

Rellefonte, Pa. December 24, 1909.

P. GRAY MEEK. . . .

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.-Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates :

Paid strictly in advance. Paid before expiration of year...........1.50 Paid after expiration of year ..

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

-A short sweet story for you next issue, keep looking at the Fauble space.

--- The Pennsylvania telephone company linemen who are putting up the cavaliantly at their work and expect to have the job completed before long.

- The Presbyterian Sunday school will church on Monday evening, December 27th. A special and elaborate program of music all members are urged to be present.

--- The usual heavy holiday freight and express business, as well as passenger traffic, has resulted in most all the trains being behind time this week. This was especially the case with the morning train over the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, which brings all the eastern express matter to Rellefonte

-At Tyrone and other surrounding places there has been good sleighing the past week or ten days but Centre county is not so well favored. While we have constant cold weather all the snow that has good sleigh ride. But then there is still Arlington, N. J. hope for the fature.

on Sunday, December 26th.

-The Bellefonte force of mail carriers have had their share of the Christmas trafing Miss Annie Beates, of Pine Glenn, who survives the deceased.

has all the pipes laid for its own heating years, 4 mouths and 29 days old. He had plant and it will be only the matter of a lived in Bellefonte about three years most filled the position of registrar of births and few days until the boilers will be in place, of which time he worked for R. B. Taylor deaths in the district of which Milesburg connections made and the system installed. and it was only a short time before he took This, it is believed, will give them a very sick that he went to work for Mr. Lyon. much more satisfactory service for their buildings in this place than they had under the town system.

- On Saturday John Porter Lyon received a consignment of two 1910 model Chalmers-Detroit automobiles, the one for Charles Mensch and the other for his own use as a demonstrating car. The machines are a blue body with yellow running gears Curtis, Harvey, Theodore, Cora, Hannah and have a very up-to-date appearance. Cold as the weather was, on Saturday, Mr. Lyon spent some time showing off the cars to the many automobilists in town.

-- There is a new singer at the Scenic this week in the person of Jack Harris, of interment. Philadel phia, and his repertoire of new and catchy songs is quite large and naturally pleasing to his hearers. The Scenic, by Mary Owen died at her home on Howard the way, proved quite a popular place of street at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday night, attraction to the school teachers and a the direct cause of her death being dropsy. large percentage of them took advantage of She was born in Conewauga, New York, in the hour before the institute evening enter- April, 1839, her parents being Robert and tainments to visit it and see the interest- Betey Margaret Owen. She was given a ing pictures displayed. Manager T. Clay- good education and when a young woman ton Brown has been in charge this week began teaching school, an occupation she and this in itself was assurance of the best followed until 1876 when she moved to in order and entertainment that it was pos- Philipsburg. There she was a substitute sible to give. But then it's always that way at the Scenic, as everybody in Belle- fonte and with her sister Sarah kept house fonte knows.

----On Wednesday of last week policeman Harry Miller, of Tyrone, arrested John Spackman in that town on the charge of entering the house of James Eberts, near Martha, breaking open a writing desk and stealing therefrom sixty-five dollars in money. On Tuesday of the week previous Mr. Eberts' danghter, Mrs. O. C. Gates, of Galeton, died in a private hospital at Williamsport and was taken to the home of her brother, O. Eberts, at Martha, from where the funeral was held on Friday, December 10th. The father and family attended the funeral and during their abseroe Spackman was seen entering and leaving the Eberts house and when the family returned home they discovered the robbery and suspicion pointed to Spackman as the guilty party. A warrant was procured for his arrest and when he was taken into oustody in Tyrone the entire sum of money in the exact denominations missed from the Eberts home was found upon him. Spackman was taken to Port Matilda and given a hearing before justice just two days less than four months ago, or monia which resulted in his death.

it these days but at that they are sticking a store, a short time afterwards establish- who knew him. very successfully.

