Aemocratic Matchman

Bellefonte, Pa., February 26, 1909.

To ConnessionDENTS .- No communications put lished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

audience.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Court again next week.

----- There are now twenty four patient in the Bellefonte hospital.

-Ben Gentzel shipped a car load horses on Wednesday to W. C. Walters, at West Chester.

-Lent began on Wednesday and will continue for six weeks, ending with Easter on Sunday, April 18th. illumining every detail.

-The venerable John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, has been ill this week with a slight attack of typhoid fever.

J. A. Atiee, of Tyrone. are now engaged on additing the accounts of the Pruner orphaoage.

-J. Kyle McFarlane and family have decided to leave Bellefonte and the first of farce "The Booster Club from Blackville" April will move to Lock Haven to make their fatare home.

---- On Tuesday while lifting a bucket work we have ever seen. of water from a trough Miss Gertrude Swartz, of Pleasant Gap, slipped, fell and broke her left arm.

-Company B will leave Bellefonte next Tuesday evening for Washington, D. C., to take part in the inaugural day parade on Thursday. lighted the andience of Tuesday evening.

-Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer was taken to the The show was a great step in advance of Bellefonte hospital on Sunday and on Monday underwent a successful operation for the removal of a tumor. of the public.

-Mrs. Hugh N. Crider entertained yesterday afternoon, from three to five o'clook, in honor of her guest, Miss Louise Rowland, of Philipsburg.

-Joe Katz, of Lewistown, recently opened a store in Easton, Pa., and is now dividing his time between managing it and his big clothing store in Lewistown.

-Peter Ferguson and Miss Jessie | ly : Dr. W. S. Glenn, of State College; Rev. Wynn, of Pailipsburg, took a little trip to Cumberland, Md., where they were quietly Glenn, of Sparrow's Point, Md.; Dr. T. O. married on Friday, returning to Philipsburg on Sunday.

-The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. basket ball team had an easy time defeating the Threes and Sarab A. Meek, of Buffalo Run; All Collegians of Look Haven, on the local floor last Friday evening, the result being 52 to 12 in favor of the V M C A

---- Pennsylvania railroad officials who were in this section on a trip of inspection on Wednesday were entertained at dinner at the Country club that evening; going to Hecla park and returning in their own private car.

---- Augoungement has been made of In addition to th

-The ladies of the Lutheran church THE ACADEMY MINSTRELS. - The cleared seventy dollars at their country Academy boys scored an unusual success with their minstrel entertainment at Garstore held in the Brown building on Bishop street last Friday and Saturday evenings. man's, on Tuesday right. A splendid orchestra, tuneful musicial numbers, fine -F. W. Crider and W. Reynolds postuming and effective stage settings

Shope recently purchased from the Tyrone added the necessary touches to the talent Mining and Manufacturing company a of the students as artists in blackface and tract of land in Halfmoon township, this delighted a large and very fashionable county, located between Gatesburg and Stormstown, and upon which there is a The first part, or overture, revealed a quantity of timber. The price paid was setting, when the curtain rolled up, that has $3,900.

never been surpassed in an amateur entertainment here. The Academy colors, gold ---- Postmasters all over the country as and white, formed the principal stage decorations and made an especially good roads began the annual weighing of the back ground for the sixty black singers and job for one month. The weighing is done commedians in their brilliant costumes ; The orchestra in red coats and caps lending for the purpose of forming an estimate upon which to fix the price to be paid the the right dash of color to the setting and myriad electric lights over the balconies railroad companies for carrying the mails.

-The card party held in St. John's While it would be insidious to draw com parochial hall on Monday evening was narisons John J. South. W. D. Crooks and largely attended and more than the usual Robt. Elliott were so conspicuous in the interest was manifested. There were excellence of their work that we cannot twenty-three tables of players, Edmund refrain from commenting on it. As ends Hayes winning the first prize at bridge ; South and Crooks were exceedingly clever. Miss Anna Redding, of Snow Shoe, the Both have good singing voices and proved first prize in "five hundred," and Miss fun makers of the first calibre. In the Elizabeth Brouse the first prize in euchre.

