Bellefonte, Pa., September 22, 1909.

To Countspondents.-No communications pub lished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Mr. and Mrs. George Waite, of Reynolds avenue, became the parents of another big baby boy on Saturday.

-Miss Nannie McKelvey, of east Lamb street, has accepted a position as operator nine in number-was also read. in the Commercial telephone exchange.

-Richard Taylor left on Monday for Huntingdon to begin his work as military instructor in the Huntingdon reformatory.

-Dr. Thos. C. Van Tries has been invited by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. to deliver his recital in Indiana, Pa., on Monday evening, November 1st.

-At a special meeting of the Tyrone school board last Friday evening James A. Shook of this place, was elected assistant principal of the borough schools.

--- The Bellefonte Lodge of Eiks are arranging to entertain the people of Bellenew Centre county fair. Watch for it.

go another step toward relieving the of the comrades. drought and raising the water in the springs and streams throughout the county.

-The Panther hunting club held their first meeting this season on Taesday evening to begin arrangements for their annual two weeks hunt the latter part of Novem-

-Mrs. Lucy Moyer has been seriously ill since Wednesday night of last week at her home in the Harris house on Allegheny street, and is under the care of a professional nurse.

-Durant L. Furey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Furey, of South Williamsport, but former residents of Bellefonte, was married on Tuesday of last week to Miss Edith C. Whitehead, of Williamsport.

opposite the WATCHMAN office yesterday MAN readers to conjure with. morning.

-On account of the horse show at State College tomorrow (Saturday, October when he fired up his engine when the mines 23rd) the Bellefonte Central railroad will sell tickets at all stations at one fare for the round trip. No ticket sold for amination disclosed an eel swimming less than 50 cents.

of Rellefonte and the finder is requested to return same to Will Chambers, at the postoffice.

Mann, of Mill Hall.

Penusylvania tomorrow.

imer property on High street opposite the make the best kind of eel hatcheries. court house, in which the Bellefonte Lodge 1910. The price paid was $5,400.

-The Nittany Country club, having finally come to an agreement with the McMullen Estate, has decided to go shead at once with its new building at Hecla Park. The specifications will be ready in solicitor for the American Telephone and be a great contest and should be witnessed two weeks and then work will begin and be pushed as far as possible before weather

Willard, a trained nurse, underwent an caused considerable surprise to his many operation for appendicitis, in the Bellefonte friends it is one he has had under con- Bloomsburg Normal last Saturday by the hospital. On Monday Miss Mary Owen templation for some time and the change score of 63 to 6. From this it can be seen also underwent an operation for a tumor. was made only after he had given the mat-During the week eight patients were ad- ter the most careful consideration. mitted to the hospital and two discharged. At present none of the patients there are in been in the telephone business and it will ed on the big gridirons. Game will be a critical condition.

opening most hopefully under the labors of up his position as manager of the Western don't forget to take the money with you. the new pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey. On Union Telegraph company to accept the the evening of October 14th, a reception position of manager of the Bellefonte ex- -The heavy blasting done in excavatenjoyable evening was spent.

Moore started to leave Keichline's garage was organized. in his Ford automobile and the street beside of being badly shaken up.

-Mrs. Boyd A. Musser, who last week was struck in the eye by the steel point of an umbrella a man in front of her was carrying under his arm, while she was tion as mail agent on the morning train and the indications now are that she will adelphia. Robert Sechler has been trans-

REUNION OF OLD SOLDIERS.-Eighteen and vicinity. The morning session was the sportin' fraternity. devoted entirely to routine business, such as reading and approving the minutes of the last meeting, hearing the treasurer and various committee's reports. A list of the comrades who died during the past year-

At the afternoon session officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, J. W. Plummer, of Altoona; first vice president, James Krebs, of Milesburg; second vice president, W. H. Speer, of Altoona; third vice president, John Mc-Donald, of Pasadena, Cal.; secretarylain, A. J. Hall, of Trough Creek.