Mr. Hoover was twice married, in 1881 to Miss Laura Fisher, who died four years Plummer and Margaret, all at home. He a week. also leaves three sisters : Mrs. R. H. Colthe old cemetery.

fic in delivering presents, etc. For three street, died quite suddenly in the Belle- at home. days they have had an unusually beavy mai! fonte hospital at ten o'clock last Saturday The funeral was held from her late home and other mail matter, and they no doubt ery wagon and on Sunday, the 13th, com- made in the Union cemetery. are very glad that Christmas is only one plained of not feeling very well. Monday he was not able to go to work but he then -Prof. W. H. Sheeder, a widely did not think there was much wrong with of Milesburg, died quite suddenly on Monknown school teacher and institute leatur. him aside from a cold and it was not until day night. He was a sufferer with heart er, died at his home at Rook Hill on De. Wednesday morning that a physician was disease for several years and for several days cember 15th, aged seventy years. He had called. Then it was found that he had a prior to his death complained of not feeling much the same as the well known and albeen a teacher since 1861, and for a numbeen a teacher since 1861, and ber of years was located in Philipsburg. once taken to the Bellefonte hospital. He night he got out of bed and was walking hundred more pages and definitions of 400, ing the most property of the property of the most property of the property of the property of the most property of the p

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tressler and was born at State -The Pennsylvania railroad company College July 18th, 1887, thus being 22 He was a member of Company B and a young man of estimable habits and with many friends who regret his death.

> He is survived by his wife and two small brothers and sisters : Aaron, of Warriorsmark ; Mrs. Daniel Breon, of State College; Miss Belle, of Williamsport ; Moses, John, and Phoebe, all of Bellefonte.

> Funeral services were held at his late home on Logan street at 10 30 o'clock on Monday morning by Revs. T. S. Wilcox and C. C. Shuey and the same afternoon the remains were taken to Pine Hall for OWEN.-After a protracted illness Miss teacher until 1883 when she came to Bellefor her brother Albert, on the Orvis farm, southeast of town. Two years later Mr. Owen married and the two sisters moved into a home on Howard street where they lived ever since. For sixteen years she did nursing around town but for the past road when he saw a train coming. He seven years she was unable to follow her vocation on account of ill health.

She was a faithful member of the Meth odist church all her life and a woman of extremely kind and gentle disposition. Of badly torn, though he was fortunate enough the family of thirteen children her only survivor is her sister Sarah. The funeral will be held tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon from the Methodist church, burial to be made in the Union cemetery.

JACKSON. - Thomas Jackson, an oldtime resident of Philipsburg, died last resigned. During Mr. Hebner's residence Friday morning as the result of a cancerous growth upon his face. He was born bail was committed to jail for trial at the next term of Centre county court.

and daughters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, burial being made in the Reading terminal building, Philadelphia.

HOOVER. - Joseph Willis Hoover, a CUPP.-Joseph Levi Cupp died at his prominent and well known business man bome in Tyrone on Wednesday morning, of Altoona, died on Sunday morning after after a brief illness with pneumonia. He Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart last Leraysville, Towardo county, a student in Lodge of Masons elected officers for the a lingering illness of four years with had not been in good health for some time Saturday the National Guard of Pennsyl- the short course in agriculture at The ensuing year as follows: Most worshinful diabetes. A singular coincidence is that past and about three weeks ago he took a his brother, Arnold Plummer Hoover, died oold which afterwards developed into pneu- to conform with the provisions of the Dick suddenly about nocn on Saturday as the George Grimm; junior warden. John which the brothers contracted about the county, and was 71 years, 7 months and 9 gade is to be formed and the Fifth regiment hood and as a consequence his health was ler, John I. Olewine, Harry Keller, J. L. days old. His early life was spent on the disbanded as an organization there are a somewhat impaired. Notwithstanding this Spangler and Robert Cole; representative Deceased was a son of Joseph and Rebecca farm and when the Civil war broke out he number of officers in and around Bellefonte fact he manifested such a great desire to to grand lodge, Robert F. Hunter. Hoover and was born at Unionville, this enlisted as a private in company D, Third who are facing the proposition of being of take the short course in agriculture at the county, March 13th, 1858. When twenty- Pennsylvania volunteers. He was dis- ficers without an army after the reorganitwo years of age he went to Altoona and charged before the war was over on account zation is complete, and naturally they are went there about December first to take up engaged in the mercantile business but was of general disability. In 1888 he moved to not feeling any too good about it, inasmuch there only a few years when he went to Tyrone and was employed at the paper as some of them at least, have recently ever, an elder brother accompanied him to Brisbin and became manager of the Hoover mill in that town up until about three years spent quite a nice sum purchasing new take care of him. On Friday evening last -Hughes Lumber company. He had not ago when declining health compelled him uniforms which now may be of no use to be complained of not feeling very well and been there more than a year or two until to retire. He was a member of the First | them. their plant was destroyed by fire and Mr. United Brethren church, of Tyrone, and a While it has been known in National bles around town are having a cold time of Hoover returned to Unionville and opened man who had the highest respect of all Guard circles for some time that such a door when his brother heard him fall. He Merchandise company and the J. W. ten o'clock from the First United Brethren that the officers of the Fifth feel pretty college on Monday morning after which the Hoover company which they conducted church in Tyrone, interment to be made in sore over their turn down. the cemetery at Birmingham.

