THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

September is past and October, the month of frosts, is here.

See the new Brown Suits at FAUBLES. Nothing like them in Bellefonte.

Special clothes for Young Men. The biggest assortment in Bellefonte at FAUBLES.

Katz & Co. are having the exterior of their store building on Allegheny street repainted.

Were you among the successful hunters yesterday who succeeded in filling their game bag?

If the weather man only treats us fair next week what a big fair the people of Centre county will see.

The Jewish population of Bellefonte will celebrate Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, next Monday.

Last Friday marked the ending of the first month of the nine month's term of the Bellefonte public schools.

Your money will buy you more and better clothes at the FAUBLE Stores than at any other store in Bellefonte. Try it.

Robert A. Hendershot and Fred Gebret have started blacksmithing in the shop opposite the spring, on Water street.

We sell shoes for Men and Boys. That's why we save you money. FAUBLES.

A steam and hot water heating plant is being installed in the Y. M. C. A. building, as a matter of economy. Albert Schadt has the contract.

The first meeting of the D. A. R.'s was held at Mrs. Louise Harris Thursday evening, Miss Humes and Miss Overton being the hostesses.

Mrs. Cline G. Furst and daughters, of Lock Haven, relatives of the Fursts in this place, expect to spend the winter traveling in Europe.

More clothes, all good clothes at the Fauble stores than in all of Bellefonte's other stores combined. You will be sure to find what you want with us.

All exhibitors at the fair are urged to have their exhibits entered before Wednesday morning, as there positively will be no entries made after Tuesday at five o'clock.

Paul Jones, son of Mrs. Hannah Jones, of east High street, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital yesterday morning suffering with an incipient attack of typhoid fever.

Any one interested in Sunday school work who expects to attend the State Sunday school convention at Shamokin October 14th to 16th can obtain credentials by applying to the county secretary, Rev. W. Henry Schuyler, Centre Hall, Pa.

The potato crop in Centre county is considerably below the average and the tubers are selling wholesale at one dollar per bushel. In consequence of the scarcity and high price a car load of western potatoes was received by Bellefonte merchants on Tuesday.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital will hold a rummage sale in the east room in Petriken hall, next week. A committee has been making the rounds of Bellefonte this week collecting articles for this sale and when they visit you give them what you can.

J. N. Shiner, superintendent of the Bellefonte Furnace company, is walking to and from the furnace these days because the company horse ran off one day last week and injured itself so that he has not been in shape to drive since. Fortunately no person was injured.

Mrs. Hugh N. Crider entertained at dinner last Thursday evening Mrs. W. L. Hicks, Mrs. E. C. Poorman, Mrs. G. J. Gibbs, Mrs. W. H. Scullen, Mrs. J. B. Francians, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. R. B. Freeman and Mrs. W. L. Pascoe, of Tyrone; and Mrs. C. H. Rowland, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside has come to Bellefonte for the winter, having taken the Graham house, on north Allegheny street, which has been occupied by Mrs. James B. Lane. Mrs. Lane will be with Mrs. Louise Harris until she leaves for Philadelphia, which will be about the middle of October.

Mr. and Mrs. John Guisewhite on Tuesday moved to Cherrytree, Indiana county, where Mr. Guisewhite has been employed for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Will Honer have also gone to that place though they will not move their household goods there at present, but will board with the Guisewhites.

The horse sale at the Haag hotel on Saturday proved quite a lively affair. Fair prices were brought by the two and three year old chunks and they were spirited enough to make it quite lively for everybody who attended the sale; and especially when the buyers undertook to take their horses home with them.

The liberal distribution of premiums in the Youth's department at the fair should be an incentive to children all over the county to enter in that department any little work they may have done either at school or in their homes. The work will be classified according to the age, consequently the competition will be only between children of about the same age.

SEPTEMBER COURT.—The regular term of September court convened on Monday morning with Judge Ellis L. Orris on the bench and W. H. Faries, of Sunbury, as court reporter. There was the usual number of motions and petitions presented, constables and justices of the peace reports heard, after which the grand jury was called, sworn and L. M. Swartz, of Walker township, appointed foreman. There were no very important cases on the list for trial and among those disposed of were the following:

Commonwealth vs. D. R. Thomas, assault and battery; prosecutor George F. Steine. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, putting two-thirds of the cost on the defendant and one-third on the prosecutor.

Commonwealth vs. Joseph Kuhn, larceny. The defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and was sentenced to return the stolen goods, pay a fine of ten dollars, cost of prosecution and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a term of thirty days.

