To Connessonments .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of -A little daughter was born to Mrs. James K. Barnhart, in the Bellefonte hospital, on Tuesday.

- -D. Wagner Geiss has recovered from an attack of tonsilitis and is at work again in the Rhoads coal office.
- -A little son made his arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brown, of east Lamb street, on Sunday.
- -James Bayard went down to Howard last Thursday and went to work as compositor on the Bellefonte Daily.
- -The Salvation Army people bave moved to the corner house on Thomas and High streets owned by Jared Harper.
- -Lew McQuistion is recovering from
- fined to the house for the past ten days. -Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside entertained Saturday night with six band enobre
- in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris. -Israel Baum last week resigned his position as clerk in Mingle's shoe store, a position he occupied for about fifteen years.
- -J. Mac Curtin, of Pittsburg, whose illness-threatened pneumonia-we noted to sit up - on Saturday and broke her hip. As she is failed to bring it down. well advanced in years the injury is quite a serious one
- -- John Lambert butchered two very fine porkers yesterday, though John was not able to help as he was confined to the house with an attack of grip.
- --- Mrs. Mary Barner, her two daughters, Mabel and Ida, and son Harry were all admitted to the Bellefonte bospital on Tuesday for treatment of typhoid fever.
- -Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell are preparing to close their home on east Linn street after Christmas, in anticipation | tre county this year than were last year, and at 2:30 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, and of Mrs. Mitchell spending some time in Europe
- the address.
- -At a recent meeting of the board of trustees of The Pennsylvania State College Prof. C. L. Goodling was appointed superintendent of the college farms in place of Capt. W. C. Patterson, deceased.
- --- Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside will close her house immediately after Christmas, ex. urst and George Brian. pecting to spend two monhts in Philadelphia, going later for a visit with ber niece.
- -A young son was born to Mr. and Look Haven, Tuesday night, and its dollars to doughouts that Dick is now stepping higher than any man in that town.
- -In order to facilitate the bandling of their big freight traffic, owing to the operation of the two furnaces at this place, the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania company will enlarge their yards at Mill Hall.
- -The students of the Bellefonte Academy who were home on their Thanksgiving vacation all returned on Tuesday and the Academy opened again on Wednesday for the final month before the Holiday
- the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in this place High school basket ball team won from will have a marble floor and wainscoting the Bellefonte High echool team by the score of 47 to 44.
- -Observing the good results of oiled above bid. streets to get rid of the dust nuisance, as demonstrated up town, the business men hetween Spring creek and the Pennsylva. section of High street
- -Mrs. M. J. Locke entertained the Accal Chapter, D. A. R. last evening. The meeting, which was a special one, was unusually interesting because of the fact that the report of the annual meeting of the state organization was read.
- -The Bellefonte Academy basket ball their opening game which will be one week from tonight, December 10th. The outlook is for a good team this season, which naturally will mean some good sport for those who like that time.
- -Farmers in many portions of Centre county are hard driven for water for stock purposes and in some places they are compelled to drive their stock quite a distance had this fall put water in the cisterns they part of the machinery and without thinkdid not effect the wells or springs.
- --- Complaint is being made by members of the recently organized Bellefonte Merchants association that one or more business men in Bellefonte who refused to become members are now endeavoring to use it as a means of collecting debts by threats to expose the debtors through the association's rating book.
- in mathematics at the Bellefonte Academy, recently won a prize of six hundred dol- tore off the burning coat and thus saved manager T. Clayton Brown and he has al- without doing a very great amount of damlars in a contest of college men all over the country in writing essays on economic subjects. His essay was on "The Standard Workingmen's Families."

