

TO REPORT ON APRIL 22

Fifty Anthracite Mine Owners Attended Meeting and Approved Action of Committee in Dealing With Workers—Will Not Suspend Work at Present.

New York, April 13.—After a meeting of coal operators in this city it was announced that no action had been taken looking toward a reduction in the wages of the miners.

The committee was composed of the following: W. A. Lathrop, Lehigh Coal & Navigation company; W. J. Richards, Philadelphia & Reading Coal company; S. D. Warriner, Lehigh Valley Coal company; R. A. Phillips, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western; Robert Quinn, Susquehanna Coal company; C. C. Rose, Delaware & Hudson; W. A. May, Pennsylvania Coal company, and the following individual operators: W. L. Connell, Frank Borden, T. M. Richter and John R. Bryden.

One of the questions which was said to have been under discussion at the meeting was that of a suspension of operations, but it was stated after the meeting that it was not decided to do so at present.

STUNNING EASTER HAT

Trenton Girl Wore Wonderfully Trimmed Waste Basket.

Trenton, N. J., April 13.—Miss Roberta Stover, the daughter of one of Trenton's largest manufacturers, created a sensation by appearing on the fashionable thoroughfares of the city wearing a hat of her own creation.

The streets were crowded and Miss Stover attracted a great deal of attention. She was escorted by her two brothers. During the afternoon she called on her Sunday school teacher and her pastor, Rev. John D. Fox, who was taken aback at sight of the novel toy dressing of the young lady, but realized the humor of it and passed her along with a laugh.

Charged With Defrauding Government Boston, April 13.—Charged with defrauding the federal government of import duties said to amount to over $5000, John J. Purtell, of the firm of J. J. Purtell & Company, custom house brokers, was arrested. It is alleged that Purtell, by means of false certificates of entries at the custom house, collected the full amounts of duties from the consignees on numerous imports, but turned over only a portion to the government.

Train Picks Up Auto; Riders Safe. South Bethlehem, Pa., April 13.—Struck by a Philadelphia & Reading railway train while riding in an automobile belonging to their employer, Alonzo Weaver, a chauffeur, and Miss Julia Kelly were carried 250 feet on the pilot of the locomotive, but finally escaped without serious injury.
