Mr. Bullock has been associated in the management of the business for years and his being taken into the membership of the firm is evidence of his ability and integrity.

—On Tuesday afternoon T. Clayton Brown and Thomas Moore drove to Unionville for a few hour's pike fishing and their trip was not without good results, as they brought home with them one monster pike which measured just twenty-one inches and weighed close to three pounds. From all accounts pike are quite plentiful in the Bald Eagle creek in the neighborhood of Unionville.

REUNION OF THE SURVIVORS OF COMPANY E.—The forty-eighth annual reunion of the survivors of company E, Forty-fifth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, was held in this place yesterday as the guests of comrade William H. Musser. There were present in addition to the host comrades D. B. Allen, J. G. Heberling, G. W. Marks, J. C. McCurdy, T. J. Mays, W. A. Poorman, David Love, G. W. Loner, Henry Irvin, J. R. Pheasant and W. H. Fry, and Theophilus Bratton, of Misonri.

Gen. James A. Beaver, who was one of their old generals, was also present and presided at the meeting which was held in the hall of Greg Post. In addition to the general's address of welcome there were a number of addresses by the old comrades present and as a mark of the esteem in which he was held Gen. Beaver presented to comrade Musser a gold headed cane, the gift of the visiting comrades.

Following the meeting in the Post rooms Mr. Musser entertained the visitors and their wives at dinner at the Brookerhoff house, and it was there that they bore evidence to the fact that time had not lessened their appetites.

Before adjourning the old comrades decided to hold their annual reunion next year at Baileyville and W. H. Fry, W. H. Musser and J. G. Heberling were appointed a committee to see to the erection of a monument to the company at Baileyville to be completed in time for dedication at the fiftieth anniversary meeting of the old comrades.

Company E had a record second to none in the history of the Civil war. It was first recruited as the Scott guards from among the young men of Pennsylvania, with Henry Stevens, an old Mexican war veteran, as captain. The company was fully equipped and offered their services to the government in May, of 1861, but it was not until September 2nd of the same year that they were accepted and ordered to the front as a part of the Forty-fifth regiment. During their service in the army they were constantly engaged, from the battle of Bull Run to the surrender of Lee at Appomattox.

The battles in which they participated are as follows: Bull Run, James Island, Fort Palaski, Falmouth, South Mountain, Jamesstown, Vicksburg, Jackson, Cumberland Gap, Blue Springs, Campbell Station, Knoxville, The Wilderness, Petersburg, Palmer's Farm, Fredericksburg and Appomattox.

ORCHARD INSPECTION TO BE RESUMED.—The inspection of all orchards in Centre county which had not yet been visited will be started the coming week, but as the base of operations are not determined upon at this time, further announcements will be made through these columns. This important service which should interest every fruit grower and farmer in the State is being carried on as rapidly as conditions will permit, and it is hoped that the owners of fruit trees throughout this county will give the inspector, Mr. T. C. Foster, all the help necessary to the advancement of the work. Mr. Foster has been engaged in the inspection of orchards nearly four years and now comes to us from Perry county, where he has been laboring for the past year. Aside from the work of inspection of orchards there has been a good lively local fruit growers association organized in that county which promises to very materially assist in bettering the conditions of those interested in that special branch of agriculture.

This inspection of orchards throughout the State is under the direction of the Division of Zoology, Department of Agriculture, of which Prof. H. A. Surface is the well known head. The service already rendered has been the means of saving many thousands of orchards throughout the State.

It is hoped the inspector will be accorded a welcome by our fruit growers of the county. His help, no doubt, will be appreciated.

TO PROSECUTE ROAD SUPERVISORS.—A number of citizens of Bellefonte, Benner and College townships held a meeting in Bellefonte on Monday evening and it was decided to prosecute the road supervisors of Benner and College townships and compel them to put the road from the foot of Rishel's hill to and through Lemont in a good condition. This road was washed out by the flood over two years ago and being vacated as a turnpike about the same time, or shortly thereafter, the supervisors have given it comparatively little attention since, and the result is it is one of the very worst public roads in the country, whereas it should be among the best. The road between Bellefonte and State College should be one of the best in the county as it is open to more travel, perhaps, than any other thoroughfare, being between the county seat and the next largest town on this side of the mountain. The law on keeping the road in good condition is very plain and supervisors who through negligence or otherwise willfully disregard their duty lay themselves open to prosecution for misdemeanor, and that is what will happen in this case in the very near future. The supervisors in question have been repeatedly notified but, with the exception of doing a little work in several of the worst places, no effort has been made to put the whole road in the condition it should be.

