BURNED TO DEATH.—On Monday of last week while Mrs. J. J. Glasgow, living on a farm near Alexandria, in Huntingdon county, was doing the family washing she stepped too near the fire under the wash kettle with the result that her clothing caught fire. In less than a minute she was enveloped in flames and her husband seeing her plight told her to jump into the river. She did so but by that time the clothing was practically burned from her body and she had inhaled both flame and smoke. Her husband ran to her rescue as fast as possible and pulling her out of the river carried her to the house. Her injuries were so bad, however, that she died last Thursday.

She was a daughter of Constance Turner and was born at Curtin, this county, almost forty-one years ago. After her marriage to Mr. Glasgow the family lived in Bald Eagle valley until six years ago when they moved to Huntingdon county. She is survived by her husband and nine children, the eldest seventeen years and the youngest three months. On Saturday the remains were brought to Centre county and taken to the home of Elmer Bryon, at Curtin, from where the funeral was held on Sunday.

On Tuesday Mr. Glasgow came to Bellefonte with the youngest child and placed it in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bathurst, of Beaver street, who will give it proper care and protection.

COLLEGE STUDENTS TO FARM IN CANADA.—H. H. Haverstick, the well known State College baseball pitcher; his brother, Charles Haverstick, of Susquehanna University; Charles Kauffman, of Lancaster, a classmate of the elder Haverstick in the engineering department at State College, and William Cressy, a son of W. S. Cressy, of Catawissa, left on Saturday for Alberta province in the extreme northwest of Canada, where they will engage in farming. During the past year Haverstick, or "Sticks" as he is known among his college chums, has been head foot ball and basket ball coach at Susquehanna University, where Cressy and the younger Haverstick were students, and it was there the matter of going to the northwest was thoroughly discussed and decided upon. Each young man will take up a quarter section of land between the towns of Calgary and Edmonton. They will be twenty miles from a railroad but in the famous wheat growing belt of that country. Naturally their quarters will be strictly bachelor, hence somewhat lonely, but the young men are going with the determination to stay, grow up with the country and eventually, if fortune favors them, become the leading influential citizens of that section.

TWO SNOW STORIES.—Ex county treasurer James J. Gramley, of Rebersburg, was a Bellefonte visitor last Saturday and told the remarkable story that on Wednesday night and Thursday of last week, when it rained in Bellefonte, it snowed in Brush valley and between the amount of snow which fell and the high wind the roads were drifted so as to be impassable for twenty-four hours. And that on the 25th of March.

The above story is about equalled by one told by Harry Robb, who came home from Phillipsburg on Saturday to spend a few days with friends here. He said the rain storm which passed over Centre county Saturday morning was a blinding snow storm on the Allegheny mountains where, he declared, the snow flakes were as big as silver dollars; and that was on the 27th of March.

STATE GRANGE AT STATE COLLEGE.—The executive committee of the State Grange, composed of master William T. Cressy, of Columbia county; I. F. Chandler, of Chester county; C. F. Dildine, of Columbia county, and William Armstrong, of Luzerne county, met at State College last Saturday to arrange for the holding of the next annual meeting of the grange there next December. This is in accordance with a request of a delegation of the college faculty made at the last annual meeting of the Grange in Altoona. It was decided to hold the meetings in the new auditorium December 21st to 24th inclusive. Farmer's Week exercises will be held at the same time so that the gathering will be of double interest to all those who attend.

A RACE FOR A WIDOW.—"A Race for a Widow," which will appear at Garman's this (Friday) evening is a clever piece put on by a clever company. The story of the play hinges around the efforts of a fairly honest gentleman in keeping secret the fact that he has carried on a flirtation with an American widow. There is the ever-present mother-in-law, a number of other relatives and a real "Cholly boy." It is a well balanced attraction. The members of the company are exceedingly well costumed, the scenery is good, and the whole production is of a quiet, refined nature without the necessity of resorting to the usual clap-trap of men in cow's clothing, or similar devices to produce a laugh.

INTERESTING ATHLETIC EVENTS.—Clyde Blackford has arranged for the holding of an interesting athletic tourney in the armory next Wednesday evening, April 9th. In addition to various athletic events there will be two six round boxing bouts between Willie McCoy, of Philadelphia, and Kid Snyder, of Jersey Shore; and Shorty Rixner, of Williamsport, and Book Gilbert, of Snaburg. As a preliminary the Taylor Bantam Kids, of this place, will give an exhibition of their skill as boxers. The affair will be under the direction of the Williamsport Athletic club. Price of admission, $1.00; reserved seats, $1.50.

—Seblers is the place to get your garden seeds in packages or by measure.

—The Women's Guild of the Episcopal church will hold an exchange in Shaffer's grocery store on Saturday, April 10th. Remember, it will be the day before Easter.

—Tony McCallister was brought to Bellefonte on Friday evening of last week suffering with a severe stroke of paralysis and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Boney, on east High street. He has lately been employed in the western part of the State.

