

POWERS WORKING FOR PEACE

The Sultan is Caught in a Moment of Weakness and May Submit Without War—Bulgarians Are Eager to Begin Hostilities, With Prince Ferdinand As Their Czar—Troops Reported Marching to the Frontier, Turkey Lays the Blame On Austria.

London, Oct. 6.—In the ancient capital of Timovo the independence of Bulgaria was proclaimed, with the czar of the Bulgarians as a ruler. Czar of the Bulgarians is recognized to mean more than czar of Bulgaria, because it is a distinct intimation that he regards his country as having sovereignty over all the people of that blood in the near east. In a day or two Austria-Hungary, which has been working with Prince Ferdinand in this preconcerted plan, will proclaim the new status of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The question, which has been stirring the whole of Europe more deeply than any similar question in the memory of the present generation, is, does it mean war? From all the capitals come reports indicating that it means, first of all, another European congress of the signers of the treaty of Berlin to consider the situation and probably to revise the treaty. Turkey, caught in a moment of weakness, is the victim of this situation, and while some international animosities have been stirred up, probably no power is willing to make war. Reports from the emancipated Turkish press to London indicate that the "Young Turks" will swallow this bitter pill as best they can, and if they do, naturally the Bulgarians, while willing and eager for war, will have no cause on which to base the beginning of hostilities.

Probably never in the history of Europe have politics taken such amazingly kaleidoscopic revolutions as during the past week. An entangling situation will come when the signatories of the Berlin treaty meet to consider what action shall be taken regarding the violations of the treaty. Great Britain has served notice that it does not recognize the right of any of the parties to this treaty to violate its provisions, without consulting the others, but English diplomats know that the conference will resolve itself into a scramble among the powers to get what is termed in European politics "compensating advantages," which Austria, backed by Germany, has already obtained.

The chances of war between Bulgaria and Turkey are being minimized by Great Britain and France, who are working together and who have advised Turkey against it. Turkey apparently is disposed to follow this advice, and it is believed that if hasty action on the part of Turkey can be prevented, Bulgaria will have difficulty in finding an excuse to begin war.

Turkey Lays the Blame Upon Austria.
Constantinople, Oct. 6.—Turkey is convinced that Austria, backed by Germany, encouraged Bulgaria to declare her independence, to strike a blow at the Kalmi military and compromise the new constitution. It is not known what steps Turkey will take, but the impression prevails that a European conference will be held to consider the whole question.

Armies Marching to the Frontier.
Paris, Oct. 6.—The Temps publishes a dispatch from Vienna that the Bulgarian army is marching toward the frontier and that the Turks are also moving forward to the encounter. Austria-Hungary is mobilizing two army corps.

Veteran Tortoise Found in Jersey.
Clayton, N. J., Oct. 6.—An old tortoise, marked "Jacob Fiesler, 1794," has been seen again. While strolling through the woods, Dr. Jacob F. Crane and Jacob Bowers found the tortoise, and after exhibiting it to their friends allowed it to go once more. This tortoise was marked by the first settler of Clayton 114 years ago, and has always stayed near here, as it is seen every few years, but it has been so long since last seen that it was supposed to have died until found again.

Mob Butchers Kentucky Negro Family.
Hickman, Ky., Oct. 6.—David Walker, a negro; his five-year-old daughter and his baby were killed outright by a mob; the mother, who had the baby in her arms, was fatally shot, and three other children will probably die. The oldest son is missing, and is supposed to have been burned with the negro's cabin, which was fired by the mob. Walker had cursed a white woman and threatened a white man with a pistol, it is said.

Suicide Rather Than Burden Family.
East St. Louis, Oct. 6.—To prevent his wife and eight children from becoming impoverished by his illness, August Figi cut the arteries in his wrists and died. "It's no use wasting what little money we have in doctor bills for me," he said. Figi worked in a paint factory grinding lead. This poisoned him and brought on a wasting disease.

All Bound.
A citizen of culture and poetic taste went to a public library and asked for Shelley's "Prometheus Unbound." He was rather taken aback when the librarian replied, with great hauteur: "We don't keep any unbound books in this library."

SOLE SURVIVOR OF SHIP

Seaman of Wrecked Schooner Picked Up at Sea on a Raft.
Mobile, Ala., Oct. 6.—A message received here by the collector of the port states that the Belgian steamer Tiflis has arrived at Port Arthur, Tex., and reports picking up at sea a raft having on board Alexander Sjöhm, sole survivor of the crew of the American schooner Beulah McCabe, and one dead body. Sjöhm reported that his companion had died from exhaustion and starvation.

Sjöhm, who reported that the McCabe encountered a hurricane and foundered, was in an exhausted condition. He believed went down with the exception of himself and the dead man. The schooner was built at Bath, Me., and her home port was Crisfield, Md.

