

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., August 28, 1908.

P. GRAY MEEK, Editor

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice his paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.00

Democratic Presidential Electors.

For President: WILLIAM J. BRYAN, of Nebraska.

For Vice President: JOHNS W. KERN, of Indiana.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

AT LARGE: JOSEPH P. McCULLEN, ALBERT J. BARR.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

- 1. Daniel F. Coffin, 17. Cyrus C. Gelwick, 2. Ed B. Seibert, 18. George D. Krause, 3. Aaron G. Krause, 19. Samuel M. Hoyer, 4. Clarence Loebe, 20. Henry Washburn, 5. James T. Sully, 21. J. Hawley Baird, 6. Michael J. Howard, 22. John K. Holland, 7. John C. Ferron, 23. John F. Pauley, 8. Joe. H. Danner, 24. Howard S. Marshall, 9. Louis N. Spencer, 25. Robert X. Brown, 10. Alex. W. Dickson, 26. Howard Mutchler, 11. John T. Flannery, 27. Wm. Louis Neal, 12. Oliver P. Bechtel, 28. Fred. A. Shaw, 13. Harry D. Schaeffer, 29. Henry Meyer, 14. Charles A. McCarty, 30. Wesley S. Guffey, 15. John Franklin Stone, 31. Dennis J. Boyle, 16. John I. Welsh, 32. Casper P. Mayer.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Judge of the Superior Court, WEBSTER GRIM, of Bucks County.

Democratic County Ticket.

For Congress: W. HARRISON WALKER, of Bellefonte.

For Assembly: J. CALVIN MEYER, of Bellefonte.

For Sheriff: FRED F. SMITH, of Rush township.

For Register: G. F. WEAVER, of Penn township.

For Recorder: F. PIERCE MUSSER, of Millheim.

For Treasurer: J. D. MILLER, of Walker township.

For County Commissioners: C. A. WEAVER, of Penn township.

J. L. DUNLAP, of Spring township.

For Auditors: J. W. BECK, of Marion township.

JOHN L. COLE, of Walker township.

For Coroners: DR. P. S. FISHER, of Walker township.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

BURD — CAMPBELL.—The Presbyterian parsonage at Pennsylvania Furnace was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday of last week when Miss Eleanor Howard Campbell, daughter of Rev. R. M. Campbell, the resident pastor, became the bride of Prof. W. H. Burd, principal of the Third ward schools, of Altoona.

The ceremony, which took place at nine o'clock in the morning, was performed by the bride's father in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends.

The beautiful and impressive ring service was read. Miss Annie Campbell, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Prof. H. H. Bash, of Altoona, was best man.

Following the ceremony and congratulations a wedding breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Burd left on a wedding trip which will include a journey to Niagara Falls, the Thousand Islands, and down the St. Lawrence and Hudson rivers.

They will be at home in Altoona after September 9th. The bride, as stated above, is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Campbell, of Pennsylvania Furnace. She is a well known school teacher and a year ago was supervisor of the kindergarten schools in Altoona. The bridegroom also enjoys quite a reputation as a teacher, having been a principal in the Altoona schools for six years.

HICKS—KLINE.—Rev. Owen Hicks, one of the best known ministers in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference and who is intimately known by many people in Centre county, was married in Williamsport on Thursday of last week to Miss Clara J. Kline, first principal of the Garfield school in Altoona. Rev. T. S. Wilcox performed the ceremony. Rev. and Mrs. Hicks will for the present make their home at Slate Run, where he is now located. The bride, by the way is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kline, of Howard.

EVANS — BOWES.—Over one hundred guests assembled in the Christian chapel at Howard, last Thursday evening, to witness the marriage of Miss Carolyn Bowes to Clarence G. Evans, of Harrisburg. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and is quite an accomplished young lady. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Evans left on the evening train for their new home in Harrisburg.

FOX — UNDERWOOD.—On Wednesday evening of last week a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Underwood, at Unionville, when their daughter, Miss Susan R., was united in marriage to Jacob C. Fox, of Mill Hall, according to the ceremony of the Society of Friends. Thirty guests were present as witnesses to the ceremony.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jenkins and family, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukenbach and family, of Tyrone, are in camp this week down below Howard, where they are putting in the time fishing for bass.

—Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

DEATH OF REV. GROH.—Telegrams received in Bellefonte on Tuesday announced the death that morning, at his home in Carlisle, of Rev. W. H. Groh, a well known minister in the German Reformed church, and who was pastor at Boalsburg, this county, for almost thirty-two years. His death was the result of a general breaking down of the system.

Rev. Groh was born at Meyerstown, Pa., March 10th, 1833, hence was 75 years, 5 months and 15 days old. When but a boy his mother frequently expressed a desire that he should devote his life and energies to the work of the ministry and it was her dying request to her husband that he would influence their son in that direction. The mother's desire and father's tender advice and encouragement were undoubtedly the leading factors in shaping the young man's destiny.

In the fall of 1849 he entered the preparatory department of the Mercersburg Academy and a year later the Freshman class at Franklin and Marshall college. He graduated from that institution August 7th, 1854, with honors, delivering the German oration. The same year he entered the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, but left that institution in the spring of 1856, having been recommended for licensure by Drs. Schall and Wolf. May 5th, 1856, he was licensed to preach by the Lebanon Classis and ordained a minister of the gospel. He served as an assistant to his old pastor, Rev. Thomas H. Leinbach, for one year when he was called to the charge at Berryburg, Dauphin county. While there he received permission from the Classis to organize a congregation and establish a church at Lykens, Pa., which he did very successfully. In the fall of 1857 he received a call from the German Reformed church at Boalsburg, this county, and, accepting, began his work there on December 20th of the same year. It was there he spent the best years of his life and with unflinching zeal and energy labored for over a quarter of a century among the people of that town and vicinity; his kindly ministrations winning for him a host of friends even outside his own church. On April 1st, 1889, he brought his long pastorate to a close by accepting a call to the charge at Sulphur Springs, near Carlisle. That was his last regular charge though after retiring from the work there a number of years ago he faithfully gave as much of his time as his declining years would permit to the work of the Master. Rev. Groh was a great scholar, being able to preach in either English or German, and was a preacher whose sermons bore the imprint of great care and study.

He was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Eliza Stein, of Lebanon. Two children were the result of this union, a son who died in infancy, and one daughter, Mary, the wife of William Roeder, of Glen Rock. His second wife was Miss Julia Hess, of Boalsburg, who survives with two daughters, Misses Margaret and Anna, at home. The funeral will take place at two o'clock this afternoon at Carlisle.

WAGNER.—Mrs. Annie C. Wagner, wife of Dr. E. F. Wagner, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Postgrove, of Phillipsburg, died in the Maple Hill sanitarium in the latter place on Thursday morning of last week, after nine months' illness with leukemia.

Deceased was born at Pine Grove Mills October 31st, 1858, hence was 49 years, 9 months and 20 days old. Twenty-eight years ago the Postgrove family moved to Phillipsburg and on May 7th, 1889, Miss Postgrove was united in marriage to Dr. Wagner. Fourteen years ago they moved to Fort Wayne where they have lived since. In addition to her husband and parents she is survived by one sister, Mrs. Samuel Kishel, of Johnstown.

Funeral services were held at the home of the parents of the deceased at four o'clock on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning the remains were taken to York where interment was made on Monday afternoon.

STOVER.—Mrs. Sophia P. Stover, one of the oldest residents of Unionville, died at her home in that place on Wednesday morning of last week of paralysis, with which she had been stricken quite recently. She was a widow of the late William Stover and was past eighty-three years of age. From early girlhood she was a member of the Methodist church and a kindly christian woman. Her maiden name was Miss Sophia Richards, and she was the last surviving member of a family of twelve children. She was also the mother of twelve children, six of whom survive, as follows: J. Fall Stover, Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary M. Fink, Tyrone; Mrs. Laura E. Bricker, Boalsburg; John O. Stover, Redsville; Mrs. William McEwen, Unionville, and A. G. C. Stover, St. Paul, Minn. The funeral was held at two o'clock last Friday afternoon, interment being made in the Unionville cemetery.

FRANK.—As a result of paralysis, with which she had been stricken a week previous Mrs. Thomas Frank died at her home near Aaronsburg on Wednesday of last week.