—The store room in Crider's Exchange, recently occupied by the Racket store, is this week being remodeled and put in shape for the Underselling Clothing company. The entire front was torn out in order to put in two large show windows with the door set deeper in. When completed it will make a very desirable store room.

—The collegiate class of 1909 of the Bellefonte Academy will hold an Easter ball in Bash Arcade hall on Thursday evening, April 15th. A full orchestra will be present to furnish the music and refreshments will be served during the evening. The committee in charge consists of W. D. Crooks, L. V. Hummel, J. J. South, P. M. McCandless and W. Loden.

—Ex-sheriff J. Massina, of Look Haven, who has only one arm, gave a banquet at the Irvin house in that place last week to which only one-armed men were invited. There are eight of the above in that city and five of them were present at the feast, the other three being unavoidably kept away. Now it is up to some one to give a banquet for one-legged men.

—Charles Lukenbach, who has been laid up with rheumatism the past three weeks, was taken from the Brockerhoff house to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lukenbach, on Willowbank street, last Friday. Up to this time he has not been getting along as well as could be expected, the disease having affected his knees so as to render his limbs practically useless.

—W. H. Thompson, C. H. Foster, Irving L. Foster, A. C. Bows and William Frear, of State College, have organized the State College Transportation company and during the summer expect to run an automobile bus line regularly between State College and Bellefonte. It is also said that John Porter Lyon is interested in the proposition and will take an active part in its operation.

—Mrs. L. A. Musser was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Wednesday and underwent a slight operation. Her condition is not considered serious. On Friday J. Linn Harris was admitted to the hospital for treatment for what was believed to be a bad attack of pneumonia but it later developed into a very mild case of typhoid fever, and no serious consequences are anticipated.

—G. Fred Musser, trustee, and W. Harrison Walker, attorney, will sell at public sale on Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd, the stock of merchandise in the store, fixtures, wagons, etc., of W. J. Copenhaver, at the store room occupied by Mr. Copenhaver at Colyer. This being a bankruptcy sale all of the goods and fixtures must go regardless of the cost or prices offered. The sale will begin on Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock and on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will continue Saturday evening or as long as there are any goods not disposed of.

—One of the largest houses we have seen at such an entertainment in Bellefonte in years gathered in the court house Tuesday evening to hear the glee club from Susquehanna University. It was given under the auspices of the Lutheran church and we were especially pleased to see such a notable turnout because our Lutheran brethren don't often undertake pretentious entertainments and they deserved the fine support they received. But the concert was fine too, the glee and quartet clubs singing splendidly in every number. It is rarely that a sweeter, purer voice of better quality is heard than that of Mr. I. Merrill Smith, the soloist of the clubs. In fact it would be altogether charming should he cultivate more expression. Prof. Nathan N. Keener was the reader and a good one. His recitals were all well chosen and caught the audience for repeated scores. The club is under the management of W. E. Sunday, of Baileyville, this county.

—Seblers has the old style sugar syrups at 40c and 50c per gallon.

—Two weeks ago we told the story of the strenuous time a young attorney on Howard street was having cutting down an old apple tree in his back yard. The work, however, proved too much for him and he finally employed a man to finish the job. The attorney, by the way, is an enthusiastic fisherman, and as he watched the chopper get closer and closer to the butt of the tree he made the wonderful discovery that it was alive with wood sawyers. That settled it; the chopper was halted at once and the butt of the tree saved from final annihilation until close to the fifteenth of April. Since that time, however, the disciple of Blackstone has had an inspiration. He has come to the conclusion that if sawyers grew there once they would again, so he has decided to keep the butt of the old apple tree as a sawyer incubator and he is now at work training four big black ants to use as ferrets to chase out the sawyers whenever he needs fish bait. So far, of course, it is only an infant industry, but if it proves successful for himself he may enlarge it for the benefit of other fishermen.

WHERE METHODIST MINISTERS GO.

The forty-first annual session of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference came to a close on Tuesday afternoon with the reading of the appointments by Bishop J. W. Hamilton. For some time past the bride has been one of the operators in the United telephone company's exchange while the bridegroom has been employed as baker in Ceader's bakery.

Hicks, of Stormstown, and Mrs. Lillian Barto, of near Centre Line, a week or so ago were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage in Stormstown, then slipped away for a brief honeymoon at Atlantic City, and it was not until they were gone that their friends knew of their marriage. Mr. Meserve has not been in the best of health the past six months and his resignation was tendered upon the advice of his physicians. We are glad to state, however, that his ailment is not tuberculosis, as has been supposed by some, but a debilitated nervous system, and it is necessary for him to maintain perfect rest and quiet for some time to come. During the period Mr. Meserve was in charge of the Y. M. C. A. he did a good work and it is to be regretted that his health is such that he has been compelled to relinquish the work. It is hoped, however, that a few months of proper care and treatment will restore his once vigorous physical condition and enable him to again resume his chosen calling.
