

Constantinople Garrison Is Deserting to the Side of the Invading Army, Taking With Them Arms and Ammunition—Revolutionists Guarantee Safety of Population and Foreigners.

Constantinople, April 21.—Sultan Abdul Hamid is waiting in his palace for whatever may befall. He has not taken to flight, and his grand vizier, Tewfik Pasha, has announced that, without fear, the sultan will remain with his family and accept resignedly the fate which has been prepared for him and his country.

Tewfik Pasha and the minister of war, Edhem Pasha, who sent in their resignations to the sultan, decided to withdraw them, and the grand vizier is spending most of the time with his majesty. Nazim Uasha still is in command of the garrison, but no preparations have been made to offer any resistance to the advance of the Salonika troops. The Constitutional lines now envelop the city, but the commander-in-chief, General Husni Pasha, is still at Hademkol, and there is little likelihood that the invading army will enter the city before tonight or tomorrow.

Demand Punishment of Mutineers.

It is understood that the Salonikins have submitted to the government a list of persons whose punishment is demanded for complicity in the recent mutiny. This list includes deputies, journalists and theologians. But apparently there is the utmost good feeling between the invaders and the residents of the city, many of whom visit the camps of the Saloniki troops and are received hospitably by the soldiers.

Two proclamations, signed by the commanding general of the army of investment, and addressed respectively to the citizens of Constantinople and the garrison, were issued. They have had a reassuring effect. That sent to the war office for distribution to the garrison denounces as "criminal and monstrous the acts committed under the cover of demanding that the Sherif law supersede the constitution, by bands of executioners, vile, conscienceless agitators and partisans of absolutism, who deluded the soldiers and populace so that the parliament was stained with blood, the nation plunged in mourning, and a bid made on the Ottoman army, whose honor had remained intact for the last 600 years."

Assures Safety of People.

The proclamation to the populace explains that the object of the invading army is the re-establishment of the constitution, which is in accordance with the Shariat, and the punishment of the traitors to the country. It assures complete safety to the innocent and oppressed population and to foreigners, and adds that those who disguised as ulamas, to serve their personal ends, committed a reprehensible act, will be punished.

Tewfik Pasha, commenting to one of the ambassadors on the rumors that the sultan was no longer in the palace, but had taken flight on Sunday, said that the sultan was not physically timid, and would remain with his family and accept whatever situation was prepared for him.

The Constantinople Garrison Is Deserting to the Side of the Constitution.

The capital troops have been leaving the city in small batches since early on Sunday, but the outward flow set in heavily Tuesday. It is estimated that about 4000 men have gone over to the invading army without opposition from their officers or comrades. One party took along a battery of machine guns, with horses and full ammunition wagons. None of those attempting to join the Constitutionalists without arms were accepted.

Quake and Volcano Spread Terror.

Mexico City, April 21.—A severe eruption of the Colima volcano, followed by an earthquake shock, has spread terror and confusion among the inhabitants of nearby towns and villages, a number of whom deserted their homes and fled to points outside the affected zone. Just as soon as confidence was being restored the region was shaken by a violent earthquake, and hundreds who had returned to a sense of their security once more were thrown into a panic.

Man's Body Found in River.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 21.—The body of H. A. Ford, a clerk in the office of General Superintendent Creighton, of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona, was found in the Susquehanna river at Steelton. Ford disappeared on March 29, after having taken a Cumberland Valley railroad train in this city.

Operators Postpone Meeting.

New York, April 21.—The meeting of the anthracite coal operators, which was to have been held in this city tomorrow, has been postponed until next Tuesday, April 27.

Florida Elects U. S. Senator.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 21.—Duncan U. Fletcher, of Jacksonville, was elected United States senator by the legislature.

2000 Massacred by Tribesmen.

Advices to the Russ in St. Petersburg from Tcheran report a massacre of 2000 persons, including women and children, by Turcoman tribesmen at Astrabad. There is no confirmation here of the massacre, but the Russian government is sending a detachment of troops to that place.