Elliott showed himself to fine advantage as -----Several weeks ago Frederick Schad. a delineator of the negro character. In fact son of Dr. Edith Schad, while practicin it was one of the very best bits of amateur athletics in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, fell from a cross bar and injured his knee Under the direction of Mr. Sherwood E cap. At first it was thought the injury Hall the masicial numbers were effectively would not prove serious but it grew so had rendered. He had assembled a splendid that he was unable to straighten his leg orchestra to support his singers but only a and several days ago he was taken to the trained and very painstaking director could Bellefonte hospital for treatment. bave accomplished the results that so de-

> -Frank Dawson and Miss Carrie Cole. of Coleville, surprised their friends yesterday afternoon by going to the parsonage of the United Brethren church in this place, where they were married by the Rev. Barshinger. Frank is a very popular and estimable young man at present employed in the foundry department of J. H. Lingle Co's plant, while his bride is a daughter of young lady.

D. A. R. PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST. - The annual essay contest for the D.A.R prize which was to have taken place at the Bellefonte Academy last Friday afternoon was postponed. The contest in the High school took place on Monday afternoon and proved very interesting. The judges awarded the first prize to Robert Lannen. of Benner township, and the second prize to Bertha Deitrick, of Bellefonte, A special prize was given Henry Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, by Miss Overton, because of the general excellence of his essay.

-An illustration of how an Italian sisters are still living and all her children. can make money in this country is shown except one, who died in girlhood; a life record that probably not another family in Centre county can produce. years, left Bellefonte for his old home with about twenty intimate friends were also present to felicitate with Mrs. Glenn upon this happy occasion, which to her had a double meaning. It will be remembered shat about a month ago her house was had also been sending money home and damaged by fire to that extent that she were made and Wednesday marked the above men expect to return to the United States. -The second annual sock social to be MORE RAILBOAD TALK. -- General Manheld under the auspices of the Ladies Aid ager Atterbury and a number of other society of the Methodist church will be in officials of the Pennsylvania railroad comthe lecture room of the church next Thursday evening, March 4th, and you are all invited. In connection with the gathering Haven and as a consequence talk has been it might be added that the ladies do not revived about the double tracking of the promise to deal out socks to all who attend road during the coming summer. The but they give assurance that they will have Pennsylvania's tonnage of coal from the a program of exercises sufficiently good to bituminous regions is constantly increasgnarantee to everyone a most delightful ing, and a large part of this is now sent east over the Bald Eagle Valley railroad evening's entertainment and by the time you buy your portion of all the good things and the Philadelphia and Erie. The they will have to eat you will be in such freight traffic over the Bald Eagle is already a good humor that you won't know whether you are "socked" or "sockless." company contemplates handling even more "The Assassination of the Dake of Guise," one of the Pathe historical motion pictures, was exhibited at the Scenic on Tuesday evenning. This picture has been not be of any direct advantage to Belleregarded very true to life by all students fonte the work that it would require to do of history conversant with the reign of it would give employment to quite a num-Henry 11. It is also one of Pathe's masterpieces and when the film was put on the market only a short time ago an extra price of twenty-five dollars was charged for it. hoped that the present talk is not only idle In his management of the Scenic T. Clayrumor but will prove to be an established ton Brown always endeavors to give only the highest class pictures obtainable, and AT THE OPERA HOUSE NEXT WEEK .at all times keeps his shows up-to-date, as was shown in his giving the Italian earthquake picture last Thursday night as an extra in addition to his regular two reels of films. In fact you cannot afford to miss a night at the Scenic as there is always something new and interesting to be seen. plays as "True American Hearts," "Utah." "Cowboy Girl," "Dangerous Double," side of one of Schad's new houses now be-"Child of the Regiment "Slaves of the ing erected on north Spring street and will Orient." "For Love's Sake" and others. move there from Crider's Exchange. Chas. Among the specialists will be Mr. Keith in T. Noll has leased the other side and will vandeville ; Kenneth, the mind reader and move there from Linn street. Harry Winhandouff king ; Nelly Lyons Healy. ton will occupy his own house on Quaker comedienne : Prescott, upside down pianist; hill now occupied by Harry Rubl and Mrs. Marie Dunne, vocalist ; Una, the winsome Jane Foster will move into the house to he soubrette ; Dunne and Elliott, singing and vacated by the Wintons while Charles dancing novelties ; and Sylvia, the spec-Heverly will move into the Foster house. tacular electric dancer. Something new Will Nighthart will move from the Gammil every minute, every evening next week. Rice house out to Axe Mann and Charles Hughes and bride will go into the Rice Watch for "Yama," the great musicial house. After Will Chambers moves into comedy on Tuesday, March 9th. his new house on Cartin street the house ---- The residence of Andrew Cock on he now occupies will be occupied by Mr. Linn street, which has been closed the and Mrs. Calvin Troup, while the house she balause of the property advertised for greater part of the winter, is being opened they now occupy on Water street will be sheriff's sale as the property of Edward and put in readiness for the return of the taken by Henry Fox and family, who came parsonage in Tyrone, by the pastor, Rev. will keep them away from the United States about here from Lewistown.