-----Another all day's rain yesterday will to music and brief addresses by a number

A camp fire was held in the evening at which Clement Dale E-q., made the formal address of welcome which was responded to by the secretary of the organization, G. W. Buck, of Altoona. The main address of the evening was delivered by Rev. John Hewitt and it was much appreciated by all present. Brief speeches were also made by Col. John A. Daley, of Curtin township, Francis Speer and others, and the reunion closed with a vote of thanks by the visiting veterans to the members of Gregg Post for the use of their rooms and other courtesies extended. The next reunion will be held at Gettysburg in 1910 during the G. A. R. encampment.

-There is at least one big trout left mines have an eel story over which they in Spring creek, as a nice specimen of the have been puzzling their brains considerbrook variety, fully sixteen inches long, ably and as yet have not reached a satiswas disporting around in the waters just factory solution, so we give it to WATCH-

W. H. Farber is the engineer in charge were started several weeks ago he heard a splashing in the water tank and an exaround in the tank. All efforts to catch hot steam before it could be removed.

eel get in the tank? The engine had been to do so. Wolf pulled up his gun and standing idle for over nine months, and, shot, solely with the intention of frighten. a nice farm near Beech Creek where the -As an aftermath of the Vorbis-Bud. when in use the water used in the boiler ing and not to hit the man, but he shot a inger wedding a big dance was given at was pumped out of an artesian well hun- little too close and the bullet out off the the Budiuger home Wednesday evening dreds of feet deep, and even if eels live and end of the young man's nose. It is needmake formal aunouncement of the engage- derground it must have been very small and got off the premises. His wound will ment of Miss Maude Budinger to Harry E. when it landed in the tank, as it would result in disfiguring him for life. have to pass through the pump valves. - Geneva College was bardly good And yet when the eel was removed from in store for them at the Scenic. Motion practice for State's foot hall team last Sat. the tank it measured sixteen inches in pictures were taken of the world's series urday, the score being 46 to 0 in favor of length. And that is another question puz of base ball games between the Pittsburg the Centre county boys. This morning zling the Scotia people. Admitting the and Detroit teams and manager T. Clayton the State team left for Philadelphia for eel was pumped into the tank while only a Brown has booked the list of pictures to be their annual game with the University of little cel-let is it possible that it grew to shown at the Scenic just as soon as they -Thomas H. Harter, postmaster of months it is supposed to have been housed a few days. Therefore you don't want to Bellefonte and editor and proprietor of the in the water tank of the dinkey engine. If Keystone Gazette, last week bought the Lar- it did, then engine water tanks ought to these great pictures. As a special attracof Eiks have had their home the past two it has been learned that about a year ago mont park, Philadelphia, was shown years. He will get possession April 1st, a nine inch eel which had been caught out in addition to the regular program. reservoir, and this was likely the eel.

W. L. MALIN ACCEPTS AGENCY FOR MUTUAL LIPE INS. Co.-W. L. Malin last Telegraph company and on Monday ac- by a large crowd. The Academy boys cepted the district agency for the Mutual have already earned an enviable reputation that would prevent outside work comes. Life Insurance company, of New York. by defeating the Indiana Normal team On Friday of last week Miss Vera While Mr. Malin's change in business has

For about thirty years Mr. Malin has noon should be as interesting as any playappear strange for a time to associate him called promptly at three o'clock and you -The work of the new conference year with anything else. When the telephone want to be on hand. The price of admis-

new vocation. -L. E. Jones has resigned his posiboarding a train at Tyrone on her way east over the Lewisburg and Tyrone railhome to Altoona from a visit with friends road to accept the position of transfer regin Bellefonte, is getting along very nicely ister clerk at the Broad street station, Philsuffer no permanent injury to her eye. ferred to the position vacated by Jones.

