

When Placed in Custody the Woman Said: "I Planned the Whole Thing, and There Will Be Hell in Sharon."

Police Confident They Have the Right Parties.

Cleveland, O., March 24.—In the arrest here of a man and woman having $9790 in their possession the police believe they have captured the kidnapers of Willie Whitta. In fact the woman in the case, who is somewhat befuddled, admitted that she had been responsible for the kidnapping. When placed in custody at the central police station, she said to Captain Shattuck: "I am the one who planned the whole thing. There will be trouble for me and hell in Sharon."

Beneath the woman's skirt was found $9790. All of it but $40 was bound in packages, with the original slips placed on the money when Whitta took it from the bank still around it.

Captain Norman Shattuck and Detective Frank Wood made the arrests in the east end of the city. When near the police station the man broke away from Detective Wood and ran towards an alley. The police official fired two shots from his revolver into the air and the man stopped. The woman made no attempt to escape.

The woman appears to be well educated and is refined in manner. She says she spent fifteen years of her life in a convent in Pennsylvania, but denies that she has ever been in trouble before. Both the man and the woman deny that they know the name of each other. They admit they are not man and wife. According to the police they were intoxicated when placed in custody. Due to their condition they were not questioned closely by the police and were locked in separate cells. Captain Shattuck is said to have secured his description of the kidnapers from Willie Whitta, and this description led to the arrest.

Willie told Captain Shattuck that the woman who kept him a prisoner had smallpox scars on her face. The woman in custody has such spots on her cheeks and appears to have had smallpox. She is a tall blonde, probably twenty-five years old. She was dressed in a black silk skirt, a gray coat and black hat. The man is dark and smooth-faced.

Detectives heard that a man and woman answering the description of the kidnapers had been seen on the outskirts of the city. They came down town and bought numerous articles of clothing, tendering $5 and $10 bills in payment. It was learned. Later a report came that the people had left a package in a downtown store, which proved to consist of discarded clothing.

Captain Shattuck and Detective Ward trailed the man and woman around the business district of the city for several hours, but delayed taking them into custody. When the police learned that the two had gone to the east end of the city they walked up behind the pair, and Captain Shattuck took the woman by the arm, while Detective Wood secured the man. The couple staggered, say the police, as if they were intoxicated. They made no protest against accompanying the officers. The man was downcast and would not talk. The woman chatted with the policeman at her side at first and asked to be released.

It was then she admitted having planned the kidnapping. In the meantime the man attempted to escape and the revolver shots of Captain Shattuck brought him to a standstill.

Believe Woman Is From Sharon.

Sharon, Pa., March 24.—All Sharon people are deeply interested in the arrests at Cleveland, and suspicion began to center at once upon a woman well known here. It is believed by many persons here that the woman arrested on suspicion of having been implicated in the Whitta abduction case is from Sharon. The woman suspected has not been living with her husband for some time. If she is the woman on whom suspicion has centered here, her quiet assertion that "There will be hell in Sharon" was well founded, for her arrest would cause a great sensation.

The Whole Town Turned Out to Welcome Him.

Sharon, Pa., March 24.—The whole borough of Sharon turned out and participated in the demonstration over the home coming of Willie Whitta, who with his father, is now home. A big parade was led by the Buhl Independent Rifles, a National Guard company and the Buhl Rifles band, both named for Willie's uncle, and thousands of persons marched behind them through the principal streets of the town to the Whitta home, where fully 5000 persons assembled on the lawn and in front of the house, cheering and giving every evidence of the public participation in the family joy over the recovery of the little wanderer.

The band took a position on the front porch of the Whitta home and played several selections, while the whole crowd cheered frantically. In a front room, visible through a window, were the Whitta family, Willie beside Detective Ward, his father and mother behind the boy.

When calls were made for a speech, Mr. Whitta appeared on the porch, accompanied by Rev. Albert Joseph McCartney, of the First Presbyterian church, who spoke briefly, expressing the joy of all the Whitta neighbors and fellow citizens over the recovery of the boy.

Mr. Whitta then addressed the throng. He extended his thanks to all the officials and individuals who had assisted him in the search for the boy and expressed the gratitude of himself and family for the sympathy of the people, which he said had done so much to help the family bear up during the darkest hours of their sorrow. He suggested that children be taught by their parents to fear strangers and to make an outcry whenever a stranger should attempt to induce children to accompany him.

Crowd Sees Former President Off at Hoboken Pier — Youngster's Good Wishes Bring Smile to His Face. The Hamburg, Carrying Him to Europe, and the Admiral, on Which He Will Sail For Africa, Among the Finest Vessels Afloat.

New York, March 23.—Out on the "bosom of the ocean," as the writers have it, is Theodore Roosevelt with his party of lion hunters. They are aboard the Hamburg-American line steamer Hamburg, which cast off her lines from her Hoboken pier on Monday, and to the music of the whistles of numerous ferries, tugs and other vessels sailed down the bay with her distinguished passenger.