Commonwealth vs. Edward Thomas, assault and battery; prosecutor Alice Bullock. Bill ignored by the grand jury and the county to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Joseph Ross and James Reed, larceny. The defendants appeared in open court and plead guilty.

Commonwealth vs. William Sampsell, felonious rape. The defendant, who is sixty years old, was charged with assaulting Catharine Rine, the six year old daughter of Mrs. Harry Rine. He waived a hearing of the grand jury and plead guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Lemuel Zindell, assault and battery; prosecutor Arvilla Zindell. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and divided the costs between the prosecutor and defendant.

Commonwealth vs. the Borough of Philipsburg, indicted for maintaining a nuisance; prosecutor, constable Hiram Moore. The action grew out of the failure of the borough of Philipsburg to properly maintain an alley between that borough and South Philipsburg. A verdict of guilty was returned.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Bartley, selling liquor without a license and selling to minors at the business men's picnic at Hecla park. Waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty.

There was the usual number of betrayal cases before the court which were disposed of by the court imposing the customary sentence.

The grand jury completed their work on Wednesday afternoon and submitted their report in which they condemned the plumbing in the jail as being in a bad condition and recommended that a new system with new closets be installed throughout the jail. They also recommended that the walks around the jail and from the jail to the court house be repaired; that new double doors be put on the jail yard walls and that the cells be whitewashed.

The following sentences were imposed by Judge Orris yesterday morning:

Joseph Ross, indicted for larceny, sentenced to pay a fine of $1, cost of prosecution, restoration of stolen goods, and to undergo imprisonment in the western penitentiary for one year.

Charles Bartley plead guilty to selling liquor without license. Sentence suspended until next term of court and released under bond.

James Reed, plead guilty to larceny, sentenced to a fine of $1, cost of prosecution, restoration of the stolen goods, and to undergo imprisonment in the western penitentiary for a period of three years.

William Sampsell, plead guilty as indicted, and sentenced to pay a fine of $1, cost of prosecution, and to undergo imprisonment in the western penitentiary for a period of three years.

Martin Mazzo convicted at last court of taking money from Geo. Korotus, sentenced to a fine of $1, cost of prosecution and to undergo imprisonment in jail for six months.

NEW ELECTRIC PLANT PROJECTED.—D. S. Drake, of Huntingdon, and Frank Fisher, of Boalsburg, spent several days in Bellefonte last week in the interest of installing a hydro-electrical power plant in this place. They made a thorough test of the water power of Spring creek and, finding it of ample capacity, secured an option on the Green property at Milesburg, where the plant, if built, will be located. It is the intention of the projectors to build a plant of sufficient capacity to furnish both light and power for Bellefonte, Milesburg and surrounding towns. The two men will appear before the Bellefonte council, at its meeting next Monday evening, and present a petition for a franchise granting them the right to erect poles and string wires through the streets of the town. If this is granted them, they aver they will have the plant up and in operation within a month or six weeks.

Mr. Drake is a practical man in the electrical power and light business, being one of the principal projectors of the Raystown Water Power company, of Huntingdon. The two men claim they can put in a plant on the Green property at Milesburg by which they can supply Bellefonte with light and power at a rate from one-third to one-half cheaper than is now being paid; and will be able to furnish both a day and night service. Whether the project will be pushed to completion remains to be seen.

The Centre-Clinton league base ball season is about at an end and the Snow Shoe team will undoubtedly be the winner. The race throughout was a very exciting one and will very likely spur the same towns, as well as others in this part of the State to go into another and larger league next year.

—We sell shoes for Men and Boys. Sell them without one cent of expense. That's why we save you money. FAUBLES.

—The curb market in Bellefonte is now about on its last legs. Only three wagons were in attendance on Tuesday morning and the bulk of the produce was potatoes for which one dollar a bushel was asked. There were also apples, pears, green and ripe tomatoes, and cabbage; for all of which comparatively high prices were asked.

—Sixty-seven members of the Epworth League of the Bellefonte Methodist church with a few friends took a straw ride to the home of Van Jodon, near Zion, last Friday evening, to enjoy a corn roast. But when they got there the corn was too old and hard so they roasted potatoes, tomatoes and apples instead and had just as good a time as if they had roasted an entire field of corn.

—The Steam Heating company, having installed a battery of four new boilers are now at work erecting a new building, over them. This will give them almost double the steam capacity they have had in past years and should assure everybody having enough of steam to keep them warm the coming winter. The steam, by the way, was turned on Wednesday for the first.

