What Will the Farmers Do? Six years ago the Republicans of the county made a great ado because Col. H. S. TAYLOR, the Democratic nominee for Sheriff, was not a farmer.

It is up to you now, Mr. Farmer, to say whether the office of Sheriff shall be filled by one who has worked and toiled and paid taxes as you have done, or whether it shall be given to one who has no interest in your welfare, or no care for how you get along.

In his candidacy for Congress W. HARRISON WALKER is making votes every day, and this is only natural and as it should be.

Capt. BARCLAY has been in office one term, or two years, and has done nothing at all to merit the support of the voters of this district.

When it comes to handing out postmaster appointments he sides steps in favor of PENROSE, and that gentleman has always named one of his particular henchmen, even though the old soldier must be turned down cold.

With WALKER as the representative from this district PENROSE and his gang would lose their hold and there would be at least a fair play for all. Therefore vote for WALKER for Congress.

Mr. BERT TAYLOR is a clever fellow personally and is finely fitted for some things, but one of those things is not representing the people of Centre county as Harrisburg. Profanity, bluster and denunciation don't carry weight in securing legislation, nor does it do credit to an intelligent and reputable constituency, and for this reason, Centre county people will allow him to stay at home.

Every intelligent voter of Centre county who desires to see a Recorder elected will perform the duties of that office intelligently, pleasantly and to the credit of the county will cast his ballot for F. PIERCE MUSSEY. He has the qualifications and the disposition to make a model official, and the people can rely upon the fact that he will.

If you want to get the county run into debt again, a good way to do it is to allow the Republican ring, here about Bellefonte, that controlled the last Board of County Commissioners, to elect WOODRING and ZIMMERMAN and you'll have the debt just as sure as the sun shines.

FRED SMITH has been in Bellefonte this week seeing the crowds at the fair and we want to say right here that everyone he meets is more than pleased with our splendid nominee for sheriff.

VITALINI.—Having been a patient sufferer for two years past with kidney trouble Henry Vitalini, a well known resident of Bellefonte, died at his home on south Spring street at 10.45 o'clock Friday night, of septicemia, a disease which developed about four months ago as a result of his kidney affliction.

Deceased was a native of Italy and was born near Genoa December 19th, 1830, so that he was aged 77 years, 9 months and 13 days. He came to the United States when thirty-two years of age and spent a score or more of years in California. Twenty-two years ago he came to Bellefonte and has been a resident of the town ever since. He was a chef by occupation and as long as he was in good health was employed at the various hotels in the town.

In 1862 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Glenn, of Pleasant Gap, who survives. He also leaves one brother and three sisters in Italy. He was a member of the Catholic church and a man who was universally esteemed by all who knew him. Rev. Father McArdle said mass at the funeral which was held from the Catholic church at ten o'clock Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery.

COLE.—Mrs. Mary Alice Cole, wife of Jacob A. Cole, died at her home in Coleville on Saturday afternoon, of apoplexy, following an illness of eighteen months or more.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Klepper, and was born in Pennsylvania, June 4th, 1854, hence was 54 years, 3 months and 29 days old. She was united in marriage to Jacob Cole in October, 1871, and ever since the family have lived in Coleville. She was a member of the United Brethren church and an earnest Christian woman.

In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Samuel Sprankle, of Buffalo Run; Mrs. Blanche Eckley, of Coleville; Carrie E., Jennie E., Kussie, Otterbine and Darius, at home. She also leaves three brothers, Emanuel, John and Henry Klepper, all of Philadelphia, and one sister, Mrs. Herman Rabb, of Bellefonte.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon. The friends met at the house at 1.30 o'clock, going thence to the U. B. church where the funeral services were held. Rev. D. Barshinger officiating. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Hess.—Jonathan Hess, a native of Ferguson township died at his home in Williamsport on Sunday morning of disease incident to old age. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess and was born at the old and well known Hess home on the Branch January 9th, 1837, thus being past seventy-one years of age. The most of his life was spent in Ferguson township where he was known as one of the substantial residents of that locality. He was twice married, both wives having preceded him to the grave. Since the death of his second wife he has made his home with his daughter, Mary, in Williamsport. He also leaves one son, James, of Williamsport, and a half-sister, Mrs. Lydia Stover, of Altoona. Funeral services were held at his late home in Williamsport on Monday evening and Tuesday morning the remains were taken to Pine Grove Mills for interment.

