

HAVE NOT BEEN CAPTURED

Woman Sitting at Sick Bed Fled With Money, and the Thieves, After Firing at Her, Shot Aged Farmer to Death and Injured His Friend.

At 8 o'clock on Sunday evening, while Alfred Haulman, an aged farmer of Pequea township, Lancaster county, Pa., was sitting at the bedside of his sick wife, in company with Mr. Kreider and Mrs. Cramer, two neighbors, two masked men entered the room and demanded money. The sick woman called to Mrs. Cramer to give them what was in a kettle in the room. Mrs. Cramer picked up the kettle containing the money and fled. The men shot at her, then turned and shot Mr. Haulman in the neck and killed him. They then shot Mr. Kreider twice and dangerously injured him. The robbers fled and have not been captured.

The Haulman's some years ago lost money in a bank failure and have since kept their cash in their house in a kettle. It is supposed that the robbers knew this and were after it.

Farmer and Wife Slain in Yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry James, aged between sixty-five and seventy years, living on a farm in Eastown, between Newtown Square and Berwyn, Pa., were found by neighbors murdered in their barnyard.

An axe had evidently been used in the perpetration of the crime. Both bodies were also hacked so completely to pieces that they were scarcely recognizable.

It is supposed that robbery was the motive for the crime, as they were believed to keep a considerable sum of money in the house. Both bodies were fully dressed.

Joseph Chogwaskie, a Poland, who was formerly employed as a farm hand by Mr. James, was arrested in Chester on suspicion. It is said his clothing and shoes were spotted with blood.

115-Year-Old Man Killed By Fall.

Henderson Cremins, known to be the oldest man in the state of West Virginia, and probably the oldest person in the United States, died at the home of his grandson, Clark Cremins, near Point Pleasant, Mason county, W. Va., aged 115 years. He was strong and hearty to the time of his death, falling on the roadside on his way home from the grocery store. He was removed to his home and died a few minutes later. His mother died at 120; his wife at 101. He was one of the first settlers in the Ohio valley, coming here from Virginia at the age of eighteen. He has seventy grandchildren, 131 great-grandchildren and nineteen great-great-grandchildren. He never tasted liquor or tobacco in his life.

Chased by Baying Rip Van Winkle.

The sight and sound of what he described as a baying Rip Van Winkle, caused John Nee, of Rowleysville, N. J., to go racing into Dover, spreading an alarm that a wild man is living in the woods near Mount Hope. Nee told Marshal Bryan that while hunting with his dog, his attention was attracted by what sounded like the baying of another hound, but proved to come from a weird human-like creature, who was scudding through the woods on all fours, his long grayish beard trailing under his body. Nee's dog started for the peculiar being, but was frightened and chased by the alleged wild man, who, according to Nee, finally galloped away into the woods.

Cubans Are Again Freed.

With the administration of the oath of office on Thursday to Jose Miguel Gomez at Havana, the new president of the Republic of Cuba, American occupation of the island of Cuba has ceased and the history of this country entered on a new era. Charles E. Magoon, who was until Thursday provisional governor of Cuba, embarked for the United States, leaving the government entirely in the hands of President Gomez and his advisers. Most of the 5000 American soldiers who have occupied the island since 1906 have been sent home, and the remainder will leave by April 1.

Mother Saw Lion Eating Her Baby.

A mountain lion crunching the lifeless and mangled body of her two-year-old boy was the sight that greeted Mrs. Chris Brown when she entered the family tent, four miles from the Hotel Delmar, at Balboa, Cal., after a short walk. The mother, in despair, rushed screaming at the beastly slayer of her child. The lion growled savagely and backed slowly out of the rear of the tent, its mouth dripping with the baby's blood, and disappeared. The lion had partly dismembered the child after slaying it. The Brown family arrived from Delaware two weeks ago.

Editor Hurt By Train.

William L. Woodson, the editor of the American Press, while trying to board a train at the Glenwood station of the New York Central railroad at Yonkers, N. Y., fell and was injured by the moving wheels. His right foot was amputated at the railroad station, and at St. John's Riverside hospital, to which he was taken, it was found that amputation of the leg below the knee was necessary.

Mr. Woodson was badly hurt about the head and sustained other injuries. He displayed wonderful fortitude, which his physicians say will materially assist him in recovering from the effects of his injuries.