Deceased was born in Union county and was 72 years, 9 months and 13 days old. Ever since her marriage to Mr. Frank, a little over fifty years ago, they have made their home in Haines township. She was a member of the Lutheran church and one who by her kind and charitable disposition won hosts of friends. In addition to her husband she is survived by two children, Mrs. Catharine Breen, of Aaronsburg, and Edward, of South Dakota. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, interment being made at Aaronsburg.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY.—Miss Jane Boggs Pearce died at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. T. McCormick, on College Avenue, State College, at 2.45 o'clock Sunday morning. "Aunt Jane" as she was known by all, was born near Linden Hall, this county, October 2nd, 1818, hence had she lived until October 2nd next she would have reached the age of ninety years. She was the daughter of the Rev. Marnaduke Pearce, at one time one of the leading pioneer Methodist ministers of this State. Her mother was a daughter of Fergus Potter, who owned the Potter homestead near Linden Hall, still in the possession of the family descendants. She and her sister Nancy lived together in their home in Pottery Mills for over fifty years. After her sister's death about six years ago her mind became weak and she was taken to State College where she spent the balance of her days with her niece. She was a consistent and devoted member of the M. E. church, a good woman, kind and generous and a great reader. She is survived by one brother, the Rev. J. J. Pearce, of Conneaut, Ohio; two nieces, Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. J. T. McCormick, of State College; and one nephew, C. P. Hewes, Esq., of Erie Pa. Funeral services were held at the home of J. T. McCormick on Monday evening. The body was taken to Pottery Mills Tuesday morning and burial was made in the Sprucecreek cemetery. Rev. C. C. Snively officiated at the services.

RIMERT.—T. Lloyd Rimert, a former resident of Howard, died in the hospital for the insane at Danville last Friday morning. A year or so ago Mr. Rimert suffered a breakdown in health and his condition last spring was such that he made threats against members of his family and he was sent to the Danville asylum. Instead of improving under the treatment he continued to grow worse until death resulted. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rimert and was born at Howard about thirty-nine years ago. He was married and is survived by his wife and son, parents and one sister. The remains were taken to Howard on Saturday evening and the funeral held direct from the train, interment being made in the Schenck cemetery.

SOLT.—Frederick Mosser, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Solt, died at their home on Logan street last Saturday morning. Last spring the boy had measles and catching a slight cold they settled on his lungs with the result that tuberculosis developed and this was the cause of his death. To mourn their loss are left his parents, two brothers and three sisters, namely: Clara, Grover, Mary, Susan and Jasper. The funeral was held at two o'clock Monday afternoon from the United Evangelical church. Rev. J. F. Hower officiated at the services and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

DURST.—After a prolonged illness Mrs. Philip Durst died at her home in Potter township last Friday evening. She was sixty-six years of age and was born in Union county, though ever since her marriage she has lived with her husband and family on the farm two miles east of Centre Hall. She is survived by her husband, three sons and four daughters. The funeral was held on Monday, interment being made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

TREMBLE.—Howard Tremble, colored, died at his home on Beaver street last Friday afternoon after several months' illness with spinal trouble. He was forty-four years old and is survived by his wife. Funeral services were held at his late home on Saturday afternoon and the same evening the body was shipped to Percolville, Va., his old home, for interment.

ZIMMERMAN.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zimmerman, of Milesburg, are mourning the death of their little daughter, Lucinda Catharine, who died last Saturday of cholera infantum. She was aged 1 year, 8 months and 4 days. The funeral was held on Monday. Rev. Frey, of the Evangelical church, officiated and interment was made in the Treozynal cemetery.

FULTON.—Hazel, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Fulton, of Halfmoon hill, died at 1:40 o'clock last Friday afternoon of membranous croup, after a brief illness. She was aged 4 years, 4 months and 11 days. The funeral was held on Saturday morning, the remains being taken to Meyers' cemetery for interment.

WILL OF JAMES HARRIS.—The last will and testament of the late James Harris was probated on Tuesday in the office of the register of wills of Centre county. It is quite a lengthy document, having originally been written in 1903. Since that time, however, two codicils have been attached the last of which is dated August 11th, 1908, just eight days prior to his death.

His entire estate, which is variously estimated as from sixty to seventy-five thousand dollars is left in trust for the use of his widow during her lifetime. After her death the brick building occupied by the Potter-Hoy Hardware company and C. C. Shuey, known as the Harris block, is bequeathed outright to his half-brother, Dr. George F. Harris, his heirs or assigns. Of the residue of the estate the double brick house on Spring street, adjoining the residence lately occupied by the testator, was left jointly to Miss Anna H. Hoy and Miss Agnes L. Orbison. Other bequests were three thousand dollars to J. Harris Hoy, two thousand dollars to the Bellefonte hospital, two thousand dollars to the Bellefonte Academy, five hundred dollars each to J. Harris Otewine and Samuel Harris Slaymaker, and his interest of one thousand dollars in the Whitrock quarries to John M. Shugart.