BELLEFONTE HUNTERS RETURN. -The Panther hunting club, after two weeks in arranged and his opening moving picture the Alleghenies in quest of deer, returned attraction advertised for Monday night comlast Saturday evening empty handed and plications arose between he and Garmane tion once again. Of course they had various stories to tell about their luck and all proclaimed it a case of the hardest kind of THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY lack that they were not able to bring home some venison. All told they saw five deer and had some six or eight shots. The big buck shot by John Kuisely and Al Shawley on the second day of the season, was no doubt mortally wounded, as it left a trail of blood on each side but as it was raining bard the trail was soon washed away and could not be followed. Another day when the men were makfour inches long walked out to within thirty yards of Mitch Conningham and stopped and looked at him. Mitch was so excited dens were quite plentiful around there he December term of court. didn's want to risk shooting a doe. All the same the buck must have felt satisfied it was in no danger for after standing an attack of quiney that has kept him conloped away like an old sheep. When it started Cunningham saw its horns and shot but the deer went on. Henry Kline was the next man on watch and when he heard the report of Cunningham's gun he became alarmed lest the game wardens last week, has so far recovered as to be able the spot where he had been standing. It the Robb school. Over two score of guests -Mrs. Joseph L. Neff, of Curtin, fell ry Gerberich, who also got a shot at it but with music and various social diversions

> Linn McGinley got one shot but as it was long and difficult one he also failed to bring his deer to earth. None of the party attempted to bunt small game, else they F. Hower preaching a very able discourse birds, as a Renovo party encamped not far from the Panther headquarters bad something like seventy five pheasants to their oredit. The season ended on Tuesday and it can truthfully be said that it has been the poor est season in years, as considerably less than are rabbits until December 15th and bear | ter lot in the Union cemetery. until January first.

Probably the most successful party of hunters in Centre county were the Owl hauting club, of Curtin. They came in William Dukeman, Ode Kelley, Bert Bath-and while it wasn't big enough to pass Mrs. Richard S. Quigley, at their home in around very liberally, at least he and a few of his friends will have the pleasure of a venison dinner this year.

in the corridor of the old and new buildings: marble wainscoting in corridors and on the front and rear stairways of iron and marble with iron railings and the entrance to the court room proper. At the top of the front -In their first game of the season, in stairways there will be a lobby separated from the main court room by a plate glass last Friday evening, the State College parti ion with large glass dcors. The lobby and these as well as the plate glass partition and glass doors are included in the

On Monday the carpenters began work on the one section of the roof of the new building. The walls were entirely comnia railroad have decided to put oil on that pleted on Wednesday and the whole thing will be gotten under roof as soon as possible. The new ceiling in the old court house is almost completed and everything is movteam is now hard at work practicing for work has all been given to and done, so far as possible, by local contractors.

car into Will Keiohline's garage to go over while here will be the guests of the Bellethe transmission, as it was not working fonte Motor club and if the weather is fajust right. For some purpose or other he had a pan of gasoline standing under the rear end of the machine and while at work to water. While the few rains we have he wanted to make a close inspection of a automobile. In doing so his feet slipped -Frank H. Streightoff, an instructor he could not divest himself of the burning shown the best at that popular place of their prompt efforts the fire was confined of Living or the Budgets of American dangerous around gasoline as it is around assured of getting the best-the biggest five basement or a smouldering fire in the

-After Calvin Huss had everything pose to start another motion picture show in Bellefonte.

-Early last Saturday morning sparks from the chimney set fire to the roof on the kitchen of Frank Wallace's house at Milesburg. The fire was discovered by several men starting out on a hunting trip and forming a bucket brigade they sacceeded in extinguishing the flames before much damage was done.

-- Harry Gehret, who had his right leg badly broken last week in a runoff of Brouse's delivery team and wagon and has since been undergoing treatment in the Bellefonte hospital, is getting along as well as can be expected and the physicians have hopes of the bone knitting so that he will have the free use of his ankle, as formerly,

-A very delightful gathering at were trying to kidnap him and he started Robb's Store, in Curtin township, last on a run to see what was the matter, and Saturday evening, was a social given by it was lucky he did, else the deer might Miss Edith Robb in honor of her friend have run over him as it passed almost over Miss Ada Thompson, of Martha, teacher of then ran within thirty yards or so of Har- were present and the evening was spen Choice refreshments were also served.