TIMBER CONTRACT REJECTED

Sixteen Members of National Assembly Also Deny Participation of Any American in Alleged Timber Deal. Railroad to Be Built With National Funds and to Be National Property.

Panama, Feb. 2.—The allegations of Representative Rainey, of Illinois, against Obaldia, president of Panama, and others, have brought out denials from the president and sixteen members of the national assembly. A statement which states that they were present at a meeting in Obaldia's office where the contract for the exploitation of the timber industry along the Atlantic coast of Panama was discussed and that during the meeting neither Obaldia nor anyone else said or implied that Charles Taft, William Cromwell or Richard L. Farnham had any direct or indirect participation in the business, was signed by the assemblymen.

President Obaldia has given out this statement:

"At the meeting in my office the railway proposal was presented by a Mr. Ward and rejected. The assembly then enacted a law authorizing the construction of a railway with national funds, to become national property. Mr. Ehrman's timber contract also was rejected by the assembly."

TAFT IN CANAL CUT

Goethals Promises to Finish Work Before 1915.

Panama, Feb. 2.—Colonel Goethals has promised Mr. Taft, it was announced, that ships shall be passing through the canal on Jan. 1, 1915.

Mr. Taft, after his trip through the Culebra cut with the engineers, expressed himself as delighted with the progress that had been made. He was particularly interested in the rock-cut, 350 feet deep, through the mountain, only 95 feet remaining to be done.

Mr. Taft went the entire nine miles in a special train. He received a great ovation from the laborers during his first day in the ditch. He will go out every day during the rest of the week.

Roof of Mouth Eaten, Jaw Broken Out and Feet Affected.

Hazleton, Pa., Feb. 2.—John Walk, a young farmer living at Hobbie, is believed to be suffering from the hoof and mouth disease which recently was epidemic among the cattle of this and other states.

How or where the young man contracted the disease is not known. The roof of his mouth is badly eaten, just the same as in the case of cattle, while the jaw is also badly broken out, resembling that of an ugly rash. His feet have also become affected by the disease.

The physicians in attendance have as yet declined to make any definite statement as to whether the ailment is that which caused such havoc among live stock. Human beings are susceptible to the disease, but the cases are rare.

SHIP TURNED TURTLE

Steamer Goes Down in Storm and Forty-seven Perish.

Melbourne, Australia, Feb. 2.—The British steamer Clan Ranald is a total wreck near Edithburg, and the captain and forty-six of the crew, most of whom were Asiatics, were drowned. The vessel was drifting ashore, but sank before boats could reach her. Eighteen members of the crew, including twelve coolies, were picked up. The Clan Ranald was struck by a heavy sea and rendered unmanageable. Then, being driven ashore, she "turned turtle."

200 Killed in Burned Boats.

Canton, China, Feb. 2.—At least 200 lives were lost in a fire which occurred in a fleet of flower boats. The charred bodies of 170 victims have already been recovered, but many persons are still missing.

Tried to Sell Stolen Bonds.

A clew to the numerous postoffice robberies that have occurred in this state during the past eighteen months may result from the arrest in Philadelphia of Oliver P. Hazard, a bond broker in that city. The warrant for his arrest was sworn out in Allentown, after he had attempted to dispose of four bonds which had been stolen from the postoffice building at East Texas on Dec. 21. He claims that he secured the bonds from brokers in New York in the usual course of his business.

Dog Drags Child Off Track.

Right in the path of the Pittsfield express, at South Norwalk, Conn., little "Buster" Plunkett, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Plunkett, aged three years, who had been abandoned by his little friends, sat crying and within a few inches of death, when Irish, a large St. Bernard dog, pulled the child to safety just as the express train whizzed past. The train was stopped and a purse was made up for the boy and dog.

Guests Assembled; Wedding Stopped.

The wedding of John Slaughter and Miss Lucinda Oliver at Mount Vernon, Ill., was interrupted by the dramatic appearance of a former sweetheart of Slaughter. After she had told her story the bride-to-be ordered Slaughter out of the house, and although the guests had assembled for the ceremony the wedding was declared off.

Senate Also Makes Martyr's 100th Birthday a Holiday.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Without amendment the senate passed the house bill making Feb. 12, 1909, the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, a legal holiday and recommending its celebration throughout the United States, for which purpose the president is authorized to issue a special proclamation.

