

PHILADELPHIA DEMOCRATS GREET MR. MUNSON

Reception Was Given Him in Quaker City—He is Pleased With the Outlook.

A reception was given by many prominent Democrats to their nominee for justice of the supreme court, Cyrus LaRue Munson, in the headquarters of the Democratic city committee, Philadelphia, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Munson was met at the Philadelphia Hotel, where he met many of the Philadelphia Democrats, returned to the hotel, where he met many of the Philadelphia Democrats, returned to the hotel, where he met many of the Philadelphia Democrats.

Mr. Munson added that he found old animosities buried by Democrats in the many counties that he had visited, and he believed there was a new era close ahead.

What Was the Governor's Reason?

Governor Pennypacker must have had some grave reason for refusing to appoint Robert Von Moschizker to the vacancy on the bench of Philadelphia upon the death of the late Judge McCarthy.

In the absence of a statement on the subject from Governor Pennypacker any conjecture may be advanced, moreover, which is an additional reason that he should speak.

Importance of Registration. It is not generally known to the voters of the cities that the present registration will be used by the election officers to conduct the primaries to be held in June, 1910.

Injustice to Mr. Aldrich. The Albany Argus insults Mr. Aldrich by calling it "the tariff law that nobody likes." Mr. Aldrich, who made it, feels that he is somebody, and that those for whom he made it constitute everybody who is anybody.

Those New Bedford operatives who are demanding an increase in wages should remember that the tariff is designed to raise the price of almost everything except labor.

The Records of Congress Contradict. Senator Gore insists that the west is the real seat of governmental power. The trouble is to make Rhode Island see it that way.

The lawyers of Pennsylvania are bearing testimony, every day, to their high appreciation of the learning, ability and fitness of C. LaRue Munson for a seat on the supreme court bench.

Democrats used to win in Pennsylvania because they used to feel that good government is as important to the average citizen as good crops.

Whatever else happens on election day, get out the vote. Keep that idea in mind all the time. It will do no harm to dream about it.

Meantime make up your mind to fulfill your civic obligation by voting the Democratic ticket on election day.

Mrs. Stalor—John, don't you think I need a new gown? This one is beginning to look shabby.

Mr. Stalor—I don't see anything the matter with it. You look well enough in it to suit me, and why should I pay money to make you more attractive to other men?

"What do you want?" asked the lady of the house of the tramp.

"I haven't anything in the house except some bread and canned beef. Do you want some of that?"

"No," he said sadly. "I'd better move on. It 'ud be a pity ter waste such a fine appetite on such poor victuals."