Hailstones Weighed Half Pound.

A terrific hail and wind storm struck Des Moines and central Iowa, doing heavy damage to budding fruit trees. At Stuart hailstones weighing half a pound fell. The stables of Harvey Jewell, of Cedar Falls, were struck by lightning, killing twenty-four horses and thirty-four cows.

Husband Struck Match and Man Attacked Him, When He Drew His Revolver and Fired, the Bullet Entering Victim's Temple—Claims Self-Defense.

Edward Russell, aged twenty-six years, was shot by J. E. Craig, who surprised Russell and Mrs. Craig together in the latter's home in Altoona, Pa. Russell died in the Altoona hospital.

Craig, who is twenty-five years of age and who has been employed as a locomotive fireman in the Pennsylvania railroad yards in this city, has for some time suspected the conduct of his wife, the information of her wrongdoing coming to him from his brother, who has been making his home with the couple. In the evening the husband left home to go to work as usual, but at 9 o'clock returned home, and finding his wife had gone out, he entered himself in an upper room and awaited her return. His brother, who had remained in the house, had retired for the night.

About midnight Mrs. Craig returned home, accompanied by Russell and another young man and woman. Mrs. Craig put her three-year-old daughter to bed and then joined her companions in the parlor on the first floor. A few minutes later Craig slipped down stairs and, hearing voices in the parlor, which was unlighted, went in and, striking a match, saw Russell and Mrs. Craig together. Russell sprang at the husband, and the two scuffled for a moment, until Craig got his revolver and fired, the bullet entering Russell's left temple. During the brief struggle the other couple escaped from the house. The young husband sent his brother out for a physician and to notify the police authorities, and remained with the injured man until the police and hospital ambulance arrived. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Craig fired in self-defense, and he was released on $2000 bail for trial.

Man Slain; Body Buried in Cellar.

As a result of the alertness of James Gargulajos, a bookmaker, Mrs. John Pishotta and her brother, Angella Formatore, who recently came to Carlisle from Pittsburg, are now in the county prison at Carlisle, Pa., charged with the murder of Mrs. Pishotta's husband, John Pishotta, a wealthy Greek confectioner of this place.

Gargulajos was employed by Pishotta. He was awakened by several revolver shots in their room. Three of the bullets passed through the partition and flew over his head. Covering with fear, he lay quiet in his bed, and about a half hour later heard a sound as of a body being dragged downstairs.

Mrs. Pishotta and her brother were arrested and taken to the office of Magistrate Hughes, who held them on the charge of murder. A search of the building was made and the blood-covered body of Pishotta was found in the rear cellar under a large pile of stones, boards and boxes.

Big Blaze at Rochester, N. Y.

Swept along in the face of a twenty-five mile gale, fire destroyed several sections of Rochester, N. Y., and did damage estimated at $500,000. For a time it was thought that a great portion of the city would be swept, and aid was summoned from Buffalo and Syracuse. One hundred families are homeless and militiamen are in the affected zones guarding what little the people saved of their household goods.

Buildings which were destroyed, in addition to about fifty residences, were the Palmer building, Temple Berth Kodesh, First Reformed Church of America, the Ward apartments and the First German Lutheran Zion church. The St. Peter's Presbyterian church, the Palmer lumber yards and several small firms on Main street were damaged.

Dons Son's Clothes to Drown Herself.

Suffering from the effects of an accident which occurred a year ago and in which she was severely burned, Mrs. Harvey Renner, aged thirty-six years, of Altoona, Pa., slipped away from her nurse and, donning her son's clothing, went to the Little Lehigh river, a mile from her home, and drowned herself. The woman feared that she could never be cured and had been under guard for several weeks for fear that she might do herself harm. Her son's cap, which she wore when she left home, was found on the bank of the stream, and footprints leading to the water's edge showed where she had taken the fatal plunge.

Johnson and Ketchel to Fight.