If there is any residue left after the above bequests have been paid it is left without reserve to his half brother, Dr. George F. Harris, his heirs or assigns. In no case, however, do any of the above bequests become operative until after the death of Mrs. Harris. John Blanchard was made executor and trustee of the estate.

FRIENDS QUARTERLY MEETING.—The regular Friends' Quarterly meeting will be held in their meeting house in Halfmoon valley, one mile west of Stormstown and two miles south of Port Matilda, September 5th to 7th. The meeting on Sunday morning, September 6th, which is always the meeting of the three days worship, will convene at 10 o'clock in the morning, and the public is cordially invited to attend, and observe this hour. In addition to the usual morning and afternoon meetings there will be a temperance meeting on Sunday evening which will be addressed by H. W. Wilbur, of Swarthmore, Pa. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Friends committee having such matters in charge, and will be a good meeting for local opinion advocates as well as those opposed to local opinion.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by Register Earl C. Tuten: Rav Calhoun, Unionville, and Margaret M. Williams, Martha.

Blaine Mabus and Nanna L. Mallory, Bellefonte.

Wm. F. Weaver and Carrie Lair, Zion. John H. Kline, Phillipsburg, and Nellie Haven, Glen Ridge.

Jay Walter Brown, Fleming, and Edith M. May, Bellefonte, R. F. D.

John R. Strong, Pottery Mills, Mary Jones, Boston.

George A. Simon, Bellwood, Elizabeth Proctor, Belleaire, Md.

Henry Chronister and Lola Williams, Martha.

Jacob C. Fox, Mill Hall, and Susan Underwood, Unionville.

Pine Grove Mention.

Some of our foremost farmers are seeding. Hall Bottorf is making some improvements to his home.

John F. Garner is laid up with pleurisy and other diseases.

Rev. R. H. Bergtresser spent several days last week in Altoona.

The harvest home picnic at Guyer last Saturday was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Mallory returned from a ten days outing at Atlantic City.

Mrs. McKee, of Lewistown, is visiting her aunt, Julia Musser, on Main street.

Matt Cori and wife were Sunday visitors at the D. H. Krebs home in the Glades.

Tuesday Harry Burns flitted to Bellwood where he has secured a good paying job.

Miss Fredda and Ethel Black, of Juniata, are visitors at the Boalsburg parsonage.

Harry Felty, of Altoona, has been greeting old friends in this section the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goss spent Sunday with G. B. McFry and wife at White Hall.

Wm. Rhodenizer flitted to Benore Tuesday, where he has a good job on the new washer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bullock, of Bellefonte, are visitors at the residence of Dr. Woods in this place.

Mrs. I. J. Dreese and daughter Marion came up Sunday to see Mrs. Mary Ard, who is quite ill.

Mrs. A. F. Smith with her two children spent last week at her old home over the mountains.

James Lytle and family, of State College, spent Sunday at the J. H. Ross home at Linden Hall.

Mrs. Gussie King, of Williamsport, is visiting her parental home, the Ward sisters, on Main street.

Farmer W. C. Frank was obliged to shoot his best horse last Saturday on account of a broken leg.

Caroline Lyons with her grand-daughter, Fretta Hysler, are making two weeks visit in Altoona.

Newt. C. Neidigh and wife and Geo. C. Meyer are among the picnickers at Williams Grove this week.

Prof. Clarence Weaver with his boom friend, Lee Markle, spent the Sabbath with friends at Fairbrook.

John Osman and wife came up from Shingletown and spent Sunday with the Reed sisters, on Main street.

Cow buyer Wm. Mitterling, of Centre Hall, was here Monday looking after fresh cows but found them scarce.

Norman King is laid up for repairs on account of a badly cut thumb which he almost severed with a chisel.

Misses Anna M. and Nora Goheen, of Bellefonte, passed through town Saturday to visit friends in Boalsburg.

and at 8 cents per quart. She is the champion.

Ben. Arney wife and family came up from Centre Hall to spend Sunday at State College, enjoying the drive as well as the visit.

