The venerable James Holmes, an old veteran of the Civil war, is quite ill at his home at State College. His illness dates back to the Veteran's picnic in Bellefonte, when he walked from the station to the grounds, causing over-exertion, from which he has been confined to bed ever since.

Last Saturday Miss Jessie Reed entertained a number of her friends at her home near Graysville. Miss Alice R. Lower, of Altoona, was the guest of honor. A dainty luncheon was served at 11 p. m. and at a late hour the guests took their leave, wishing Miss Lower many happy returns.

Norman King with his mother, have taken rooms with Mrs. Mary Wright, on Water street, and will go to housekeeping as soon as J. B. Heberling can place the furniture. Mrs. King before her marriage was Miss Gussie Ward, and her many friends will be glad to know of her return to the home of her childhood.

Fought to the Death to Save Husband.

John Roberts and his wife resisted a sheriff and his deputies in a fight near Prestonia, Mo., one mile south of the Arkansas line, when the officers attempted to arrest Roberts for killing Obe Kessinger, a neighbor. As a result the woman and Sheriff Mooney, of Baxter county, Ark., are probably mortally wounded and Roberts and two deputies are seriously hurt.

Roberts went to Kessinger's house and called Kessinger to the door. When Kessinger appeared Roberts fired and killed him, it is said. The cause of the deed has not been learned.

Sheriff Mooney, with several deputies, started to arrest Roberts. Mrs. Roberts from a window told the officers to keep away, but the sheriffs continued to advance, and both she and her husband opened fire.

Mooney was shot by the woman, it is said. His fall disconcerted the deputies for a few minutes, and Roberts and his wife took advantage of this to barricade the house. They defended the buildings for hours under fire.

When the firing from within finally ceased the door was broken down. Mrs. Roberts, suffering from fourteen wounds, was dying, and no attempt was made to remove her to jail.

BULLETIN

FOUNDERS' WEEK, PHILADELPHIA.

From October 4 to 10 Philadelphia will celebrate the 225th Anniversary of the City's founding by a series of remarkable events.

On Monday afternoon 25,000 soldiers, sailors, and marines will parade. The Police and Fire Departments will parade on Tuesday afternoon, depicting their development from the early times.

Wednesday afternoon will witness one of the greatest industrial parades ever seen in this country. Over 100 floats will illustrate the evolution of the City's industries. A great river pageant will be given on Thursday afternoon, in which 500 vessels including United States and foreign warships will participate. Fifteen thousand uniformed Red Men with historical floats will parade in the evening. On Friday the first great historical pageant ever given in America, illustrating by 40 floats and 5000 costumed characters the history of Philadelphia, will be the grand climax of the celebration. The P. O. S. of A. will parade in the evening. Saturday will be devoted to athletics, motor races, and Knights Templar parades. The city will be specially illuminated every night and a musical-historical drama "Philadelphia" will be given every evening on Franklin Field.

Special tickets to Philadelphia will be sold October 2 to 10th, good to return until October 12th, at reduced rates; minimum rate $1.00. See Ticket Agents.