—The Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold an entertainment in the lecture room of the church next Thursday evening, September 9th. A good program is being arranged for the occasion and everybody is invited. In addition to the entertainment refreshments of various kinds will be served.

—Because of the prolonged drought and consequent low water, as well as the leak in the reservoir, it is now necessary to run one of the steam pumps at the water works as well as the two water wheel pumps in order to keep up the supply of water for the town with the usual head in the reservoir.

—While visiting at the home of county solicitor Frank Fay, in Hollidaysburg, Mrs. Penny and her daughter, Mrs. E. Mitchell Hoover, of Snow Shoe, were members of a party who figured in a bad runaway on Tuesday and, though all the occupants of the carriage were thrown out, none were seriously injured.

—James I. Yarnell, of State College, who for a number of years was a successful huckster throughout Pennsylvania but who the past two years conducted a green grocery and produce store at State College, has sold out his business there and on Monday went to Altoona where he will conduct a general country produce store, taking possession of his place of business on September first.

—In the beginning of this week Dr. Dale moved into his own home on the corner of High and Spring streets, M. I. Gardner and family moved into that portion of the Shoemaker house on Spring street vacated by Dr. and Mrs. Dale and Emil Joseph and family moved into the Gardner house on the corner of Spring and Howard streets, and in a short while all will be comfortably settled.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds has now begun harvesting his big peach crop in earnest and every day several hundred baskets are being shipped by express from this place. In a few days enough of the fruit will be ripe enough for marketing to justify shipping by car load lots and then the Reynolds orchard will be alive with pickers. The fruit is of an excellent quality and is commanding good prices.

—The members of the Altoona Motor club are arranging for their third social run which will be down the Bald Eagle valley to Bellefonte, thence by way of State College and the Spruce Creek club house. In the two former social runs held by the Altoona club from thirty to thirty-five cars participated and an equal number is expected to make this run, the date for which will be definitely set the early part of next week.

—Notwithstanding the fact that the past two months have not been very favorable for honey gathering, owing to the extreme dry weather, Col. Emanuel Noll's bees must have been as busy as ever because he did not fail to remember the editor with his usual contribution. If there is anything Mr. Noll takes a special delight in aside from his work it is in caring for his bees and growing fruit and vegetables and in both the above he stands at the head of everybody in Bellefonte. As an apiarist he is unusually successful and in a good year generally gathers several hundred pounds of honey. Mr. Noll, therefore, has our thanks for his generous present.

—Vacation days are about at an end and next Monday the school children of Bellefonte will have to report for duty, for the school year of 1909-10. This (Friday) morning the examinations for admission to the High schools and grades and for the removal of conditions will be held at the brick building and all interested should be prompt to report. All those who were promoted at the close of school the last of May know to what school they belong and no doubt have made themselves acquainted with the facts as to whether they shall report for enrollment in the morning or afternoon. High school and Midway students will put in the full time as heretofore, while all other grades will have half day sessions, as announced last week.

—The bricklayers on the new High school building were detained this week because of the slow delivery of the Pompeian brick. However, they were not idle as they built up the interior brick walls so that now it is possible to get a better idea as to what the first, or main floor of the building will be like. A second consignment of Pompeian brick was received on Wednesday and as shipments are expected to be made regularly hereafter the force of bricklayers will be largely increased so as to get the walls up as quickly as possible. In the meantime the carpenters are kept busy keeping pace with the bricklayers. A force of workmen is also engaged filling in and leveling up around the building and in a few weeks it will present a much more dignified appearance than it does now.

—T. Clayton Brown, manager of the scenic, has ordered a new booth for his motion picture machine in order to conform with the law passed by the recent Legislature providing for the regulation and government of houses in which moving picture shows are given. The new booth will not only be absolutely fireproof but will be so ventilated as to be much more comfortable for the operator. By the time Petriken hall is fully papered and painted and the new booth installed the scenic will be the finest moving picture house in this part of the State and will be in keeping with the high class entertainments given there every evening. During the past week the repertoire has included several of the famous Pathé de Art films, the very finest on the market. In fact they are an education to both old and young and should not be missed by anybody in Bellefonte. W. G. Laye not only does the singing but is an able assistant to Mr. Brown in looking after the comfort of all who attend the entertainments.

