

Bellefonte, Pa., September 4, 1908. P. GRAY MEEK, · ·

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION .- Until further notice his paper will be furnished to subscribers at the ollowing rates: Paid strictly in advance. Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year ...

Democratic Presidential Electors.

For President : WILLIAM J. BRYAN, of Nebraska. For Vice President : JOHN W. KERN, of Indiana.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. AT LARGE JOSEPH P. McCullen, ALBERT J. BARR.

DISTRICT ELECTORS, Daniel F. Carlin, Ed. B. Seiberlich Aaron G. Krause, Clarence Loeb,
James T. Nuity,
Michael J. Howard,
John C. Ferron,
Jno. H. Danennower,
Louis N. Spencer,
Alex. W. Dickson,
John T. Flannery,
Oliver P. Bechtel,
Harry D. Schaeffer,
Charles A. McCarty,
John Franklin Stone,
John I. Welsh,

Cyrus C. Gelwicks, George D. Krause, Samuel M. Hoyer, Henry Wasbers, J. Hawley Baird, John K. Holland, John F. Pauley, Howard S.Marshall Robert X. Brown. Robert X. Brown, Howard Mutchler, Wm. Lewis Neal, Fred. A. Shaw, Henry Meyer. Wesley S. Guffey, Dennis J. Boyle, Casper P. Mayer, Democratic State Ticket.

For Judge of the Superior Court, WEBSTER GRIM, of Bucks County. Democratic County Ticket.

For Congress: W. HARRISON WALKER, of Bellefonte. For Assembly: J. CALVIN MEYER, of Bellefonte. For Sheriff: FRED F. SMITH, of Rush township.

For Register: G. F. WEAVER, of Penn township. For Recorder: F. PIERCE MUSSER, of Millheim.

For Treasurer J. D. MILLER, of Walker township. For County Commissioners: C. A. WEAVER, of Penn township.

J. L. DUNLAP, of Spring township. For Auditors: J. W. BECK, of Marion township. JOHN L. COLE, of Walker township.

For Coroner: DR. P. S. FISHER, of Walker town

Democratic Meeting.

A meeting of Democrats of Bellefonte and surrounding townships will be held at the Democratic County Committee Headquarters in the Crider Block-this

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 4TH, to organize a Democratic club to assist in the work of electing BRY-AN and KERN and the whole Democratic ticket. Everybody is invited.

> W. D. ZERBY. Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

-Miss Sara Bogle is entertaining at cards this morning at her home at the Forge

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

-Mrs. Thomas Haves entertained Mrs. Albert and twelve of her friends by spending Thursday at State College.

--- Clarence Herr has resigned his position in the furniture store and undertaking establishment of Frank E. Naginey and expects to leave Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nissley, who have been boarding at the Brockerhoff on Sunday, interment being made in the house, on Tuesday moved into the Kirk cemetery at that place. house on east High street vacated by Clarence Herr.

-Beginning Wednesday evening all the stores in Bellefonte will keep open until eight o'clock in the evening instead of closing at six o'clock as they did during the months of July and August.

-Charles S. Bosner, a former Bellefonte boy, is now in the jewelry business In nursing him prior to his being removed for himself in Glen Falls, N. Y., and get- to the hospital Mrs. Russell contracted the ting along so well that he will be compell. disease and just two days after his death ed to move into larger and better quarters, which he will do March 1st, 1909, when his address will be 112 Glen street.

by a men's choir. Everybody invited.

-George McElwaine and J. C. Burns, two of Ferguson township's well known doubt but that they will make two as good jackies as are enrolled in Uncle Sam's entire sea force.

has been appointed stenographer to Prof. vived by two children by his first wife, Eton B. Walker, head of the engineering Mrs. Frank Markle and A. G. Ammerman, department at The Pennsylvania State of Blue Ball; and one son, T. G. Ammer-College. Miss Shook is a graduate of the man, of Tyrone, by his second wife. He Potts business college, Williamsport, and a also leaves several brothers and sisters. competent stenographer. She entered The remains were taked to Mackeyville for wife moved back to their old home in Tyupon her duties on Tuesday.

MOORE.-John Moore, son of Mrs. Ella Moore, of State College, died on Friday other young men were employed making violent pains in the stomach. Thursday ries so that his death was very unexpected. morning he weut to work but grew worse sultation, but nothing could be done and to the grave.