-The base ball season baving closed members of the One Hundred and Tenth last Saturday when the Pirates of Pittsregiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Veterans burg won the world's championship by de- in Snow Shoe in many a day was that on port arch Deaconry of the Episcopal week, October 13th, Mrs. Snean Hall, association met in their twenty-sixth an- feating the Tigers of Detroit in the final Wednesday of Miss Effie Budinger, daugh- church will be held in St. John's Episco- mother of Hon. J. K. P. Hall, of Ridgway, nual reunion in this place last Friday. The game of the series by the score of 8 to 0, sessions were held in the Gregg Post rooms and Johnson still retaining his title as the and in addition to the old veterans were at- world's champion slugger by knocking out Ohio, a former baseball star at State Col- James H. Darlington, of the Harrisburg is of interest to WATCHMAN readers be tended by a number of wives and daughters Ketchel in the twelfth round the same of the comrades who accompanied them to evening, the foot ball games and hunting this place, as well as people from Bellefonte stories will now engross the attention of -Knisely and Rhoads have secured the contract for putting a concrete floor in father. the drying house of the Hayes Run Fire Brick company at Orvis. The job will be quite a large one as the building is 150x340 feet in size and the floor will be a double one with a series of steam pipes running between the lower and upper one. They shipped their machinery, etc., there this week and expect to begin work on the job some time next week.

--- Major Berriman and Adjutant One of the special features of the gather- tober 26th, and in order to entertain them Albert Kelley, of Bellaires, Ohio. ing was the election of four young ladies as | and at the same time give the people of worth ten times that.

> -The Farmers National bank, of Millheim, opened its doors for business last Friday. The new justitution is capitalized at $25,000 and has as its officers the following gentlemen. President, Dr. G. S. Frank ; cashier, John Eby ; board of directors, Aleman Frank, Henry Duck, Dr. G. S. Frank and L. E. Stover, 'of Millheim : C. L. Gramley and Dr. Bright, of Rebersburg; John Roush, of Madisonburg; Henburg ; William Pealer, Spring Mills, and Mr. Fisher, of Penn Hall.

How DID THE EEL GET THERE?-The Storm, the barber, and it might be inter- young couple went to the altar unattended. officials and employees at the Scotia ore esting to his old friends in this place to About fifty guests were present to witness first class. His eldest danghter is a fullfledged milliner at eighteen dollars a week whole family is happy and prosperous.

-Last Saturday while John Wolf, of

--- Lovers of base ball have a rare treat the length of sixteen inches in the nine can be secored which will likely be wishin miss an evening if you don't want to miss P. S.—Since the above was put in type the recent automobile races in Fairof Bald Eagle creek had been put in the making three reels of films. And the price remains the same, five cents to all.

-- The Bellefonte Academy and Dickinson Seminary foot ball game on Hughes Saturday resigned his position as general field tomorrow afternoon will undoubtedly while the Dickinson Seminary team are deserving of equal honors for defeating the ly matched and the game tomorrow after-side walls and build up new to make the him. building as substantial as it should be.

-Advertise in the WATCHMAN.

pretentions weddings that has taken place HERE .- A regular session of the Williams- ANNIVERSARY .- On Wednesday of last ter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Budinger, and pal church, this place, on Monday and celebrated her ninetieth birthday anniver-Robert Raymond Vorhis, of South Lorain, Tuesday, October 25th and 26th. Bishop sary at her home in St. Mary's and the fact lege. The ceremony took place in the diocese, and about twenty-five clergymen cause the Halls for many years were resi Methodist Episcopal church at 12:30 o'clock with an equal number of lay delegates will dents of Centre county. Mrs. Hall was and was performed by the pastor, Rev. C. be present. Frank Ruch, in the presence of over one hundred guests. The ring service was used as follows : and the bride was given away by her

The attendants were Miss Edith Budinger, as maid of honor; Miss Maude E. Budinger, Miss Lucinda Falsom Vorbis, of Yonkers, N. Y., and Miss Louise Garman Maitland, of Williamsport, bridesmaids. Patsy Budinger was flower girl, W. Cordes Snyder Jr., ring-bearer and Helen Budinger and Elizabeth Seeds, of Tyrone, color bearers. The best man was Harold B. Rowland, of Yonkers, N. Y, and the treasurer, G. W. Buck, of Altoona; chap- Runcie, Salvation Army officers of Balti- usbers Lawrence F. Vorhis and Frederick more, will be in Bellefonte Tuesday, Oc. H Johnson, students at State College, and