Haverstine.—Mrs. Fannie May Haverstine, wife of Theodore Haverstine, died at her home in Tyrone on Sunday after only three weeks illness with septicemia. She was born in Elk county November 12th, 1886, hence was not quite twenty-two years of age. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Green and when she was a child they moved to this county and for a number of years lived at Lick Run, in Boggs township. She was married to Theodore Haverstine in 1905 who survives with an infant daughter only twelve days old. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. George T. Gunter officiating and interment being made in Grandview cemetery.

HAAGEN.—William J. Haagen, one of the prominent residents in the vicinity of Beech Creek, died on Friday night after a brief illness, aged sixty-nine years. He died in the house in which he was born and where he had lived all his life. He was a farmer by occupation and one of the most successful in lower Bald Eagle valley. He was a member of the Disciple church and a man of the highest integrity and uprightness. Surviving him are his wife, one son, Harry; and three daughters, Misses Mabel, Nettie and Elsie. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, interment being made in the Disciple cemetery at Blanchard.

ANDERSON.—Lauretta, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of East Bishop street, died on Thursday evening of paralysis of the brain as a result of an attack of acute Bright's disease. She had been in feeble health for several months but was taken critically ill only about a week prior to her death. She was a bright and interesting child and her death is a source of deep sorrow to her parents. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery.

The trainmen on the Bellefonte Central did a very humane thing a day or so ago. The freight train was coming down the valley when the crew noticed a calf caught in a wire fence and struggling desperately. Having some extra time they stopped the train and released the half dead animal.

A charter was recently granted to the Campus Water company, of State College.

The best races of the week will be those at the fair this afternoon. Don't fail to see the free-for-all.

State College lost the football game with the Indians at Wilkesbarre last Saturday by the score of 12 to 5, though experts considered it a good contest at that. This week the State men have been working hard to get in shape for the game with the University of Pennsylvania tomorrow.

Street commissioner Samuel Showers has had a force of men at work the past week fixing up south Spring street. It was filled in and then topped with a good covering of ground limestone and eventually will make a good thoroughfare, though just now it is not an ideal route for automobilists.

Mrs. Thomas Jennings on Tuesday shipped her household goods to Clarksburg, W. Va., for which place she left on Wednesday. They will not go to house-keeping immediately but for the present will be located at 227 Webster street; though it is their intention to go into a house of their own just as soon as they can secure a suitable location.

The dates for the farmers institutes to be held in Centre county during the season of 1908-'09 have been named by the State Department of Agriculture and are as follows: Aaronsburg, Monday and Tuesday, February 22nd and 23rd; Pine Grove Mills, Wednesday and Thursday, February 24th and 25th; Stormstown, Friday and Saturday, February 26th and 27th.

The play-going season has just fairly started and already there have been a number of good attractions presented at Gorman's opera house, for which the management is to be commended; but they could add considerably to the merit of the play as well as the appreciation of the audience if they would install a piano or else have that old music box now there put in some kind of tune.

The Bellefonte Academy football team had an easy time of it Saturday defeating the Altoona high school team, the final score being 43 to 0. The visitors were too light for the sturdy Academy boys, and at no time during the game was the latter's goal line in danger. Dillon was easily the star for the Academy while Smith's goal from the field was a pretty piece of football work.

Quite a large audience greeted "The Devil" at the opera house on Monday night and while we can hardly endorse the moral pointed out by the plot in the play the production was given in a style that could not help but win the endorsement of all. As Dr. Mellor, "the Devil," George Lawrence played his part with a finesse that would be very creditable to the best on a metropolitan stage, while every member of the company carried their parts extremely well. The piece was also beautifully costumed and staged.

On Friday Robert, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Taylor, was taken sick while attending the parochial school, and on Saturday the attending physicians diagnosed his ailment as membranous croup, and the Taylor home was quarantined for diphtheria, as in children the two diseases are almost identical. On account of the child having taken sick while in school there was no parochial school on Monday and the house was thoroughly fumigated. At this writing the boy is getting along as well as can be expected and with careful nursing will be entirely well in a few days.