BEN GREET PLAYERS TOMORROW. -This is the last opportunity we will have to tell you that if you fail to go to State College tomorrow and see the Ben Greet players either in "The Merchant of Venice" in the afternoon or "Macheth" in the evening you will miss an opportunity of seeing and hearing the portrayal of two of Shakespeare's masterpieces in such a masterful way as is rarely heard outside the theatres in large cities. The same aggregation of players who will appear in the auditorium at State College tomorrow afternoon and evening have been touring through the well as postal clerks on the various rail. western part of the State and have given complete satisfaction wherever they appear-United States mails and will continue the ed. These players are not in the medioore class but rank as artists, everyone of them. The Bellefonte Central railroad company has arranged to run special trains for the convenience of Bellefonters desiring to go to the College to see one or both of the performances. Those desiring to witness the afternoon performance can go up on a special train leaving the Bellefonte depot at 1:30 o'clock sharp. This train will be ron right through and will arrive at the College in ample time for the afternoon performance. A special train will leave here about 6:30 o'clock, returning immediately after the performance is over. The fare for the round trip will be fifty cents to all holders of tickets for the entertainment, but no others. Quite a number of Bellefonters have already secured tickets and will go up to see these famed players. If yon have not already secured your seats the chart for the Bellefonte tickets is now open at Parrish's drug store. SPECIAL TRAINS TO SEE BEN GREET

PLAYERS -- For the convenience of all those desiring to go to State College tomorrow (Saturday) for the purpose of witnessing the performance of the Ben Greet players the Bellefonte Central railroad company will run a special train, leaving here at 1.30 o'clock p. m. sharp, and arriving at the College in ample time for the afternoon performance at 3 o'clock. A second special train will leave Bellefonte at 6 30 o'clock sharp and arrive at the College in time for the evening performance at 8 o'clock. Price of tickets for the round trip will be fifty cents to all holders of tickets for the entertainment, and to them only. A special train will leave the College for Bellefonte immediately after the

NOW TALKING ICE PLANT .-- Os the morning of February 2nd when the sun shone long enough for the groundhog to prophets said the first two or three weeks thereafter would be marked by cold winter weather while the latter half of his hogship's allowance would be mild. More evening performance.

than three weeks have elapsed and in that in the fact that the first week in February time we have not had four days of cold though he is well past his three score years and a native of that country, who had been weather. In fact it has been very mild ten, is still quite hale and hearly and gets around with the sprightlines of a man of half his age. working hereabounts the past ten or twelve most of the time with more than the usual quantity of rain. Now if the ensuing three four thousand dollars in cash ; and just weeks will be still warmer we'd better last week another Italian left for his native begin to look up our linen duster and land with sixteen thousand dollars. The panama hat. But then you can't always latter during his stay in the United States go by the groundhog any more than you can by any other kind of hog, and we may already owns a farm in that country. It is yet have a severe spell of winter weather. hardly necessary to say that neither of the | Be that as it may, however, there is considerable alarm among the people of Bellefonte over the fact that they have not yet had the opportunity to fill their ice houses and fear lest they will not be able to do so. And this has again revived talk among a number of business people as to whether or not it would be a good proposition to build an ice plant here for the manufacture of artificial ice. With the abundance of pure spring water in this neighborhood ice of the very best quality could be manufactured, and that at a cost about equal to the harvesting of the natural product. HEPS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS .- At a regular meeting of the Bellefonte Lodge of they arrived home one by one until the entire Heptasophs, held in their hall in the Undine building, last Friday evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing year : Past archon. Thomas Beaver; archon, Robert Woodring; provost, P. H. Gherrity; prelate, W. A. Ishler; secretary, H. D. Gebret; financier, F. E. Naginey; treasurer, Charles F. Cook; inspector, E. C. Cooke; warder, J. I. Mo-Clure; sentinel, L. H. Wian; auditors, J. I. McClure, W. A. Ishler and P. H. Gherrity; trustees, W. A. Ishler, J. C. Johnson and Conrad Miller. Following the installation the members partook of an oyster supper at Summers' restaurant. VANPELT-HARRIS.-John Lorenz Van-Pelt. of Barnesboro, and Miss Jane Miller Harris, daughter of Mrs. Rachel Harris, of this place, were married at the Fort Pitt hotel, Pittsburg, last Saturday evening. nev home. The wedding was an exceptionally quiet one on account of the recent death of the bride's sister, Miss Anna Harris, and was witnessed only by members of the bride's family. Mr. and Mrs. VapPelt have been spending their honeymoon this week as embers of the party accompanying Joseph Harris in his private car on an inspection trip over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. LIVINGSTON-RISHEL.-Charles C. Livngstone, of Williamsport, and Miss Iva May Rishel, of this place, were quietly married at the parsonage of the United Brethren church on Saturday evening. Rev. D. Barshinger, the pastor, performed the ceremony and the attendants were Robert Thomas and Miss Mary Miller. They will make this place their future home.