Following the ceremony at the church a associate members of the organization. Bellefonte an opportunity of hearing them reception was tendered the young couple at They were: Miss Ella McDonald, of a musicale will be held by the local Army the home of the bride's parents, after which Pasadena, Cal. ; Miss Bessie Speer, of Al- corps in their barricks over the Centre they left on a honeymoon trip east. They toona; Miss Murray, of Hollidaysburg, and county bank Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. will take up their residence in South Lofonte on November 19th and 20th with a Mrs. Anna Fink, of Bellwood. The bal- It will be a big treat for everybody and the rain, Ohio, after November first. The ance of the afternoon session was devoted public in general is invited. Price of ad- bride is well known throughout Centre mission is only ten cents, and it will be county and is an accomplished and vivacious young lady. The bridegroom is also well known in this section from having | Haven. spent two years at State College and as a member of the Howard baseball team in 1908. He is now employed in a big steel plant at South Lorain.

HAAGEN-CONFER. - Quite a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Confer, at Yarnell, on Wednesday evening, when their youngest daughter, Miss Frances M. Confer, was ry, Philip and Harvey Krause, of Aarons. united in marriage to Harry S. Haagen, of Beech Creek. The ceremony took place at six o'clock in the evening and was performed by Rev. W. H. Patterson, pastor -During Col. H. S. Taylor's stay in of the Disciple church at Blanchard. The Seattle, on his trip to the Pacific coast, he wedding march was played by Miss Mary saw and had quite a chat with W. C. Haagen, a sister of the bridegroom, and the know that he is getting along fine. A the ceremony, the number including all barber in that city is paid twenty dollars a the brothers and sisters of the bride, other week and of course Mr. Storm ranks in the relatives and a few very intimate friends.

Following the ceremony and congratulations an elaborate wedding dinner was her sister, Mrs Alice M. Parker, on east Bishop and his eldest son has employment at served the bridal party and guests present. of the dinkey engine at the mines and sixty-five dollars per month, so that the Yesterday morning Mr. and Mrs. Haagen left on a four days trip to the western part of the State expecting to return next Mon-Pennevalley, was walking over his farm day when a reception will be given them he caught a young man up one of his fa. at the Haagen home in Beech Creek. The vorite obestuut trees. He ordered him bride is a most estimable young woman pocketbook, containing transportation for himself to Pitteburg and return, somedown the tree and leave the premises or he man of excellent qualifications. For a ber of years he this and Clinton county, but he also owns KEENER-CORL -A quiet wedding took place on Thursday afternoon, October 14th, and the occasion was taken advantage of to propagate in water at that great depth un- less to say he came down the tree at once at the home of the Corl sisters at Pleasant Gap, when Miss Naonie C. Corl was united in holy wedlock to Jacob M. Keener, of Anaconda, Colorado. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. I. Stoneoypher, of Boalsburg.

Besides the pastor and his wife only a few of the immediate relatives and friends of py event. The ceremony having been performed and congratulations extended the little company was invited to the dining room where refreehments were served.

The bride is an excellent lady and is held | Monday evening. in high esteem by all who know her. The groom is a talented man and holds a good position in the Cripple Creek gold mining district of Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Keener will make their home in Anaconda, Col., for which place they will leave in a few days. The best wishes of many friends acphia. She was accompanied by her niece, Mrs.
H. S. Cooper, who will go to New York for a few company them.

