GARMAN.—Last week's WATCHMAN contained just a brief announcement of the death of Mrs. Allen S. Garman, in the German hospital, Philadelphia, at noon on Thursday of last week. Mrs. Garman had not been in good health for several years and as a last resort decided to go to the hospital and submit to an operation, both in the hope of possibly prolonging her life and relieving her of constant suffering and misery. She went to the hospital on January 23rd and underwent an operation on Tuesday of last week. At the time the surgeons found her condition to be much worse than they anticipated and they realized if she recovered it would be almost a miracle. For two days she appeared improving but shortly before noon on Thursday she had a sinking spell and died almost on the stroke of twelve o'clock.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Ellen Cowdrick, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Cowdrick and was born in Bellefonte almost forty-eight years ago. She was married to Allen S. Garman in the early eighties and for sixteen years thereafter they made their home in Bellefonte, part of which time she was landlady at the Garman house when her husband was the landlord. Eleven years ago they left Bellefonte and moved to Tyrone where Mr. Garman purchased a hotel and Mrs. Garman assisted him in the management of the same until some five years ago.

Since that although they have regarded Tyrone as their home they have spent some of the time in Atlantic City and a few months in Bellefonte. She was a woman of strong personality and had many friends both here and elsewhere who sadly deplore her death.

Her only child, a son, Ira, died shortly after the family moved to Tyrone so that she is survived only by her husband; her father, Mr. M. W. Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Arvilla Otto, William and Ed. Cowdrick and Mrs. P. M. Romer, all of Niagara Falls, and Paxton Cowdrick.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte last Friday evening and taken to the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rebekah Cruse, on Bishop street, where they rested until the funeral. When she was a young woman Mrs. Garman became a member of St. John's Catholic church in this place and the funeral was held from there at ten o'clock on Monday morning. Rev. Father McArdle officiated and was assisted by Father O'Hanlon, of this place; Father Bowen, of Johnstown, and Father Rosensteel, of Pittsburgh. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

RIMMEY.—Death came very unexpectedly to John G. Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap, last Friday afternoon. For several days previous to that time he had not been feeling very well but no danger was anticipated until a few hours before his death when he had an attack of heart trouble which resulted fatally.

Deceased was seventy-six years old and was born in Buffalo Run valley, though most of his life was spent in the vicinity of Pleasant Gap. Ever since a young man he followed farming for a livelihood and for many years farmed the old Valentine farm near Pleasant Gap. He was an industrious, hard-working gentleman and one who always had the highest esteem of his fellowmen.

Early in life he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Ekeuroth, who met death by an accident over thirty years ago. Surviving him are the following children: David, Mrs. Clayton Gettig, Mrs. William Roseman and Mrs. Martin Keller, all of Pleasant Gap; Charles, of Buffalo Run, and William, of Jersey Shore.

SWARB.—Pennsylvania lost one of its best known and oldest residents in the death of former county commissioner George Swarb, at his home at Linden Hall, on Sunday morning. His death was not entirely unexpected as he had been an invalid for several months with heart trouble and dropsy.

Deceased was eighty-two years of age and was born in Dauphin county, his early life being spent in the vicinity of his birth. When twenty-two years of age he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Bell, of Millfin county, and shortly thereafter the young couple moved to Centre county and engaged in farming in the vicinity of Linden Hall, in Pennsylvania. He was quite successful as a farmer and by his strict integrity and honest dealing won the confidence of his fellowmen so that he was repeatedly honored by the election to various township offices.

In 1878 he was nominated for the office of county commissioner on the Democratic ticket and was elected by a good majority, the office at that time paying three hundred dollars a year salary, which was then considered a big sum, as the commissioners were only in session two and three days a week. His wife died five years ago and since then Mr. Swarb lived a retired life though he still occupied the old homestead at the foot of the hill at Linden Hall.

Surviving him are four sons, as follows: John, of Erie; Frank, of Pine Grove Mills; James and William, of Linden Hall. He also leaves one brother, Harry, and a sister Mrs. Daniel Wain, of Centre Hall. For many years he was a member of the Sinking Creek Presbyterian church, and Rev. W. H. The services were at the house at nine o'clock after which the remains were taken to Centre Hall for interment in the cemetery at that place.

GROVE.—Daniel Grove, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grove, of Rockview, died in the University of Pennsylvania hospital at Philadelphia last Sunday. For several years past the young man, who was only sixteen years old, was troubled with an abnormal growth on the neck which continued to increase in size. As an only means of relief the attending physician advised the removal of the growth by an operation and he was taken to the hospital last Thursday by Dr. P. S. Fisher, accompanied by his father. An operation was performed on Saturday and had there been no serious complications it might have resulted satisfactorily but unfortunately a cancerous growth in a very advanced stage was found and it was so located that it would have been only a question of a few weeks until it would have become so enlarged as to close the throat and cause strangulation. Owing to the serious nature of the operation young Grove was not able to withstand the severe tax on his system and his death ensued on Sunday. The body was brought home on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Shiloh cemetery on Wednesday.

When only a few weeks old his parents moved to Houserville, this county, and that place he has regarded as his home ever since.

After going through the public schools he went to the High school at Boalsburg and then by teaching earned the money to give him a course in The Pennsylvania State College, later attending the Lock Haven Normal and then graduating from a Baptist theological school. Ever since that he has been engaged in preaching the gospel, mostly doing evangelistic work.

Early in the winter he held meetings at Karthaus, then in Allegheny county and died of all at Wilmore, where he was taken sick and died. The remains were taken to the home of his uncle, Philip Wirts, at Houserville, from where the funeral was held on Wednesday morning.
