POSITION OF INDEPEN-DENT REPUBLICANS

True Disciples of Liacoln Are Supporting Cyrus LaRue Munson For Justice of Supreme Court.

BERRY AND NILES ADDRESS

Sisson and Stober, With the Living Bosses and Effigy of Quay, Smile In Cynic Contempt of All Reform.

The Independent Republican meeting at Plymouth on Thursday evening and personally urged to effort. was both a surprise and an inspiration. It proved that in that section of the state, at least, the better element of the Republican party is quite as active and altogether as determined against the Penrose machine as they were four years ago, when Mr. Berry was text of this letter, which will be of intriumphantly elected. The meeting terest to all Democrats:

was large and enthusiastic.

The speakers were in harmony with the spirit of their audience and both in excellent form. Every strong point made was enthusiastically applauded and every sentence expressed a strong point. It was easily the most effective political demonstration in that section of the state this year. The speakers were Hon. W. H. Berry, former state treasurer, and Hon. Henry we are receiving at headquarters.

c. Niles, chairman of the Lincoln Party state committee.

Mr. Berry said in part:

"There can be no confusion as to the issues of the campaign. No question as to the personal character of the candidates is raised. No question of political significance in the state or nation is involved. We are simply to consider the advisability of electing candidates selected by a thoroughly discredited leadership and thereby insuring their return to power in the state and opening the way for a return to the disgraceful conditions existing prior to 1905.

"It is the duty of every Democrat in the state to actively support the nominees of their party. They are men of the highest character and ability, nominated by the free choice of their party and they deserve our support for these reasons. Moreover,

of their party and they deserve our

of their party and they deserve our support for these reasons. Moreover, the best interests of the state demand that a strong and formidable opponent of the dominant political party be maintained in the state. Let it not be said that Democrats are apathetic or indifferent in this campaign.

"Republicans who love political virtue more than party success can endorse the sentiment and will vote accord gly unless they believe that their leaders are repentant and will repudiate their life-long records. That they were thoroughly scared by the election of a Democrat in 1905 is certain. The hasty call of the extra session of tion of a Democrat in 1905 is certain. The hasty call of the extra session of the legislature in 1906, the good work done by it and the selection of excellent candidates at the next election, leave no doubt of this. But recent events disclose the old spirit revived. The Quay statue is erected in a prominent niche in the capitol pursuant to the votes of both the present Republican candidates, Sisson and Stober. No protest or apology is of record from them. They, with the living bosses and the marble image smile in cynic contempt of all reform.

"Salter, the confessed traitor, who fled the country to escape conviction for notorious ballot box stuffing in Philadelphia, returned when the district attorney's office was manned by Norris S. Barrett and Robert von Moschzisker, when, according to Senator McNichol, the jury was fixed and Salter acquitted. Barrett was nominated and elected judge by the machine that profited by Salter's crime. Von Moschzisker was presented by them to Governor Pennypacker for appointment to the bench soon afterward, but the governor declined to appoint him. He was nominated, however, and elected to the bench by the gang at the succeeding election.

Following is a summary of Mr. Niles' speech:

"The state ticket that is this year labeled Republican is in no honest sense the ticket of the Republicans of Pennsylvania.

"They are urging the Republicans who believe in honest government and pure politics to vote for their selection for the important offices of state treasurer, auditor general and justice of the supreme court.

"There is no moral, legal or political obligation so to do.

"So long as the crime and fraud o one Philadelphia ward is permitted to defeat the will of the honest anti-graft Republicans of whole counties of the state, the nominees of such methods are not entitled to our support. "Since the defeat of Plummer, in 1905, the bosses have pretended to an unusual goodness. "They are now tired of even the appearance of reform. "Their temporary restrained hunger for the spoil has become irresistible and they are now engaged in an effort to resume control of the money and the auditing of the state.

"The candidates who have been given the Republican label have always been for and never against the corrupt methods which have been Pennsylvania's shame. They are satisfactory to these bosses.

"Therefore, they are not satisfactory to the true Republicans, and ought to be defeated by them.

"In 1905 the duty of Independent Republicans was to elect Berry, the Democratic candidate. "This year, for the same reasons the duty of the same class of patriotic Independent Republicans is to elect the Democratic candidates, Kipp, for state treasurer; Clark, for auditor general, and Munson, for the supreme court."

CHAIRMAN DEWALT MAKES STRONG APPEAL

In Personal Letter to Committeemen, He Urges Activity on Election Day. The Democratic state committee has made a most thorough and apparently effective campaign. No opportunity to create interest in and arouse enthusiasm for the candidates of the party has been overlooked. It has been an exceedingly quiet campaign so far as "blaring tr"mpets and tinkling cymbals" go. But every party worker in the state has been directly appealed to

One of the last appeals of the campaign was in the form of a personal letter of Chairman Dewalt to the chairmen and members of the Democratic county and city committees. There are about 10,000 of them, all told, but not one was neglected. Following is the

We have sadly failed in our purpose as we'l as fallen short of our duty if we have failed to make clear to any intelligent mind that the Democrats of Pennsylvania can have an easy and glerious victory this fall. A full Democratic vote will give the candidates of the party an overwhelming majority. Ninety per cent. of a full vote will give them a large majority and eighty per cent. of the vote for Mr. Bryan last fall will guarantee their election. It will be impossible to get out the full vote in the cities, where personal registration is required, but a full vote in the country districts will ' ing the total up to ninety per cent. of the Bryan aggregate. Let every Democrat strive for this result.

It was hardly a friend of Robert Von Moschzisker who conceived the idea of publishing portraits of the Republican and Democratic candidates for justice of the supreme court side by side. The picture thus made is a striking one, beyond doubt, but it doesn't create a favorable impression of Von Moschzisker. It calls to mind the scene in the play in which Hamlet reproves his mother for her iniquities by comparing his father, whom she has abandoned, to his uncle with whom she has taken up. It is a fair campaign argument, however, and ought to be effective.

An esteemed contemporary remarks that the supreme court might as well have issued an order for the acquittal of Dr. Snyder and Mr. Shumaker. the convicted capitol grafters, and it is right. With Quay's memory honored by a marble effigy the punishment of grafters whom he taught to be corrupt would be incongruous and gro-