Hiram Fetterolf, of Bellefonte, with his wife and sister-in-law were Sunday visitors at the Henry Geringer home near Linden Hall.

Fred Krumrine purchased the Benjamin Corl property back of State College and will make some repairs before occupying it in the spring.

Wm. Garner, Peter Corl and Ed. Elder are among the sick, but all are reported better. Graz father Jacob Neidigh, our oldest man, is quite frail and not able to be up.

Wilson Henry and wife, passed through town Saturday homeward bound from a week's visit with his father at Millroy, where the old gentleman has been quite ill.

J. E. Smith and George Everts are beautifying the old cemetery, and are making a neat job, so that the city of the dead will present a neat and clean appearance.

Misses Ada and Mable Koch are visiting relatives at Aaronsburg and Sunbury. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koch were Georges valley visitors in the early part of the week.

J. H. Ward, W. P. Ard, Geo. Irvin, C. H. Meyers, Harry Koch, Bert Musser, Geo. C. Meyers and Mrs. John Leech are among the grazers at Williams Grove this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Kogan Pike, of Kansas, is here at the home of her youth, greeting old friends. Though her locks are quite silvered she is a very brisk lady for one of her years.

Mrs. George Everts, of Altoona, is visiting the home of her childhood here, before leaving for the Sunny South where she will spend the winter with her daughter, away down in Alabama.

Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Nason, of Iowa, are visitors at the J. E. Smith home on Main street. Their maiden names were Boyer, and they will be remembered by the older people here.

Tom Beaver lost one of his mated grays Tuesday night, of colic, after being sick but a few hours. Dr. Kaup was called but medical aid availed nothing. He was hauling on the State road force there.

Prof. Strayer, a former teacher of our High school, was shaking hands with his old pupils several days last week. He is canvassing for the Franklin and Marshall college, where he has just completed his theological course. He intends taking a post graduate course at Cornell but does not intend going into the ministry.

Lemont.

Mrs. Henry F. Evey returned home last week.

William L. Grove is confined to his house with fever.

The plum crop was fine and the market overstocked at present.

Mrs. Harriett Roan spent Saturday at the home of John Williams.

Mrs. W. K. Harnish is at present entertaining two of her sisters.

The farmers are ready, and some busy, putting out the fall crops.

John I. Thompson is having his reservoir repaired this week by E. B. Jackson.

Tuesday night the aurora borealis was observed by the inhabitants of this town.

The base ball game between Lemont and Axe Mann was 12 to 14 in favor of the former.

Miss Mary Etta Walters, who had been much better for a few days, is quite a bit worse again.

Paul A. Noll and family returned from Philadelphia, Saturday, to get ready for the opening of the schools.

Mrs. John B. Williams had the misfortune to fall, Friday, and hurt herself, but at this time is slowly improving.

Darius Hite came home from White Haven where his wife is taking treatment and reports her improving.

Mrs. Lena Wasson had a fine new cedar shingle roof put on her barn this week by R. F. Williams and Charles Bohn.

Quite a few from town attended the business men's picnic and others went to Penns cave, so the town was quiet, Tuesday.

Mrs. N. W. Williams and Mrs. H. F. Houtz enjoyed a few days the latter part of last week visiting friends at Hannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Crossman arrived home, Saturday, from Goldfield, Nev., and will enjoy a few weeks visiting with her mother, Mrs. Matilda Dale.

Rev. Jas. R. Miller preached his last sermon at Houserville Saturday morning, and in a few days will go to Westonville, Ohio, where he intends taking a course in the U. B. college.

Saturday night the old Holderman house which stood northeast of town took fire in some way and was burned to the ground, which removes one of the old landmarks, as it was built more than fifty years ago.

Saturday morning when the heavy thunder shower passed over Oak Hall, Luther Peters and Edward Zongs, were in the barn of the former attending the stock. Lightning struck the barn and passed down until it struck the door at which the men were standing, knocking both down. Peters was badly hurt from the fall and force of the lightning, and was unconscious for a time. When he came to he could not get around and has been confined to the house since, though he is now getting along fine and will be able to be out in a few days, if nothing sets in to put him back.

New Party Rules.

Owing to the passage of the Uniform Primaries act it became necessary for the Democrats of Centre county to adopt new rules for the government of the party in the county and at a mass meeting held in the arbitration room at the court house on August 17th, the following preamble and rules were adopted:

PREAMBLE.