SMITH-STOVER. -On Sanday evening ast William F. Smith and Mrs. H. Terresta Stover, both of Millheim, were quietly married at the home of the bride in that place by Rev. C. F. Garrett, of the United Evangelical church. Only the immediate friends of the bride and groom were present to witness the ceremony. Both the contracting parties are quite well known all over the county, especially Mr. Smith, and their many friends have been busy ever since extending them congratulations. ARRESTED FOR ROBBING RHOADS' COAL

OFFICE. - On Wednesday night of fair week robbers broke into Rhoads coal office of the Bellefonte First U. B. church is was first introduced in Bellefonte be gave sion will be only twenty-five cents and and got away with about twelve dollars in money. Last Friday night the Bellefonte Fuel and Supply company's office was broken into and an effort made to force the was given in the Aid society rooms of the change. During the intervening term of ing the foundation for the new addition to safe but, failing in this, the robbers carchurch in honor of the new paster and fam- years he has filled many positions of trust the court house so wrecked the rear wall of ried away a bunch of keys and pair of gum ily. Refreshments were served and an and importance with various companies the old building that it was necessary to boots. On Monday evening the police arand it was mainly through his efforts that tear it down. This was done on Tuesday rested Joseph Wagner and on putting him -Last Thursday afternoon W. A. the Huntingdon and Clearfield company evening and Wednesday morning and after through the sweating process he confessed it was down it was easy to be seen why it and implicated Henry Gordon as his com-He was always successful in every position was wrecked. The wall was built entirely pagion in both robberies. For this he was ing wet and slippery he was unable to he held and there is every reason to sup- of small stone, there being very few of them released because it is believed that he was make the turn on account of his machine pose he will be just as successful in his new bigger than a man's head while the most of led into the crimes by Gordon. Gordon was skidding and the result was he ran into a position. He is a man of pleasing per- them were considerably smaller. Such a arrested the same night and he latter conskidding and the result was he had into a sonality and a logical, argumentative talker, wall naturally would not stand the jar and fessed. The two young men were given a chine. Fortunately he was not hurt out. all of which are the leading attributes of a shock of heavy blasting, and as evidence of hearing before justice of the peace John M. uccessful insurance man. Hence we be- how badly it was shattered when workmen Keichline who sent them to jail to await speak for him a prosperous carreer in his undertook to tear it down the entire wall trial at the next term of court. Gordon was pushed right out into the foundation has already served time in the Huntingdon for the new building where it fell en a pile reformatory and in the penitentiary like a luge load of stone dumped from a and has figured in a number of robberies wagon. It may also be necessary to take in Bellefonte. This time it is quite out both rear corners and a few feet of the likely that no leniency will be shown

-You miss a good thing if you don't take the WATCHMAN.

VORRIS-BUDINGER. -One of the most EPISCOPAL ARCH DEACONRY TO MEET CELEBRATED NINETIRTH BIRTHDAY

The program for the two days sessions is

Monday, 7:30 p. m.-Missionary service at which he appointed speakers are Bishop Darlington ; Rev. Dr. J. P. Wheaton, of New York; Rev. J. W. Diggles, of Bloomsburg, and Rev. F. W. Null, Tuesday, 9:00 a. m.-Holy Communion, with ser-

a. m., business session. At 12:15 the visiting elergy and the vestrymen of the parish will be the guests of the Ladies Guild at luncheon at the Bush house, 2:00 p. m. business session. At 7:30 p. m.-Evening prayer, with sermon by Rev. Thos. Yates, of Williamsport

All services and business sessions are open t the public and visitors will be made welcome.

-Only eleven more days until election

News Purely Personal

-Miss Anna Ross, of Linden Hall, was a gues -Prot. George P. Bible, of Philadelphia, was a

-Miss Louise Brachbill spent the past two weeks visiting friends in Philadelphia and Wash-

-Miss Harriet Foster spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week with friends in Lock

-Woods Sebring, of Philadelphia, has been in Bellefonte this week visiting his father, John P.

are in Bellefonte for a two weeks visit with

-Mrs. Hamilton Otto, of Niagara Falls, with her nephew, Otto Cowdrick, is visiting friends

-Gustave Lyon, of Philadelphis, is in Belle fonte for a few days visit with his sister, Mrs -Miss Elizabeth Fryberger, of Philipsburg, was an over Sunday visitor at the W. R. Brach bill home in this place. -Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Sara Hoffer, left on Monday afternoon for a sojourn at Atlantic City.

