re-elected Chairman

At its meeting on Wednesday at Harrisburg the Democratic state committee re-elected Chairman George Dimeling, of Clearfield, without opposition. B. F. Clearfield, without opposition. B. F. Meyers, of Harrisburg, was re elected treasurer of the committee.

Resolutions introduced by John G. Harman, of Bloomsburg, and adopted by the committee, endorse the national ticket and pledge support of it, protest against the action of the national convention in exparticipation in the preliminary work of the convention as unjust and unwarranted : denounce as illegal and un Democratic the unseating of the Philadelphia delegates, and protest against the removal of Colone James M. Guffey from the national com-

In the election of division chairmen "Farmer" William Creasy, of Catawissa, anti-Guffey, was succeeded by John G. Harman, a Guffey man, without contest, Creasy baving previously announced his intention of not being a candidate. Following are the division chairmen elected First, J. C. Amig, Lewistown; second, B. J Clark, Blair; third, W. J. Brennen, Allegheny; fourth, H. M. Good, Lawrence; J. Driscoll, Elk ; sixth, Robert Russell, Lycoming; seventh, J. G. Har man, Columbia; eighth, Charles P. Donnelly, Philadelphia; ninth, J. F. Ancona,

A resolution instructing the state chair man to consult with National Commit teeman Kerr in the conduct of the campaigo was ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, P. J. O'Boyle.

The following resolutions protesting against, and denunciatory of, the unfair and undemocratic treatment of the Pennsylvania Democracy by the National Con-vention was passed without a dissenting

Whereas, It is fitting that the Democratic State Organization of Pennsylvania should take official notice of the action of the Democratic National Convention held in Denver with reference to the Pennsylvania delegation: now, be it Resolved. That, reaffirming our allegiance to the Democracy of the State and Nation, and pleading our partest support and unwavering pledging our earness. Support and unwavering fealty to the nominees of the Denver convention, we, the Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, earnestly protest against the action of the National convention in regard to the representation from this State.

tion of the National convention in regard to the representation from this State.

Although the delegates to that convention were obliged to obey the will of the majority, nevertheless we, as members of this organization, and citizens of a sovereign State, insist that the action of the convention with respect to the Penosylvania delegation was unjust, unwarranted and against parliamentary practice and precedent.

ranted and against parliamentary practice and precedent.

We condemn the decision of the temporary chairman of said convention, by which he referred to the Committee on Credentials the right of the appointees of Pennsylvania delegation to participate in the deliberations of the Piatform Committee and the Committee on Rules and Organization and other Committees. Admitting that each committee is the judge of the qualifications of its own members, we deny that any fiction of parliamentary law cannot be justly made the arbiter of the membership of other district bodies. By that decision the State of Pennsylvania with 34 presidential electors, and nearly one-half million Democratic votes, was excluded from all deliberative work of the convention. Hawaii and Idaho, whose entire delegations were contested, had a voice, while Pennsylvania. Idaho, whose entire delegations were con-ed, had a voice, while Pennsylvania was de tested, had a voice, while Pennsylvania was denied representation.

We denounce as illegal and un Democratic the action of the Credentials Committee in unseating the eight members of the Philadelphia delegation and the seating of the contestants—illegal, because there was no due proof of any valid contest; because the contestees held duly approved certificates of election from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, accepted by the National Democratic Committee as valid, and because no allegation of fraud or attempt to prove fraud in the vote or manner by which the duly certified members had been elected was ever made or offered in the proper jurisdiction, to wit: in the Courts of the City of Philadelphia; un-Democratic, because the choice of the electors of a constituent portion of the State's Democracy was subverted and destroyed.

We protest against such action of the National e protest against such action of the National Convention as an invasion of the rights of a party organization of a sovereign State, and as a usurpa-tion of authority before the legitimate and legal remedies within the State were invoked. remedies within the State were invoked.

As an evidence of the justice of our protest, we cite the fact that 387 delegates in the convention, more than one-third of the entire body, joined us in the remonstrance, by voting for the minority report sustaining our contention.

We assert as our belief that the only cause for uch action was the prearranged determination We assert as our belief that the only cause for such action was the prearranged determination to oust from the Democratic National Committee James M. Guffey, who had been legally elected as National Committeeman by a vote of 47 out of 68 delegates from Pennsylvania, and which election made him, and still makes him, the duly authorized head of the Pennsylvania State Democracy. Knowing that might can never make right, and that usurpation of power once enforced and submitted to, becomes arrogant, we aver that the injustice perpetrated upon Pennsylvania, established a precedent which in the future may be used to subvert the political sovereignty of all the other States.

to subvert the political sovereignty of all the other States.

Resolved, Further, that in the selection of William J. Bryan and John W. Kern as our candidates the convention recognized and obeyed the call of the great mass of Democratic voters, and that their election meant not only the triumph of Democratic principles, but a recognition of the cause so long advocated by the Great Commoner, and in the support of their candidacy and election we invite and solicit the united and earnest efforts of the entire Democracy.

