A satchel and carpet bag were found in a clump of bushes along the railroad, near the Black crossing. The baggage evidently had been there some time as it was wet and musty. Quite a bunch of clothing and five shirts were among the contents. Constable J. E. Smith took charge of the stuff.
Farmer Elmer Ishler Saturday evening drove his team to Bealsburg and hitched them to a fence which they tore down and ran away. They ran into a wagon demolishing it and making kindling wood of the buggy. Next morning one horse was found at Oak Hall and the other along Nittany mountain.
Patients Saved As Hospital Burns.
Forty patients, many of whom were helpless, were imperiled when the new $42,000 hospital at Lock Haven, Pa., was destroyed by fire. For a time the rescuers ran a close race with the flames. Working in halls filled with smoke, white-clad nurses and volunteers hastened from one room to another, moving sufferers from the building as they lay in their cots, or pushing them to the fresh air in wheel chairs.
Boy Shoots Sister Dead.
While he was playing with a shot gun at the home of his parents in Rensselaer, opposite Albany, N. Y., Cornelius Burdick, fourteen years of age, accidentally shot and killed his sister Helen, aged nineteen years. The young woman was sitting on a chair near the kitchen window, with her baby brother in her lap, at the time she was shot. The baby narrowly escaped being killed.

ARRESTED ON 28 WARRANTS

Samuel Dickinson Charged With Defrauding Wilkes-Barre People.
Philadelphia, Aug. 4.—On twenty-eight warrants issued at the instance of residents of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., charging conspiracy to cheat and defraud and obtaining money by false pretense, Samuel Dickinson was arrested here by local detectives and Detective Valley, of Wilkes-Barre. The charges grow out of the sale of stock in the Capitol Life Insurance Company of America to the plaintiffs through Dickinson. The amount given in the warrants as having been secured from the Wilkes-Barre people is $7500. The Capitol Insurance company was organized in December, 1905, and incorporated in the District of Columbia. Receivers were recently appointed in Washington and in this city to take charge of the affairs of the concern on petition of some of the stockholders, who alleged that the assets of the company are being wasted.
It is claimed that the company failed to secure a license to carry on business in Washington, and that the assets consist almost entirely of subscriptions to the capital stock. William MacDonald, of this city, who is treasurer and secretary, is alleged by the stockholders to have control of the money of the corporation. In the warrants issued against Dickinson, William MacDonald is also named as one of those who must answer the charges made by the Wilkes-Barre complainants.
Held On Serious Charge.
Paterson, N. J., Aug. 4.—John Casale, a well-to-do Newark real estate operator, who was arrested here on a charge made by a twelve-year-old girl, was held in $1000 bail for the action of the grand jury. He also was held in $1000 bail on another charge made by Lillian Lechner, fifteen years old, for an offense said to have been committed on July 18.

Death of Senator Allison.
DUBUQUE, Ia., Aug. 4.—United States Senator W. B. Allison died at his home in this city this afternoon. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure. The end came as a result of a serious sinking spell due to a prostatic enlargement, complicated with kidney diseases, and during a period of unconsciousness, which had lasted since Saturday afternoon.
Two weeks ago the senator left his home in the city to escape the heat. He went to the home of Mrs. Fannie Stout, a friend of the family living on the Asbury road, a few miles from town. For a few days his condition seemed to improve, but he later began to grow worse. Medical advisers urged that an operation be performed to relieve the prostatic enlargement which was bringing his condition to a crisis.
Saturday morning the senator was brought back home. Soon afterwards he relapsed into a condition of semi-consciousness. Except for brief periods of partial recovery, he remained in this condition until death came this afternoon.
News of the serious illness of the aged senator was kept from the public as much as possible and his death came as a surprise to his thousands of friends residing in this city. Only the more intimate friends of the family were aware of his critical condition.
No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.
Senator Allison was born at Perry, O., March 2, 1828, the son of John and Mary Allison. His boyhood days he spent on the farm, which was his birthplace. Reaching young manhood, he secured his education in Allegheny college in Pennsylvania, and the Western Reserve college of Ohio, in both of which schools he distinguished himself at winning high honors in all the branches which he studied.

Urges Loan to Stay Suicide.
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—"Personal: Father of eight children, to be not obliged to kill himself, needs $500, giving it back $5 weekly; sure."
The above "want ad" inserted in a morning newspaper today revealed the fact that unless a despairing man gets the money soon he will commit suicide and leave his children destitute.
The money is needed to repay his employers a sum he says he lost four months ago. He has not told them of the loss and he has reached the conclusion that a suicide's fate is the only thing that remains for him.
The man is an Italian whose name is concealed and collects for a Chicago concern. He declared today that he had not told his employers of the loss of their money fearing they would report to the company with which he is bonded and that this company would send him to prison.
"Tommy, were you fighting with that Carter boy?"
"Yes, maw."
"Didn't I tell you not to quarrel with anyone?"
"Yes, maw; but I thought all bets were off since you quit speaking to the Carter boy's maw."