Accompanying Mr. Roosevelt—Colonel Roosevelt, as some wise reporters addressed him on the pier—are his son, Kermit Roosevelt; Major Edgar A. Mearns, medical corps, U. S. A.; retired; Edmund Heiler and J. Alden Loring. The last named three men accompany Mr. Roosevelt as representatives of the Smithsonian institution, while the younger Roosevelt is official photographer of the expedition.

The long pier to which the steamer Hamburg was moored was jammed with persons gathered to see the Roosevelt party sail. They made the pier ring with their cheers for the voyager from the time of his arrival from New York city until the Hamburg sailed. He was mightily pleased with the reception and showed his gratification by his smiles and the frequency with which he lifted his hat in response to greetings. To a request for a formal statement of his plans Mr. Roosevelt returned a smiling denial. "It has all been printed over and over again," he said, "and I have nothing to say."

Among the most enthusiastic of the cheering crowd when the Hamburg moved slowly away from her pier was a small boy, who had crowded to the very limit permitted by the authorities of the steamship line. His last cry, "Goodby, Teddy; take care of yourself!" brought a smile even to the face of the ex-president, who seemed then a little tired of smiling.

Two Fine Ships Carry Party.

The Hamburg is due at Naples on April 3. Mr. Roosevelt and his party will remain in the Italian city two days, sailing thence on the Admiral of the German East African line on April 5. The Hamburg is one of the finest vessels of the Hamburg-American line and is the favorite ship of the German emperor. The Admiral is her equal in all the comforts and conveniences needed for the hot trip through the Suez canal, down the Red sea and along the moist and sticky coast of East Africa. The Admiral is due at Mombasa, where the Roosevelt party will disembark, on April 22.

On his arrival at Mombasa Mr. Roosevelt and his party will go direct to the estate of Sir Alfred Pease, a member of the well-known English Quaker family, which is situated at Kilima Theki, Kapitai plains, British East African Protectorate, and remain there for three months during the heavy rains.

It is expected that the Roosevelt expedition will complete its trip through the dark continent in the spring of next year, reaching Cairo about April 1, 1910.

Tanks Burst, Flood City, Kill Two.

Two lives were lost, five persons seriously injured and a property loss estimated at $225,000 was caused when the two iron tanks on Prospect Hill, holding Parkersburg's, W. Va., entire water supply of 2,000,000 gallons collapsed. Thirty residences were partially demolished as the torrent rushed down the steep hillside 200 feet high. St. John's Lutheran church, recently completed at a cost of $15,000, was completely demolished.

Killed Self Because Teacher Scolded.

Despondent because his teacher had scolded him for drawing in school hours, Attello Gallegano, aged fourteen, committed suicide in Philadelphia by taking sulphate of strychnine. The police reported to the coroner that the boy had taken his life because of unrequited love, but his family say that worry caused by the teacher's reprimand was responsible.

Will Close Alabama Iron Plant.

It has been reported in New York city that the Tennessee Coal & Iron company plant of the United States Steel corporation, at Ensley, Ala., will be closed next week for an indefinite time, owing to stagnation in the iron and steel trade. The plant employs over 10,000 men.

Has Worked Up and Down From Elbow to Wrist Seven Years.

Hazleton, Pa., March 23.—A piece of steel that entered the arm of Henry Moss, of Berwick, in 1902, while he was at work, has not been removed, and he can feel it work up and down the limb from the elbow to the wrist. It does not cause him any pain, and as long as no serious results are likely to occur from the injury he will undergo no operation.

Cambria Steel Company Cuts Wages.

The Cambria Steel company, at Johnstown, Pa., which when in full activity employs 18,000 men, announced a 10 per cent reduction in wages, to take effect April 1.

Night Riders Resume Destruction.

Night riders have resumed their lawlessness in Christian and Caldwell counties, Ky. Plant beds of four independent farmers near Hopkinsville were destroyed.

Frenzied Man Seized Pistol and Tried to Turn it on His Wife, When Chaloner Grabbed it, and in the Scuffle it Was Discharged, the Bullet Entering Gillard's Head.

John Armstrong Chaloner, former husband of Amelia Rives, the authoress, engaged in a scuffle for possession of his revolver with John Gillard, an Englishman, at his country home, "Merry Mills," at Cobham, Va., during which the revolver was discharged and Gillard was killed. Chaloner was fully exonerated of all blame by a coroner's jury which investigated the case.

Gillard came to Virginia about two years ago from Australia, and was living within three miles of "Merry Mills." His wife sought Chaloner's protection from her husband who, it is alleged, had beaten her and had threatened her life.

Mrs. Gillard had arrived at "Merry Mills" in advance of her husband, and with her children was waiting in the diningroom to tell her story, when her husband entered and assaulted her. It is alleged, with a pair of heavy tongs. At this point Chaloner and Eric G. Money, who was with him, entered the room and interfered. A scuffle between Chaloner and the Englishman ensued, and the former drew his pistol to restrain the frenzied man. Gillard seized the pistol, it is said, and tried to turn it on his wife. Chaloner grabbed it and in the scuffle the pistol was discharged, the bullet entering Gillard's temple. A magistrate was at once summoned and made acquainted with the facts. He held an inquest, at which the widow told the story of her husband's alleged brutal treatment.