-The union Thanksgiving services held in the Methodist church last Thurs day evening were very interesting, Rev. J. Following the services the Cambria Gle society of Wales gave a concert in the lea ture room of the church which drew a goo crowd, considering that they had been heard here twice less than two weeks previ

-The funeral of John I. Potter wa half the number of deer were killed in Cen- held from his late home on east Linn street then the number was below the average. was quite largely attended, not only b There were more bear killed this year, how- his many friends in Bellefonte but by quite -The Bellefonte Lodge of Elks will ever, than in former years. Pheasants, a number of railroad men from other places. hold their annual memorial services in their also, were quite plentiful but the season The services were in charge of Rev. J. dramatization of Frederick Remington's own hall on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for them also closed on Tuesday and the Allison Platts assisted by Rev. John interesting novel "John Ermine." John o'clock. Rev. John Hewitt will deliver only kind of game it is now lawful to shoot Hewitt. Interment was made in the Pot- Ermine is made the hero of the play, a man

-The Pennsylvania railroad company have decided to instal their own steam heating plant in this place. It will be located down near the engine house and from tains. As a scout for government troops, on Tuesday with four nice deer, shot by there steam will be piped to heat the freight be proves his worth, but when he asks the station, passenger station and baggage department, the telegraph tower and watch riage, he learns that social barriers make The only deer brought to Bellefonte this boxes, and steam from the plant will also the union impossible. The girl admires shape in a short time. season was a small buck received by bur- be utilized to keep the cars of the Lewiswhen the locomotive is ancoupled.

FINAL CONTRACTS FOR COURT HOUSE to install the cable system all over town, as The girl is there, the only witness to the is on his way to the College to lecture Monday AWARDED. - The final contracts for the far as possible, and do away with the net killing. Ermine, because of his great love, completion of the remodeling of the old and work of wires that it now requires to handle is willing to do anything to prevent for the new part of the court house were their service. This will not only increase her being compromised, but she relast week awarded to Gebret & Lambert the efficiency of the service, it is hoped, but fuses to permit any sacrifice and tells the typhoid fever and will be with her relatives here for $11,900. They included the marble floor will obviate practically all danger of dam. story of the shooting which saves Ermine's age and delay by high winds and storms. life, and the play ends with the girl in New and much larger poles have been Ermine's arms. At the opera house Tues stairways in the old and new buildings; the erected along the route of all the cable day evening, December 7th.

> start on it will take some time before a stock of material can be gotten in shape by the addition of assemblers and finishers.

-Tomorrow (Saturday) December ing along at a fair rate of speed. That the 4th, is the time for the postponed meeting ment to from twelve to fifteen people and court house when fully completed will be of the executive committee of the Road Su- their output goes all over the country. one worthy of any county in the State is pervisor's association and as it is very like- They annually have exhibits in Chicago, the verdict of those who have seen what is ly that the sub-committee who have in being done and studied the plans closely; charge the preparation of a constitution and one good thing about it is that the and by-laws will be ready to make their HAND BADLY BURNED .- A few days and all other supervisors are welcome to everybody is invited. ago Robert F. Hunter drove his E.M.F attend this meeting. The supervisors vorable for autoing the visitors will be takof the club.

cents worth in the market.