In pursuance of the provisions of the act of assembly approved the 17th day of February A. D. 1908, and known as the "Uniform Primary Election Law," which has practically set aside and annulled the rules heretofore governing the party in Centre county, and in conformity with the rules of the Democratic party in the state, the Democratic party of Centre county in mass meeting assembled adopt for the government of the party in said county the following rules:

RULE I.

Section I. The organization shall consist of one person who shall be known as, exercise the office of, and perform the duties of chairman of the Democratic County committee, and one township, ward, borough, or election precinct in the county. The chairman of the county committee shall be elected by the Democratic electors of the county at the spring primary election in 1909; and at the spring primary annual thereafter.

Section II. All candidates for chairman of the county committee shall file, or other person file for him or them, with the county commissioners at least three weeks before the date of the spring primary, his or their petition with the names of ten or more qualified Democratic electors, recommending his candidacy, so that he printed upon the party ballot as required by the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

RULE II.

The members of the county committee from the several townships, boroughs, wards and election precincts in the county shall be appointed annually by the chairman of the county committee, immediately after his selection and before the annual meeting.

RULE III.

Section I. In case of a vacancy in the chairmanship from the county committee the members of the county committee from the several districts in the county shall have power, at a meeting called for that purpose by the secretary or secretaries of the county committee, of which meeting each member of the committee shall have at least five days notice, to fill said vacancy by the election of a competent Democratic elector to serve as chairman until his successor shall be elected at the next annual meeting in Section I. of rule II. No secretary or secretaries of the county committee shall be made by any seven members of the county committee.

Section II. The terms of the office of the chairman of the county committee and the several members thereof shall be for one year, commencing Tuesday following the first Saturday of June of each year and shall continue for a period of one year, unless their successors shall be duly elected or appointed.

RULE IV.

The chairman of the Democratic county committee of Centre county shall be the chief party officer during his term of office, and shall have charge of all campaigns for the election of county candidates and shall report to the county committee in the election of district, state or national candidates.

RULE V.

There shall be an annual meeting of the county committee held on the third Tuesday of August of each year. The chairman shall issue the call for the said meeting, at least two weeks before the day of the meeting, and also give to each member of the committee notice by letter of the date of the meeting. Other meetings of the county committee shall be called by the chairman at such times as the party interests shall require.

RULE VI.

The officers of the county committee beside the chairman shall be one or more secretaries and a treasurer. The secretary or secretaries and treasurer shall be appointed by the chairman of the county committee at the annual meeting. All moneys paid into the committee shall be received by the treasurer and by him paid out on orders drawn upon him by the chairman of the county committee and attested by at least one of the secretaries.

RULE VII.

The chairman of the county committee shall preside at all meetings of the county committee and in case of a tie in voting he shall cast the deciding vote.

RULE VIII.

Section I. The chairman of the county committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees to perform party duties, to settle difficulties or disputes, to investigate charges and hear evidence concerning the same. Such sub-committee or committees shall report to the chairman of the county committee and the action of the county committee on any such matter shall be final.

Section II. All elections and nominations by the county committee shall be by a majority vote of the members thereof. The members of the said committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

RULE IX.

Members of the county committee shall have power to substitute a qualified Democratic elector of their election district to serve in their stead at any meeting of the committee, but for that meeting only. Such substitution shall be made and filed with the chairman of the committee before said substitute shall have a seat in the meeting.

RULE X.

The chairman of the committee shall procure a permanent record book and it shall be the duty of the chief secretary of each year, to keep therein a complete minute of the proceedings of the meeting of the committee; record therein all resolutions which may be adopted by the committee, and all rules for the government of the party when they shall have been adopted; and also shall each year enter therein a full list of the county committee and whether or not required to keep a full record of the proceedings of the committee. Said permanent record book shall be delivered by the chairman at the expiration of his term of office to his successor.

RULE XI.

Section I. The school district committeemen in each sub-school district in each township, borough, ward, or election precinct shall be appointed by the chairman of the county committee upon the recommendation of the members of the county committee in the several election districts. On failure of any member of the county committee to recommend persons for the school district committee, the chairman of the county committee shall appoint such sub-school district committeemen, before or at the time of the annual meeting.

Section II. There shall be at least one committeeman in each sub-school district, who shall act in conjunction with the