The funeral was held at two o'clock on auspices of the State College lodge of Odd ber. Large delegations of Odd Fellows Denver, Col. were also present from Lemont, Boalsburg and Pine Grove Mills. The floral offerings in the Pine Hall cemetery.

Buck-William J. Buck, senior member of the grocery firm of Buck & Russell, of Altoona, died in the hospital at that place on Friday evening of pneumonia and typhoid fever. He was taken ill about a month ago and on August 12th was admitted to the hospital for treatment, gradually growing weaker until the end came on Friday.

Deceased was born June 22, 1866, near Centre Line and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Buck, among the best known residents in the Warriorsmark valley. He went to Altoona nine years ago and a year later, in partnership with W. J. Russell, engaged in the grocery business. He was a member, trustee and usher in the First United Brethren church, a member of the Tyrone lodge of Odd Fellows, and of Elkhurst court. Independent Order of Foresters of Altoona. He never married and is survived by his father, seven sisters and one brother, as follows: Mrs. Lloyd Beck, of Warriorsmark; Mrs. L. D. Ackers, of Drab; Mrs. M. Grazier, Mrs. W. J. Russell, with whom he made his home; and Mrs. Elmer Harnden, all of 'Altoona; Fannie Buck, a missionary at San Marcos, Guatemala, Central America, and Miles R. Buck. of Arcade, Neb.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from the residence of deceased's brother-in-law, Mr. Elmer Harnden.

REESE.-Clyde Reese, the oldest son of A. W. and Clarissa Reese, of Port Matilda, died at his home in Peale, Clearfield county, on Thursday, August 27th, aged 34 years, 11 months and 1 day. For several years past he was manager of the A. F. Kelley stores at Peale and Clymer and there is little doubt but that the care and worry of his trying position bastened his death, though be had not been in perfect health for somelmonths.

Last May be underwent a serious operation on his eyes in a hospital at Buffalo, N. Y., and shortly afterward his physician advised him to take a much-needed rest as be was suffering with a fatty degeneration of the heart, but he felt so loyal to the interest of his employer that he refused to heed the advice but stuck to his post of duty until death claimed him a victim. In addition to his parents he is survived by a wife and one young son. In compliance with his last wish that he be laid to rest beside the remains of a younger sister, the body was taken to his parents home at Port Matilda where the funeral was held Russell .- The death of Mrs. Bertha J. Russell, wife of William J. Russell, in Altoona on Sunday evening, was peculiarly sad to her family and friends. She was a sister of William J. Buck, whose death notice occurs above. Mr. Buck made his home with his sister and family and a month ago was stricken with typhicd fever. she passed to the Great Beyond.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Buck, she was born near Centre Line, in the Warriorsmark valley, March 27th, 1873, -Secretary C. N. Meserve has secured hence was past thirty-five years of age. the Coleville band to give a sacred concert | Since her marriage to Mr. Russell thirteen in the court house on Sunday afternoon in years ago she had made her home in Alconnection with the opening men's mass toona. She has no children but is survived meeting. Samuel Bryant will also render by her husband, father, two brothers and a cornet solo and the vocal music will be six sisters. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon.

AMMERMAN .- A. I. Ammerman died at young men, left on Tuesday for Johnstown his home in Blue Ball, Clearfield county, where they enlisted for service in the on Friday, August 28th, of general debil-United States navy; and there is little ity. He was 79 years, 4 months and 12 days old and was born in Centre county. When a young man he lived in Milesburg and when the war broke out he enlisted in Bellefonte as private in the 148th regi--Miss Luella Shook, of this place, ment. He was twice married and is surburial.

FINNEGAN.-Stephen B. Finnegan, well known in Bellefonte and vicinity, died morning of last week. He with several quite suddenly at his home on Spring street on Monday night. Though he had some repairs to the chemical laboratory at not been in the best of health for some time the college. Moore worked all day on he was able to occasionally go back and forth Wednesday but that night was seized with as superintendent of the Whiterook quar-

Deceased was born in New York State toward noon time and was compelled to go December 11th, 1862, thus being 45 years, home. His condition continued serious all 8 months and 20 days old. He came to day on Thursday and that night became so Bellefonte fifteen or more years ago from critical that two doctors were called in con- Baltimore where he had been in the employ of Mr. A. G. Morris. He continued the young man died at six o'clock Friday with Mr. Morris as a quarry superintendent until the American Lime and Stone Co. was He was born at State College and was formed and he was put in charge of its most twenty-two years of age. In addition to important operation along Buffalo Run. his widowed mother he leaves one sister, When the Whiterock quarries were opened Miss Margaret, and one brother, Edward, two years ago he was made superintendent at home. He was an industrious young of the plant, a position he held until his man and was a member in good standing death, though his health was such that he of of several secret socities. The death of the late was not able to devote his entire time son and brother is rendered more distress- to his work. He was a man who had many ing to the family from the fact that it is friends and was universally liked by all only three months ago since the husband who knew him. He was a member of St. and father, Mr. Samuel Moore, was carried John's Catholic church and of the Improved Order of Heptasophs.