THE ELES COUNTY FAIR .- This (Friit is almost needless to say that every man in their deal for the opera house and Mr. Charity olub. The entertainment will be of hitting the nail he hit a bottle contain- mause in Dickinson last Wednesday afof them was glad to get back to civiliza- Huss was compelled to relinquish his pur- under the direction of the Book Entertain- ing nitric acid. The bottle broke and the ment bureau, of Williamsport, assisted by acid flew over his face and hands. With Glenn. They were attended by Miss Helcharitable purposes is turned over to the Rellefonte hospital. This is the purpose of the entertainment to be given tonight and tomorrow night, and in addition to being for the cause above stated it will be -While next week will be court week a very interesting performance. The Counit will be courting only for the grand jur- ty Fair has been given in a number of the ing a drive a buck with spikes on it fully ore and constables. But at that there are neighboring towns and the comments were very few oriminal cases demanding a unusually favorable. The stage settings prompt hearing and very little important represent in great detail the scene of a litigation of any kind, so that it will do no- county fair, while most of the people who Sunday with her aunt and sister at the Brocker he couldn't see the horns and as game war- body any particular injustice to out out the will take part in it are costumed to represent some of the most amusing as well as interesting characters to be seen at a fair. It will be an enfertainment worth seeing and you don't want to miss it. Remember it will be given both tonight and tomorrow night.

As evidence that The Country Fair will be all that is claimed for it we publish the following list of characters who will take part in the performance:

4	Mrs. PiperMiss Rider
ı	Sally PiperIda Sidaek
1	Uncle JakePaul Fortney
	Aunt Mary Mary Smith Boss Jones Tom Beaver
8	Prof. SporattiJohn McSuley
	Ilmore Brown Gilbert Myore
•	Jimmy Brown
•	(Sue Donachy
8	College Girls
	Elizabeth Morris
ŧ	Dude
	Parson Briggs Edmund Haves
•	(G & Heathcotte
	i Harvey Clark
	Town Boys Walter Newman
	Max Wallace
	Town Boys
•	Lunch WomanMra. Irwin
	Mose BrownWill Mayes
•	Mrs. BrownMiss Shields
	Mrs. LangdonMollie Snyder
	Miss Newcomer
e	WidowerHard P. Harris
	BrideMiss Aiken GroomMr. Hayes
1	Giggling SalKatharine Cooney
1	Handy Andy William Beckwith
	Fat Lady
т.	Farmer Ezy MarkRobt Hunter
•	Joshua Hayseed
	Bearded ManDr. Foster
	Wheel of Fortune Man
	Hit the Coon Man Mike Hazel
8	Cartoonist DeVoe Mead
	Salome DanceHarold Foster
	Confetti Man Harry Walkey Barker Ned Blanchard
đ	BarkerNed Blanchard
	Side Show Man
y	Soloists, Misses Maitland and Curtin, Messrs.
e	Foster Armstrong, Beatly and Tyson.

CALL OF THE WILD. -This play is a in whom many noble attributes are combined, but who is untutored and uncultured, having spent his life among Indians and other people of the plains and mounhand of Major Searle's daughter in marhim, and does not care for the young lieulieutenant struggle for possession of a pio ture stolen by the lieutenant, lost by him -The Penusylvania telephone com- and found by Ermine. The girl tells

THE BASKET SHOP EXHIBITION IN -The new Yeager Swing company BELLEFONTE. -The Basket Shop will hold have started work at their plant in the old its annual exhibition in Bellefonte in Phoenix mill, though as yet they have not the W. C. T. U. room in Petriken hall the nearly a full force of men at work, nor run- week beginning December 13th. This ning their plant in full. When the plant exhibition is annually becoming more and was sold at trustee's sale some time ago all more a feature for Christmas and Holiday the out out material had been made up and shoppers wherever exhibited. The line sold so that the only stock left on hand of baskets this year is far larger and was the lumber piled up in the yards. prettier than ever. There are baskets of With nothing but the green lumber to all kinds for household purposes : Waste baskets, sewing baskets, work baskets, hanging baskets, in various styles and large enough to increase the working force fancy shapes, at prices to suit any kind of a purse. Nothing so good or appropriate for a Christmas remembrance.

