BIG STATE - BUCKNELL FOOTBALL

GAME TOMORROW.-Tomorrow will be the date for the big game of football between State and Bucknell at State College. This will be the first football game between these two colleges for a number of years and naturally it is looked forward to as team to State College on a special train feated the Academy some time ago by the and a large number of the alumni of score of 16 to 0, mostly on account of the both colleges from Pittsburg and other places will attend the game. It will be a contest worth seeing and bellefonters should go up in force to see the struggle. Both teams are keyed up to the highest pitch and will go into the fight to win. State was defeated by Cornell last Saturday by the score of 10 to 4, though at are all in good shape and will play the game of their lives.

ONCE A BRAKEMAN, NOW A MINISTER. -From an exchange we notice that Rev. H. A. McKelvey is assisting evangelist Thomas Keenan in conducting evangelistic services in the railroad Y. M. C. A. at DaBois, a fact which is of interest in Centre county because Rev. McKelvey is a son of Mr. J. H. McKelvey, of Martha. He was at one time a brakeman on the Buffalo. Rochester and Pittsburg railroad and at the time was a great worker in the Y. M. C. A. He was a close student of theology and a number of years ago was ordained a minister in the United Brethren church. He is now regarded as one of the ablest preachers in that sect, and only recently was assigned to the pastorate of the Du-Bois church.

"A PAIR OF COUNTRY KIDS."-Among the attractions Manager Garman has booked at the opera house for the coming season as being a distinct novelty is "A Pair of Country Kids" which will appear for one night only Monday, November 9th. This new rural comedy drama has been built on entirely new lines and as true to nature as stagecraft will permit and as this is the day of the scenic artist and the stage artisan, you can expect to spend one jolly night in the country and laugh and romp with the kids and their merry company, among whom are numbered the best of the latter day artists, each selected for a particular part and which enabled the manage ment to a perfect production.

PIR SOCIAL. - The Keystone League of Christian Endeavor of the United Evangelical church will give a pie social Tuesday evening, November 10th, at the residence of Mr. John Ammerman, on Spring street, over Schofield's harness store. All are cordially invited.

HUNTERS TAKE NOTICE.-Before the next isoue of the WATCHMAN reaches its readers the various hunting clubs in Centre county, whose members make a specialty of hunting deer during the opening season for that game, will have started for the mountains in order to be in camp for the legal opening of the season, which will be on Monday, November 16th. It is generally reported that deer are very scarce in Centre county this year and naturally we would like to confirm this impression by the actual facts as hunters will find them ; and especially in regard to the number of deer killed during the season. To this end we request all hunting parties, as well as individuals, to forward to this office a report of any and all deer killed, weight, etc., and by whom, and we will gladly -Hon. John Hamilton, of State College and give the same space. It will also be a matter of record for the hunters themselves in the future. So again we ask you to send us the news.

> UNDERWRITER'S EXACT STRINGENT RULES .- The underwriters who control the insurance on the property of the Pennsylvania telephone company have laid down exceptionally stringent rules for the company to go by. All property of the company must at all times be kept in open and plain view. That is in rooms occapied by officers or work rooms there oline can be kept within rooms occupied by the company, but must be kept outside in a tin or metal tankard. This is to observe every cantion against the possibility of a facility for fighting it. Because of this new order it has been necessary for the Pennsylvania company in this place to make a good many alternations in and about their rooms in the Bush Arcade. But with all that, it has been for the best, as they now present a much more compact