After many days of wrangling between the managers in New York an opponent has been found for Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world. Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight title holder, was matched to meet the negro in a twenty round battle at Coffroth's Arena, Colma, Cal., on Oct. 12. After considerable discussion as to the division of the purse the men decided upon a 65 and 35 per cent basis.

Willis Britt acted on behalf of Ketchel, while Johnson looked after his own interests. Believing that the match will draw a larger amount than the $25,000 guaranteed by Promoter Coffroth, both Britt and Johnson decided to fight for 60 per cent of the gross receipts. Each man posted a forfeit of $5000 to go as a side bet.

Two Killed in Railroad Wreck.

Two persons were killed and several others slightly injured when the "Queen of the Valley," a night express on the Reading railway, was wrecked in the southern part of Harrisburg, Pa., within a moment's ride of the Reading station.

The dead: Engineer George Rocktassel, of Reading, and Fireman Roland Winaand, of Harrisburg.

None of the Injured are Seriously Hurt.

The cause of the wreck is said to be that when the engineer applied the air brakes upon approaching the station the brake rigging dropped to the tracks. The ties and rails were torn up for a hundred yards; then the rigging apparently caught upon a switch point and overturned the engine and tender.

Boys Killed Sleeping Father.

John Craig was shot to death in his home at Roaming Fork, near Roanoke, Va., and his two sons, Patrick and Arthur, aged nine and twelve respectively, were arrested, charged with the killing and placed in jail. It is said the father had been brutally treating the boys, and while he was asleep they planned to take his life. One of the boys, it is alleged, pointed a revolver at the father and pulled the trigger, but the cartridge was not exploded. The other boy, it is charged, then shot the parent through the head, killing him instantly.

Gotch Retains His Title.

Frank Gotch, of Humboldt, Iowa, retained the world's championship by defeating Yussif Mahmoud, of Bulgaria, in straight falls in a fast and furious match in Chicago. The Bulgarian was as a child in the hands of the American.

Gotch won both falls with a crotch and half-Nelson holds in 8 minutes and in 9 minutes, 10 seconds. The victory of the champion is all the more notable inasmuch as he did not use his famous toe hold in bringing about the downfall of the powerful foreigner, whose shoulders had not hitherto been put to the mat in America.

Woman Arrested For Murder in Russia.

Philadelphia, April 20.—Betrayed by a fellow countryman, Felicia Bekler, a Russian woman, was arrested here on the charge of killing a sergeant of the Russian army six months ago in St. Petersburg. At city hall the woman told how her husband had become affiliated with the revolutionists. In anticipation of an uprising of the people he had stocked his home with rifles and ammunition until it was a regular arsenal. The police, learning of this, sent a squad of soldiers to seize Bekler. His wife picked up a rifle and shot the sergeant three times.

Canoe Upset; Two Drown.

Lawrence, Mass., April 20.—A canoe containing four young men was capsized in the Merrimack river, and two of the occupants, Henry Crombie and William Farissey, both of this city were drowned. The other two saved themselves by swimming.

Infuriated Beast Tramples Woman and Children in Jersey City.

New York, April 20.—A wild bull went on a rampage in Jersey City, knocked down Miss Jacobs, who was luckless enough to have on a red waist; trampled two school children, wrecked a fish store and tailor shop, and was finally killed after a squad of police had fired fifteen revolver shots at him.

Two Brothers Murdered.

Dilwyn, Va., April 20.—William and Thomas Stewart, two brothers residing near Buckingham Court House, were found murdered and their bodies burned almost to a char. The coroner's inquest disclosed bullets imbedded in the head of each and a verdict of murder was returned. Robbery is supposed to have been the motive.

Railroad Fatalities.

Washington, April 20.—There were 184 people killed and 2924 injured in train accidents during the three months ending Dec. 31 last, according to the Interstate commerce commission report.

National Institution in Trouble Because of "Bad Investments."

