ADMITTED TO NEW YORK PRESBYTERY.

—Many readers of the WATCHMAN, especially Presbyterians, remember Rev. Harvey Graeme Farbay, Ph. D. at one time pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Tyrone and who at that time preached in Bellefonte on several occasions, and will be glad to learn that after a turbulent life of a dozen years or so he was on Monday taken into full membership in a Presbytery in New York city. Rev. Farbay went to the Tyrone church in the early nineties and from there went to the Oxford Street church in Philadelphia. While there his wife died and her death was such a blow to the reverend that he took to drink as a solace. His appetite for liquor got the best of him and finding himself drinking to excess he became his own accuser before the Philadelphia Presbytery and was dropped from the rolls without a trial. He started out as a lecturer, traveling in many parts of the United States but his craving for drink overmastered his every good impulse and finally he got so low in the scale of life as to become a tramp and was compelled to beg his way on freight trains.

In that condition he arrived in New York a few years ago and in passing a mission one day he heard the singing within. He stopped on the outside and listened and then there resolved to turn over a new leaf. He entered the mission and when an opportunity came told the story of his life and asked the help of those in charge in keeping his new resolution. He was taken in charge and from that day never touched another drop of liquor and has lived such a blameless life and did such good work in the city missions that the Presbytery very willingly took him back into the fold on Monday.

A FEW NICE CATCHES OF TROUT.—The WATCHMAN went to press last week before full reports from all the fishermen who were out for the opening day were received but in the main, the day proved a disappointment to the majority of the fishermen. Those who went to Fishing creek perhaps had the best luck, and their catch was not up to the standard. One party of six, who spent the entire day there, came home with sixty trout, mostly small ones. The high water may have had more to do with the small catches than the scarcity of trout, as on Monday T. H. Harter and a party went to Fishing creek and two or more of them caught their limit—fifty trout each.

While there have been no big catches made in Spring creek there have been several big trout taken therefrom. On Monday afternoon John Nighthart caught a nineteen inch California trout in Logan's branch, at the bridge near the black barn, and so hard a fight did it put up that he broke his rod. T. Clayton Brown on Monday also made his first catch and it was a good one, too; as he landed three trout, each of which was over a foot in length. They were caught from the creek opposite the Bush house. From the above it is evident that there are still some trout in the streams and when the conditions become more favorable fishermen may have better luck.

DOCESAN ORPHANAGE COMPLETED.—The doctessan orphanage at Summit has been completed and the record achieved in its erection by Bishop Eugene A. Garvey and other prominent priests and officers in the Altoona diocese of the Catholic church is a remarkable one. The orphanage represents a total expenditure of $81,216 83, and the money was all collected and the orphanage completed and furnished within a period of two years. The fund was secured through contributions by the various churches in the diocese and by individuals. Members of the church in Bellefonte and Centre county will be interested in learning that the Bellefonte Catholic church contributed the sum of $1,244.50; the Snow Shoe church $694.50 and the Phillipsburg church $200. Thomas A. Shoemaker, of this place, contributed $500 direct and an equal amount collected from his employees.

MOTHER AND SON DEAD.—Joseph Hall, son of Mrs. John Hall, a widow lady of Union township, died on Saturday. He had been ailing all winter with abscesses of the throat and for the past six weeks had been under the doctor's care and everything possible was done to save his life but without avail. During the last hours of his illness his mother became ill and on Monday it was evident that she had contracted a case of malignant diptheria. She sank rapidly and died on Tuesday night. Owing to the contagious nature of the disease burial was made as soon as possible on Wednesday morning, the funeral of the son having been held on Monday. One other son survives and at this writing has not contracted the disease.

YOUNG MAN DIES SUDDENLY.—Victor Pifer, of Mill Hill, was found dead in bed at the home of his uncle Lewis Bolopue, near Blanchard, last Saturday morning. The young man went to his uncle's home on Wednesday to spend a few days trout fishing. For a number of years past he had been subject to attacks of epilepsy and his death was diagnosed as the result of an epileptic fit, brought on no doubt by over exertion, as on Friday he had taken quite a long tramp into the mountain in quest of trout. When he went to bed that evening he was apparently all right and it was not until Saturday morning when his lifeless body was found that his death was discovered.