make who make the state of

She was a member of the Methodist church event of their not being given such ap-He was a member of the Masonic fra- and was a woman possessed of many noble pointment they will simply be army of-- Christmas services will be held in ternity and of the Modern Woodmen of traits of character. Her death is an un- ficers on the waiting list, with little chance in boxes, it is desirable that you and the St John's Reformed church as follows: America. He was a member of the Metho- usually sad one as she leaves three small for honors or display. Christmas day at 7.30 a. m., early service of dist church and the funeral services were children motherless, one of whom is a baby praise. Children's festal service at 7. p. m. held at his late residence at 7:30 o'clock only four months old: They are Rufus, Special Christmas music from Dudley Monday evening, Revs. S. B. Evans, Horace Robert and Edward. She also leaves her Bucks. The Coming of the King will be L. Jacobs and H. A. Straub officiating. On husband, her parents and the following sung at the morning and evening services Tuesday the remains were taken to Union- brothers and sisters: John, of Rock View, ville and laid to rest in the Hoover lot in Mrs. William Lohr, of Iowa; Rev. Frank Kuhn, of Eastpoint, Tioga county; William, of Pittsburg; George, State College; TRESSLER.-Harry A. Tressler, of Logan Dale, of Akron, Ohio; Clement and Bessie, to deliver, looking like veritable Santa morning. The week previous he had at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Klauses with their big sacks of packages worked for W. A. Lyon, driving his deliv- Rev. T. S. Wilcox officiated and burial was > RAGER.-Alfred G. Rager, an old soldier and died in a few minutes. He was about sixty-nine years old and a carpenter by occupation, though for a number of years be carried the mail to and from the Milesbury postoffice to the railroad. He also

He is survived by his wife and four children, namely: Lucien W., Mrs. George Letterman, and James, of Milesburg and Boggs township, and Mrs. William Cox. of Spring township. The funeral was children, also his mother and the following held yesterday morning, burial being made in the Advent cemetery.

> LANNEN. -John M. Lannen died quite suddenly at his home up Buffalo Run on Monday of gallstones, with which he had been a sufferer at various times. He was sixty-five years old and was an employee of the American Lime & Stone company. Surviving him are his wife and five children. The funeral was held yesterday morning, burial being made in the Meyers SEBRING .- James Sebring, the noted paseball player, died in the Williamsport hospital on Wednesday after a brief illness with Bright's disease. He was born at Loganton and was well known in Bellefonte. His baseball career of seven years was an unusually sensational one.

--- Joseph Shaughensey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughensey, of this place, who is now a member of the state constab ulary located in the vicinity of Shamokin, had a narrow escape from death on Monday. There was a hurry call for the troops to quell afdisturbance among some foreign miners and Joe was running on the railstepped office one track and was in the act of stepping on the other when a train came up in the rear. He dropped down between the tracks but his clothing was caught and to escape without injury.

-Charles Hebner, who was a teacher at the Bellefonte Academy in 1880, has just been appointed general solicitor of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad to succeed former general solicitor Campbell. in Bellefonte he made many friends and is well remembered by many of them. Some in Bellefonte and was 68 years, 10 months time after leaving Bellefonte he accepted a and 29 days old. He was a son of Abram position with the Reading railroad comand Anna Armor Jackson. He served as a pany and worked himself up until he was soldier during the Civil war and was an appointed assistant general solicitor, a posiupright, honest citizen. Surviving him are his wife and a family of grown up sons when Mr. Campbell resigned he naturally