News Parely Personal

-'Squire Walter G. Tallhelm, of Julian, tran ted bu-iness in Bellefonte Monday. -Prof. J. Angell, the eye specialist of Wil ort, was a Bel or on Monday. -Lloyd M. Rerick, of Niagara Falls, son of th ate L. C Rerick, was a caller Tuesday.

-Scott Graham went to Philadelphia on Satur lay on the look for a job, and if successful will re main there.

-Mrs. D. W. Reynolds, of Reedsville, spen Sunday as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney K. Hicklen, of this place.

-Mr. J. F. Krumrine, of State College, was WATCHMAN office caller on Saturday Bellefonte on a business trip.

-Mrs. F. D. Ray, of New York city, has this reek been the guest of her son, landford H. S. Ray, at the Brockerhoff house.

-Ex-county commissioner C. A. Weaver was in Bellefoate on Monday arranging to start out on his rounds as mercantile appraiser.

-Miss Emma Aiken left last Friday for Boston there she spent a few days and returning will be in New York a short time before coming home. -Miss Anna C. Williams, the versatile editor of he Philipsburg Ledger, was in Bellefonte on Monday attending the funeral of Miss Sarah Hager man.

-Mrs. Jane Marshall, of DuBois, was an arri val in Bellefonte on Saturday on her way to Lemont to attend the funeral of her brother, the late Jacob Klinger, of Lemont.

-Mr and Mrs Blair Varnell of Snow She were in over Sunday to see Mrs. Varaell's mother, Mrs. William McClellan, who has been quite ill at her home on Lamb street.

-Mr. and Mrs. Boyd A. Musser and little son ame down from Altoons on Saturday and spent Sunday with Mr. Musser's parenis, Mr. and Mrs. William Musser, on east Lamb street

-Raymond M. Acheson, of Niagara Falls, came to Beliefonte on Saturday and spent Sunday with his wife at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughensey, on Howard street.

-Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth and Charles E. Jr left on Sunday for Harrisburg to spend a short time with Mr. Dorworth, who is now locatnd there as the legislative cerrespondent of the Philadelphia Pres

-Mrs. Frank C. Montgomery and her sister. Miss Hassel, left on Monday for Philadelphia where Mr. Montgomery is staying for the benefit of his health. Their home on Linn street has been closed for the present.

-J Harvey McClure, who had been in the e ploy of the Eyer-Shoemaker Construction con pany at Empire, has been in Bellefonte the past week or so visiting his parents and with mother spent several days with friends in Lock Haven.

-Edmund Blanchard Esq., was down in Phila delphia the past week and was a guest at the assembly given at the Bellevue-Stratford ; and on Saturday night gave a theatre party for his cousin, Miss Marguerite P. Wood, a daughter of Rev. Charles Wood, at which there were fourteer guests.

-George W. Loner, of Stormstown, the man who has been constable up there so long that he is almost entitled to hold the office for life, was in see his shadow and the afternoon of that Bellefonte on Monday making his usual returns. day was cloudy the groundbog weather to court as an excuse to attend and partake of the excellent turkey dinner served by Gregg Post in their rooms in the Harris block.