—Last Saturday John Yearick was hulling clover seed on the farm of D. M. Kline at Axe Mann, in a field some distance from the barn. Between ten and eleven o'clock that night the clover huller was discovered to be on fire and before the flames could be extinguished it was pretty badly damaged. How the fire started is a mystery, though it is supposed it was set on fire.

—Buy the Best. But it at Faubles and if you are not satisfied bring it back and get your money. We try and sell all goods honestly.

—On Sunday afternoon eighteen employees of the Adams Express company, including agents, clerks and messengers of the Central Pennsylvania district, assembled in Huntingdon and gave John E. Dubbs, the promoted route agent, a handsome leather rocker as a testimonial of their kindly feeling and high esteem for him. Mr. Dubbs left for his new home in Trenton on Monday.

—Yeager, the shoe man, has a big new advertisement on the inside of today's paper which it will pay every reader of the WATCHMAN to scan closely. He is offering big bargains in shoes of all kinds, and will give a cut in rubbers during fair week. And as an extra inducement to buyers he has had his store furnished with handsome leather covered benches for the use of his patrons.

—According to reports from the country districts turkeys are going to be more plentiful this season than they have for some years, as there is hardly a farmer in the county who raises turkeys as a side issue but what has a large flock of them. The long dry season is no doubt one reason why the turkey crop is such a good one, as there is nothing harder on young turkeys than too much wet weather.

—The annual conference of the Free Methodist church, of the Oil City district, held at Oil City last week, came to a close on Sunday with the reading of the appointments by Bishop Sellow. In the DuBois district, to which the Bellefonte appointment belongs, J. J. Zahnizer was appointed district elder. In the appointments are the following: Bellefonte, J. L. Collier; Fleming, E. L. Kiffer; Philipsburg and Gearhartville, F. W. Parks.

—More clothes, all good clothes at the Fauble stores than in all of Bellefonte's other stores combined. You will be sure to find what you want with us.

—State College defeated the Grove City College football team last Saturday by the score of 31 to 0. Profiting by their defeat by the Bellefonte Academy team the week previous, and determined to run no risk of a repetition, State started the game with their best team and had no trouble with the visitors. In fact the latter did not make one first down. This week State has been hard at work getting in shape for the Carlisle Indians at Wilkesbarre tomorrow.

—With Wednesday night the theatrum, the moving picture show conducted by H. S. Rager in Petriken hall, passed out of existence and in its place the Scenic will be opened up there tomorrow night by T. Clayton Brown. Mr. Brown has installed one of the most modern motion picture machines and made a number of improvements in the hall which assures the best exhibition of the pictures. Strictly up-to-date pictures will be exhibited there every night except Sunday, beginning tomorrow evening.

—Company B, the Fifth regiment bugle corps and the colonel and staff of the regiment will leave Bellefonte on the 9.15 train Sunday morning for Philadelphia to take part in the big military parade there on Monday as the opening of their Founder's week exercises. While in Philadelphia the troops will be quartered at the Seventh regiment armory while the headquarters of the regiment will be at the hotel Walton. The troops will leave Philadelphia Monday evening in order to arrive home Tuesday morning.

—More clothes, all good clothes at the Fauble stores than in all of Bellefonte's other stores combined. You will be sure to find what you want with us.

The Program Complete.

The plans have all been carried into execution, the grounds are in readiness, so that all that remains to make the Great Centre County Fair at Bellefonte next week the success it surely would be is for the weather man to do his part.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding on the part of anyone, no misrepresentation on the part of the Fair management, consequently no disappointments whatever the following official program of events is made public. There will be nothing more, nothing less.

TUESDAY OCTOBER 6TH. Assembling and placing of Exhibits. All Exhibits must be on the grounds by 5 p. m. of this date.

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 7TH. CHILDREN'S DAY. Judging of Exhibits in all Departments.

Conser's dog show.
DeVelda and Zella.
McEntyre and Carlisle.

On each day, of course, there will be the exhibits of farm and dairy machinery, live stock, poultry, the main exhibition hall and many other things to see and enjoy, in addition to the above program.

Remember that Wednesday will be Children's Day, when all children under the age of 16 will be admitted free.

RAILROADS. There will be the usual excursion rates on all railroads.

The Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad will run special return trains leaving Bellefonte at 6 o'clock on Wednesday and Thursday evenings and running through to Coburn.