Surviving bim are his wife and two Sunday afternoon and was under the young daughters. Florence and Manuaret. He also leaves two brothers, one of whom Fellows, of which he was the baby mem- lives in Philadelphia and the other in

The remains were taken from Bellefonte on the 8:16 train Wednesday evening to were very profuse. Interment was made Darby, near Philadelphia, where burial was made vesterday morning.

> MEYERS .- Mrs. W. Cal Meyers, one of Meyers, at the homestead on the Branch just at subrise Saturday morning. She had not been in good health for a year or more and last spring she and her bushand left the farm and moved to their new home son and family, and was feeling as well as taken sick and died on Saturday morning. The body was removed the same morning to her late home at State College.

> Deceased was the oldest daughter of George and Elizabeth Hoy Smeltzer and was born at Pine Hall sixty-four years ago. On June 10th, 1876, she was united in marriage to W. Cal Meyers who survives her with the following children: Clyde, of Buffalo Run; George and Cal, of Lemont; J. Curt, on the old homestead, and Marion, at home. She also leaves three brothers and two sisters, namely: Albert Smeltzer, of Pleasant Gap; Jerry, of Chicago; Wesley, of Iowa; Mrs. Charles Yearick, of Howard, and Mrs. W. D. Custard, of State College.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afteroon from the Reformed church in Roalsburg. Rev. A. A. Black officiated and interment was made in the Boalshurg ceme-

KANE .- Dennis Kane, one of the old ship, died at his home at Axe Mann at this place, Saturday, September 12th, a by the pastor, Rev. James B. Stein. Bethree o'clock last Saturday afternoon. He rate of fifty cents for the round trip, with fore leaving for their future home in Wilhad been in failing health for some months and his death was the result of a general decline owing to his advanced age, he being seventy-eight years old,

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Edward and John, of Spring township; and three daughter, Mrs. Anna Sunday, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. James Morrison, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Agnes Howard, at home. He was a member of St. John's Catholic church, of this place, and always a faithful attendant. The funeral was held from the church at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery.

HOLDEMAN. - William T. Holdeman died at his home in Hollidaysburg Sunday morning, after a number of year's illness with tuberculosis. He was fifty-two years old and was born in Centre county. For a number of years he lived in this place and is a member of the Bellefonte Methodist church. Surviving him are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Miller Ferguson, and one son, George, both of Altoona. Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning the remains were brought here for interment in the Union cemetery.

SIMONTON.-Mrs. Alvin Simonton died at the home of her parents in Altoona, on Saturday. She was only twenty-one years old and in addition to her husband in and infant son she is survived by five brothers and two sisters, one of the former being Harvey Riden baugh, of State College. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, interment being made in Oak Ridge ceme-

QUIGLEY .- On Sunday morning the remains of George Quigley, of Milesburg, were found in the woods near Driftwood. He had evidently been dead for a week and heart disease is supposed to have been the cause. He was sixty-six years old and is survived by his wife. The remains were brought to Milesburg on Monday evening and buried in the Union cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

TEAMAN .- Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Teaman are mourning the death of their infant son, Richard, who died on Sunday morning of cholera infantum. He was aged three months and fifteen days. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Union cemetery.

-Al S. Garman has finally closed up all his business in Bellefonte and with his rone on Wednesday.

-While trying to hold a dog from running after an automobile yesterday morning Mary, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thal, was thrown against an iron post and sustained a cut on the forehead which required four stitches

-The wedding of Miss Mary Sohreyer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schreyer of Altoona, and Mr. William Lee will take place in First Methodist church of Altoona, on the sixteenth of September at eight o'clock in the morning. The wedding will be followed by a breakfast after which they will leave immediately for Atlantic City.