NATIONAL GUARD REORGANIZATION. -In accordance with an order issued by on August 21st, with the same disease, Deceased was born at Centre Line, this And considering the fact that a fourth bri- had been subject to such fits from child-reorganization would take place it was the was unconscious when he got to him and ing a branch store at Scotia. This latter In 1862 he was united in marriage to general belief that the Fourteenth regi- remained in that condition until be died at store was also destroyed by fire when he Miss Elizabeth Mingle, of Tyrone, who ment, of Pittsburg, would be the one dis- noon, the direct cause of his death being sold out his Unionville store and went survives with the following children : Mrs. banded but the politicians of that city bemorrhage of the brain. Following so west locating in St. Paul, Minn., where he Peter Worker, of Hollidaysburg; William, rallied to the support of its officers and close upon the death of young Held Mr. hold their Christmas entertainment in the secured a position in the general offices of Mrs. Ralph Dean, Miss Clara and George, going down to Harrisburg. it is alleged, Green's death might appear like a fatality the Northern Pacific railroad. Sixteen of Tyrone. He also leaves these brothers with a petition signed by five thousand hanging over the college were it not for the years ago his health began to fail him and and sister : Henry, Perry, Samuel and people, they kept the regiment intact as a fact that his family and friends had for and other exercises has been arranged and be with his brother, who had also been lo- David, of Centre Line; Frank, of Port provisional organization and the old loyal some time anticipated such an ending becated in St. Paul, came east and located in Matilda, and Mrs. Susan Meyers, of Juniata. Fifth was the one to suffer. Under such cause of the young man's affliction. Altoons where they formed the Hoover The funeral will be held this morning at circumstances it is not to be wondered at

In the reorganization of the guard the for interment. present companies of the Fifth regiment RAYMOND .- At 12:40 o'clock on Sunday will be assigned to other regiments and > amplifying them by the latest modern amount out of their own funds. knowledge; and backed by an expenditure 000 words as against 170,000 contained in synonym, name, article, etc., that has ever fined and where illustrations can better present the matter, these are used without of information furnished that the man with a Webster or any other dictionary on his desk now will consider them as nothing compared to the "New International."

issue, keep looking at the Fauble space.

LICENSE COURT.-The regular license court for the ensuing year was held last Saturday and the various applications heard by Judge Orvis. Only one remonstrance was filed and that was against the application of James W. Runkle, landlord of the hotel at Centre Hall. After the applications had all been presented Judge Orvis adjourned court until Saturday, January 8th, at which time the parties for and against the Centre Hall license must present their testimony. Inasmuch as one of the justices of the peace of Centre Hall borough signed Mr. Runkle's application for a license and the other justice signed the remonstrance the court named justice of the peace M. F. Rockey, of Potter township, as the magistrate before whom the testimony is to be taken, the place the council chamber in Centre Hall, and the time on any day between this and January

-A short sweet story for you next issue, keep looking at the Fauble space.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL .- The holiday orations and exercises at the Bellefonte High school last Friday afternoon were well as patrons of the school. The program | burg. was a long one and all those participating the same fun-loving spirit which characteris many more years of life together. ized the giving of them and school suded for the holiday vacation with a very fraternal feeling of good-fellowship among the student body.

---The Bellefonte High school basket ball team will play the Selinsgrove High school team in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium next Thursday evening, December 30th, game to be called at eight o'clock sharp.

college that his family consented and he his work. Realizing his condition, how-Saturday morning be went to the bath ing the ceremony. room and had hardly gotten inside the Brief funeral services were held at the remains were taken bome to Leraysville

TO PATRONS OF RURAL MAIL ROUTES. -From a recent count made by rural carlater leaving two children, Lewis Chester night Mrs. Harry Raymond died at her Company B, of this place, will be placed riers in one of the counties in the State of and Joseph Ezra. His second wife was home north of town. She had been a in the Twelfth regiment and he known as New York of coins deposited by patrons in Miss Lida Peters who survives with four sufferer with tuberculosis for some months Company L. Of course when it comes to their boxes for the purchase of stamp supchildren, namely : Eleanor, Evelyn, Arnold but had only been critically ill for about an assignment of officers for the new brigade the present officers of the Fifth regi-She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. ment, or at least some of them, may be one-cent coins each week. This average born, of Riddlesburg; Mrs. Lucy Davidson, G. Kuhn,of Boalsburg and was born at given positions therein, inasmuch as they applied to all the routes in operation who resides on the old homestead near that place on November 16th, 1879, thus cannot be discharged from the service until throughout the country would give the fallen here this winter would not make one Unionville, and Mrs. H. G. Stover, of North being 30 years, 1 month and 3 days old. their term of enlistment expires. In the enormous total of about 300,000,000 one-

