

False Clue in Murder Mystery.
The search for the slayer of William Williams, the aged farm owner and sutor for the hand of Elizabeth Wall, aged thirteen years, whose body was found hanging to a tree near Maryland, Md., on Tuesday last, continues, but without success. A theory was advanced that Williams may have been attacked in Delaware and dragged across the state line into Maryland and while still alive hanged to the tree. It is probable that the attorney general of Delaware will be asked to help in the investigation.

Detective F. R. Dick, of Baltimore, is assisting in the investigation, but thus far no tangible clue has been found. Dick found Frank Wessel, a brother of a son-in-law of Williams. Wessel had been missing since the finding of the body, but he gave a good account of his movements showing that his absence was made necessary by business. The police are still working on the theories that Williams was either killed by some one opposed to his marriage with the little girl or that he was murdered by some one who was bent on robbery.

Seven Killed in Mine Explosion.
Seven dead and ten injured, several probably fatally, is the ghastly record of the Summit Branch Mining company's operation at Williamstown, near Pottsville, Pa., where a frightful gas explosion occurred, tearing down timbers by the force of its shock and setting parts of the workings on fire.

The dead are: John Kelly, Arthur Hawk, Charles Rickett, John Whittle, Anthony Frelas, James Bowman and Michael Stakum.
The explosion occurred in No. 1 shaft of the Williamstown colliery, and is believed to have been caused by one of the dead men lifting the gauge of his safety lamp just after an explosion of a shot which brought down a large body of coal. Superintendent Aumen at once directed the work of rescue, and when volunteers were called for almost every man at the colliery offered his services, which meant a hazardous trip into the burning mine, which was filled with deadly after-damp.

Insuring Against Bryan.
Fearful of a crash in stocks should William J. Bryan be elected president, Wall street firms have taken out two days, and $1,000,000 more is awaiting acceptance in the office of Bertschmann & Maloy, the New York agents of the great English firm. The insurance is at 10 per cent.

Some days ago a member of the insurance firm said a big manufacturer, who believed his business might be hurt by Bryan's election, asked if the Lloyd's would insure him against that contingency. Cable messages brought the information that Lloyd's would. But they wanted 20 per cent. That was too much, said the manufacturer, and 10 per cent was finally agreed on. Then the manufacturer placed $100,000. If Bryan wins he gets $90,000 back.

Canoe Overturned; Two Drowned.
Peter Frankl, eighteen, and Marion Engle, seventeen, were drowned in the Schuylkill canal at Pottstown, Pa., and Elsie Fryer, aged sixteen years, and William Edwards, aged eighteen years, had a narrow escape when their canoe overturned. Marion Engle moved to one side of the canoe to dodge an overhanging branch of a tree and the canoe overturned. Frankl was an expert swimmer, but Miss Engle clutched him about the neck and he was powerless and sank with her. Edwards assisted Miss Fryer to the shore. Although Frankl and Miss Engle sank together, their bodies were found about twenty feet apart. All were residents of Pottstown.

The Prohibition Ticket.
For president, Eugene W. Chafin, of Chicago; for vice president, Aaron S. Watkins, of Ada, Ohio. This ticket was nominated by the Prohibitionists' national convention at Chicago, and both of the nominations were made unanimous. The full indorsement of the convention was not, however, given to Mr. Chafin until after three ballots had been taken.

The strongest competitor of Mr. Chafin was Rev. William B. Palmer, of St. Louis, who received 274 votes on the first ballot, and a comparatively small vote after it was evident that the nomination of Mr. Chafin could not be prevented.

Can't "Mister" Negroes in Court.
Judge Cochran, in the Wilmington (Del) municipal court, has made the oddest ruling on record in the state of Delaware. He ordered that witnesses should not refer to colored folks as "Mr.," "Mrs." or "Miss," and then, to enforce his decision, he fined Christopher Brooks, a colored man, $5 and costs for contempt of court because he forgot himself after being warned and again called Sarah Archer, a colored woman, "Mrs. Archer."

Negro Confessed Five Murders.
Frank Johnson, a negro, was hanged at the West Virginia penitentiary at Moundsville for the murder of Mrs. Beulah Martin, at Gypsy, W. Va., on March 3 last.
A sensational feature of Johnson's last day was a confession made to the chaplain of the prison, Rev. H. B. Sanford, in which he said he had committed five murders during his career.

Died Denouncing Priesthood.
Calling down maledictions on the Roman Catholic priesthood and shouting in Italian "Long live Italy. Long live the Protestants," Giuseppe Alia, who murdered Father Leo Heinrich at the altar of St. Elizabeth's church, Denver, Colo., was carried to the death trap and paid the extreme penalty of his crime by hanging.

Altoms, Pa., July 21.—Jeanette, a two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberly, rolled off a bed, and a toothbrush, which she had in her mouth punctured an artery at the base of the brain. The child died almost instantly.

Six Beers a Day Too Much For Man.
Orange, N. J., July 21.—Six glasses of beer a day is too much for any man, according to Dr. Herman P. Gerbert, city physician, whose opinion is in a report on the physical condition of a candidate for fireman. And the city physician is not a teetotaler.

Not What You Pay, But What You Get For the Money—That is the Best of A Bargain.
Do you think of that when you put a roof on? Do you consider that a long term of service at a good price is better than a life half as long at half the price? [The cost of laying is saved in such a case.] Many times the margin isn't nearly so close as this.
Mr. Man, we know you want the best kind of a roof; and we know you don't care to tie up any more money than necessary to insure good service from it.
Use either Ruberoid prepared roofing; Number One Red Cedar shingles, or slate. Any one is good; any one will stand the weather and withstand decay. Ruberoid and slate are fire proof and practically everlasting.