Lancaster Pa., April 20.—The Littitz National bank, of Littitz, failed to open its doors. It had a paid up capital of $105,000.

No statement has been prepared, and the only information so far vouchsafed is that the bank had made some bad investments. These investments are understood to be certain local industrial enterprises which the bank backed.

While none of the enterprises which the bank financed have failed, the securities given for the loans were of such a character that the bank could not realize on them.

Rumors have been afloat for some time about the condition of the bank, and as a result there was a run on the institution last week, which became very heavy on Saturday, when it was determined to close. In banking circles it is believed the depositors will be paid in full.

Coal Train Conductor Shoveled 98 Into Furnace.

Norristown, Pa., April 21.—Ninety-eight dollars in crisp greenbacks blazed up with a shovelful of coal when Levi Miller, a coal train conductor, tried to help his fireman get up steam.

The money was in a wallet, placed in the inside pocket of his unbuttoned coat. As he swung a shovelful of coal toward the open door the wallet slipped out, fell upon the coal and was tossed into the furnace. For a moment the glare blinded him, and when he was able to see what he had done it was too late to rescue his month's pay.

Steel Plant Closed.

Canonsburg, Pa., April 21.—The Canonsburg Iron and Steel company closed its plant, throwing 400 men out of work. The company has offered to start the plant up again if the men will accept a reduction of 10 per cent in wages, and a meeting of employees will be held to consider the proposition.

Mob Stormed Jail, Knocking Guards Senseless, and Seized Four Wealthy Land Owners and Quickly Executed Them.

Ada, Okla., April 20.—Two hundred citizens of Ada, nearly all of them of the better class, thoroughly disgusted with the "justice" meted out to criminals in the smaller towns of Oklahoma, took from jail and hanged four wealthy land owners for the murder of Deputy United States Marshal A. L. Bobbitt. The lynched men were: J. B. Miller, Fort Worth, Tex.; B. B. Burrell, Duncan, Okla.; Jesse West and Joseph Allen, of Canadian, Tex.

The lynchers shut off the electric street lights, cut the telephone communication and quietly gathered near the jail. When all had assembled a large man swaggered out of the darkness and said: "Are you all ready?" A confused buzzing was the only answer. The men silently made their way toward the jail.

A high board fence surrounding the jail was partly thrown down and the crowd entered the inclosure. The leader advanced and pounded on the jail door. Only Guard McCarthy was on duty.

"McCarthy," said the leader, "open this door at once. We mean business. Hurry! It's near daylight."

"You might as well go home, boys," responded the officer. "This door will never be opened from this side."

After a conference three of the mob threw themselves against the jail door, and the mob rushed in. Guard McCarthy was knocked senseless with a revolver butt. The four prisoners were quickly taken out, although West fought desperately.

"If you're going to hang me, do it quick," said Miller.

The mob led the four men to a barn a few hundred feet away, and stood them in a straight line.

"Tell us what you devils know about

Bobbitt's murder," shouted the mob leader.

West answered for the four, saying: "We don't know who you men are, and we don't care. For myself, I know if I had a six shooter a few of you would bite the dust, but that's talk, as long as my 'shooting iron' is in Texas. You boys appear to have a job to do. Why don't you do it? We won't tell anything, and you —"

"The ropes," the leader broke in and the four prisoners were carried to a beam and strung up in a row.

Just before the rope was placed around his neck, Miller calmly removed a diamond stud from his shirt front and requested that it be sent to his wife in Fort Worth. From his necktie he drew out a diamond scarf pin, with the request that it be given to Guard McCarthy for his kindness to him. As soon as the men were dead the mob disappeared. At daylight the bodies of the lynched men were cut down.

Charged With Stealing 73 Horses.

Kingston, R. I., April 20.—Charged with having stolen seventy-three horses in as many cities and towns in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and southern New England, and actually identified as being responsible for thirty-five of these thefts, Albert Fuller, sixty years old, with many aliases and no known permanent abode, was indicted here and held for trial on Monday next.