As most of these coins are deposited loose rural carriers, in a tactful and polite way, A NEW "WEBSTER."-Webster's Inter- put forth your best efforts to induce patrons national Dictionary has long been recog- to provide themselves with stamp supplies nized as easily the first of its class alike for in advance of their needs, and to equip the scholar and the unlettered man. With their boxes with suitable coin holding its predecessors, issued by the same pub. receptacles. It should be explained to city. lishers, it has made "Webster" a popular patrons that the picking of loose coins from synonym of "dictionary." To surpass or boxes not only results in needless hardship car loads of sheep from this valley to New apersede such a book might seem well. and suffering to carriers in winter weather, nigh impossible. Yet this has been ef. delays the delivery and collection of the fectually accomplished by the skillful and mails, but frequently results in actual assiduous toil of a company of trained money loss to the carriers, for if, in colscholars, working together for many years; lecting coins from boxes, they drop them re-enforced by a wide circle of eminent ex- into the snow or on the ground without perts; following the Webster traditions and recovery, they are required to replace the KNIGHTS OF MALTA.-A new lodge of commensurate with the purpose to "Get the Knights of Malta has been organized The Best' in every particular. In general at Boalsburg and will be instituted and appearance the "New Webster" is very the officers installed on Friday, January home on Thursday. citizens of that town and locality. They the one just revised. Every new word, expect, however, to increase this number organization, discovery, phrase, thought, to forty or fifty by the date of the institution and any who contemplate joining been used, heard or thought of is fully de- should take advantage of the opportunity to get in as charter members. The only other lodge of the Knights of Malta in stint. In fact it is so enlarged in the amount Centre county is located in Philipsburg. The newly-elected officers of the Boalsburg lodge who will be installed on Jannary 7th are as follows:

Sir Knight commander, R. B. Harrison -A short sweet story for you next generalissimo, David Snyder; captain general, Dr. L. E. Kidder ; prelate, C. U. Weiland ; recorder, P. S. Ishler ; assistant recorder, Harry Ishler; treasurer. H. C. Rothrock; senior warden, Grant E. Charles.

--- The Centre Baptist association, to which jurisdiction all Baptist churches in Centre county belong, expects during the coming year to join the movement for the establishment of a Baptist orphanage and home for the aged in western Pennsylvania which is now assured. An option on a property in West Newton has been taken up. It consists of a brick house of eighteen rooms surrounded by four acres of ground and is within five minutes walk of two railroads and almost as close to the Baptist church. Early in the new year work will be begun on making the necessary alterations on the building and it is expected to have it in shape for the reception of inmates in about two months.

---Court reporter Gilbert S. Burrows, 8th that will be convenient to all parties of Sunbury, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday taking testimony in the hearing of the ejectment case of Prugger vs. Markovitch. The case is over several tracts of land in Taylor township and involves a loan of several thousand dollars. The local attorneys in the case are W. Harrison Walker for the plaintiff and Blanchard & Blanchard quite interesting and were listened to by for the defendant, while both sides were quite a number of the student's parents as also represented by attorneys from Pitts- rel stepper.

-On Friday of next week, or on De. acquitted themselves in a very creditable cember 31st, Mr. and Mrs. George Washnanner. Following the exercises the stulington Rumberger will celebrate their dents indulged in a little bit of comedy in golden wedding at their comfortable home the matter of the distribution of Christmas in Unionville. It will be the occasion of gifts. To each boy was given a stick of a general home gathering of all their chilcandy while the gifts to the girls were quite dren and as many of their grandchildren varied, including everything feminine from as can possibly get there. Mr. and Mrs. a doll baby and box of taloum powder to a Rumberger are among the best known and ed for a well deserved rest. paper of hair pins. And the best part of it esteemed residents of Centre county and all was that the gifts were all accepted in the least their many friends can wish them Altoona today to eat their Christmas turkey

> --- About seventy-five people attended the supper at the Y. M. C. A. last Friday family over New Year. evening and afterward listened to a very entertaining talk by John A. Eby, the Woodward evangelist. Mr. Eby also spoke by a postal card shower, it being his sevenin the Methodist church on Sunday morning and in the opera house in the afternoon, and in the evening Mrs. Eby talked to ladies only in the Presbyterian church.