-Two of Ferguson township's repr citizens, in the persons of Mr. Daniel Dreiblebis and his son, Martin Dreiblebis, were Bellefonte visitors on Monday. Mr. Dreiblebis senior, al--Just when they had abo rangements to go to Carlisle to attend the wedding of Mrs Stein's niec + Rev. and Mrs. James B. Stein received a telegram on Monday morning announcing the very serious illness of the latter's father, Mr. Shearer. The result was that Mrs. Stein left the same day for Carlisle and the reverend followed on Tuesday morning.

-William P. Humes went to Philadelphia or Monday afternoon on a business trip

-Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider left on Tuesday for six week's sojourn at the Hot Springs, Ar

-Mrs. Kennedy, of Punxsutawney, has been the guest of Mrs. J. C. Rowe, on Curtin

-Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Harris spent Sunday with the family of John P. Harris Jr

-Miss Simpson, who has been the guest of Mrs. Paul Sheffer, returned to her home in last week.

-Judge James A. Beaver is in Williamspor this week attending the regular sitting of the perior court.

> -Mrs. H. A. McKee and daughter Mary, of Wilkinsburg, are guests at the E. Y. Stitzer | on High street.

-Miss Anna Redding, of Snow Shoe, was a vis itor this week at the home of the Misses Curry on Logan street.

-George W. Fisher, one of Halfmoon township's enterprising farmers, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

-Rev. J. Allison Platts went to Pittsburg on Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Brenne nan, wife of Rev. Brenneman

-Miss Edna Meyer, while visiting with her ather in Harrisburg, was a guest at Governor Stuart's reception Tuesday night.

-Mr. and Mrs. Upton H. Reamer will leave shortly for a visit in Alabama, expecting to be for a time with relatives of Mrs. Ream

-Mrs. C. U Hoffer and son John, of Philipsourg, were over Sunday guests of the forme father, Mr. C. T. Gerberich, in this place.

-Mrs. Nancy Proudfoot, of Milesburg, visited her daughter, Mrs. Edward Klinger and family on Penn street, in the fore part of the week.

-Mrs. C. F. York, of Detroit, Michigan, was in Bellefonte the greater part of last week, with her mother, Mrs. Emanuel Noll, who has been quite ill.

-Henry S. Linn has been speding the week in Philadelphia where he went to attend the annual banquet of the Sons of Cincinnati at the Bellevue-Stratford.

-Mrs. John I. Olewine contemplates leaving Bellefonte week after next to join her husband in Ashville, North Carolina

-Mrs. George Green, of Lock Haven, and Miss Anna Blanchard, of Chicago, were in Bellefonte the early part of the week having come for the funeral of Miss Hagerman.

-Mrs. David Dale has been in Lemont several days this week assisting Mrs. Matilda A. Dale ge her household goods in shape to vacate her old nome and move to Bellefonte.

-Ex-Prothonotary William F. Smith, formerly Millheim but who now is running a gents fur aishing store at State College, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

-Mrs. W. A. Lyon returned home from Punxsu tawney last Saturday evening, teeling assured that her newest grandson would grow to be as sturdy a chap as his elder brother Jack

-Ex-Commissioner G. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, served as a juror this week. He was accom panied by Mrs. Goodeart, who spent the week with her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Geiss, on Thomas treet

-Morgan Moore, son of W. A. Moore, president of the Nittany Iron company and Bellefonte Furnace company, was in Bellefonte over Sunday with his parents. He is now located at Buffalo N. Y., and is in the employ of Rogers, Brown &

--Instead of returning to his home in Sunbury upon the adjournment of court on Wednesday ourt reporter Gilbert S. Burrows remained in Bellefonte and today will go to State College to spend tomorrow and Sunday with his daughter who is a student there. He will also take in the Ben Greet players tomorrow able family reunions ever held in Centre connty was that at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Glenn, at State College, on Wednesday. It was in honor of the celebration of that lady's birthday anniversary and there were present her five children, name-George M. Glenn, of Sanbary; D. L. Glenn, of Bradford, and Renben M. Glenn, of Indian Territory; as well as her three brothers and two sisters, as follows: Misses P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte; D. L. Meek, of Waddle, and L. Olin Meek, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Glenn is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Meek and the remarkable fact in connection with this family reunion is that all her brothers and

last year's undertaking and we are sure that it more than fulfilled the expectations A PLEASANT REUNION .- Que of the most pleasant and probably most remark-Jacob Cole and quite an accomplished the marriage of Allen Sheldon, of Philadelphia, son of Mrs. Nora Sheldon, of this place, to Miss Shaw, of the Qaaker city, The wedding was celebrated on Saturday, February 6th.