The new scenic motion picture show in Petriken hall, under the management of T. Clayton Brown, opened on Saturday evening and was exceedingly well patronized. Just 1551 tickets were sold, which of course did not include complimentary to the press, etc. The exhibition included a good set of pictures, all of which were shown very plainly, considering that it was the opening night and everything was not permanently in shape. This week, however, a number of improvements have been made and the scenic is now one of the best motion picture shows in this part of the State. If you haven't been there under the new management go tonight and tomorrow night and you cannot fail to be pleased.

Last Friday morning Sheriff Henry Kline with Joseph Dunkle, of Howard, and Earl Kline, of this place, took William Sampell, James Reed and Joseph Ross to the western penitentiary. After they had gone quite a ways on their journey the sheriff discovered that he had gone away without his commitments, which he had accidentally left lying on his desk. He telephoned back to have them sent on by the next train but they, of course, did not reach him that day and as he could not get his prisoners in the penitentiary without a commitment he had a bad hour or two trying to figure out what to do with them over night. Of course he might have entertained them at the hotel Sobenley but then they would have taken watching and he hadn't time to do that, so he finally lodged them in the Allegheny county jail for safe keeping until he got his commitments, which was not until so late on Saturday that he was compelled to stay over Saturday night and did not get home until Sunday morning.

"I'll bet this is his first visit to a summer resort." "Why?" "He's wearing duck trousers. Summer resort tenderfeet always do that."

MEYERS-HOMAN.—A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. G. W. Homan, in Ferguson township, at five o'clock on Tuesday evening when her daughter, Miss Alice Homan, was united in marriage to Charles H. Meyers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ralph H. Bergstresser, of the Lutheran church. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father only immediate friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the nuptials. The young couple were attended by Miss Birdie Meyers, a sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, and John Homan, a brother of the bride, as best man. Following the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served by the bride's mother and sister Mary.

The bride is not only a charming young woman but is one well qualified to preside over a home. Mr. Meyers is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meyers, of Fairbrook and is one of Ferguson township's bustling young farmers. Both young people are well known and highly esteemed. They are now away on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N. Y. They will return tomorrow and will be given a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents at Fairbrook.

McGUINNIS-SCHOFFIELD.—Considerable surprise was occasioned in this place last Friday by the announcement of the marriage of Miss Nan Schoffield, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. James Schoffield, of this place, to Matthew McGuinnis, of Indiana. Miss Schoffield had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Larimer, in Indiana, and none of her most intimate friends even anticipated her marriage and the only information received relative thereto was a telegram home announcing the fact that the marriage had occurred in Pittsburg on Thursday where both Mr. McGuinnis and Miss Schoffield had gone to attend the Sesqui-centennial of the Snook city. Rev. Young, of the Second Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schoffield and has been a friend of this place. The bridegroom, who is a native of Pottsville, is now clerk at the Indiana house, Indiana, and a very popular young man.

PHILLIPS-REECE.—John Phillips and Miss Ellen Reece, two well known young people of Pleasant Hill, near Philipsburg, were married at the M. E. parsonage in the latter place on Wednesday evening of last week. Rev. S. D. Wilson, the pastor, officiated, and the attendants were Miss Maggie McClimet and William H. Phillips. Following the ceremony a reception and wedding dinner was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Reece, of Pleasant Hill.

HERON-KIRK.—Rev. James Heron, of Kylesburg, and Miss Elizabeth E. Kirk, of Luthersburg, were married on Tuesday of last week and on Saturday sailed from New York for the purpose of spending their honeymoon abroad, intending to visit England, Ireland and Scotland. Rev. Heron has been pastor of the Presbyterian church at Kylesburg but upon his return will take up home mission work in Iowa.

WILLIAMS-FISHER.—Abnegado Williams, of Martha, and Miss Nancy Fisher, of Unionville, were married at the bride's home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed according to the rites of the Friends church, of which the bride is a member, about forty guests being present to witness the happy event. They are now away on a wedding trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y.

