LADIES FURS and MUFFS, OUT THEY GO

FULLY 10,000 men, women and children will take an active part in this mighty 15 day closing out sale. A battle on former prices that will take Bellefonte and surrounding vicinity by storm. The flood gates of given away prices have been thrown wide, wide open. A money saving opportunity awaits you. Our whole establishment is one sea of monster, marvelous values. This great wind up sale will stir the country from end to end, for there never has been a commercial event of such importance to all the people in the entire commercial history of the country. Never were such immense bargains thrown to the public before. Not one solitary article, be it merchandise, or fixtures must remain after Dec. 31, 1908. Everything must go.

THE BATTLE IS NOW ON

This sale will be a record breaker. We caution you very forcibly to read every line of this advertisement, then come and see what we're doing. No doubt you have attended sales before in this town and in other towns, but we say most emphatically that our offerings in this Battle of Prices will be such as were never before presented in your lives, nor in generations past, and the very fact that every piece of merchandise offered will fill some immediate want which will make this event doubly desirable. Store now barred, the entire stock is being readjusted. Positively no goods sold until

Friday Morning, Dec. 11

PROMPTLY AT 9 O'CLOCK

The bomb will explode, which will mark the beginning of the annihilation of the Manufacturer's Outlet Clothing Company.