-After their strengons time in getting away last Thursday morning the mem- was compelled to vacate it until repairs bers of the Freshmen class of The Pennsyl-State College were allowed to hold their reopening of her house as well as the celebration of her birthday. annual bauquet in peace at the Park hotel. Williamsport, that evening.

-The store room in the Gardner propcrty on High street has been completed and yesterday Mr. Gaidner turned the pany recently made a trip over the Bald key over to ex-sheriff Henry Kline, who Eagle Valley railroad from Tyrone to Look will have his new shoe store there open and ready for business on March 15th.

-Free mail delivery will not be established at State College on March first, as was recently ordered by the postoffice department, because the appropriation for free mail delivery has been exhausted. The service will probably be started July first.

-The Bellefonte High school basket quite heavy and the fact that the railroad ball team will play the State College High school team in the local Y. M. C. A. gym- of their coal business over this road is givnasium this (Friday) evening. Price of en as almost a sure reason why they will admission, only 25 cents, and everybody is be compelled to double track it. While the invited to go and see what promises to be a double tracking of the Bald Eagle might good game, as the teams are well matched.

-The turkey dinner given by the members of Gregg Post in their rooms in the Harris blook, on Monday, was unusual. ber of men and naturally would put a cerly well patronized ; in fact they were sold tain additional amount of money in circuentirely out of turkey and other estables lation in this community. Therefore it is and late goers were compelled to go else. where for their dinner. They cleared about fact. forty dollars.

-You can take our word for it that the Ben Greet players who will appear at The Howell Keith Stock company will be State College tomorrow are no Jerome K. at the opera house all of next week, Jerome aggregation, and are not traveling | March 1st to 6th, with a Saturday afteron their name but upon their reputation. noon matinee. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. You will get full return for every cent of Ladies tickets Monday night. The repmoney spent to hear them, so you need ertoire of this company includes such not be afraid to go.

-The home of Amos Garbrick, at Coleville, was the scene of considerable gayety on Tuesday evening, the occasion being a pie party given in honor of Mr. Garbrick's grand-daughter, Miss Cora Garbrick. About twenty-five guests and a dozen or more different kinds of pies were present and the former spent a very pleasant evening getting on the outside of the latter.

---- On Monday J. Thomas Mitchell at sheriff's sale purchased the Brown property for the small sum of 10, 20 and 30 cents. on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets and four single and one double dwelling houses; Gast Armor, of Axe Mann, bought the double brick residence on Bishop street, and Samuel D. Gettig purchased family. Brown Jr.

THOMPSON - TAYLOR. - Warner B. Thompson, of this place, and Miss Eva Taylor, of Curwensville, were quietly married on Saturday evening at the A. M. E. H. G. Thomas.

-Mrs. A. J. Barchfield and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Sterling, of Pittsburg ; Mrs. McCandless, of Butler; Mr. and Mrs. Hull, of Hollidaysburg : Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn of Al toona ; Mrs. B. C. Keefer, of Williamsport ; Miss Zoe Lines and Miss Muriel Hayes, of Luthersburg. all of whom have relatives and friends attending the Bellefonte Academy, were here over Tuesday night for the Academy minstrels.

-Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Miller and little aughter, of Tyrone, were WATCHMAN office callers on Monday, and very pleasant ones, at that. They were just on their way home from a family sathering at the home of Mr. Miller's parents. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Miller, of Axe Mann. the occasion being a surprise party on Sunday in celebration of Mrs. Miller's birthday. And of course it was very much of a surprise as the gathering had been arranged entirely by her children and she knew nothing about it until amily were there. It was a very pleasant day for both parents and children, and especially the mother who was overjoyed in her apprecistion of the kind thoughtfalness of her sons and daughters in thus remembering her.

-Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kern, of Duluth, Minu., were arrivals in Bellefonte on Tuesday of a visit to Mr. Kern's brothers, Milton and Frank. Mr. Kern went west when a young man and first settled in Illinois, later going to Duluth and starting a laundry. After being there a few years he got into politics and was elected a member of the sity council, after which he sold his laundry and went into the real estate and contracting but ness-the latter mostly work for the city. It is twelve years since he has been back east to see his relatives and this is the first time Mrs. Kern has been east in her life. They are now on their way back from quite an extended trip which included New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other points of interest and, after visiting friends here and at Millheim for a week will go to Cin-cinnati and spend a week or two with Mr. Kern's rother and sister before continuing their jour-

-Lieut, James G. Taylor, who had been at his home here on a month's fur lough, left on Sunday afternoon to rejoin his regiment, the Seventh United States infantry, at Detroit, Mich. His regiment has been detailed for the Philippine service and they will leave Detroit April 23rd and go by rail to San Francisco, from where they will sail on May 4th for Manilla. Lieutenant Taylor will take with him his nephew, Frank Taylor the nine year old son of Col. Hugh S. Taylor, and both will be accompanied as far as San Francisco by the Colonel himself. In order to take the boy along Lieut. Taylor will have to formally adop him and then he will be entitled to all the rights and privileges of the one hundred or more other children belonging to the officers and men of the regiment who will be taken along. In the Philippines they will be under government protection nd will attend the government schools, which are free, and in which are taught not only the same rudimentary branches taught in the public schools here, but several languages, principally spanish; and it is for the acqu Col. Taylor consents to permitting his young son to go. The boy, by the way, who has all his father's ardor for a soldier's life is full of enthusiasm over the trip and anxious for the time to come knowledge as well as military life in general that two and a half years.

-Dr. Thos. C. Van Tries expects to give his re ital before the Brotherhood in the First Presby, terian church of Altoona, on Friday evening, February 26th. From Altoona he will go to Berwyn, Pa., to visit his son, Rev. Wm. P. Van Tries. They both expect to attend the inauguration of President Taft, at Washington, next week. Dr. Van Tries will then go south from Washington and expects to visit St. Augustine and Palm Beach, Florida, as well as other points in the south before returning home.

Sale Register.

MARCH 17th.-W. H. Piper will sell on his farm, three miles north of Clintondale, Clinton coun-ty. 10 horses, 14 cows, 6 head fat cattle-stock bulls, young cattle, sheep, hogs and farm im-plements, making one of the largest sales of the season, beginning at 9 a. m.

MARCH 1sth-Thursday, The Noll Bros. will of-fer at public sale at Pleasant Gap, 3 work horses, a team of fine mules, 15 head of cattle, 29 sheep and a full line of farm implements, all in good condilion. Sale at 10:30 a. m. A. C. McClintick, auctioneer.

FERRUARY 26th-At the residence of D. W. Burkert, on the Woodcock farm on the moun-tain, west of Bellefonte: Horses, cattle and farm implements of all kinds. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m. William Ishler, auctioneer.

Bellefonte Produce Markets

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, grocer.
The prices quoted are those paid for produce.
btatoes per bushel,
Bellefonte Grain Market.
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,
The following are the quotations up to sil clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes ess:
ed Wheat$1.10 hite and Mixed Wheat

White and Mixed Wheat	1.00
kye, per bushel	70
orn, shelled, per bushel	65
lorn, ears, per bushel	65
Dats old and new, per bushel	80
Barley, per bushel	60
Buckwheat, per bushel	60
loverseed, per bushel	69 00
rimothy seed per bushel$2.00 to	80 0

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday

Wnest-Red	1.17@1.17}
Corn -Yellow	1.15/61.155
-Mixed new	691/(0.7)
Oats	58(g.59) 3.90(g.4.2
-Favorite Brands	6.10@6.2
Rye Flour PerBr'l Baled hay-Choice Timot No. 1	4.10@4.1
" " Mixed "1	8.00@15.0 11.00@12.0
Straw	8,50@20.5

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at 31.00 per annum (if pald strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

SPACE OCCUPIED	3m	6m	1 1 9
One inch (12 lines this type Two inches. Juarter Column (5 inches)	$ 5 7 10 12	$ 8 10 15 20	$ 10 15 25 35

Half Column (10 inches) One Column (20 inches)