TAYLOR-PETERS.—A pretty home wedding took place at Bigler last Thursday evening when Miss Elizabeth Peters, daughter of Joseph Peters, was united in marriage to James Taylor, of Philipsburg. A handful of guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. C. Rupp. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor was the recipient of a large number of useful presents.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEALS AT STATE COLLEGE.—During the past week or so two big deals in real estate were made at State College. The Leathers brothers, of Mt. Eagle and Howard, purchased that portion of the John Hamilton farm east of State College borough line. They already have men at work laying out the plot in town lots, grading streets and putting down pavements ready for any person desiring a lot in State College.

Another deal was the purchase of the Hale farm just west of college by Prof. I. H. Foster and J. H. Holmes. The price paid for this farm was twenty thousand dollars, and it is the purpose of the purchasers to lay out a portion of it, at least, in town lots, while the remainder will likely be held until such a time as it becomes valuable for the extension of State College borough.

DEDICATION WOMAN'S BUILDING.—The exercises connected with the dedication of the woman's building at The Pennsylvania State College will be held on Friday, October 16th. This building owes its existence largely to the women of Pennsylvania. The program of the day includes practical demonstrations in the new laboratory of the department of domestic science; an inspection of the dairy building and of the school of agriculture; and an interesting program in the auditorium. Every woman's club in the State is invited to send a delegate who will be entertained by members of the Woman's Literary club of State College. Names of delegates and possible time of arrival should be sent at earliest convenience to the secretary, Mrs. Joseph H. Tudor, State College, Pa.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE.—The fall conference of the fourth district, Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A., will be held in Bellefonte next week, October 16th to 18th inclusive. BURGERS ABOARD.—On Tuesday night some person or persons broke into the store of the Manufacturer's Outlet Clothing company, in the Bush Arcade, and carried away a lot of clothing. Men's suits, dress shirts and sweaters were the principal articles taken, but enough of those were carried off to make the loss considerable. The robbers gained entrance by breaking a board out of one of the big sliding doors in the rear of the store, on south Water street. The board was very carefully placed inside so it would not get lost. Having thus gained entrance to the room it was no trouble for the robbers to help themselves to whatever they wanted, and this they did quite freely.

Just who the parties were is of course unknown, but they were doubtless strangers in Bellefonte and perhaps professional burglars at that. The only possible clue is that on Tuesday afternoon two strange men, not very well dressed, went into the store and walked all through it without buying anything.

It is believed that they were the men who committed the robbery, and that their business on Tuesday afternoon was to find out the lay of the room. A description of the two men as they looked at that time was the only clue the police could obtain, and so far no trace of the robbers has been obtained.

Though the managers of the store do not know exactly how much was taken they figure that not less than one hundred and fifty dollars worth of clothing was carried away. And the robbers were particular in a way, too. Just twelve vests were found on the floor, the coats and trousers of the suits taken and the vests discarded. Several sweaters, a number of dress shirts, underwear and some hosiery were among the stolen articles. The robbery was evidently the work of more than one man, judging from the amount of stuff they took, and they were likely experienced robbers, at that.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by Register Carl C. Tuten. Norman K. Siver and Blanche Williams, both of Martha. John W. Cornum and Lillie B. Shaffer, both of Zion. James Foreman, of Bellefonte, and Ellen Jordan, of Philipsburg. William F. Harpster, of Braddock, and Elva J. Johnson, of Pasadena, Cal. Thomas P. Brett, of Perry, Kansas, and Alice S. Keff, of Curtis. Roy Elmer Grubb and Elsie J. Hawley, both of Bellefonte. Robert W. Colyer and Stella Miller, both of Millheim.

Charles H. Myers, Pine Grove Mills, and Alice E. Homan, State College. Abnegado Williams, and Martha, Nannie M. Fisher, Unionville. Fanny isn't it but everything at the Great Centre County Fair is bigger than ever this year but the pumpkins. Mrs. V. J. Bauer is lying quite ill at her home on Bishop street.

