

Where Chess is Most Popular. Games may come and games may go, but chess bids fair never to lose its popularity.

Bruges. What is the right pronunciation of this word? It is usually pronounced by English people as if it were French, with a soft, sibilant g, and in one syllable.

Orchestral Oversights. The snare drummer happened to catch a selection that called for the use of half a dozen or more instruments.

Suitor's Theory. "When I hear of a new theory," said a scientist, "I am reminded of the two geologists. At a certain summer resort one brilliant afternoon the younger geologist from his bedroom window saw the older man rolling a great rock down the side of a mountain."

Willing to End the Company. A Chicago man who once permitted himself to be persuaded to back a theatrical company was seated in his office one day when he received a telegram from the manager of the show.

Gently Broken. "You were a long time in the far corner of the conservatory last evening," suggested the mother. "What was going on?"

Art of Eating. Eating is not merely an enjoyment. It is a science that must be learned, an art that must be acquired by intelligent patience.

The Action of a Spinnet. The spinnet instrument was an improvement upon what was known as the clavichord, the tone of which, although weak, was capable, unlike that of the harpsichord or spinet, of increase or decrease, reflecting the finest gradations of the touch of the player.

Apartment House Life. I know you say you can't help living in a flat, but you could help it if you weren't too lazy to live in the suburbs. There is no real home life possible without children—not one, but two or three—enough to keep the young mother too busy to make believe she belongs to the smart set.

A Scoop. John L. Toole, the famous English comedian and practical joker, and Mr. Justice Hawkins, who was afterward Lord Brampton, were great friends.

Woman's Spur. "The scent was excellent that frosty morning. She walked across the field, holding her riding skirt free of her patent leather boots and silver spurs."

Forced Draft Realism. "How is it that Scribner's novels thrill with such vital, gripping, realistic portrayal of human passions?" asked Danks.

Adam's Apple. The projection in the front of the throat in men, denoting the position of the thyroid cartilage, is styled "Adam's apple." It develops rapidly usually when the voice "breaks," being comparatively small in both children and women.

A Great Man. "Father," said little Rollo, "what is a great man?" "A great man, my son, is one who manages to gather about him a whole lot of assistants who will take the blame for his mistakes while he gets the credit for their good ideas!"

Not Wholly Personal. A.—You have used the word "donkey" several times in the last ten minutes. Am I to understand that you mean anything of a personal nature? B.—Certainly not. There are lots of donkeys in the world besides you.

Art of Governing. To learn obeying is the fundamental art of governing.—Caryle.

Building Lots For Sale.

Would You Like Your Money to Earn Twenty Per Cent?

Such a question is almost superfluous. All you naturally want to know is how and where you can get the twenty on your surplus capital.

The Opportunity is Here. We have just purchased 98 more Building Lots in connection with the Hamilton farm. The fact that we own and control a large number of building lots in this prosperous town places us in a position to offer the best proposition in real estate that has ever been offered in this state.

A PARISIAN HAIR CUT.

It is Expensive at Times, but Always a Sociable Affair. The Paris hairdresser cannot be persuaded to do anything more than pretend to remove a little hair. It almost breaks his heart if you insist on a serviceable cut.

His customers discuss with him their love affairs, their ailments and lastly their business. He is also supposed to be a great authority on horse racing, but he is too prudent to act on his own tips and generally manages to save enough money to start in business for himself.—London Mail.

ANATOMY.

A More or Less Helpful Lesson For Beginners.

Proceeding in a southerly direction from the torso, we have the hips, useful for padding, and the legs. The legs hold up the body and are sometimes used in walking, but when riding in automobiles they take up valuable space which otherwise might be employed to better advantage.

On the face it is known as complexion and is used extensively for commercial purposes by dermatologists, painters and decorators. Between the cuticle and the bones are the muscles, which hold the bones together and prevent them from falling out and littering up the sidewalk as we walk along.

A Free Handed Prince. The following is told of the famous Prince of Conde. He left his son, aged nine years, 50 louis d'or to spend while he himself was absent in Paris. On his return the boy came to him triumphantly, saying: "Papa, here is all the money safe. I have never touched it once."

The Duchess' Philosophy. The old Duchess of Cleveland invited a relative to her husband's funeral and told him to bring his gun, adding, "We are old, we must die, but the pheasants must be shot."—Sir Algernon West's Reminiscences.

No Resemblance. "Woman and cats," said the youthful boarder, "are alike." "Wrong, young man," said the cheerful idiot. "A woman can't run up a telegraph pole, and a cat can't run up a millinery bill."

German Picture Post Card Industry.

Consul-General T. St. John Gaffney, of Dresden, states that the exportation of German picture post cards has recently diminished considerably. The foreign demand is however, still great, amounting to about 500,000,000 since the beginning of the year to July 1. Compared with the previous year, this shows a diminution of 150,000,000. The United States is said to be Germany's best customer, followed by England, Asia and Australia are also good patrons of this form of art industry.