A meeting of the alumni association of the Bellefonte High school will be held in the office of Fortney & Fortney, on High street, on Monday evening, April 26th, at 7.30 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

—A number of farmers throughout the county have already planted their oats and have their corn ground well under way.

—The fall meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery will be held in the new Presbyterian church at Phillipsburg the first week in October.

—On Sunday next, April 25th, it will be just one year since the institution of the Bellefonte Lodge Knights of Columbus and in celebration of the first anniversary special services will be held in St. John's Catholic church on that day. The members are urged to be in attendance.

—A civil service examination will be held at Look Haven on Saturday, May 22nd, for the position of fourth class postmaster at Beech Creek. The compensation of the postmaster at that office for the last fiscal year was $796, a large enough salary to make the position a desirable one.

—Miss Nellie Turbidity, of Snow Shoe, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday and on Sunday underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Thomas Barnhart and Mrs. Joseph Undercoffer, of this place, were also admitted to the hospital the latter part of last week for treatment.

—Mrs. Mary Sebring, of Jersey Shore, mother of John P. Sebring, of Halfmoon township and grandmother of Dr. Sebring, of this place, fell down a flight of three steps last Friday night and fractured her hip bone. As she is ninety-one years old the injury is quite a serious one and may keep her confined to bed a long time.

—The Lilly and the Prince company gave a fairly good performance to a very poor house on Tuesday evening and on Wednesday the company disbanded for the season. Poor business the last few weeks was the reason given, but at that the manager was able to pay all his obligations and ship his baggage out of town.

—The big plant of the Mannington glass company, at Mannington, W. Va., was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday, and one hundred and fifty men thrown out of employment. A number of Bellefonters have been working in Mannington but whether at the plant of the Mannington company is not known at this writing.

—John T. Church, of Glen Iron, Union county, on Monday appeared before the state railway commission in Harrisburg and charged the Pennsylvania and Nittany Valley railroads with excessive charges, in that the rate on iron ore from Bellefonte to Glen Iron is $1.40 per ton, while in the opposite direction between the same points it is only 55 cents.

—Claster's Underselling clothing store celebrated their opening last Friday by having the Coleville band give a concert in front of their store in Crider's Exchange both Thursday and Friday evenings. The store being opened for business promptly at nine o'clock on Friday morning. They have a large stock of clothing which they offer at prices to suit any purse.

—Col. H. S. Taylor was threatened with pneumonia last week and for several days was a pretty sick man but he is now around again as lively as ever. Friday night a week ago he caught a severe cold and on Saturday was not able to leave the house with the result that he was under the doctor's care and penned up in the house until last Thursday when he was able to get out for the first.

—Through the skillful management of the receiver, Claude Cook, the affairs of the Bellefonte Swing company have been gotten into a business like shape so that they can now continue the business. The company has a number of orders and will be able to keep a small force of men at work right along, and when the right season for their product arrives they will likely be in a position to run their factory to its full capacity.

—The WATCHMAN was in error last week in announcing the death of Mrs. Ida Long, in the Altoona hospital. The information came to us late Tuesday afternoon through the telegram received by her sister, and naturally, we supposed it was correct and did not know differently until too late to rectify. While the item was not correct we are only too glad that Mrs. Long is not only alive but enjoying good health.

—The Witmer Lumber company, of Sanbury, which has been operating in Centre county for a number of years past, last week purchased from J. N. Schooner, of Phillipsburg, the timber land in Clearfield county belonging to the estate of the late B. D. Schooner, which adjoins the tract they recently secured from the heirs of the Forey estate. This gives them the largest tract of virgin timber yet remaining in that section of the State and will keep them busy cutting the timber for several years.

—The motion pictures at the Senic continue to please and entertain the people of Bellefonte. They are always new and up-to-date, being the best and latest films made by all of the leading manufacturers, and combine views in home and foreign lands, fascinating dramas from real life and amusing comedies. There is a story in every picture and the half hour's entertainment afforded is worth double the price of admission. Go to the Senic both this and tomorrow evenings and you won't regret it. Watch for new and interesting feature films which the manager, T. Clayton Brown, will secure just as soon as they are ready. The engagement of George Gavin, of Brooklyn, singer of the illustrated songs, still continues.

CENTRAL CITY HIGH SCHOOL.