--Richard Sheehe, landlord of the Garman ouse, was in Troy, N. Y., on Tuesday attending the funeral of his uncle, James Burke. -Mrs. J. C. Hunter, of Filmore, was in B fonte on a shopping expedition on Saturday and a pleasaut caller at the WATCAMAN office -Mrs. Annie Johnson and son Randolph, of ersey Shore, spent Saturday and Sunday with

-Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayes and daughter, Miss Imogene, of Union City, Pa., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Willard, on Thomas

-Mrs. Julia Shuey, of Lemont, came to Belle-

-Edward Pruner Moyer and Mrs. Margaret Hiltner, of Tyrone, have been in Bellefonte this wrong track because of an open switch. week seeing their grandmother, Mrs. Lucy

-After a visit at the home of his parents Mr and Mrs. John Dubbs, Mr. and Mrs. John Dubbs

-Mrs. Aaron S. Boalick, of Osceola Mills, spent last week in Bellefonte visiting her sister, Mrs John Klinger, and this week she is visiting her other sister, Mrs. Shuman Lyon, at Lyontown. -Will Brouse, who is holding down a good position with the Eyer-Shoemaker Construction company at Northumberland, was home over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S.

-Mr. and Mrs. Newton Stone and Mrs. George Field, of Coatesville, were guests of Mrs. W. H.

-W. S. Malialieu, D. Benton Tate, Charles Donachy, Milan Walker and Wade Cruse attended the semi-annual banquet of the Western Pennsylvania Telephone society in Harrisburg on -Tuesday morning Miss Bessie G. McCafferty, of east Lamb street, departed for Altoons, where industries in this section, and it is to be she will visit her many friends for a month b fore going to Pittsburg to spend the winter !with her sister, Mrs. James Depler.

-On Monday morning Miss Sallie Benner left for an extended visit with friends in Philadel. days before returning to her home in Galveston

-Jim Allport, of Barnesboro, with a party of friends, were guests over Saturday night at the Brockerhoff house. They were on their way home from an automobile trip through New York State and made the run from Canton, Pa., to Bellefonte on Saturday.

-Miss Mary Miller, of Huntingdon, and Mrs. Joseph Bright and daughter Annie, of Pottsville have been in Bellefonte this week visiting Mrs. Welsh. Miss Miller is a neice of Mrs. Welsh and will stay with her for some time. That lady, by the way, is resting very comfortably over the

-There are a few hundred people in the county who are always sure to give us a call at leas once a year, and that is to make sure that we are always in their debt for a year's subscription to the WATCHMAN, and among that number is John Spearley, of this place, who dropped in on us right and early Wednesday morning to fix things up as usual.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Treziyulny and two sons Fred and Franklin, of Byron, -Ill., have all re turned home after a protracted visit at the home of Mrs. R. J. Gibbs, in Boggs township. They came east early in September but Mr. Treziyulny was compelled to return home the latter part of last month. Mrs. Treziyulny and son Franklin were in the eastern part of the State for a week or more but returned to the home of Mrs. Gibbs to pick up Fred, the three of them leaving for home on Tuesday afternoon. The two boys are great great great grand-sons of Baron Charles reziyulny, a one time resident of Bellefonte and he true founder of Philipsburg.

-James Dumbleton, one of the old time citizens of Philipsburg, and an old-fashioned dyedin the-wool Democrat, accompanied by Mr. Kephart, a leading hardware dealer of Philipsburg, ere in Bellefonte severa! hours between trains esterday. They were on their way kome from attending the annual encampment of the Grand odge I. O. O. F., in Lock Haven and both of them had the appearance of a foreign potentate in their gold corded uniforms and glittering adges; but with all that they still maintain hat for a good old time when it comes to entertaining big gatherings Philipsburg has every other place in the country beat a mile, and they're about right, at that.