ANOTHER STATE COLLEGE STUDENT MASONS ELECT OFFICERS. -At a regular DIED SUDDENLY. - James Albert Green, of meeting on Monday evening the Bellefonte vania is to be reorganized on January first Pennsylvania State College, died quite master, Ellis L. Orvis; senior warden, bill passed at the last session of Congress. result of an epileptic fit. The young man Knisely; treasurer, A. C. Mingle; secretary, W. H. Crissman: trustees, Hammon Sech-

GARNER-CORMAN.-William M. Garner, of Buffalo Run, one of Centre county's popular school teachers, left institute on Wednesday afternoon and going to Oak Hall was married that evening to Miss Edith Corman, Rev. A. A. Black perform-

-- Mr. John P. Harris on Monday received a telegram which announced the fact that he was a great grandfather, a little son having been born that day to his grand-daughter, Mrs. George Gerard Child. of Waverly, Mass. The young beir has been named Harris Petriken Child, after its illustrious ancestors.

-A short sweet story for you next issue, keep looking at the Fauble space.

--- Speaking of Christmas turkey permit us to observe that the University of Copenhagen has "cooked" a rather tough

-Do you know we have the old style sugar syrups, pure goods at 40 cents and 60 cents per gallon, Sechler & Co.

Pine Grove Mention

To all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Old Santa Claus left a nice girl baby at Walter Albright's home. Miss Maggie Peters is visiting the Charley Goss family at Harrisburg. Jacob Weber is off duty and under the doctor's care, with kidney trouble. John Weaver, of Altoons, greeted the friends of his youth hereabouts, last week. Mrs. Joel Ferree has been confined to bed the past two weeks with bronchial trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Fry are making a holy iday tour among friends in the Mountain

Last week D. R. Gregory shipped several

Mr. George Rothmel, of Sunbury, a noted musician, is visiting friends at Lemont this week.

Samuel M. Hess, a student at Bellefonte Academy, is making muscle and sawlogs for recreation Harry McCracken is the champion hog grower. His tipped the beam at the 54 pound notch. Mr. and Mrs. Runyan, of Williamsport, were royally entertained at the E. C. Ros Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Gramling, of Indi-

After a three week's visit among friends in the Mountain city, Miss Verda Lytle returned home last Friday. Alfred Burrell, who has been ill with pneumonia, is convalescing slowly. A. J.

Tate is also on the mend. Samuel Frank has rented the Oliver farm for next season. John E. Everhart will have sale March 16th, 1910

George Inhoff, Hon. J. W. Kepler's right bower on the farm, is laid up for repairs on account of three broken ribs.

J. B. Goheen's new home is near comple tion. Howard Barr is the carpenter and Hook and Hoover the plasterers.

After a three week's visit among friends at Pine Hall, Miss Clair Borest returned to her home at Spruce Creek Tuesday. With our school marms at the teacher's institute, the young Americans are loose and having a rollicking good time. Farmer F. W. Fishburn had a tumble on the ice last Friday that put him on the retired list with a badly injured shoulder. Merchant A. G. Archev and wife are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a young daughter, and Russell Pierce a son.

Sheriff W. E. Hurley was here last week on official business. We are always pleased to meet him but do abhor his official calls. Waldo Homan, one of the hustling young farmers at Oak Hall, greeted his chums town Saturday evening before making his journey to the Glades Dr. H. C. Campbell, of the University of Pennsylvania, is spending the Holidays at home and will take part in the exercises of Farmers Week at State College. J. W. Ingram went to Erie to spend the Holidays with his nephew, who is home from South America for a rest. Mrs. Ingram is also visiting her old home at Williamsburg. The well known McWilliams mansion is being reroofed with galvanized roofing John Reynolds has the job. By the way, John is handling the ribbons over a fine sor Mrs. Sarah Hubler, of Pine Hall, fell on the ice yesterday morning dislocating her hip and slightly fracturing the bone. Owing to her advanced age the injury is a very serious one.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bloom, of Lock Haven, are visiting at the J. I. Reed home, on Main street. Mr. Bloom has been engaged. in the dairy and farming business until recently when they sold their farm and retire

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Goss will go to with their son, Samuel Goss and family and after remaining there a few days will return to Tyrone and be with their son William and

On the nineteenth of December the many friends of Edom Homan remembered him tieth birthday. The same day the Pennsyl-