—On Thursday evening April 15th, at 7:30 the commencement exercises of the Central City High school were held in the Methodist church at Milesburg before a large audience. This was the maiden effort of that school. Four young ladies and one gentleman received their diplomas.

—The writer of this article had the pleasure of attending commencement exercises of many High schools, seminaries, colleges and universities and without any intention of exaggeration, will say that it was equal to any of them, and excelled in some important respects. The orations were well chosen, replete with common sense practical ideas, and eloquently presented. It was the best evidence of careful and thoroughly trained class and the useful application of mind to study.

The decorations were choice flowers, evergreens, and class colors—red and white. The presentation of diplomas were passed from the principal, J. F. Leathers, to Geo. Maser, one of the board of education, thence to each member of the graduating class in an endless chain fashion requiring but a few moments.

Henry C. Quigley Esq., of Bellefonte, made the commencement address, telling the members of the class many things of interest as well as giving some good, practical advice to the board of directors. Mr. Maser also gave a very interesting talk, in which he exhorted the students to make the Bible their book of books and its teachings their precepts through life. The music for the evening was furnished by the Central City orchestra, under the leadership of F. L. Wetzler.

The members of the graduating class were as follows: Nellie M. Weaver, Louisa Cox, Ella M. Zettle, Ralph M. Maser and Zelta M. Derr. Too much credit cannot be given the principal, J. F. Leathers, for his arduous work and great interest manifested in the school and the students.

WHERE IS WILLIAM WESTWOOD? —Mr. and Mrs. William Westwood, of Hawk Run, Clearfield county, are anxious to learn the whereabouts of their son, William Jr. The young man, who is twenty-seven years old and almost blind, left home on Monday evening, April 12th, and went to Phillipsburg. Between ten and eleven o'clock that evening he was seen on Spruce street, in that town, by several people who knew him but since that no trace of him can be found and the query is did he run away, get lost or wander in some out-of-the-way place and die. In description he is about five feet two inches in height; light hair, light brown eyes, weight about 130 or 140 pounds. He had two pairs of pants on, the under pair blue, the under coat was blue, the top one a heavy black overcoat. He wore a black Stetson derby hat, lined with paper. Several days ago it was reported that he had been seen in the neighborhood of Port Matilda but this proved incorrect. Any information as to his whereabouts will be gladly received by his parents.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.—The annual commencement of the Bellefonte High school will this year be held the week beginning Sunday, May 23rd. Rev. John Hewitt has been selected to preach the baccalaureate sermon in the Episcopal church on Sunday evening. On Monday evening following the Junior oratorical contest will be held in Petriken hall. The annual alumni farewell reception to the graduating class will be held in the armory on Tuesday evening and the commencement exercises proper will be held in Petriken hall on Thursday, afternoon and evening. Dr. Edwin Eric Sparks, president of the Pennsylvania State College, has been selected to deliver the commencement address.

KILLED IN PERSIA.—Homer C. Baskerville, a son of Rev. H. C. Baskerville, of Royalton, Minn., was killed while leading a sortie from the besieged city of Tabriz, Persia, on Tuesday. This item is of interest to Centre countyans, and especially the people of Centre Hall and vicinity from the fact that he used to live there when his father was pastor of the Centre Hall Presbyterian church about twelve years ago, preceding Rev. W. H. Schuyler. The young man was only twenty-four years old and always of an adventurous disposition. About eleven months ago he decided to go into the missionary service and went to Persia as a teacher in the Presbyterian church at Tabriz. He resigned his position recently to join the revolutionists and his death is the result.

BELLEFONTE FURNACE CLOSED DOWN.—Yesterday morning the Bellefonte furnace was blown out and will be closed down a month or so at least, for repairs, and perhaps longer. It was only on Monday that the ore mines at Scotia were again put in operation after being closed all winter and the employees up there were feeling quite jubilant that they again had work. But it was decided on Wednesday to blow out the furnace and orders were issued to suspend operations at the mines until the furnace was ready to put in blast, so that the men at both places are now idle.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The new Lutheran church of State College will be dedicated with appropriate services on Sunday, May 2nd. The dedicatory sermon will be preached on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. H. L. Yarger, D. D., field secretary of church extension, of Atchison, Kansas. The evening sermon will be preached by Rev. C. T. Aiken, D. D., president of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove Pa. A general invitation is cordially extended the people of the community to be present.
