Old Jupiter Pluvius has at last hearkened to the prayers of the public and since Tuesday night has favored us with a copious rain. May we get enough of it to fill every stream and spring in the county.

The family of William Shutt, of near Peru, are having more than their share of trouble. Mr. Shutt is just recovering from a six weeks illness with typhoid fever. On October 18th their year old son died quite suddenly and last week both Mrs. Shutt and a daughter were stricken with the fever. Mrs. Shutt was brought to the Bellefonte hospital on Thursday.

The forty-first annual session of the A. M. E. conference of the Pittsburgh district was held in Wheeling, W. Va., coming to a close on Wednesday with the announcements of the appointments. Rev. J. M. Herrington has been transferred from Bellefonte to Pittsburgh, Rev. P. E. Paul being the new minister here. Rev. C. F. Smith was sent to Philipsburg.

It may not be generally known but it is a fact that manager T. Clayton Brown, of the Scenic, has a list of all the moving pictures shown in Bellefonte since the shows were opened here. This list is made in duplicate and one copy forwarded to the manufacturers thus keeping them posted on what has been shown in Bellefonte and preventing a duplication of the pictures. This is one reason why the exhibition at the Scenic is always up-to-date. And it will be just as good tonight and tomorrow night as it has been any time in the past. Miss Maude Hovey continues to charm Bellefonters with her beautiful singing and draws big crowds every night.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.—The United States Civil Service commission announces that on Saturday, November 7th, a civil service examination will be held in Bellefonte for the positions of clerk and carrier in the postoffice service. This examination is open to all citizens of the United States who comply with the requirements. For application blank, instructions to applicants and any further information desired apply to the local secretary at the Bellefonte postoffice. All applications must be on file by the hour of closing business on Wednesday, November 4th.

J. Calvin Meyer, Democratic nominee for Assembly, was here on Monday last. Mr. Meyer is a polished gentleman, well educated, affable and pleasant and is quite popular in this neighborhood. His friends here are working night and day in his behalf and say he must be elected.

Politics are beginning to run high here just now, but the talk in this Democratic stronghold is nearly all Bryan. Quite a number of workmen with empty dinner pails, heretofore Republicans, say they are sick and disgusted with the hard times and want a change.

Mrs. Margaret Ruhl, milliner, says that the large hats are still the mode, and even the small shapes are not as small as usual. Evidently the huge head gear will be worn all winter with little or no change. Last week Mrs. Ruhl received an invoice of the latest French novelty hats with turned up brim and a low, rather broad crown, richly and elegantly trimmed with plume and feathers; also a few of the Charlotte Corday black silk hats. Both these styles are popular, she says, and meet with ready sale.