CENTRE COUNTY GIRL SHOT.—Miss Mary Goss, youngest daughter of the late Cyrus Goss, of Ferguson township, at one time treasurer of Centre county, was accidentally shot and killed at the home of J. V. Truckenmiller, at Watsonstown, on Monday morning. The young girl was with her mother, Mrs. Alfaretta Goss, who kept house for Mr. Truckenmiller and as no one saw the accident 'it is not definite just how it occurred, but there is only one theory.

The accident occurred in Mr. Truckenmiller's bed room and as far as known the facts are as follows: Mr. Truckenmiller's revolver, a self-acting weapon, was lying upon a side table and it is supposed that when Miss Goss went into the room to put it to rights she innocently picked up the gun and, with a girl's natural curiosity, was examining it when the weapon was accidentally discharged.

Her mother was down stairs and on hearing the shot ran upstairs, only to find her daughter lying on the floor dead, shot through the heart. The young lady was not fifteen years old and was unusually bright and intelligent. In addition to her mother she is survived by eight brothers and two sisters, the latter being Dr. Ella G. Smiley, a chiropodist, of Altoona, and Mrs. Madge Kepler, wife of Hon. J. Will Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills. The brothers are Henry C., of Hontzdale; Roy, of Carrolltown; George A., Edward, Joseph B., Fred B. and Herbert, of Pittsburg, and Charles, of Pine Grove Mills.

The remains were taken to the home of her grandmother, Mrs. George Ard, in Pine Grove Mills, on Tuesday afternoon, from where the funeral was held at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. W. K. Harsh officiated and interment was made in the new cemetery at that place. Among those who attended the funeral from Bellefonte were Mrs. John Noll and Mrs. Philip Beizer.

NEW COUNTRY CLUB FOR TYRONERS.—A number of Tyroner gentlemen have gone together and organized a new country club and last Saturday virtually closed the deal for the purchase of the old Lyon homestead at Pennsylvania Furnace from John Porter Lyon, of this place. The purchase does not include the entire farm, but the large and commodious stone house and about forty acres of surrounding grounds. The price paid was five thousand dollars. The committee which made the deal was composed of Hon. A. A. Stevens, J. K. Johnston, A. M. Laporte, R. H. Zentmyer and Frank K. Lokenbach.

Quite a large delegation of the prospective members of the club went out to Pennsylvania Furnace on Tuesday to inspect the property and they were very much pleased with it. And well they can be, because there are few properties in this section so admirably located and suitable for a country club house as the old Lyon homestead. The house is a substantial stone, large and commodious, and very conveniently arranged in every detail. An immense lawn dotted with shrubs and huge shade trees surrounds the house while in the rear there is also a very large garden; and best of all right on the lawn is a magnificent never-failing spring of water. There is also a large stable on the property for the accommodation of a number of horses and vehicles, so that the Tyroner contingent are to be congratulated on their acquisition of such a desirable location and property.

TYPHOID FROM CISTERN WATER.—One death and two cases of typhoid fever is the result so far of drinking infected water from a cistern on the Reynolds farm near Rook occupied by the Misses Hoy and farmed by James Neese. The later's nineteen year old son, David, died last Saturday night as the result of the fever, and his seventeen year old daughter, Amelia, and Miss Nan Hoy are two who are ill with the disease. Miss Neese is over the worst part of the disease and her attending physician said yesterday that if no outlook for complications arose she was on a fair way to recovery. Miss Hoy is now in the Bellefonte hospital, under the care of a private nurse, with a well defined case of the fever, though up to this time her condition is not bad enough to be alarming.

Just as soon as the fever broke out in the Neese family a hunt was made for the cause and some of the cistern water was sent to State College for analysis. It was found badly infected with typhoid germs, and its use was immediately discarded for all purposes. It was stated yesterday that no further cases of the fever are apprehended from the same source.

THAT NEW CEMENT PLANT.—A month or so ago the WATCHMAN published an item relative to a proposed new cement plant to be built in Bellefonte by New York capitalists which at that time and now are being represented by James R. Pierpoint. Mr. Pierpoint is now in Bellefonte and he says that everything looks very favorable for locating a plant here if they can get a suitable location on reasonable terms. Inasmuch as the plant, if erected here, will give employment to at least one hundred men it is a proposition that everybody interested in the welfare of Bellefonte should feel interested in and do all they can to induce its being located here.

BIG PICNIC AT SNOW SHOE.—The Snow Shoe base ball club will hold a big picnic at the new driving park in that place next Monday (Labor day.) There will be a full program of various sports including two games of base ball between the Snow Shoe and another equally strong team. The Snow Shoe band will be present to furnish the music and there will be dancing all day and evening. The public is invited.