The two morning trains and the 4:44 train west in the afternoon on the Bald Eagle Valley will stop at the grounds. The morning trains will stop going in to Bellefonte and the afternoon train going out.

Your money will buy you more and better clothes at the FAUBLE Stores than at any other store in Bellefonte. Try it.

HADLEY'S MOVING PICTURES.—In these days when moving pictures are all the rage the public is always on the lookout for the newest and best that can be seen. While Edwin J. Hadley, who will be at Garman's tomorrow night, may not have the very best pictures in the world, he has just as good as can be seen anywhere and they are all new. His program this year will include views of ancient and modern Rome, beautiful Venice, King Edward and Queen Alexandra at the Olympic games, Emperor William, of Germany, the King of Norway and his army, the great German auto race for the Kaiser's cup, the dangers of broncho busting and enough of comic ones to please the fun-loving part of the audience. Don't fail to see this remarkable exhibition of pictures almost real to life.

Special clothes for Young Men. The biggest assortment in Bellefonte at FAUBLES.

WHAT IS THEIR OBJECT?—For the past two months or more two corps of civil engineers have been at work surveying on the Allegheny mountains, with headquarters at Hontzdale. They have worked both westward and eastward but so far have not divulged the purpose of their surveys. Considerable speculation has been indulged in as to what the object is. It is thought by some to be the final survey of that once much-talked of air line from Chicago to New York, and several little incidents have come to light to in part confirm this belief. But whether it is or not will probably not be known until the survey is complete and men put to work, should such prove to be the case.

—See the new Brown Suits at FAUBLES. Nothing like them in Bellefonte.

AN EVENING IN CHINA.—A stereopticon presentation of "The Sleeping Giant" and the awakening of that interesting land of the Orient, from a missionary standpoint, in the Methodist church this, Friday, evening, by the Rev. James E. Dunning, formerly a resident of Bellefonte and member of the High school faculty. No admission charge. A silver offering at the door, for expenses. "That's all." A cordial invitation to the public, especially church workers interested in mission study and world evangelism. You will be entertained and instructed. Let us give Bro. Dunning a large audience and an appreciative reception. In behalf of the Epworth League.

—Buy the Best. Buy it at Faubles and if you are not satisfied bring it back and get your money. We try and sell all goods honestly.

—See the new Brown Suits at FAUBLES. Nothing like them in Bellefonte.

—Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, representative of the York bridge company, spent a day or two in Bellefonte this week on a business trip.

—Rev. P. A. Artman, pastor of the United Evangelical church at Mifflin, spent a few hours with Bellefonte friends on Monday evening.

—Mortimer O'Donohue, of Philadelphia, was an over Sunday visitor in this place, being on a trip which will extend to the Pacific coast.

—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thompson and little son drove down from Alto on Saturday and spent a few hours at the Bush home on Spring street.

—William Hutton, of Oseola Mills, was in Bellefonte attending court this week and made a pleasant call at the WATCHMAN office yesterday.

—Harry Vesley left on Monday evening for Philadelphia where he has accepted a clerical position with the United States Express company.

—Mrs. Pickle and her daughter, of Millersville, came to Bellefonte the latter part of last week, to be with Mrs. Pickle's mother, Mrs. Twitnire for a time.

—William Shope, manager of the Lock Haven and Renovo exchanges of the Pennsylvania Telephone company, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Humes of Jersey Shore, who came to Bellefonte Monday to see Mrs. Katherine Humes, spent the day as the guests of W. P. Humes.

—Frank W. Grobe, the man who is in everything going on from a fireman's convention to a Democratic club, is over from Philipsburg attending court this week.

—Miss Sara Hastings left on Tuesday for Briar Cliff, N. Y., where she will attend a select school for girls during the coming winter. She was accompanied to that beautiful town on the Hudson by Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok.

—Joseph J. Rhoads, of Philadelphia, one of the inspection party now making their annual trip over the Pennsylvania railroad, was in Bellefonte for a few hours yesterday visiting his mother, Mrs. Daniel Rhoads, and family.

—Dr. and Mrs. Ambrose Schmidt with their son William and Mrs. Schmidt's mother, Mrs. Stauffer, left on Tuesday for a two week's vacation at Atlantic City; consequently there will be no preaching services in the Reformed church during their absence.

—W. S. Mallalen, Charles Donachy and Joseph Barnes, of the Pennsylvania Telephone company, went to Harrisburg on Monday where they attended a banquet that evening, given by the head officials to the managers and other employees of the company throughout the State.