born at Hartleton, Union county, but when only five years of age her father. John Geary, moved to Nittany Hall, this county, where he built the large hall from which the town derived its name and which is still standing and in a fair state of preservation. When but nineteen years of age she was married to Benjamin McDowell Hall, mon by Rev. R. F. Gibson, of Williamsport; 10:00 at Hublersburg, and for many years they lived in Boggs township, this county, where most of their seven children were born. Of the above number two sons and two daughters survive and the former have attained unusual prominence, politically, judicially and in the world of finance, having achieved national reputations. They are Hon. J. K. P. Hall, of Ridgway, who served several terms in Congress from this district and later four years in the Senate of Pennsylvania, and Harry Alvin Hall, of St. Mary's, at one time a State Senator. United States attorney under President Cleveland and now president judge of the Clinton-Elk-Cameron county district. Both gentlemen have large coal and other business interests and have become quite wealthy. The daughters are Mrs. B. E. Wellendor and Miss Mary Hall, of St. Mary's, John G., one of the deceased sons, also represented his district in the State Senate. Mrs. Hall, notwithstanding her advanced age, is -Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Runkle, of Coatesville. still in possession of all ber faculties and a remarkably beautiful woman for having lived four score and ten years.

A GOOD FELLOW. -- Mark Swan's latest farce-comedy, "A Good Fellow," with Alice Williams in the leading role, will be the attraction at Garman's Wednesday evening, October 27th. The story of the play has to do with Dolly Sevier, who has been sent to New York to study music. She has been secretly married and her attempts to bide the fact from ber man-bating aunt. causes a train of amusing incidents that furnishes the cause for many laughs. During the action of the play Dolly puts on men's clothes in order to visit her husband unobserved, but is seen by an officious policeman and a gambler, who, with the janitor complicate matters still further. The play is said to be an admirable vehicle for the display of Miss Williams' talents and the supporting company to be one of excellence. Prices, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

KILLED IN TYRONE-Frank P. Murphy. a brakeman on the shifter on the main line fonte on Wednesday and after doing a little shopping went out to A. C. Grove's, to assist at an at Tyrone, was instantly killed about nine o'clock Monday evening by being struck by a passenger train which ran on the Murphy was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Furnace, where he has a number of friends and relatives. He was thirty-seven years old and is survived by his wife and a little daughter; his parents and a number of brothers and sisters. The funeral was held vesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Grandview cemetery at Tyrone.

NITTANY FURNACE BLOWN IN .- As aunounced in the WATCHMAN last week the fires in the Nittany furnace were lighted on Friday of last week, Miss Catharine Wilkinson the past ten days or so. Mrs. Field Musser, stenographer for the furnace comthe bride were present to witness the hap- left for her home on Wednesday and Mrs. Stone pany, applying the torch. Everything went along so smoothly that on Saturday four castings were made and it was only a few days until the output of metal was up to the average capacity of the furnace. The starting of the Nittany furnace is the first step towards the full resumption of all the hoped that is and all others may have a long and successful run.

Bellefo	nte I	re	du	ie	e Mar	keta.
Corrected	weekly	by	R.	8.	Brouse,	grocer.

Potatoes per bushel,	60
Onions	75
Eggs, per dozen	28
Lard, per pound	13
Country Shoulders	10
Sides	10
Hams	13
Tallow, per pound	4
Butter, per pound	28
Rellefonte Grain Market.
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,
The following are the quotations up to o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper to press:	goes
Red Wheat.	$1.10
White Wheat	1.05
Rve. per bushel	70
Corn, shelled, per bushel	70
Corn. ears. per bushel	70
Uats old and new, per bushel	40
Barley, per bushel	60
Barley, per bushel	9 50
Buckwheat, per bushei	40
Cloversead per husbal 67 00 to	$8 00
Timothy seed per bushel	$2,20
Philadelphia Markets.
	SECTION OF SECTION

the Philadelphia markets on evening.

Wheat-Re Corn —Yellow..... " —Mixed new

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefon Published every Friday morning, in Desirable Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until an arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertis the country and part of year, as follows.

3m 6m 1v ch (12 lines this two