-One night last week, while J. C. Auman's steam threshing outfit was standing at the barn of Edwin Hosterman near well. Wolf's Store, some misoreaut placed a stick of dynamite in one of the flues of the boiler on the engine. Fortunately the engineer cleaned the flues in the morning before firing up and thus found the dynamite and averted the blowing up of the engine.

-The First National bank of Howard recently purchased from the B. Weber estate the old Samuel Brickley property on Main street in that town for $1,200. The necessary changes will be made to convert the store room into a bank as soon as possible. The necessary vault and fixtures have already been ordered and the bank expects to be open for business by about October first.

-During the past month there has been some improvement in the market for the best known women in Ferguson town- pig iron and correspondingly a rise in price. ship, died at the home of her son, J. Curt This fact has been encouraging to the Nittany Iron company and there is a possibility of them putting their furnace in blast in the near future, probably by October first. The plant has been fully repaired during its idleness and everything at State College. Last week she went out is in excellent shape. It is the intention to the farm to spend a few days with her of the company to get in a stock of ore and in all it was one of the most successful coke and as soon as the market justifies it usual. Friday evening she was suddenly put the furnace in blast, but there is nothing definite about the resumption.

-C. F. Montgomery was a passenger ped at Unionville some rascally-disposed

EXCURSION RATES FOR VETERAN PIC-NIC .- The officials of the Bellefonte Central railroad have decided to give the veterans and others of Pine Grove Mills and twenty-five cents for children. A special train will leave Bellefonte for State College and Pine Grove Mills at five o'clock in the evening on that day. This very cheap excursion should result in a large

-Since Dr. John Sebring has taken the agency for the Franklin and other automobiles in this place he has shown unusual activity. His first deal was in selling Col. Reynolds another and larger runabout, taking in partial payment the machine he received several weeks ago. Of day he had no fewer than three prospective buyers on the string. On Tuesday he disposed of the machine to Dr. David Dale, taking in exchange the latter's 1905 model Franklin as part payment. He also has several other deals on tap and expects to place two or three new machines in town before the season closes.

-At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Whiterock quarries Edward Richard resigned his position as secretary and treasurer of the company to take effect the first of the month. To take his place L. A. Schaeffer was elected scoretary and Geo. R. Meek treasurer. Mr. Richard's resignation was made because of the fact that, as one of the executors of the estate of his father-in-law, the late Mr. Aull, he will be compelled to spend most of his time in Philadelphia for the next five or six months, hence could not give his attention to the interests of the Whiterock quarries. He and Mrs. Richard are also planning to take quite an extended southern trip during the winter, expecting to branch factory. start about the first of March, 1909.

THE CRUST FAMILY .- The second annual reunion of the Crust family was held at Hunter's park last Saturday. A game of ball engrossed the attention of those present during the morning and it was not until after dinner had been disposed of that a meeting of the family association was held. The address of welcome was delivered by T. L. Crust and responded to by Rev. D. A. Sowers, of Pleasant Gap. Brief talks were made by Henry Norris, William Tressler and H. N. Hoy with several recitations and plenty of music. It was decided to change the name of the association from the Crust family to the Clark family. W. E. Crust, R. R. Crust, E. E. Lutz and W. E. Saxion were re-elected members of the executive committee and Elmer Clark and Dallas Marshall were elected new members. It was decided to hold next year's reunion at Hunter's park the last Saturday in August.

WILLIAMS FAMILY REUNION .- Probably the biggest family reunion of any held enough once a person got into it, it is hard- of that city says : ly as conveniently located as the John Q. Miles grove, near Martha, where former reunions were held. However, this did not in any way detract from the pleasure and ple present from all over Centre county, as well as surrounding counties. Of course the crowd was not confined to the Wilthem there, but to hosts of their friends as technical features, while being full of the

The reunion association was called to order promptly at 10:30 o'clock by the president, A. S. Williams. Rev. E. S. Bierley, of Port Matilda, led in the devo-Rev. Earl K. Quimby, of New Jersey. At twelve o'clock there was a general scamper for dinner baskets, and as the gathering voice of wide compass she adds a win was in the shape of a basket pionic it can easily be conceived what the dinner hour meant for all. And it must be confessed go hungry if he got within sight of a full lunch basket.

Dinner over a second meeting was held as which addresses were made by Rev. George W. Downing, of Alexandria; Rev. Berger, of Petersburg, and Rev. G. A. Williams, of Dickinson College, Carlisle. Miss Minnie Hoover also recited a poem. The Scotia band, resplendent in their new uniforms, was present and gave numerous concerts during the day. The old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. All rennions ever held.