VALUABLE HORSES STOLEN

North Castle, N. Y., Oct. 6.—The discovery was made that during Sunday night the stables on the country place of Richard Harding Davis, the author-playwright, had been broken into and three valuable horses stolen.

The occurrence is aggravating to Mr. Davis because of the fact that only a few weeks ago he was appointed a deputy sheriff of Westchester county, the news being spread far and wide and giving rise to considerable comment of a good naturedly humorous character.

DOG SMOTHERS SLEEPING BABY

Child's Dead Body Was Found By Mother.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 6.—Elmer, the three-months-old son of Annie Coleman, was found dead in its little crib in the kitchen of the mother's home, smothered to death under the weight of a large bulldog.

The child's crib had been placed in the kitchen because the mother considered that the warmest room. When she went to look at the child she was horrified to find the huge dog, weighing nearly fifty pounds, stretched across the baby and the little body stiff and cold in death.

A sad tale is attached to the life of the mother of the child. Engaged to wed in Austria, her lover pretended to purchase two tickets for this country, went with her on board the steamer and then made some pretext to return to land, failing to return. She has been in this country nearly a year.

Masqueraded As Man For 15 Years.
New York, Oct. 6.—The Ellis Island immigration authorities, who had detained Miss Mary Johnson, a Canadian woman, when she arrived here on the American liner New York, under the assumed name of "Frank Woodhull," and wearing men's clothes, decided to allow her to proceed to her destination, New Orleans, still garbed in masculine attire. Miss Johnson, fifty years old, and of masculine appearance, had declared to the authorities that, having been born unprepossessing as a woman, she had found herself practically shut off from earning a living, and that only as a man had she been able during the past fifteen years to earn a regular income as a book agent and maintain her respectability.

Saw Off Coffin to Get It in the Grave.
Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—Several dozen negroes from this town were chief mourners at the funeral of Mrs. David Smith, of near Bangor. When the party arrived at the grave the pallbearers found it impossible to lower the coffin into the outside box, which was shorter than the coffin itself. After a consultation between the relatives and the undertaker it was decided to saw a piece from each end of the coffin and proceed with the burial, which was done. One woman fainted when she heard the sound of the saw.

Kermitt Roosevelt Has Grit.
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 6.—Kermitt Roosevelt, the second son of President Roosevelt, was given first choice as tackle on the Harvard freshman football team in the first day of scrimmage the candidates have had. Roosevelt went in at right tackle on the first eleven, and although the second team continually sent plays at him, the young man had the necessary grit and stamina and made a good showing.

Tried to Lynch in Courtroom.
Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 6.—There was a scene of riotous disorder in Justice Austin's court, in which several persons were slightly injured in an attempt to lynch Edward Martin, the negro who last Friday night assaulted Miss Edith Ralston, a concert singer at College Grove. Martin was spirited away to Superior Judge Wilbur's court, where he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Farmer, Sixty, Offers $5000 For Bride.
Dover, Del., Oct. 6.—Dover girls are watching for the arrival of James H. Furbush, a wealthy farmer of Maryland, who is seeking a wife—one who will love his three children and make allowance for his sixty years. Furbush, it is said, has promised to give his bride $5000 on the day they are married.

Teeth of Fish.
In the matter of teeth, fish have not been treated alike; in fact, quite unfairly, the river dolphin, of South America, having two hundred and twenty-two, and the poor sturgeon have none at all. And yet there are ways in which the sturgeon has the advantage, as most children will agree. He can never suffer from toothache nor need take up his valuable time chewing his food at meal time! This alone should comfort him for the extremely plain appearance he makes when he smiles.

The sea-urchin is plentifully supplied with teeth, and is the proud possessor of five jaws, in each one of which he has one tooth. With so many jaws, it would seem he could easily speak, but he keeps his jaws inside of him near his stomach.

The horseshoe crab chews its food with its legs, which is a curious thing even for a crab to do. The crab has teeth away back in his throat. The jelly fish has no teeth at all, and uses himself as if he were a wrapping paper when he is hungry, getting his food and then wrapping himself around it. The starfish does just the opposite. He turns himself wrong side out, wraps his food around him, and stays that way until he has had enough. The prongs of the starfish really look like teeth, but are not at all, only serving as ornaments to his body.

The teeth of fish vary more than those of any known creatures, their teeth not being divided into molars and incisors, as in animals, but almost every different kind of fish has differently shaped teeth. Sharks, for instance, have several rows of teeth, all very sharp-pointed. There is never any difficulty in identifying a shark's tooth. When they shed their teeth, new ones come at once to replace them.—Exchange.