STATE COLLEGE HORSE SHOW.—Now that the big Centre county fair is about an end the next important thing for the farmers of the county to look forward to is the horse show to be held at State College on Saturday, October 31st. As now arrayed only horses owned within a radius of fifteen miles of the College are eligible, and these must have been in the hands of the present owner since July first. The exhibition will be held on the athletic field and in the woods adjoining the agricultural building. The judging, which will begin at ten o'clock in the morning, will be done by Prof. Carl Gay, the horse expert. A parade of the prize winners will take place in the afternoon.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.—At a regular meeting of Centre Lodge, No. 153, I. O. O. F., last Thursday evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term of six months: Noble grand, William Owens; vice grand, George Hazel; secretary, H. B. Pontius; assistant secretary, Benton D. Tate; treasurer, Isaac Miller; warden, Harry Smith; conductor, Harry E. Clevenstine; chaplain, Sydney A. Keefer; representative to grand lodge, W. S. Sholl; representative to Sunbury orphans' home, A. Lukenbach.

The farmers finished sowing wheat last week. Lemont was well represented at the fair this week. John Mogle and wife returned to Howard, Monday.

William Daugherty and wife returned home Saturday. Irvin J. Dreese's father is visiting in town this week.

This week was cold and on Saturday morning the ground was frozen. Mrs. Andrew Gregg and son, John, visited among friends in town this week.

The painters and carpenters are busy working at Jacob Ray's house this week. Mrs. John Fogleman Sr., has been circulating among friends in town this past week.

Mr. Murray, of Boalsburg, was in town last Friday surveying W. F. Lytle's farm. The hunters report game very scarce this season along the sides of Nittany mountain. John R. Williams and wife visited at the home of W. L. Steele, at Bellefonte, Saturday.

Lloyd L. Hentz moved from the C. D. Houtz house to the W. H. Mogle house Thursday. James E. Lenker and men are busy putting down a concrete walk around his residence this week.

Boyd Cowher and son gave a magic lantern show in the Houserville U. B. church, Saturday evening. The farmers of this community cannot complain of the prices for they are getting $1.00 for wheat, $1.60 for potatoes and 70 to 80 cents for corn.

Al Knopf has been climbing over Nittany mountain this week trying to catch his pony that he purchased at the sale in Bellefonte last week.

W. A. Freres loaded a car of apples this week paying 80 cents per 100 lbs. and W. H. Macker loaded two cars at Oak Hall paying the same price.

Last Friday three hundred and sixty students and president Sparks took the special train from this town to Wilkesbarre where they played football on Saturday.

Friday, at noon, when Jesse Klingler's children were on their way to school they met Dale Shuey, and when they passed his wagon his dog flew at them and bit both of them but it is hoped the injuries are not serious.

Last Thursday, while Samuel Fogleman was driving up the old pike near his home, north of town, he met an automobile and the horse became frightened running off the road into a deep rut upsetting the buggy, throwing him out and wrecking the vehicle, but as luck would have it the young man was not hurt.

Wesley Snyder, of Greenbar, transacted business in town. Wesley Hackenberg, of New Berlin, visited his parents here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Brungard attended the funeral of Daniel Brungard in Loganton. Harry K. Small and Clayton Winters attended the horse sale in Millheim Saturday.

John Brindle with his son and sister-in-law, of Feldler, were Sunday visitors in town. Ammon Strayer made a business trip to Zion where he contracted for a job that means a lot of coin.

Edwin Winters, with his family, enjoyed a drive from their home in Millheim to that of his parents here on Sunday afternoon. Jacob Walizer, with his wife and daughter Eva, are visiting relatives in Bellefonte this week, and incidentally taking in the sights at the fair.

Stanley Mallory, who holds a position at Turtle Creek, circulated among his friends here during the week. This being his former home and birth place, his friends were glad to welcome him.

Ira Small, of Newton, Kan., was the guest of friends here during the latter part of last week. Mr. Small is one of the men who took Horace Greeley's advice and went west years ago, with the result that today he is possessed of a comfortable fortune.

Rev. Haney, with his family, visited in our midst during the week. It is worthy of mention that Rev. Haney is exceptionally ambitious and industrious. He teaches one of the public schools of the county, besides serving four congregations in the ministry, alternating two each Sabbath, driving many miles to fulfill these duties. Beside this, during the summer months he is assisted in re-painting the parsonage and his home church in Madisonburg.