—While potatoes may be scarce and of an inferior quality in some parts of Centre county farmers in Howard township, or at least some of them, have some excellent tubers. Among the number is G. A. Confer, who on Tuesday brought a number of nice potatoes to Bellefonte as anyone could wish.

—Merchant J. H. Griffin, of Stormstown, was in Bellefonte doing a little courting this week; with that long flowing beard of his looking very like the patriarch of old. Of course he is still the staunch Democrat he has been since boyhood and has the faith necessary to believe in Democratic success this fall.

—Tom James Schofield went to New York city last Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of his brother, Frank Schofield, who died quite suddenly on Friday. Although a man well advanced in years his relatives here had not been informed of his illness, hence the news of his death was considerable of a shock to them; and because of which was not given in the dispatch notifying them of his demise.

—Dr. A. W. Hafer was in Washington last week attending a meeting of the agents of the Alonzo D. Bliss Medical company and had a far bigger time than he anticipated. He ran against a stranger who became quite chummy and who confessed that he was a delegate to the International Fisheries Congress, which was being held there at that time. Just for variety's sake the man induced the Dr. to become a member of the association and he did so, and the result was that he participated in more dissipation than he ever did in his life before. He attended a reception at the White House and shook hands with the President and was at half a dozen other big gatherings, so that by the time he got through it was hard for him to realize that he must return to Bellefonte to live.

—Mrs. Morris Hazel, of Altoona, is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Chambers.

—Jack Dale joined his sister Virginia, in Staunton, Virginia, this week where he will enter the Military Academy for boys.

—Mrs. John Shugert went to Pittsburg Wednesday to be with her sister, Mrs. Curran, a few days during the Sesqui Centennial celebration.

—Miss Rebecca Rhoads went to Overbrook last Friday where she is spending two weeks with the family of her cousin, Joseph R. Rhoads.

—Mrs. Agnes Moore, who has been in Bellefonte for some time selling the household goods stored here since their moving from the town, left for her home in Philadelphia yesterday.

—Lientenant and Mrs. Clarence Lamont Arnold, of Quincy, Mass., are visiting Bellefonte friends. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Arnold was Miss Anne Orris and this is her first visit home since their wedding a year ago.

—Miss Martha King, who recently graduated as a professional nurse from the University of Pennsylvania hospital and has been at her home near Bellefonte the past month or so, will return to Philadelphia next week to take up her work as a nurse.

—Mr. J. W. Grove, who farms up the Run, three miles from town with his cousin, another Mr. Grove, dropped in for a little call on Saturday night. Of course the dry weather and politics was the burden of the conversation and we got one settled nicely on Monday and the other ought to be settled to our satisfaction on Tuesday—that is Tuesday Nov. 3rd.

GARNER—KRUMRINE.—On Thursday last week Fred Garner and Miss Mary Krumrine, both of State College, went to Boalsburg where they were quietly married at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. A. A. Black. The happy young couple were attended by Harry Markle and Miss Anna Reed. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Krumrine, where the usual wedding supper was served. The bride is a worthy young woman and will make a splendid life partner for the man of her choice. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garner and is engaged in farming in College township.

HECKEL—REESE.—A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of J. H. Curry, in Liberty township, Wednesday morning of last week, when his step-daughter, Miss Rosetta Reese, was united in marriage to James B. Heckel. Rev. R. S. Taylor, of Howard, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Heckel went to housekeeping at once in a home the bridegroom had already furnished for the reception of the bride.

BRETT—NEFF.—Thomas P. Brett, of Perry, Kansas, and Miss Alice S. Neff, of Curtin, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Neff, on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30, by the Rev. Taylor, of Howard. Only a few of their most intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. They will make their home in Perry.

JUSTICE—FRY.—James J. Justice and Miss Grace V. Fry were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage, Tuesday evening of last week by Dr. James B. Stein. Mr. Justice holds a position on the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters in Altoona, where the young couple will make their future home.

HARPSTER—ROOP.—William F. Harpster, of Wilkesburg, and Miss Elva J. Roop, of Warriorsburg, were married at the Methodist parsonage in this place, last Saturday morning, by Rev. James B. Stein. They will make their home in Wilkesburg.

FOREMAN—JORDAN.—James Foreman, one of the well known colored residents of Bellefonte, was married last week to Mrs. Ellen Jordan, of Philipsburg.

LOST.—A black leather bag, containing letters and fancy work, between Bartley's livery stable and residence of G. Murray Andrews. Reward for its return to Mrs. Andrews.