The Basket Shop now affords employ-Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Washington and New York, but notwithstanding this fact the exhibit to be given in Bellefonte will report at that time it is hoped there will be just as good as those shown in the above be a good turnout of the committee so that cities. The week beginning December 13th final action on the same can be taken. Any is the time, Petriken hall the place, and 47 4t

SUNDAY MORNING FIRE-Bellefonters were aroused from their late Sunday morning slumbers by an alarm of fire, which en on a run of an hour or two by members proved to be in the south front room of the Mrs. Hibler home on Allegheny street. It was shortly before eight o'clock when sev--Local nimrods who saw that picture eral persons going to early mass at the ing struck a match. The pan of gasoline of "Hunting Jack Rabbits in Hungary," Catholic church, observed smoke issuing at once ignited and in order to save his at the Scenic last Saturday night must have from beneath the shutters of the windows. machine Mr. Hunter grabbed it with his envied their brethren on the other side of A closer examination showed the room to bare hand and jerked it from under the the Atlantic; and the great thing about the be on fire. That side of the Hibler house picture was that it was taken from a real is occupied by Mrs. Gepbart and it was on the oily concrete floor and he fell into hunting scene and not a make-up. It is only after repeated calls and knocking on the pan of burning gasoline with the result such pictures that make the motion picture the door that she was awakened. In the that his clothing caught fire. He had on shows not only interesting but of an edu- meantime Harry Taylor ran to the public a coat belonging to Lewis Hill and, it be- cational value, and patrons of the Scenic building and turned in an alarm. The ing tight and his right hand badly burned, can always be assured that they will be companies responded quickly and through garments but Hill, seeing his predicament, amusement. This is a standard set by to the one room and was extinguished him from any further injury than a burned ways maintained it, not only in his pictures age. It is not known definitely how the hand, but it is bad enough to make him but in the musical part of the entertain- fire originated, but it is the supposition realize that a burning match is about as ments as well. It is the one place you are that it was either from the furnace in the

-Last Saturday evening Charles, son day) evening will occur the first perform- of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Krumrine, was in Linn Bartholomew, of Altoons, and Miss ance of The County Fair, in the opera his father's drugstore and undertook to Elizabeth St. Claire Kennedy, of Centre house, under the auspices of the Elks drive a nail in one of the shelves. Instead Hall, were married at the Presbyterian a large company of local talent. The rare presence of mind he closed his eyes en Bartholomew, a sister of the bride-Bellefonte Lodge of Elks give an entertain- and saved them from the burning fluid, groom, and Miss Mary Kennedy, a sister of ment of some kind every year, the proceeds Alcohol, which is a neutralizer for nitric the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. of which are entirely devoted to charity acid, was applied as soon as possible but at and Mrs. John Q. A. Kennedy, of Centre and any money not needed for their own that his hands and face were badly burned. Hall, and is an accomplished and popular

News Parely Personal

-Col. John A. Daley, of Curtin township, wa

-Mrs. Minnie Price, of Port Matilda, -Miss Marie Greist, of Unionville, is the gues

-Miss Lida Morris will have for an over Sunday

guest, Miss Annie Wallace, of Philadelphia -Miss Marie White, of Williamsport, spen

-Mrs. Jennie Roth has returned from Cleve land, where she has been for two months attend ing spiritualistic seances.

-Miss Irene Pressel, a training nurse in th Bellefonte hospital, spent from Friday until Monday with her mother in Altoons. -Mrs. Wm. Crawford and little daughter Wini fred, of Coleville, left last Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rearick, at Lewisburg. after a visit of several months with her sons in New York and friends in Philadelphia.

-Mrs. Eva Snyder, of Jersey Shore, stopp off a few days with relatives in Bellefonte, on her way home from a visit with friends in Michigan. -Mrs. S. H. Bennison, of Howard, was in Bellefonte a few hours between trains on Monday at the Hoy home. while on her way home from a visit to her son in Pittsburg.

-Miss Lillian Muffly, superintendent of the DuBois hospital, was an over Sunday visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs J. L. Montgomery

-Mrs. Beaver entertained Mrs. Judson P. Weish last night and Mrs. Callaway Mrs. G. G. Pond, who were here to attend the meeting of -Mrs. James B. Stein, of Tyrone, with her two children, Mary and James, will spend next week in Bellefonte among their many friends in the Methodist church.