The bill also declares that as a part of a national memorial to Lincoln there may be built a highway from Washington city to the battlefield of Gettysburg, to be known as the "Lincoln Way." An appropriation of $50,000 is made for a survey of plans and estimates for such a highway.

Representative Lefean fathered the bill in the house and Senator Knox in the senate.

WEST VIRGINIA MAY GO DRY

House Passes Prohibition Measure by Vote of 62 to 13.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 2.—The prohibition amendment to the state constitution, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicants within the state, passed the house of delegates by a vote of 62 to 13. Eleven members were absent. The measure will go at once to the senate, where its fate is in doubt. If passed by the senate the amendment will not be come effective until ratified by popular vote. There is little doubt, however, of its adoption if submitted to popular vote, as already about two-thirds of the counties are without saloons.

VIOLATED MINING LAW

Foreigner Fined and Sentenced to Jail For Using Black Powder.

Pittsburg, Feb. 2.—A foreign miner was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and serve thirty days in the county jail on a charge of using black powder for blasting purposes in a coal mine. His employers asked for a conviction, but also requested the minimum sentence, which was granted.

Turquoises and the Mongols.

Turquoises are the favorite stones of all the Mongol races and are generally worn in their original state except by the Chinese women, who have them roughly cut and wear them mixed with pearls and coral. Both the Tibetan men and women ornament themselves with lump turquoises, the men wearing them attached to their single gold earrings, which are worn in the right ear only.

The women of Ladakh carry their fortunes on their heads in the shape of a broad strip of red cloth studded with huge turquoises, which, starting from the forehead, is carried over the head and hangs nearly to the waist. By the Ladakhis these turquoises are preferred that have little black specks on them, which show their genuineness, for even in the wilds of central Asia the spotless blue composition emanating from Europe is offered for sale, the bazaar at Darjeeling being flooded with it.

The Bhutia women in the Darjeeling district wear quilt brass ornaments covered with chip turquoises, which are cheap, but the Mongolians have the embossed silver plates which form such a becoming headgear studded with really fine turquoises, for which the owners have to give valuable furs in exchange.—Cornhill Magazine.

Men, Women and Bundles.

"Wrap them up separately," said the woman at the counter, "and not in one big package."

And then, still speaking to the clerk, though obviously for the benefit of others within hearing, she went on:

"It looks better to carry a lot of little bundles than one big one, and it's easier too. You can pack them in handily between one arm and the body and leave the other arm free. Now, if all these things were in one big package I would have to use both hands to it or run the risk of dropping it."

So saying she stowed her purchases deftly along her left side, keeping them in place with her arm, and departed. A man who had heard her looked incredulous and when his turn at the counter came had all his packages made into one big bundle and tied securely. As he slipped his fingers under the cord and lifted the bundle off the counter he remarked:

"This is my way. If all these things were in separate packages I'd lose half of them before going a block."—New York Sun.

Considerate Parent.

"What are you doing these days?" "I have joined the sons of rest." "How can you do it?" "By having a father who didn't."

Ample Cause.

"What on earth possessed you to become engaged to Herbert?" a young lady asked her friend. "You don't love him an atom?" "I know," was the candid reply, "but that horrid Jones girl does!"

Telepathy.

"So you believe in telepathy?" "Yes," answered Mr. Meekton. "My wife knows what I am going to think about some time before I have made my mind up on the subject myself."—Washington Star.

A Promise of Spring.

A day or two ago we received a copy of Vick's Garden and Floral Guide, the annual catalogue of one of America's oldest seed firms. This issue is full of interest to anyone who makes a garden of vegetables or flowers, likewise to the man who cultivates a large farm. It is handsomely illustrated with photo engravings direct from nature; the illustrations of Ailsa Craig Onion, "Good Luck" Pea, Golden Nugget Sweet Corn, Carmen Seedling Potato, and the famous Vick Asters, being particularly attractive. It will be greatly to our readers' advantage to write to James Vick's Sons, 143 Main St., Rochester, N. Y., and ask for a copy. It is free.

Lumber.

TO THE MAN WHO PAYS FOR BUILDING MATERIAL

The one who watches his chances and gets dollar for dollar—the unforgettable words should be "Let us estimate your entire bill." A low price and a bargain are very different things. It is your total cost that counts. And in supplying everything any one needs for his building we accomplish another result: i. e., few left-overs, and everything suits and fits its purpose. Lumber dealers themselves buy here—do you?
