larger student roll than ever before. It is more than gratifying to note this condition. And to meet it Mr. Hughes announces a corps of instructors the like of which no small school in the country would think of having.

It is all in line with the character and progressive spirit of this century old institution. The work it does justifies the position of eminence it holds among preparatory schools and the policy it pursues leaves no doubt that its future will more than falfill the hopes of its founders.

SOLDIER'S REUNION TO BE HELD HERE -Comrade R. S. Westbrook, of Altoona, was in Bellefonte Monday making arrangements for the holding of the annual reunion of the Forty-ninth Pennsylvania Regimental association in this place on Thursday and Friday. October 22nd and 23rd. This is always one of the largest reunions of old soldiers held in this part of the State and the indications are that tended as any in recent years. Bellefonte, at least, will do her part toward showing the old soldiers a good time.

-Mr. James Dumbleton, of Philipsburg, was in town on Monday having come over to attend to a little business. He is of the opinion that some of our candidates have made a most favor able impression on Philipsburg people.

-Louis Grauer left on Sunday for New York city for the purpose of purchasing the very latest in clothing, dry goods, etc., for Lyon & Co. He expects to be away ten days or two weeks and might take a run down to the sea shore before he returns.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dunkle and Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll, of Chicago, have been with Mr. James P. Hughes this week, they will all leave for Chicago the beginning of next week, Mrs. Dunkle taking with her her daughter Huberta, who has been with her grandfather all summer.

-Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ishler went down t the big Grangers picnic at Williams Grove on Wednesday to help swell the enormous crowds that have been gathering there for the big time this week. The most of their hard work being over for this season they are now very sensibly taking a little pleasure.

-In order to try out his Franklin automobile he recently purchased from Dr. Sebring H. S. Ray, accompanied by Edmund Blanchard, left on Tuesday morning for a trip up through New York State to Lake Ontario. When they return will depend considerable upon how the machine works, as a matter of course.

-Mr. E. W. Mauck, of Millheim, made his customary annual pilgrimage to Bellefonte on Tuesday and was a welcome caller at the WATCH-MAN office. Mr. Mauck is a painter by trade, and a good one and this is probably the biggest rea evening. son that he has time for only one trip a year to the county seat, unless there is something unusual going on to demand his attention.

-Ralph Mallory was called to Philadelphia last Saturday on account of the death of his sister-inlaw, Mrs. George L. Murphy, who died on Friday of a complications of ailments. Mrs. Murphy was only twenty-three years of age and was married in May, 1907, at which time she and her husband spent most of their honeymoon in Bellefonte and those who met her remember her as a most lovable young woman. In addition to her husband she leaves a little baby boy not quite two weeks old.

-Joseph Kern, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is visiting old friends in Centre county and spent last 'Sun day with his brother. Milton Kern, in this place. He says that notwithstanding the fact that the ward in which. William H. Taft, Republican candidate for President, lives is Republican it is the general opinion of the knowing ones in Cin-