STRONG-JONES-Just a little more than the ordinary romance attended the maron the night train to Bellefonte last Mon- John R. Strong, of Potters Mills, and Miss day evening. He was sitting next to an Mary Jones, of Boston, Mass. Through a open window and when the train stop- matrimonial paper the two began a correspondence some months ago which finally boy threw an apple which bit him in the terminated in a proposal of marriage. Miss face, causing quite a bruised spot. Of Jones accepted the proposal provisionally course the boy ran away before he could be that when they met they both were satisapprehended. It is said that throwing fied with each other. Miss Jones arrived things at passengers on the trains is a in Centre Hall almost three weeks ago and pastime quite freely indulged in by a num- spent a week in becoming more intimately ber of Unionville boys and it is a practice acquainted with Mr. Strong and at the end that the railroad company should see is of that probationary period both felt satisbroken up, even if they had to use drastic fied that they were intended for each other, hence they were married at the time above stated by Rev. W. C. Rishel, of the Methodist church.

RUTTER-ROBB.-Martin Lee Rutter, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Grace Elaine vicinity, who desire to attend the annual Robb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman at the home of John I. Thompson. pionic of the Centre county Veteran club, Robb, of this place, were married at the and well known residents of Spring town- which will be held on the fair grounds in Methodist parsonage on Saturday evening mington, Del., where Mr. Rutter is employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company, they spent several days at the home of the bride's parents on Logan street, and on Monday evening were tendered a ronscrowd attending from that section of the ing serenade by the young friends of the > BROMER-WAY .- A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Way, at Filmore, last Wednesday, when their daughter, Miss Edith Way, was united in marriage to Walter Bromer, of Unionville, Bev. M. C. Piper, of the Milesburg-Unionville course he had to get rid of it and on Mon- charge of the M. E. church, performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary | State College. Fisher, of Unionville, and the best man Lloyd Bromer. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Bromer left on a wedding trip to Atlantic City.

(Mich.) News Tribune of Sunday, August 16th, we learn that Chauncey F. York, the dential year since 1892, when it was only malena manufacturer of Warriorsmark, re- 17,956, and was followed by a Democratic cently purchased two houses in that city with the expectation of making that his fusure home. Both houses are of brick, the one containing twenty rooms with a modern garage on the property. Its value is $50,-000. The other property consists of a twelve room house and a brick barn, value vote. $30,000. Mr. York has also purchased in that city a half block of real estate on which he will erect a large factory building which will be the headquarters for the large number of local contests for members manufacture of the malena remedies. The Warriorsmark plant will be retained as a

---- When the repairs on St. John's Episcopal church are completed the mem- during the presidential campaign, there bers of that congregation will hardly know it as their old edifice. Two rooms are being built in the rear for the use of the choir, repairs are being made to the basement while the entire interior of the church will be re-frescoed throughout. All the redstone trimmings are being removed and will be replaced with Hummelstown brown stone. It will take about a month to complete the work

MARRIAGE LICENSES .- The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by Register Earl C. Tuten.

Frank Shatko and Verona Siski, both of

William Vaughn, of Sandy Ridge, and Mary Frantz, of Port Matilda H. S. Fookler, of Philipsburg, and Mar-

Martin Lee Rutter, of Wilmington, Del., and Grace Elane Robb, of Bellefonte

THE BARBER OF SEVILLE .- The theatrical season in Bellefonte will open on in Centre county was that of the well known Friday evening, September 11th, when the Williams family, the ninth annual gather- John Dunsmure company will appear in ing of which was held in Beckwith's woods Garman's opera house in "The Barber of at Port Matilda last Saturday. This was Seville." This play is a semi-comic the first time this reunion was held at that opera and commenting on its recent applace, and, while the grove was pleasant pearance in Ottawa, Canada, the Free Press

To those who visited the Russell theatre last night was served a rich musical treatsomething both substantial and delicate. To hear Rossini's peerless comic opera, "The Barber of Seville," sung by high class enjoyment of the almost two thousand peo- singers, must always be a thing to create infinite satisfaction. One feels on coming away from such a performance that he had been carried back to the days when there were masters in the field of art, whose proliams clan, though there were hundreds of duotions were marked by great care in the rarest melody ; that he has heard something far above the rag time and slam-bang of the modern comic opera.