-Mrs. Charles Morris went to Pittsburg Friday for a visit with her father. Elliot Lyon, of Allegheny, and her sister, Mrs. Ross, wife of the well known actor, "Tommy" Ross.

Elizabeth, of Apgah, W. Va., who has been visiting Centre county relatives the past few weeks, spent last Friday with friends in Bellefonte. -Miss Smith, who lives near Lewistown, and a

York, has been spending the past two weeks very serious injury. with relatives through the Buffalo Run valley. -Mrs. H. C. Quigley who, after witnessing the state-University of Pittsburg football game on Thanksgiving day remained over for a several men were sitting in one of the hotel offices days visit, returned home on Sunday evening. -Mrs. Rachel Harris and her daughter, Miss Mary, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Montgomery, of Lambertville, and are at present in Phila-delphia, expecting to return to Bellefonte some

-James Pierpont, of Philadelphia, was in town a few days during the fore part of the week working on his proposition to locate a cement mill here. Mr. Pierpoint expects it to take definite

-Miss Alberta Noll returned home last Friday. ing Mr. and Mrs. Eckel and on her way back her sister, Mrs. George N. Vandyke.

pany on Monday began stringing new Ermine he may keep it. Ermine kills the Y. Cadwallader, of Pittsburg, will be over Sunday cables about town. It is their intention lientenant in self-defense in his own cabin. guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway. Mr. Twining and Tuesday before the School of Agriculture. -Mrs. Louis Batt, of Punxsutawney, has been fer any settlement for the damage done. for the past month with her mother, Mrs. Gess ner, of Coleville, Mrs. Batt is recuperating from > until after Christmas. Mr. Batt was in Belle' fonte over last Sunday. -Mrs. Sarah Kelley returned, Tuesday nightfrom a two weeks visit with friends in New York. With Mrs. Kelley was her cousin, Mrs. Nicholas

Walsh, who has come to Bellefonte to be for a time with Miss Ellen Woods, who has been very ill for the past six months. -Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyers, of Linden Hall, s air of the pleasantest people you would meet in a day's travel, took advantage of the delightful weather of Saturday last, to do some shopping, and call on friends in Bellefonte. The people about the WATCHMAN office are glad to be cla mong the latter. -Ex-County Commissioner Philip Meyer don't ret to town so very often but he makes it point when he does to see all the friends he can and has a pleasant word for each. He was it town on Tuesday and kept himself busier shaking hands than the "Stand patter" is explaining why a high tariff hasn't raised the wages of the workingman. -Mr. J. M. Ewing, of Newport, Perry county was in Bellefonte on Tuesday between trains while on his way to State College. He was or iginally from Centre county and always likes to ome back to see his old friends, though this time he is somewhat interested in the sale of a nice home in State College as well as a good farm in Ferguson township. -Mrs. W. H. Fishburn, of Grand Island, Neb.,

Milesburg, and Mrs. James Johnson, of Zion. I is twenty three years since Mrs. Fishburn has friends the welcome she is receiving is a warm one indeed. Prior to marriage Mrs. Fishburn was a Miss Showers, of Spring township. -T. Clayton Brown, who has not been enjo ing the best of health for some time, left for Philadelphia yesterday to undergo treatment at six months here as singer at the Scenic, and who is now located in Philadelphia, has consented to come here for two weeks and look after his moving picture business during his absence He will come to Bellefonte next Monday. -Capt. Jacob Kepler, one of the oldest resiessful farmers up in Ferguson township was in town on Tuesday, accompa Capt. Kepler is a little stiffened up, he looks about as well and says he feels about as well as he did forty years ago when he was hustling about laying the foundation for the snug little fortune he is now enjoying. And he is just as good a Democrat now as he was then.

