

Cannon Disciplines Insurgents.

Speaker Cannon announced the appointment of the committees for the Sixty-first congress. The "insurgents against the house rules" are disciplined, and in a number of instances ranking members have not been given the chairmanship of their committees. Representatives Fowler (N. J.), Gardner (Mass.), and Cooper (Wis.), three of the "rules insurgents," who held chairmanships in the last session of congress, have lost their committees. Representative Vreeland (N. Y.), succeeds Mr. Fowler as head of the committee on banking and currency, and Representative Rodenberg (Ill.), succeeds Mr. Gardner as chairman of the committee on industrial arts and expositions. Mr. Cooper was replaced by Representative Olmsted (Pa.). Representative Davidson (Wis.) is retained as head of the committee on railroads and canals. These members participated in the fight on the rules at the beginning of the present session, and thus incurred the speaker's displeasure.

Although Representative Wanger (Pa.) was the ranking member of the last committee on interstate and foreign commerce, Representative Mann (Ill.), who has been most active on that committee, succeeds to the chairmanship. Representative Gardner (N. J.) also was the ranking member of his committee (postoffices and post roads), but Representative Weeks (Mass.) has received the chairmanship of that important committee.

The ways and means committee and the committees on accounts, mileage and rules were organized earlier in the session.

Threatens to Blow Up P. R. R.

"This is a declaration of war. My life is openly staked on the result, for I am prepared to meet you at any time and place you may name. The weapons I shall use are dynamite and other high explosives." Thus wrote Abram C. Eby, mayor and referee in bankruptcy, of Burkeville, Va., to the "President of the Pennsylvania railroad, Philadelphia," on July 23d, naming $45,000 as the ransom for the safety of the railroad, its steamships and the travelling public and other wise threatening the Pennsylvania railroad. Following a carefully laid plot of the federal postal detectives, Eby was arrested in Philadelphia while in company of Oswald J. DeRousse, chief clerk to President McCrea, who acted for the latter in inveighing Mayor Eby to this city. He was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Craig and held in $10,000 bail for court.

Thaw's Fate in Judge's Hands.

Harry K. Thaw's latest struggle to regain his freedom has ended. The submission of testimony in his hearing before Justice Isaac N. Mills, at White Plains, N. Y., closed on last Friday afternoon. District Attorney Jerome summed up in a vigorous address, declaring Thaw is still insane, and if released would be a menace to society. Mr. Morschauer followed with a plea for his release. He quoted from the testimony of the experts and the members of the Thaw family. Justice Mills will file his decision with the county clerk on the morning of Thursday, Aug. 12.

Burglar Shot in Pistol Duel.

Alfred Kinard, a notorious character of Perry county, lies seriously wounded in the Harrisburg, Pa., hospital as the result of a desperate battle in a small mountain settlement north of Harrisburg, where he attempted to rob the store of Lewis Myers.

Holding up the Lewis hamlet at the point of his revolver, Kinard entered the store, but was interrupted by Oscar Heisley, who procured a revolver and opened fire on the desperado. Kinard fell after a half dozen shots had been exchanged, but was up and away into the thick underbrush before his pursuers could capture him. He was badly wounded in the left thigh, but managed to hide himself until the chase had been abandoned and then crawled over the mountain and through the woods to the home of his brother, Amos Kinard, several miles distant in Cumberland county.

Bleeding and almost unconscious when he reached there, he begged his brother to take him in and hide him. The brother did take him in, but immediately sent for an officer. There is a reward of $75 for the arrest of Kinard, and the brother will get the money. Kinard was hurried to the Harrisburg hospital, where he is expected to die of loss of blood. For years he has been noted for his daring lawlessness and is wanted for assaulting officers of the Republican party and horse stealing. Heretofore he has always managed to get away by hiding in the mountains.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Adopted by the State Convention at Harrisburg last week.

The Democratic State Convention at its session in Harrisburg, on Wednesday of last week adopted the following platform:

We, the representatives of the Pennsylvania Democracy in convention assembled, do hereby declare our devotion to the essential principles of the Democratic faith which have been the guarantee of our liberties since the foundation of the nation.

Freedom of the press, of conscience and of speech, the equality before the law of all citizens, the right of trial by jury, the negation of burdensome sumptuary laws, the levy of low taxes and economy in expenditures, that labor may be lightly burdened, and the strict enforcement of laws giving equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

We again insist upon the enactment by the legislature of the state of laws giving labor and capital their just rights, and call for the enforcement of anti-trust laws, and particularly of Article XVII of the Constitution of this State, declaring that public service corporations for transportation shall carry out the purposes for which they were chartered, and that they shall be limited to that business, and shall be prohibited from directly or indirectly producing or manufacturing articles for transportation over their lines except such as are necessary for their own use.

Should Enlarge Powers.

For the further protection of the consumers we demand a stricter enforcement of the laws against discrimination in rates or facilities for transportation, against rebates or any other devices by which discrimination is secured to favored shippers, thus creating monopoly and increasing the price to the consumer.

