be done now is to burrah for the big time. The particular business of last Friday's meeting was to hear the reports of the varthat they would have a full list of amusearrange for various races, etc., and that a good program was assured. John J. Bower, of the same committee, announced that the usual annual shoot between the good shots of Centre and Clinton county would be Hard P. Harris, of the music committee, announced that the Repasz band, of Williamsport had been engaged for the day, a fact which seemed to give general satisfaction. The committee on general management of the grounds, etc., announced that everything would be put in the best of condition so that those attending the picnic would be assured of not only a good time but of every comfort and convenience that it is possible to give. The committee having in charge the matter of arranging for one or two of the Cenjoint management of the Bellefonte and ment could be made. All the parties met was that the gate receipts to the ball game the lawn and in the orchard caught fire, any time in years and the indications are should be evenly divided, one-third going fund ; or in lieu of that the teams demanded $125 each. At this writing the matter has not been settled in anyway.

The business of the meeting finished the members of the committee present were ushered into the dining room where they were served with a most appetizing dinner and it must be confessed that every man present did his best in bearing testimony to the general excellence of the culinary department of the Bush house. After dinner the members enjoyed several hours of social intercourse and at 10.30 o'clock the Clinton county contingent left Bellefonte on a special train over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, and now its up to every business man in Centre and Clinton counties to work for the success of this year's

Thursday. It started in W. C. Snyder's office from some unknown cause and had eaten well into the partitions before it was discovered, so that between the fire itself and the chopping that had to be done to get at it there was considerable destruction to the famous old hostlery.

One encouraging feature of the conflagration was the demonstration of the splendid water supply and pressure they have at Snow Shoe.

TEACHERS ELECTED. -At a special meeting of the Bellefonte school board on Monday evening Oscar Irvin Noll, of Milesburg, and Miss Rose Fauble, of this place, were elected as assistant teachers in the High school. Mr. Noll is a graduate of The Pennsylvania State College class of '08 and last winter was principal of the Pleasant Gap schools. Miss Fauble is a graduate of Dickinson college and last school season was a substitute teacher in the Bellefonte schools. Both she and Mr. Noll are well qualified for teachers in the High school and will add efficiency to the corps of instructors. The above selection completes the list of Bellefonte teachers for the en-