-Mr. J. M. Barnhart gave us an encouraging word, and advanced the figures on the tab on his paper for another year, on Saturday. Mr. Barnhart has been a regular subscriber to the WATCH MAN almost forty years and says "the girls would not think of getting along without it, and Mrs. Barnhart and my-elf would go short a meal a day rather than be deprived of receiving it regular pleasure to work to give them the best that can be had, ly." It is friends of this kind that make it a

BARTHOLOMEW - KENNEDY. - Edwin ternoon by the pastor, Rev. James John young woman. The bridegroom is a son of W. H. Bartholomew, of Centre Hall. A few years ago be was assistant station agent at Centre Hall and from there went to Altoona and accepted a clerical position in the Pennsylvania railroad offices in that city. The young couple returned to Centre Hall the latter part of last week, and remained there until the beginning of this week when they journeyed to Altoona. They will not go to housekeeping until

ALBRIGHT-HOY .- Last Thursday evening Walter W. Albright and Miss Emma E. Hoy, of Pine Hall, went to Pine Grove Mills and were married at the Lutherap parsonage by Rev. J. S. Shultz. After the ceremony the young couple returned to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. W. -Mrs. Thad Hamilton returned home last week Hoy, were they were given a wedding supper and reception. Both young people are well known and quite popular in Ferguson township. Mr. Albright being one of the wide-awake young farmers of that community. For the present they will reside

MILLER-KANE.-Henry J. Miller, of Haskell, N. J., and Miss Catharine M. Kane of Bellefonte, were married in St. Bernard's Catholic church, at Howard, on Monday morning by Rev. Father O'Hanlon. Miss Marshall, of Look Haven, played the wedding march and there were no attendents.

-A few days ago Dr. Seibert's father was driving from his home in Newport to New Bloomfield, Perry county, when he came up to a party of automobilists stock in the road. As he was driving quite a spirited horse he got out of the buggy and -Mrs. Chester Walker with her little baby led the animal around the automobile without any trouble but while he was getting into the buggy the animal frightened and ran away. Mr. Seibert was thrown to the ground but fortunately sustained no

-Here is one for the girls of Belle fonte. The other evening two traveling in this place idly watching the people pass back and forth. Finally one remarked that Bellefonte seemed to be quite a lively place in the evening, as there were more people on the streets than he usually saw either in Scranton or Wilkesbarre, when the other man remarked that the Bellefonte girls were a decidedly pretty bunch, too.

--- On Sunday two young ladies, Miss Clark and Miss Hall, took a drive ant Gap in one of Frank Bartley's buggies. Out in the vicinity of the black barn they were run into by an automobile. The -Stephens B. Twining, of Yardley, Pa, and Wm. horse and girls escaped injury but the front of the buggy was wrecked. The driver of the machine never stopped to see if the occupants of the buggy were injured or to of-

-Jury commissioners J. Adam Hazel and Clement H. Gramley expect to begin their work of filling the jury wheel for the year 1910 next Monday. About 650 names are put in the wheel each year from which to draw the jurors to serve at the four regular terms of court and any special terms that may be held during the year. It takes several weeks to do the work.

-A Mother's meeting for the women of Beliefonte was held at the home of Mrs. Archibald Allison Thursday afternoon.

Reliefonte Produce Marbets

	noted are those paid for produ
piatoes per	bushel,	60
alous		75
ggs, per doze	n	30 13 10 10
ira, per poun	d	13
untry Should	lers	10
Sides
Hams.		13
llow, per pou	ind	4
itter, per poi	ind	32
	10. 2014
Rellet	onte Grain Market.

The following are the quotations up to o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper	goes to press: Red Wheat White Wheat	$1.12
Corn, shelled, per bushel	70
Oats old and new, per bushel	60 40
Barley, per bushel	9 50 60
Cloverseed, per bushel	88 of Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on evening. -Mixed new - Winter, Per Br' The Democratic Watchman

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance, $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county uniess paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertished by the quarter paid for a service of the paid of the paid is the parties of the paid of the

3m 6m 1y 7 10 16 10 16 25 12 20 35 20 35 56 35 65 10 e inch (12 lines this type