To this end we favor the enlargement of the powers of the Railroad Commission and the passage of penal laws, which will enforce respect for its decisions.

We condemn the Republican party of this State, so long in power, for the refusal or neglect to pass legislation adequate to enforce this beneficent clause of the Constitution of 1874 and charge it with being the impediment to the course of justice and good government in this regard.

We declare for distribution of local taxes to the communities in which the levies are raised for school purposes, the construction and betterment of public roads and for municipal improvements, without diminution or restraint by hoarding in the State treasury, thus creating an unnecessary surplus to be deposited in banks and thus making the public funds liable to use for political purposes.

Purity of Election

In order that the purity of elections may be had and our form of government maintained, we declare for a revision and amendment of our ballot laws and of the corrupt practices act which, experience and the decisions of our courts have shown, are but subtleties and aids rather than hindrance to the venal and corrupt office seeker and political boss.

Such amendments to the ballot law should be a simplification of the ballot, a grouping of the candidates for the several offices, a uniformity of the ballots of every party in material, print, size and other particular, and absolute secrecy in depositing the same by enclosure in separate envelopes.

By sealing, and by prevention of admittance to the booth by other than the voter.

We condemn the Republican Legislature for its proclivity in creating new offices and raising salaries in almost every State department, and this in spite of the fact that the wage earner and taxpayer was confronted with hard times, low wages and slack work, and increased cost of the necessities of life; all of which call for economy instead of extravagance and higher pay for political jobs.

Commend Court's Action

We commend the action of the courts and law officers in attempting to bring to justice and punish those who offend in the Capitol graft, but demand an arraignment of those yet untried.

More than two years have elapsed since the disclosures by the investigation, and as yet none have been punished, and most are unconvinced, we call upon the administration in power for the speediest measures consistent with justice, so that the innocent may be cleared, the guilty punished and the honor of the Commonwealth vindicated.

Deplore Existing Conditions

We deplore the continued existence of labor troubles in our Commonwealth affecting important industries and vast numbers of people and counsel moderation, concession and arbitration so that fair dealing and adjustment may be reached.

While we concede to capital and employers the utmost protection guaranteed by the Constitution and the laws, we maintain that labor has the right also to that protection which comes through organization and union. Labor unions organized for the betterment of the condition of wage-earners acting within the limits of the law, and not subversive of public order, or individual rights, are not only lawful, but commendable, and should be met, recognized and dealt with accordingly.

The right of laborers to organize within these limitations is as sacred as any other right of person or property, and we condemn alike all resorts to violence on the one hand, or stubborn refusal to arbitrate on the other.

Tariff Law Condemned.

As an imposition upon the consumer and wage-earner we condemn the pending tariff law passed by the House of Representatives and declare that its provisions are in direct violation of the promises of the Republican party and its platform, and as framed for the benefit of special interests and against those who purchase the necessities of life.

As citizens of the greatest manufacturing and industrial State in the nation, we recommend and declare for the establishment of a permanent and expert tariff commission whose tenure of office shall be so fixed as to not be subject to political influence or whim, and whose duties shall be advisory to Congress in regard to changes in existing tariff laws, in order that the tariff system may be expertly equalized, and necessary alterations made from time to time, as existing conditions demand, without subjecting the entire system to reconstruction, which always brings business depression and financial disaster.

Favor Liberal Pensions.

We hereby declare for liberal pensions to the survivors of the late Civil war and their widows, recognizing the service that these men gave to the State and nation. We urge upon the next Legislature of Pennsylvania the enactment of a State pension law providing that the survivors, who were residents of this Commonwealth and their widows shall receive such pensions, and at the same time we condemn the action of the present governor who by his veto nullified the action of the Legislature in this regard, which measure was introduced by a Democratic Senator and unanimously supported by Democratic votes in both Houses of the Legislature.

Believing that all should pay proportionately for the protection and benefits of a popular government, we favor an income tax as part of our revenue system and declare for the proposed constitutional amendment specifically authorizing Congress to levy and to collect tax upon individual and corporate incomes, to the end that wealth may bear its due share of the burdens of federal government.

Years of Misrule.

Notwithstanding the Republican party has been in continuous power in this State and nation for twelve years, and in flat contradiction of all their golden promises of prosperity and reduction of taxes and economy in expenditures, we have been for over two years suffering from business depression and panic evils, the like of which were before unknown.

The effect of this twelve years' misrule, while the earth teemed with bountiful crops, was to precipitate panic, to blight industry and trade with long depression, to close factories, reduce work and wages, halt enterprise and cripple American production.

Tired of Promise.

Every consideration of public policy and individual interests demand that State and national government shall be recovered from the hands of those who have shown themselves incapable of conducting it without disaster.

For the support of these declarations and for our candidates we invoke the aid not only of the united Democracy, but the active assistance of all our fellow citizens who are tired of promises and demand fulfillment and who, disregarding past differences, desire and demand honest methods and good government.