He was about seventy years of age and bad been a charge on Spring township for a on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

WHAT COUNCIL DID .- Every member of council was present at the regular meeting on Monday evening, but the session was devoid of anything of unusual interest. Nothing of great importance was reported by the various committees.

Residents of Logan street complained of the bad condition of the gutters on that thoroughfare, which the board of health has declared a menace to the health of the people of that community. The matter was referred to the Sanitary committee.

A contract for painting the roof of the public building on Howard street was awarded to James Cornelly. The Water committee was instructed to have notices printed and distributed notifying all users that on all water tax not paid by August 15th five per cent. will be

The bad condition of the pavement in front of the court house yard and soldiers monument was discussed and it was the sentiment of council that the county commissioners should either repair the same or put down a new one at once.

Residents of south Water street preferred a request for a crossing near the Bellefonte Lumber company's office. Council agreed to put down a crossing on condition that the property owners on the east side of the street build pavements or boardwalks along their property. Complaint was made of a number of bad pavements in town and the matter was referred to the Street committee.

The following bills were approved and orders drawn :

-On Wednesday R. B. Taylor practically completed the piece of state road through Milesburg borough from the southern line to the bridge over Bald Eagle through the season. Of course the best creek, so that automobilists and horse trout fishing was found in Fishing creek, owners will now have a good drive from but the biggest trout were taken from ment being made in the Philipsburg cemethe Bellefonte borough line to the business Spring creek in the vicinity of Belleters.

-A dance was given at the Country of Centre county, died in the Coatesville club on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Crider.

-The frog season opened on July first but up to this time there is not very much enthusiasm among frog fishers in Centre

-The next big time will be the business men's pionic and as it is less than a month away it is none too soon to begin to

of the horough schools. -Just to start this week right T. Clayton Brown went out to the falls on Monday morning and caught a fourteen inch trout. Of course it was a little under size for him but he hadn't the time to wait for a bigger one.

-Duke Wian, the parness man, has orn down his old house on Logan street and is building a nice brick residence on the old site. Work on the building of same will be pushed as fast as possible so it can be completed before the cold winter weather sets in.

-Mr. Samuel Rice, who several weeks ago was stricken with paralysis while visiting friends at Centre Line, has improved to that extent that he is able to walk around fairly comfortably and the attending physician has hopes of his permanent recovery.

-Huntingdon is after Wilbur Twitmfre to locate there and pitch ball for them the balance of the season. Twitmire is now in Wilmington, N. C., but a letter received from him by his parents in the beginning of the week stated that it was possible he would go to Huntingdon in a week

-Most of the farmers in Centre conn ty finished barvesting this week. That is, their grain is out and all hauled in the barns that could be gotten in while the balance has been stacked in readiness for the threshers. The oats are coming along splendidly and it will not be long until ate of the Bellefonte High school, class of oats harvest will be here.

-Miss Louise Armor is quite ill as her home on east Linn street, as the result of too close application to her work and a run down system. It was at first feared that she was taking a fever or suffering from congestion of the brain, but fortunately this is not the case, though her condition is serious enough to cause her friends considerable anxiety.

-The One Hundred and Tenth Penn sylvania Veteran Volunteer association will hold its quarto-centennial reunion in Tyrone on October 16th. On account of life he followed the occupation of a farmer its being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the association arrangea painter. Five years ago he embarked in tire when he purchased a home in Smull. ments are being made for a bigger time than usual, and notices of the event will soon be sent to the various memb Kreps, of Milesburg, is president of the as sociation and G. W. Buck, of Altoona, secretary.

----While driving a self-binding barvester in his wheat field one day last week John W. Homan, of College township, felt the earth give way under the machine and by whipping his horses into a trot just escaped going down into a sink hole about twenty feet in depth and fifty feet in diameter. While it was no doubt the weight number of years. The funeral was held of the team and harvester that caused the ground to cave in, it was possibly weakened by the heavy crop of grain grown there-

-Lightning played a curious prank at the home of Joel Kling, of Jacksonville, on Tuesday afternoon. A bolt struck an apple tree a few rods from the bouse and running down to a fork in the tree jumped from there to a wooden pump on the porch which it almost split in two. The curious part was that in jumping from the apple tree to the wooden pump the lightning jumped almost directly over an iron pump which was untouched. The family were in the kitchen at the time and though they were very badly frightened no one was

--- The Campus Water company has been organized at State College for the purpose of supplying the college, the various professors' houses, fraternity houses and all the buildings belonging to the college with pure mountain water. Last week Gen. Beaver, president Edwin Erle Sparks, vice president Judson P. Welsh and Judge Ellis L. Orvis went on a trip of inspection to Pine Grove Mills and so well were they pleased with the water that comes down from the mountain at that place that they have begun negotiations for the purchase of the old flouring mill in that town with all the water rights of the creek which furnishes it power. If they ucceed the water will be piped to a large receiving reservoir at State College.