Steel Profits Drop Sharply.

The annual report of the United States Steel corporation, just made public, showed that for the year ending Dec. 31, 1908, gross earnings were $482,307,840, a decrease of $274,706,927 from the preceding year. The net earnings of the corporations were $91,847,711, a decrease of $69,116,963 from the year of 1907.

The report further shows that $16,965,181 was appropriated for depreciation, replacement and extinguishment of funds, together with sinking funds on bonds of subsidiary companies, which is a decrease of $10,754,563 from 1907. The interest on bonds outstanding and sinking funds of the corporation was $29,247,851, an increase of $1,259,021 over the previous year.

The report shows that nothing was set aside during the year for additional construction, against $54,000,000 in 1907. The surplus for the year after payment of interest charges, dividends, appropriations and all other charges was $10,342,986, a decrease of $4,836,851 from 1907.

Reports in Wall street have it that within a few days the Steel corporation will order a reduction of 15 or 20 per cent in the wages of its employees, to go into effect on April 15.

Plunged to Death to Escape Sentry.

Chief Machinist's Mate John Cuminsky, of the United States ship Panther, met his death at the League Island navy yard, Philadelphia, while he was endeavoring to keep from being reported for getting in late. In his efforts to avoid a sentry he plunged headlong down an old dry dock thirty-two feet deep. The dead man was a native of Titusville, Pa., and was thirty-three years old. He had gone around the world with the fleet without a mark against his record and in a few months would have become a chief machinist. He had overstayed his leave and when he returned to the navy yard a sentry challenged him, and in his eagerness to escape detection he made the fatal leap in the darkness.

Catsup Dumped into the Sea.

The waters of Narragansett bay, at Providence, R. I., were well seamed with timato catsup, when 650 cases, containing 15,600 bottles, were dumped into the sea because they did not meet the requirements of the federal pure food law. The catsup was intercepted here while in transit from Baltimore to Boston last September. Judge Arthur Brown, of the United States district court, ruled that it should be confiscated, inasmuch as the manufacturers had not labelled the bottles in accordance with the pure food law.

Coopers Get Twenty Years.

After filing a bond totalling nearly $1,500,000, Colonel D. B. Cooper and his son, Robin J. Cooper, convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary for the killing of former United States Senator Edward W. Carmack, at Nashville, Tenn., some months ago, retired to the home of Judge J. B. Bradford and discussed the next move in the case. They were released on bail pending a motion for a new trial. John D. Sharp, who was also on trial, was acquitted.

Crushed to Death by Huge Python.

Miguel Espinosa, a plantation owner near Coahuacalco, Mex., where he was inspecting some lands, met a horrible death in the embrace of a huge snake. Coming suddenly upon an immense python, which the rancher did not see, his horse stopped suddenly and threw Espinosa over his head. The unfortunate man, who was galloping at the head of the party, fell into the coils of the immense serpent and was crushed to death before Pancho Ortiz, the next man in the party, could come up and shoot the snake. The python was 15 feet 7 inches in length.

New Cure For Liquor Habit.

"If you have a strong appetite for King Alcohol and tobacco and want to be cured of the habit just eat a vegetable diet for six months." This was the advice given by Dr. D. H.

Kress, of Washington, in an address entitled "Dyspepsia and Its Relation to Inebriety," before the American Society for the Study of Alcohol and Other Drug Narcotics. He discussed the evil effects of an excessive diet and declared that overeating leads to drunkenness. "If you would not become a drunkard," said Dr. Kress, "then quit eating meat."

Diseased Milk Kills Two Children.

From drinking the milk of a diseased cow, Mabel Baxter, aged eleven years, and her sister Edith, aged nine years, are dead at Ghent, O., and Clarke, aged eight, and May, aged five years, brother and sister, are said to be dying. Beecher Baxter and wife, father and mother, are also in a critical condition, but they will probably recover. A sample of the milk, analyzed by Akron physicians, show an infection, the nature of which has not been made public.

Must go to Death Chair.

Albany, N. Y., March 23.—Governor Hughes denied executive clemency to Mrs. Mary Farmer, under sentence of death at Auburn prison for the murder of Sarah Brennan at Brownsville, near Watertown, April, 1908. In concluding his statement the governor says:

"I find no ground on which I could justify granting clemency, and therefore, deny the application.

Mrs. Mary Farmer will be the second woman to be put to death by electricity, the other being Mrs. Place, whom the then Governor Roosevelt refused to pardon. Mrs. Farmer's crime was the killing of Sarah Brennan in their home in the little town of Hoosier, field. The object, it was alleged, was to secure possession of the home owned by Mrs. Brennan and her husband.