Two things stood out prominently apart from the work of Mme. Monti Baldini-the magnificent singing of Mr. Dunsmure, and the violin solos of Herr Jacques Kinsbergen. tional services, after which G. W. Shires, Mr. Dunsmure has a bass voice of excepof the same place, made a brief address tional volume and richness, and he is also of welcome. This was responded to by a comedian of no mean order. As for the prima donna, the encores she received testified to the fact that she had caught the heart of her audience. To a sweet soprano personality. The company is composed of thoroughly trained artists, who are able to provide an evening's enjoyment of a type far passing beyond the reach of lovers that it was a most hospitable crowd really good music. If there had been noththroughout. No stranger was allowed to ing more than Mr. Dunsmure's solo in the second act, the singing last night would still have been worth going a long way to

In Memorium

At a meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union on Thursday, August 27th, the following tribute of respect was passed: In the going home of our triend, Mr. James Harris, the W. C. T. U. of Bellefonte has lost a friend and brother; one who was a wise counsel or, a generous heiper, indeed. He gave himself to every good cause and work. In the cause of temperance when-"The few who dare-must speak and speak again-To right the wrongs of nany-When many sin by silence, who should protest," his voice and influence were never wanting. We feel his place will not again be filled. "And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memoririage, on Monday evening of last week, of al of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation.

We give our beloved and faithful sister, his wife, as he did with his latest breath, unto the Lord.

Lemont.

Hamill Bathgate is home for his summer vacation.

William Sortman is busy fencing the Whitehill farm.

Miss Anna Gummo is visiting with Elmer C. Ross this week. Lloyd L. Houtz transacted business at the county seat Thursday. Mrs. F. Woods Bathgate and children returned to Altoona Saturday.

Mrs. Maude Longwell and children returned to Philadelphia Friday. Miss Boal, of Washington, D. C., is visiting fonte, Monday, to do some shopping. Mrs. Roxie Ralston and child are circulating among her many friends in and around town this week

Austin Dale began cutting corn, Thursday. The corn crop promises to be a fair one in College township this year.

Carpenters R. F. Williams and Chas. Bohn are busy putting the College township school rooms in repair for the coming school term. which will open Monday, September 21st. John R. Williams, wife and daughter; G.

R. Roan and wife, George Williams and William L. Steele and wife took advantage of the excursion Friday and went to Totten. College township is trying to get a piece of State road built, same to start at Felix Shuey's and follow the old pike for four miles, or to a point between Lemont and Falling Off in Republican Vote Up in Vermont.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, VT., Sept. 1.—Republicans won in Vermont to-day, electing Lieutenant Governor George H. MR. YORK OF MALENA FAME TO GO TO

DETROIT, MICH. — From the Detroit

Prouty, of Newport, for governor, over James E. Burke, of Burlington, his Democratic opponent. The plurality is the smallest in a presi-

> National victory.
>
> Late to-night Mr. Burke issued the following the statement :

> "From the returns of 71 out 246 towns raceived by me, I claim that Prouty's majority will be under 24,000." There was a falling off in four years of about eight per cent. in the Republican

The Independence League appeared for the first time and polled about 1,000 votes, while the Prohibition and Socialistic vote remained about the same. An unusually of the Legislature, although bringing out a heavy vote and resulting in Democratic gains in the lower branch of the Legislature, apparently had no bearing on the

As Vermont is the first State to vote was much interest throughout the country in the size of the Republican plurality. Mr. Burke ran exceedingly well in his own city, Burlington, reducing the Republican margin of 200 four years ago, to 64 votes. He also made a good showing in Barre, but feil behind in St. Albans and in several of the large towns. Late to night Lieutenant Gov. Prouty expressed himself as pleased with the re-sult, but reserved his statement until more complete returns were available. Although Burlington went Republican on the State ticket, it was strongly Dem-ocratic when it came to the representative fight, M. G. Leary, the Democratic candidate for representative, defeating Lawrence Bartley, Republican, by a majority of 365. The State ticket elected by the Repubicans is as follows : Governor, George H. Prouty, of Newport; lieutenant governor, John A. Mead, of Rutland! secretary of State, Guy W. Bailey, of Essex; treasurer, Edward H. Davitt, of Montpelier; auditor, Horace F. Graham, of Craftsbury; attorney general, John H. Sargent, of Ludlow.