-Just one more week of trout fishing eason remains and then the enthusiasti angler will have to lay aside his rod and line for another nine months, so far as the speckled beauties are concerned. While it can be said that trout are not as plentiful now as they were years ago in Centre county streams yet there are enough of them to make fishing an interesting pasttime. In fact any fisherman who went out and had the patience to stay long enough generally came home with a mess of trout, while quite a number were very successful in making good catches all

STEVENS-CRAWFORD.-It seems to be the prevailing disposition of young people now when wishing to embark on the sea of matrimony to do so as quietly as possible, and this fact may account for the way in which J. Howe Stevens and Miss Mabel Crawford, both of Tyrone, slipped away to Harrisburg two weeks ago today and were quietly married. The two young people were members of a camping party at Longfellow, in the Juniata valley. On Friday morning, July 10th, they told their fellow campers that they were going to Lewistown to spend the day with friends and boarding the train started east. They did not stop at Lewistown, however, but went on to Harrisburg where they were married by Rev. A. Maxwell Samete, of the Augeburg

Lutheran church. It was the intention of the young couple to keep their marriage a secret for a few weeks but an inadvertent remark last Friday disclosed the fact of their marriage. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Crawford and quite popular among the younger set of Tyrone. She has frequently visited in Bellefonte and has many friends here. The bridegroom is a son of Hon, and Mrs. A. A. Stevens and is about as well known in Bellefonte as he is in Tyrone, from having lived here a number

MORLEY-WAGNER .- Without any attempt at display or ostentation and in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties, Miss Mabel Elizabeth Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wagner, of Barnesboro, and Arthur Morley, of Harrisburg, were married at the home of the bride's parents at six o'clock last Thursday morning. Rev. Hugh S. Shaw, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, while the attendants were Miss Edna Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meyer, of this place, and John Wagner, a brother of the bride.

The bride was attired in a traveling costume and immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Morley left on a bridal trip to eastern cities. The bride is a popular and accomplished young woman, and has many friends in Bellefonte, being a gradu-1906. The bridegroom is an energetic young business man of Meadville, where the young couple will make their home.

LAFFRRY-HAUPT .- A quiet wedding n Altoona at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, the 11th, was that of Jesse Lafferty, of Alle, gheny, and Miss Mary Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haupt, and who is well known in Bellefonte. The ceremony was performed at St. Marks' Catholic church by the pastor, Rev. Father N. J. O'Reilly. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City the young couple will take up their residence in Allegheny where Mr. Lafferty is in business.

LUTZ-ALBERT .- Howard Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lutz, of Philipsburg, known Everhart home on the Branch. and Miss Theodosia Albert, of the same they were quietly married on July 13th. After a brief wedding trip they returned to Philipsburg the latter part of last week and are now preparing to go to housekeeping at Winburne where the bridegroom is engaged with his father in the butchering

WALK-WEAVER .- Jacob F. Walk, of Sandy Ridge, and Miss Lydia Weaver, of Fowler, were married at the United Brethren parsonage in Tyrone at twelve o'clock on Wednesday, Rev. T. P. Orner, the pastor, performing the ceremony. Mr. Walk s employed at the fire brick works at Sandy Ridge and it is there the young couple will make their future home.

STONE-BACHMAN .- Roy Stone, Beech Creek, and Miss Caroline Bachman, of this place, were married at the home of her parents on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. John Hewitt performing the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Emma Bachman and George Stone.

-Two years ago the Mountainside bible school at Coleville was organized with eighty-one members. The school has grown considerably in that time and last April it was decided that they need a house of worship of their own and by upanimous consent they agreed to build an edifice to be known as the Olive Branch chapel. A lot of ground was contributed by the American Lime and Stone company, as well as stone and lime for the walls, etc. Members of the Sunday school gladly volunteered their labor free and now the foundation walls have been completed. A generous bid for lumber and other material has been accepted and at the rate the work is now being pushed there is every hope that the chapel will be ready for dedication in the early fall. Much credit for this good work is due to Missioner Crittenden, of

KILLED IN MINE ACCIDENT .- Joseph Cockrost and Joseph Kay, both natives of England, were killed outright and Joseph Lambert, a Frenchman, was fatally injured in a mine accident at the Acme slope near Hawk Run last Friday afternoon. A train of loaded mine cars was being hauled up the slope when the rope broke allowing them to run back into the mine. The three men were walking up the slope and not being able to get out of the way were caught by the runaway cars.

Cockrost was killed instantly, Kay died n the way to the hospital at Philipsburg while Lambert lived to be taken there. All three men have lived in Philipsburg and vicinity for the past twenty years. Cook-rost leaves a wife and two children and Kay a wife and adopted daughter.
